REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your Board has had before it representatives and reports from the following institutions: Duke University, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges. These reports were given careful consideration by your Board.

It is gratifying to note that our major colleges, Duke and Greensboro, are steadily moving forward in carrying out their programs of expansion and intensive development.

Our Junior colleges, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford, are making signal progress in spite of their limited resources and lack of adequate equipment. But they seem all the more determined to succeed in spite of their handicaps. Special mention is due Rutherford College for success in getting back on foot, after having sustained so great loss by disastrous fires early in the year.

The general outlook for all our educational institutions is most promising. We feel that the educational interests of our Church are in the safe keeping of capable and consecrated guardians of our educational and spiritual ideals.

Your attention is called to the importance of the payment of all Christian Education pledges. The report of our Treasurer shows that more than thirty-six thousand dollars have been paid during the year. Let this matter be stressed at all times, especially on Christian Education Day, in the local Church.

We heartily endorse the plan of the General Board for an Educational Survey in our Conference.

RESOLUTIONS

That in order that our Junior colleges may become self-supporting, charges for board, room rent, and tuition should be gradually increased until the income from these sources shall be sufficient to meet current expenses.

That the request of Greensboro, Davenport and Rutherford Colleges to continue their campaign for an increased endowment be granted.

That the Conference Secretary of Christian Education, in co-operation with the Secretary of the General Board, together with representatives of schools involved, work out a plan for final disposition of unpaid Christian Education pledges in a manner satisfactory to all parties concerned.

RECOMMENDATIONS

That C. M. Pickens be elected a member of Board of Managers of North Carolina Pastors' School to succeed himself.

That Dr. G. T. Rowe be selected as the representative of this Conference Board of Education to attend the Methodist Education Association which will meet in February, 1929.

That the following persons be elected and confirmed as Trustees for the various church schools as follows:

Greensboro College: Dred Peacock to succeed himself.

Weaver College: H. A. Dunham, Ashley Chappell and W. B. Barnard.

Rutherford College: H. H. Jordan, C. A. Spencer, W. R. Ware, D. W. Alexander and G. F. Ivey to succeed themselves. H. R. Dwire to succeed J. Frank Morris, deceased.

Davenport College: H. G. Hardin.

We recommend the following appointments:

W. L. Sherrill, Conference Secretary of Christian Education.

J. M. Downum, Professor in Appalachian State Normal School.

Dr. S. B. Turrentine, President of Greensboro College.

W. M. Curtis, Business Manager of Greensboro College.

E. P. Billups, President of Rutherford College.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

After careful consideration of the Missionary information and interests of our Conference, we rejoice at the manifest spirit of Christian service as evidenced by the contribution of our members to carry forward the work of the Great Commission. Reports from the one hundred twenty charges in our Conference receiving Missionary aid is of such character as to give encouragement to every contributor.

We rejoice to hear the good report of Woman's work of our Conference. This work has developed with great rapidity. They now have 457 organizations with 15,265 members. During the past year our women made the greatest financial increase in Southern Methodism, bringing them up from fifth to third place among the Conferences.

This year has been designated Jubilee Year in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of the organized work among our women, and a special effort is being made to enlist the unlisted women throughout the bounds of our Conference and we earnestly ask the help of the pastors in this most important work. Furthermore, we recommend that the entire membership of our Churches be called to the cultivation of an enlarged spirit and a confirmed habit of prayer.

We feel that an appreciative understanding of the missionary needs of humanity and a living faith in the power of the Gospel to meet these needs can be greatly increased by a hearty participation in the Enlarged Plan of Missionary Education which is being promoted by the General Board. We earnestly recommend that in each charge effort be made to co-operate with the General Board and with the Conference Board in giving to our people an understanding of the plans, the policies, and the administrative difficulties of this work, as well as of the urgent needs of the whole missionary enterprise. We especially call attention to the value of the Missionary Voice, which is now conceded to be one of the outstanding Missionary periodicals of America. This magazine should be in every Methodist home.

We heartily approve the plans of the General Board to hold an International Missionary Conference at Memphis, Tennessee, in January, and pledge our support to it. C. H. Ireland has been selected Conference Director for the Missionary Conference at Memphis. We urge hearty co-operation with him in this important position of leadership.

A study of the financial report of the Missionary interests of our Conference, and, in fact, of all the benevolent work of our Church, reveals the fact that the every-member canvass has proved to be the best plan for raising these obligations. We take comfort and pride that our Conference has maintained its place in the forefront in the every-member canvass and in contributions. We urge that the every-member canvass be used in all our charges.

We note with unusual interest that the new Southern Biblical Institute has been located at Lake Junaluska, within the bounds of our own Conference, thus adding to that church-wide center of Methodism.

(Signed) E. K. McLARTY, Chairman,
J. D. RANKIN, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

The Conference Board of Missions is in hearty accord with the General Board in promoting the International Missionary Conference, similar in character to the Missionary Conference in New Orleans in 1901 and to the Pre-Centenary Conference. C. H. Ireland is selected as Director for this Conference and we request that full and enthusiastic co-operation be accorded him.

The following groups, by virtue of their respective positions, are members of the International Missionary Conference: The Presiding Elders, the members of the Conference Board of Missions, the Conference officers of the Woman's Missionary Society, the Conference Lay Leaders, and in addition to these, 150 appointive delegates.

Rev. R. M. Courtney has been selected Conference Missionary Secretary to succeed himself in the work which he has carried on from year to year with commendable efficiency.

In view of the increasing industrialization of our Conference territory and the new problems which necessarily arise thereby, your Board wishes to go on record as having a sympathetic interest in every phase of the social, economic and moral problems connected with this work. And in order that we may be able to act with knowledge and efficiency in this field, the following have been selected as a committee to study the industrial situation and make report with a view to arriving at a sane, helpful and Christian plan of work: R. M. Courtney, J. F. Shinn, W. A. Newell.

The Missionary Cultivation work in our Conference appears to be meeting a need for increasing the Missionary information of our membership that has not been so well met in any other way. We earnestly request that this work be stressed in larger measure than ever before.

We desire to recall attention to the policy of the Board with reference to the payment of Missionary appropriations, which is that no payments are made after the payment for the first quarter until an every-member canvass has been carefully carried out and reported.

The following appropriations to the various charges are recommended:

REPORT OF BOARD OF FINANCE

No cause more worthy than Superannuate Endowment has ever challenged the noblest efforts of our Church. It is an appealing call of distress for aid in behalf of the Church's veteran preachers and the widows and orphans of preachers.

This work has been vigorously carried on during the year with results that are encouraging. The clean-up campaign has yet two years to run.

Therefore we ask that this Annual Conference recommit itself to this work. Let us pay every penny we have promised.

We request that every Presiding Elder of our Conference provide in his District Conference program an opportunity for our Conference Director of Superannuate Endowment, or his representative, to address the District Conference on the subject of the Clean-up Campaign for Superannuate Endowment.

To this end we request every pastor to join heartily in the plan projected by our General Board of Finance.

We, as members of our Conference Board of Finance, commit ourselves to this work and beseech all the members of our Conference to join us in a united and determined effort to do our part well.

Your Board also urges that all the assessments in our Conference for the superannuate fund be collected. We are forced this year to distribute less to each claimant than last year because you have given us a smaller fund and at the same time a larger need.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Applications totaling about $20,000 have been submitted to your Conference Board of Church Extension and received sympathetic consideration.

The Board deems it expedient to bring to the attention of the Presiding Elders, Pastors and Laymen certain important facts which should be borne in mind in connection with applications for aid made to this Board as follows:

1. All applications should be fully completed.
2. In order that the Executive Committee may have the opportunity of reviewing each application to be submitted to the Board, applicants for aid are requested to forward their applications to the Secretary of the Board at least two weeks before Conference convenes.

3. Under the requirements of the Discipline no application should be filed asking aid for new projects until three-fourths of the total cost has been secured.

4. The Board recommends that plans for new Church or Sunday School buildings be approved by the Architectural Department of the General Board of Church Extension, Louisville, Ky., and that all Churches and parsonages be adequately insured.

5. It should be borne in mind that funds coming into the hands of this Board for distribution are very limited and it is a matter of impossibility to grant any one project a very large donation.

The following donations have been granted:

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

During the Conference year just closing, funds amounting to a little more than twenty thousand dollars, as shown by our financial report, have been placed in our hands from members of Centenary Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, N. C. The income of this Centenary-Rutherford fund is to be paid to the Treasurer of Rutherford College each year as long as this school is operated as a school of our Church.

Our Treasurer's books, with all securities held by him and receipts and disbursements for the past year, have been audited by Mr. D. H. Everett of D. H. Everett & Company, Certified Public Accountants, Greensboro, N. C., whose report is presented herewith.

In view of the gratifying increase in the total amount of moneys which have been placed in our hands, instructions have been given for an increase in our Treasurer's bond to $20,000.

We nominate and recommend the election of Rev. C. C. Weaver as a member of our Board of Conference Trustees to succeed Rev. D. Atkins, deceased.

The following officers of our Board have been elected for the ensuing year: Rev. W. R. Ware, Chairman; J. B. Ivey, Vice-Chairman; I. F. Craven, Secretary and Treasurer.

I. F. CRAVEN, Secretary.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Among the Disciplinary duties with which your Sunday School Board is charged the following are noted:

"1. To have general oversight of the Sunday School work of the Conference, including allied week-day religious instruction.

"2. To promote the organization and development of new Sunday Schools and to assist needy schools in securing proper literature and supplies.

"3. To promote evangelism through instruction, better organization and equipment, instruction and training in the principles and practice of Christian stewardship; and more effective training in worship and in missionary, social service, and other forms of religious activity.

"4. To promote the training of Sunday School teachers and officers and other Christian workers.

"5. To promote the observance of Sunday School Day, Promotion Day, and Decision Day.

"6. To promote the use of our own literature and such additional literature as may be approved as it deems necessary for the advancement of its work.

"7. To publish and distribute such promotion literature as it deems necessary for the advancement of its work.

"8. To co-operate with the General Sunday School Board in carrying out its plans and policies, including the promotion of standards, of Conference, district, sub-district, city, and circuit Sunday School organizations, of training schools, of Wesley Class Federations, and of Conference-wide Sunday School Conferences."

Your Board is pleased to report that proper emphasis has been given each of the foregoing lines of endeavor. Our employed workers have served our pastors in their efforts to cultivate an evangelistical attitude. We rejoice in the success attending these efforts. Records show that a greater number of our Sunday School pupils are joining the Church than in any Conference in Southern Methodism.

Increasing numbers of our Sunday School officers and teachers are attending training schools in order to learn how to better lead their pupils. Records show that during the past year over 5,000 certificates of credit have been earned. We are glad to note that this phase of our work shows continued and steady growth.

Much emphasis has been given our Sunday Schools to secure our own literature and to secure that of our own which is best adapted to given age groups. Gratifying results have obtained.

Continued and increased effort has been given to the placing and checking of Programs of Work. Three hundred and twenty-eight of our Sunday Schools are now using these Programs as guides for their endeavor and are each year being scored on progress made. Advancement in this important phase of our work has been very evident.

Our extension department has been very active during the past year. Much work has been done in hitherto neglected areas. Rural and industrial sections are now being offered as good religious educational promotional services as are other sections served by your Board.

For a number of years our elementary department has been very outstanding in the work done in the interest of the religious needs of our children. It is quite a satisfaction to report that this work continues to grow in usefulness. Special emphasis has been given during the year to Childhood and Youth Week observances, in which our Conference assumes a place of leadership, and to the promotion of daily vacation church schools.

Less than two years ago your Board established a Wesley Bible Class Department. The wisdom of this action grows more and more manifest. Records show that we now have more identified and up-to-date co-operative Wesley Classes than listed in any other Conference.

A greater number of our Sunday Schools are observing Sunday School Day, thus better presenting the good work they do to their own communities, and also greatly assisting your Board in financing its constantly enlarging work.

Missionary emphasis through fourth Sunday cultivation programs grows in scope and content. Offerings from this source show some increase. We urge our pastors and Sunday School leaders to give more thought to this important and fruitful work.

We have had in the field during the past year four whole-time workers, each of whom has given faithful and efficient service, these being O. V. Woosley, Conference Superintendent of Sunday School Work; Paul F. Evans, Extension Secretary; Miss Corinne Little, Elementary Superintendent; and L. F. Tuttle, Superintendent of Wesley Bible Class Work. These tried and true workers have been re-elected for the ensuing year.

We wish to recommend that O. V. Woosley be elected as a member of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School.

(Signed) D. E. HENDERSON, Chairman,
GEO. L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

The General Secretary of Epworth Leagues in his report to the annual Conference declares: "Many thoughtful pastors find in the Epworth League the best, if not the only, agency for preserving those aspects of Christian experience which are distinctive in Methodism." This is borne out by the fact that there has been a gain of nearly 500 new chapters this year with a membership gain of 4,700. We now have a total membership of about 279,000. While the gain does not seem specially gratifying, yet it is significant that the Epworth League has grown faster, proportionately, than the Church herself. Our gifts for missions and other benevolences aggregated about $447,000 per annum.

Within the borders of our Conference there are seven active district unions, thirty-four new Senior Chapters and five new Hi-Leagues have been organized. Twelve institutes have been held during the year. These have issued 457 units of credit on the Christian Culture Diploma. In addition, the Conference Assembly at Junaluska issued 436 credits.

The Epworth Era is a publication unique in its field and has at present a circulation of 42,500 copies monthly. We urge our entire Conference to join the Board of Lay Activities in undertaking to rally Methodism in a Christian Stewardship Campaign during the incoming year. Let us not forget to observe the Christian Stewardship Covenant.

We would call your attention to the great "Conference on Religion and Education" which is being planned for Junaluska in July of next year. This meeting will be held under the auspices of the Epworth League Board, the Sunday School Board and the Board of Education, and is intended to attract not less than four thousand delegates from all over Southern Methodism.

Other features of the year's work will be Corporate Communion, observed by all the League Chapters, North and South, on December 2nd. The Young People's Revival to be held in November. Participation in the special period of Missionary Cultivation in January and February. A determined and systematic effort to raise the Epworth League Missionary Special in fall. Extension of the Book-a-Month Club throughout the League and enlargement of the Recreation Leaders Association; increase in the circulation of the Epworth Era and Juniors.

Your Board would again emphasize as strongly as possible the importance of a more systematic effort to raise the finances for our Epworth League work.

In many instances this is not receiving the careful consideration which it deserves.

We heartily approve the work of Rev. G. G. Adams as Field Secretary and recommend that he be reappointed to this position.

We rejoice at the close co-operation between the Epworth League Board and the Conference Assembly.

With many encouragements on every hand, we would earnestly suggest that all our pastors and Church leaders give their attention to directing the feet of our young people in the way of righteousness and Christian Service.

Your Board respectfully urges every pastor to see that the Epworth League Anniversary Day, fourth Sunday in March, or as near thereto as practicable, be observed in all our congregations, and that an offering be taken on that day and forwarded to Mr. Joe D. Thompson, Treasurer, Mooresville, N. C.

Your Board feels keenly the fact that the Committee entirely lost sight of the Epworth League Board in making out the program for the present session of the Conference, and we hereby express the hope that such omission will not occur in the future.

(Signed) T. A. GROCE, Chairman,
J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Books and periodicals of merit are being sent out from our Publishing House to inform the minds, move the hearts, and enrich the experiences of our people. It is very fortunate that it is so, for there was never a time when such an avalanche of silly and vicious reading matter threatened to overrun us. The problem we face is to get our people to read our books and papers. Loyalty to our history, doctrines and program cannot be secured except from an informed constituency. The steadily increasing volume of business done by our Publishing House is evidence that a taste for good reading matter is increasing among us.

Your Board requests that the Conference this year give special attention to the claims of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, issued from our own publishing plant in Greensboro, N. C. This, our Conference organ, is owned and controlled by the two Conferences of North Carolina and merits the united and enthusiastic support of all Methodists of the State.

An immediate and urgent need at the present time is an enlarged circulation of the Advocate. We, therefore, recommend that the Conference take steps without delay, to bring the circulation to at least 16,000. This will require 2,500 new subscribers, which is an average of only one new subscriber to every 100 members of the Church—a goal that, with a united effort of pastors and Churches, is within easy reach.

The following plan commends itself to us: Let Advocate Day be observed in every Church and, on the day set apart for the work, let a special effort be made to secure the desired number of new subscribers, which is a minimum of one for each 100 members of the Church. For example, if there be 100 members, one new subscriber. If 300 members, three new names; if 1,000 members, ten new subscribers. This number is so small that an effort put forth to that end will surely bring the desired results.

In order that there be no undue delay, we suggest that Advocate Day be observed between now and December 15th, but if anything should prevent the observance thereof before December 15th, let it follow as soon thereafter as possible.

We cordially and earnestly recommend the "Selective Book Service" as constituted by choice of the ministers of our Church at large and would urge all and especially our younger brethren to read these selected volumes.

Your Board brings to the attention of the Conference that we have a printing plant in Greensboro worth $176,000 and equipped to do all sorts of printing, books, college catalogs, letterheads and anything that comes from a printshop. And the rates are as low as any other shop that does first-class work. The Advocate Shop deserves the patronage of the Conference. We, therefore, urge that our Boards and institutions and people generally turn what work they can to the job department of our own printing plant for thereby we will be enabled to produce a better Advocate for the service of the Church.

We further recommend that the Conference elect D. B. Coltrane to succeed himself on the Methodist Board of Publication and that Bishop Mouzon appoint A. W. Plyler, Editor and Assistant Business Manager of the Advocate.

L. D. THOMPSON, Chairman,
OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE—REPORT NO. 1 CONCERNING TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION

Throughout its entire history our Church has fought, labored and prayed for temperance, and when the movement began for control of the liquor traffic, first by State legislation and later by Federal enactment, the Church again fought, resolved and prayed that this movement might be embodied in the laws of the land.

This year sees the close of a decade of National Prohibition by Constitutional Amendment with supporting laws. Where has it brought us? In comparing the conditions that existed in our States twenty years ago, and in the Nation ten years ago, with conditions today in the matter of temperance, every observant and thinking person must conclude that our prohibition laws have been increasingly efficient.

Where has the Church stood? We present herewith a review of its actions on this question throughout the years:

1918 Resolution. 1st: "That this Conference memorialize the approaching session of the General Assembly to ratify the national prohibition amendment."

1919. "We hail with delight this code (The Volstead Act) which gives assurance that this nation is determined to stop the illicit making and dealing in intoxicating liquors." And "The liquor traffic is an anarchist and will obey no law unless forced to. Therefore, faithful and efficient law enforcement officers are needed. Our people should see that no other sort are elected."

1920. "We rejoice in the great prohibition victory by which legalized beverage intoxicants have been banished from our country. But we cannot ignore the danger to prohibition threatened in the possible repeal or amendment of the Volstead Act, to which Act we would pledge our loyal support."

1921. "The practical annulment or any serious weakening of the Volstead Act now adroitly sought by the liquor forces would prove an unspeakable calamity." And, "Therefore we would recommend that all our people use every practicable means available to secure the enforcement of the prohibition law: By electing congressmen who favor adequate enforcement of the 18th Amendment under the unmodified Volstead Act." And, 2nd: "By displacing unfaithful local and State officers with such as would merit and command the co-operation of all loyal citizens."

1922. "We recommend that this body go on record as favoring legislation that will harmonize our State laws with the Volstead Act and legislation that will give power, authority and funds to the attorney-general to enforce our prohibition laws."

1923. "Our place in the matter of law enforcement is to get behind the law as a people, and the better way to do this is to organize the religious and moral forces in every county for law enforcement."

1924. The Conference endorsed the Turlington Act, providing for the removal of officers who are lax in the enforcement of the prohibition laws.

1925. "Believing that the real fight is still ahead for enforcement of the Prohibition Law, we urge the continuance of our efforts to uphold and encourage the public officials whose duty it is to discover, arrest and conduct the trial of violators of the law. We know that powerful forces are working in subtle ways to discredit the results of prohibition and to create sentiment for the repeal of the Volstead Act. We can help by serving on juries when called, by giving verdicts in accordance with the evidence and by commending the local newspapers that uphold law enforcement."

1926. "The insidious propaganda that is being carried on in the press for discrediting prohibition calls for vigorous rebuttal on the part of Christian citizens. The next few years will be crucial for the maintenance of the Volstead Law. We pledge our hearty co-operation to the Anti-Saloon League of America, as the Church in action, for temperance and law enforcement."

1927. "We recommend that this great Conference go on record as opposed to the nomination to public office of any candidate in state or nation who is not an outstanding advocate of the 18th Amendment and a supporter of the dry laws." "We beg our preachers, Sunday School teachers and all Christian workers to so influence, as they have opportunity, the Superior Court and Municipal Court judges and mayors of small towns that they shall impose maximum punishment for all violations."

Where does our Church stand today on this question? Shall we retreat, or keep silence? God forbid! Every great moral advance made by a nation has both its political and its moral aspects. No nation, no Church, can long exist unless the ministry and membership of the Churches shall have both the right and the duty to speak upon the moral issues of every proposal that has to do with the destiny of our people.

We, therefore, declare our unalterable opposition to any amendment of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States; to the repeal or modification of the Volstead Law; or to the repeal of the Acts of our General Assembly for the control of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. We have the law and the law suits us.

We urge the support of those candidates, and only those, who favor a vigorous, fearless and honest enforcement of these laws as now written on our statute books. We believe that they are ample in scope and penalties; that they are enforceable and are enforced wherever the officers whose duty it is to see that they are enforced, are faithful to their trust and receive full support of public sentiment and we do not propose to be moved from the position of this, our holy Methodism.

W. B. SHINN, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE—REPORT NO. 2

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

The outstanding event of this century has been the signing of the multi-lateral treaty by representatives of the great nations of the earth. We rejoice that our nation has helped to furnish the leadership for this instrument in which the signatory powers "solemnly declare, in the name of their respective peoples, that they condemn recourse to war for the solution of international controversies, and renounce it as an instrument of national policy in their relations with one another" and "agree that the settlement of all disputes, of whatever origin, shall never be sought except by peaceful means."

We believe that is a great advance toward securing peace in the world and, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, that we hereby pledge our active support to this undertaking and urge the Senate, in response to public opinion, to ratify the treaty promptly when presented.

INDUSTRY

We reaffirm our adherence to the Social Creed of the Churches.

Our Conference territory is rapidly becoming one of the great industrial areas of this continent. This evolution from a rural section into factory and urban centers, with the attendant shifting of population, will open to us possibilities for marvelous expansion and entail inescapable responsibilities. We must develop all existing fields as they are established, and seek a broader understanding of Methodism's relation to economic needs.

We rejoice in the homogenous character of our population. This common origin of employer and employee is the basis of our progress and to it is due the fine understanding which exists between capital and labor in this State and we hope that in the expansion of our industries there may be no importation of ideals or policies alien to this fine Southern tradition.

For the benefit of all who toil, for the preservation of the hope, for the improvement of the product, and for the stabilization of industry we urge both employer and employees to join with us in urging the gradual and complete elimination of night work for women and adolescents and we seek the co-operation of all lovers of humanity in securing wise and conservative legislative enactment for accomplishing this purpose.

(Signed) W. B. SHINN, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

PROHIBITION AND THE METHODIST CHURCH

PROHIBITION AND THE METHODIST CHURCH

During the past few months complaint has repeatedly been made that the Methodist Church has gone into politics. But the situation is exactly the reverse. Politics has unfortunately invaded territory belonging to the Church. The Church is interested in religion and in morals. This sphere belongs by divine right to the Church of Jesus Christ. The Church will not now be driven from its rightful field just because the major political question of the hour has to do with morals and religion. For morals and religion cannot be divorced the one from the other. Religion concerns itself with morals both public and private. Religion has to do with human life in all its relations. Christianity is concerned not only in the salvation of individual souls beyond the grave, but in the redemption of human society from the evils that afflict mankind in this present world. No evil greater than the liquor traffic has ever afflicted the race. It has always brought in its train poverty, ignorance, lust, and crime.

By all our past history the Methodist Church is committed to the cause of prohibition, and we have no notion of abandoning that cause at the crucial time when prohibition has been made the chief issue in a national campaign.

In order that everyone may see at a glance exactly what the record of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is; and in order that our own Church members may see how Methodism has through the years been committed to the cause of prohibition, I set down here some of the important actions taken by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It will be understood that the General Conference, which meets every four years, is composed of ministers and laymen in equal numbers representing all the Annual Conferences of the Church and is the one law-making body of the Church.

The General Conference meeting in Asheville, North Carolina, in 1910, adopted unanimously the following:

"The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has ever gone before the world as the unalterable foe of the liquor traffic and is a prohibition Church that will never consider a compromise with this heinous sin." (Journal of the Sixteenth General Conference, page 167).

The General Conference meeting in Oklahoma City in 1914 unanimously adopted the following:

"We condemn the liquor traffic as the greatest menace of our day to the welfare of business, society, and the Church. We regard it as a public nuisance which must be abated if our civilization is to be saved; we demand that the rights of sober, peaceful, law-abiding citizens be respected and that they be protected from the dangers to property, family, happiness, and life which always accompany the open saloon. We insist that men have no right in the exercise of so-called personal liberty to continue a traffic which infringes ruthlessly, persistently, and destructively upon the rights of others; we declare that the time has come when the protection of the law of the land must be taken from this horrible traffic in the bodies and souls of our children. And the man who insists upon gratifying his greed by the destruction of his neighbors shall be branded as a criminal to be dealt with as all other offenders against the peace and order and uplift of society." (Journal Seventeenth General Conference, p. 325-326).

It will be observed that the above quoted actions were taken before the adoption of the 18th Amendment.

The General Conference meeting in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1918, during the World War, took action insisting that "Both the manufacture and the sale of intoxicating liquors should be promptly prohibited as a war measure without waiting for the ratification of the constitutional amendment."

And urging as a reason for the adoption of prohibition as a war measure

"The fact that the government, itself, is earnestly and persistently appealing for the conservation of food and fuel and for additional labor for shipyards, munition plants, and farms; practically all business has been suspended for days at a time, schools and colleges and even churches have been closed for lack of fuel; our people have been requested to have heatless days, meatless days, wheatless days, and to eliminate waste in every possible way; and yet the brewers and saloons of the country have continued to waste foodstuff and fuel and to impair the efficiency of labor in mines, factories, munition plants, and shipyards, so that during the present year while England has reduced her output of beer from 36 million to 12 million barrels and Germany has reduced her output to 7 million barrels, the United State has increased its output to 60 million barrels." (Journal Eighteenth General Conference, p. 277-278).

It will be seen from the above action that during the World War, at a time of national crisis, the liquor business was, as ever, a criminal and a traitor. And, as always, the Methodist Church was in the battle for the destruction of this enemy of mankind.

The General Conference meeting at Hot Springs, Arkansas, in 1922, adopted the following:

"Since the meeting of the last General Conference the Federal Prohibition Amendment has been adopted, forbidding the sale, the importation, the exportation, the transportation of intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes in the United States and insular possessions. This amendment became the law of the land on January 16, 1920. By the adoption of this amendment, the partnership of the United States with the traffic in intoxicants was forever dissolved and the traffic became an outlaw. 'Earthly, sensual, devilish,' it still lives. But it lives as the outlaw lives, desperate and defiant. Branded by the law of Christian love as criminal, it is now branded by the law of our country also. We rejoice in the overthrow of this, the giant evil of our modern times. And we especially rejoice that Methodism has, from the beginning of the conflict, led the vanguard of the conquering army. It is an acceptable tribute to our efficient activities that the liquor interests throughout the world denounced Methodism as one of the most potent factors in securing American prohibition. We remember that the beloved disciple said, 'Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you,' and we are pleased to be hated by the enemies of righteousness." (Journal Nineteenth General Conference, page 240).

At the General Conference meeting in Memphis in 1926, the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in their address to the General Conference (a message similar to the President's message to Congress) spoke as follows:

"The national prohibition law is the most remarkable social enactment of any great nation to promote the general welfare by the restriction of the activities of the individual. The full effect of such a law will not be secured immediately, or even in a decade. That the results already secured are exceedingly beneficial is evident to any impartial observer, and there is good reason to expect greater benefits in the future. The practical question today is whether the prohibition law shall be nullified or shall be properly enforced. The industrial, social, educational, moral, and religious forces of the nation, led by its Christian citizenship, overthrew the legalized liquor traffic and secured national prohibition. The same great forces must unitedly fight with equal vigor and persistence the outlawed criminal traffic and the would-be nullifiers of the law. Adequate appropriations should be made by state and nation to provide a sufficient number of men with salaries commensurate for such important, dangerous work. Prosecution of offenders should be speedy; penalties by judges and jury should be adequate; violators of the prohibition law, however prominent, should be branded as criminals. Above all, there must continue ever-increasing emphasis upon the educational process in the press, in the pulpit, and in the school, setting forth the evil of alcoholism and the destructive results of lawlessness upon the entire fabric of the national life." (Journal Twentieth General Conference, page 322).

In harmony with the suggestion of the Bishops in the paragraph quoted above, the General Conference created a Board of Temperance and Social Service charged with the duties of carrying forward in the Church and in the nation the work of education along the lines indicated. This Board is now actively at work. (See pages 235 and 237).

The above quotations will show the consistent record of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, during the past 18 years. The public at large may be sure that from this record the Methodist Church will never recede. By this record the Church now stands and by this record we shall ever stand.

Let it be reiterated that in sounding a note of alarm the Methodist Church cannot now be charged with going into politics. At a time of national danger the Church and her ministers cannot consent to be silent. The Church cannot be silent without betraying a trust. The Church could justly be charged with going into politics, if the Church, as such, were to unite with some particular political party, or if the Church should seek the assistance of some particular party to further its ecclesiastical interest. The Methodist Church seeks no political preferment and desires the aid of no political party. Indeed, at the present time the Church, if necessary, stands ready to suffer if only the cause of righteousness shall thereby be advanced. It seeks no political advancement and stands detached from all political parties. But it does stand, as always in the past, committed to moral and religious principles, and from these principles the Church will not now be driven. As we have seen from the records of General Conference action quoted in this paper, the Methodist Church through her ministry and her membership did her full share in having the prohibition amendment written into the Constitution of the United States. By our own actions we stand. And we rise up now in defense of the constitution of our nation.

So far from forsaking the principles for which Methodism has always stood, we have now begun with renewed energy to fight for those principles. We have begun anew to rally our forces for a persistent and nation-wide campaign which shall make it forever impossible for any considerable group of men to lead in a movement, to acquiesce in a scheme, to lift the ban of outlawry from that arch-criminal, the liquor traffic. We admit that following the adoption of the eighteenth amendment, we took too much for granted and became somewhat inactive and lost the spirit of the crusader. But now once more our spirits have been stabbed broad awake. The path of duty lies plain before us, and without turning back, we shall steadily follow it till we reach the desired goal. We call to our side all like-minded men to co-operate in saving America from a return of the liquor business in any form whatsoever.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 1

For fifteen years the Southern Assembly at Lake Junaluska, N. C., has been owned and operated by a private corporation for the benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. But now the stockholders have legally donated their equity in all the property of the Southern Assembly above the par value of the stock to the General Board of Lay Activities of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to be held in trust and administered for said Church and to be conveyed in fee simple to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, when conditions acceptable to the General Conference have been complied with.

The Board of Lay Activities, after careful consideration, have agreed to accept the trust, and will now become responsible for the management of the institution and for making provisions to liquidate the indebtedness.

We desire to call your attention to the following facts:

1. The property which the Board will hold in trust for the Church consists of the following: Six hundred acres of land; two hundred and fifty acre lake; an auditorium with seating capacity of 3,500; one hundred and thirty-five room hotel; nine hole golf course; administration buildings; boat house; bath house, parks, roads, etc. This property is worth several times the amount of indebtedness.

2. Among the schools, conferences and camps held annually at Lake Junaluska are the following:

Sunday School Leadership Training School.

School of Missions.

Laymen's Conference.

Bible and Evangelistic Conference.

Junaluska Summer School (Affiliated with Duke University).

Junaluska Summer School of Religion (Under joint auspices of Duke

Young People's Conference.

Camps for Girls.

Sermons, lectures and Chautauqua features.

3. One plan for liquidating the indebtedness of the Southern Assembly is the sale of lots to Churches. There are approximately 2,400 lots for sale at $500, $750 and $1,000 each. These lots will be sold to Churches on the following terms: One-fourth cash, the balance in three equal annual installments, no interest on deferred payments. This plan contemplates that Churches purchasing lots will erect summer lodges thereon so that at different periods during the summer season Sunday School workers, Leaguers, laymen, missionary society workers, other groups of the Church, the pastor and his family, may occupy the lodge and attend the various conferences in which they may be interested.

This plan has been submitted to a number of Churches in this and other Conferences and has been approved. Among the Churches in this Conference which have already agreed to purchase lots, or have the matter under consideration, are the following: Central Church, Asheville; Centenary-West End, Winston-Salem; West Market Street, Greensboro; Main Street, Gastonia; Central, Shelby; Lincolnnton; Thomasville; High Point; Hawthorne Lane, Charlotte; Monroe; and Waynesville.

In view of the action of the stockholders of the Southern Assembly and the General Board of Lay Activities, and in view of the great service being rendered to the Church by the Southern Assembly, we make the following recommendations:

1. We heartily endorse the action of the General Board of Lay Activities in accepting the property of the Southern Assembly as Trustee.

2. We approve the plan of selling lots to Churches and urge the laymen of the Churches to purchase lots and erect summer lodges thereon.

3. We urge the laymen in the territory of this Conference to supplement the funds received on the sale of lots by making gifts to be used in liquidating the indebtedness and for making needed improvements.

4. We request the pastors and Church lay leaders to call the attention of our congregations, through the Church Bulletins and from the pulpit, to the various meetings scheduled for Lake Junaluska, and to the importance of the Southern Assembly as an educational institution of our Church.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 2

Your Board of Lay Activities, after a careful study, feels that it is entirely proper to urge every member of the Conference to make a careful study of Chapter XIX of the Discipline of 1928 for the purpose of getting acquainted with the duties of lay leaders and the Board of Lay Activities.

ORGANIZATION OF THE LAYMEN

We most earnestly desire the counsel and co-operation of the Presiding Elders and pastors in getting a Board of Lay Activities and the necessary Lay Committees organized and working effectively in every local Church. We call special attention to the necessity of organizing the Stewardship Committee in every Church as early as possible in order to make 1929 effective as "Stewardship Year."

COLLECTING THE BENEVOLENCES

Chapter XIX, Section 4, of the Discipline of 1928, charges the General Board of Lay Activities with the responsibility of initiating plans for collecting the benevolences. That Board has definite plans for reaching and securing a contribution from every member of the Church, but these plans cannot be made effective without the constant, whole-hearted co-operation of Presiding Elders, Pastors, Lay Leaders, and the Boards of Lay Activities in the Conference, districts and charges. Cards for an every-member canvass will be furnished free of charge by application to the Conference Lay Leaders.

At the session of our Conference in 1927 the Chairman of all Conference Boards, the members of the Budget Commission, and the members of the Conference Board of Lay Activities voluntarily formed a Conference Commission of Benevolences which we earnestly hope will enter heartily into the work of cultivating the Church and of securing full collections.

We most earnestly urge those who apportion the assessments to the charges to do their work in such a way as to make it possible to collect the full amount from every charge.

We urge that 50% of the assessments be collected in every charge and sent to the Conference Treasurer before the next meeting of the District Conference. It often happens that early collections mean full collections, while on the other hand belated efforts produce meager results. Wherever it is possible, Churches should adopt the plan of paying the assessments up to date on the first day of every month. To do this it will be necessary to make a complete and thorough every-member canvass.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

It is our earnest desire not only to proceed further in the study and practice of the principles of Christian Stewardship, but also to carry the Stewardship message to every member of the Church. If every member of the Church was a Christian Steward, there would be no lack of trained workers in any department of Church work, and there would be sufficient money to send preachers of the Gospel into every community on earth.

STEWARDSHIP YEAR—1929

Acting under the authority conferred upon it by the General Conference, the General Board of Lay Activities has designated 1929 as "Stewardship Year." It is our earnest desire to have a course in Christian Stewardship taught in our Conference Pastors' Schools, to have a course taught in the training schools conducted by our Sunday School Board, and to have Stewardship institutes conducted in all the districts and Churches. During Stewardship Year large use should be made of pamphlets and books on the subject of Christian Stewardship.

LAYMEN'S DAY

The third Sunday in May has been designated by the General Board as Laymen's Day, on which appropriate lay services should be conducted in every Church. We earnestly request that the Pastors and Lay Leaders co-operate in planning and conducting lay services on that day. It is hoped that both the Pastors and Lay speakers will take part in the services and that the most important phase of Lay Activities shall be presented to the congregation.

LAYMEN'S CONFERENCES

During the year 1929 there will be several Conferences of Church-wide importance to Laymen:

1. Conference on Religious Education at Lake Junaluska, N. C., in July.
2. Conference of Lay Leaders at Memphis, Tenn., January 1st.
3. Conference of Lay Activities, Lake Junaluska, N. C., July 31 to August 4th.
4. At Mt. Sequoyah, Arkansas, August 7-9, Conference on Lay Activities.

We desire to give public expression to our deep appreciation of the brotherly sympathy and co-operation of our Presiding Elders and Pastors in our work and to assure them of a continuance of our love and esteem. Our sole purpose as Lay Leaders and as Board of Lay Activities is to please God in the work we are undertaking.

We nominate C. H. Ireland for Conference Lay Leader.

(Signed) CHAS. H. IRELAND, Chairman,
E. A. COLE, Secretary.

REPORT OF TRUSTEES OF THE CHILDREN'S HOME

We close another year of work and quiet progress at The Children's Home with 243 healthy and seemingly happy children.

The year has been made notable by the gift of our new administration building. The James A. Gray Memorial was given us by Mr. Bowman Gray, Mr

James A. Gray, Mrs. Mamie Gray Galloway and Mrs. Bess Gray Plumly, at a cost of $45,000.00. The gift of this building is unique, in that it has cost us nothing to accept it, the donors having given the building itself, all the furniture, and paid for all extra costs necessary to make a house habitable.

Bequests from Mrs. E. G. Pusey, Mrs. Mary R. Severs, Mrs. Amanda Webster, Joseph P. Chavier and S. A. Ogburn, totaling $13,700.00, have been received during the year.

Our finances are in good shape, but we note with apprehension that our income from the churches is not keeping pace with the growth of the Home. We have always lived within our income, and have never closed a year in debt for operating expenses. But if we are to maintain this good record it is necessary that we enlarge our income, or else we must cease to enlarge our capacity for children. But we cannot stop growing while there are so many children of Methodist parentage who are homeless.

We can stop growing only as we shut our eyes to the needs of helpless childhood, and stop our ears to their appeals for help, and crush back the impulses of human sympathy and quench the spirit of love given us from God.

There are 297 charges in the Western North Carolina Conference. Of this number 21 gave nothing at all to aid our work for orphan children during the year just closing. Twenty-five gave less than ten dollars, and 46 gave less than twenty-five dollars.

It is a pity that the preachers in charge of these delinquent Churches could not be awakened to the needs of the children, so that they could and would teach their people, for we know that anything which quickens the sympathies of men to the point of active helpfulness improves their spiritual condition.

The ten per cent assessment is by far the largest and surest source of income from the Churches, and the nearer it approaches full collections from all the charges the better for our work. But we cannot hope for an increase from this source sufficient for our needs. It is to the fifth Sunday offerings we must look to for the growth of our work for dependent children.

Of the 872 Sunday Schools in our Conference, only 497 made any direct contribution to our work. Some of the larger schools are among those neglecting us.

This offering should be pressed for the opportunity it affords for instructing the people, especially the young, in the need, the nature and the extent of this important work. It is a place to train the young to give to this cause and every good cause. It is a blessing to any Church that faithfully uses it. It is valuable for the money it brings, and also for the time the money comes. About half the ten per cent is paid at Conference. We must wait for it through the whole year, even though it is needed every day. But the fifth Sunday offering comes four times a year, bringing refreshment of spirit like the summer rains, saving us from sinking so deeply into debt and reduces the risk that large borrowing always entails.

T. F. MARR.

REPORT OF HOSPITAL BOARD

Constrained to express regret last year that the Conference did so little for the Golden Cross, we gladly record our gratification this year for marked improvement. The Conference has contributed $750.00, seven districts responding, Charlotte District leading in the number of pastoral charges, also in the amount collected. We earnestly urge our pastors and people to do still better by this one fund for free service, and we recommend that the Southern Methodist Hospital and Sanatorium at Tucson, Arizona, be the beneficiary of the Golden Cross Enrollment. While the need is greater than the service rendered, we gratefully record $350,000 from the Church at large for free service this year.

We now own and operate eleven hospitals worth well over eight million dollars, ministering to some twenty-five thousand patients, as against eight hospitals a year ago. Our General Secretary writes: "The year just passed has seen remarkable advances in hospital work. All of our hospitals have been well patronized and have rendered conspicuous service."

We request continuance of our commission for hospital prospects within our bounds—W. H. Webster, T. A. Hathcock, and H. K. Boyer.

We recommend that L. W. Colson be appointed to the chaplaincy of U. S. Veterans' Hospital No. 60, Oteen, N. C., that he be appointed Executive Secretary of the Conference Hospital Board and Director of the Golden Cross, and that he represent our Conference in the Hospital Association of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

We request the appointment of Rev. Carlock Hawk as a member of this Board to fill vacancy caused by resignation of Rev. R. H. Daugherty.

We request our Commission on Budget to appropriate at least $250.00 for the expenses of our Board during the incoming Conference year.

(Signed) H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF BIBLE BOARD

We believe that the Bible is given by inspiration of God. We further believe that the Holy Scriptures contain all things necessary to salvation, so that whatsoever is not read therein or proven thereby is not required of us. We also believe every person has the right and ought to have the privilege of reading or having read the Holy Word and of private and personal interpretation of the same.

Believing these things, we deem it a privilege and regard it a duty to give the Bible to those who do not have it. The American Bible Society, which has done such noble work in distributing the Bible, is the agency through which we are striving to have some part in this necessary work. In our budget is an item for this purpose.

We urge that in presenting the benevolent claims to our people, along with Missions, Church Extension and other worthy claims, we place emphasis on giving the Bible in the language of the people, to those who do not have it today.

(Signed) JNO. W. MOORE, Chairman,
H. L. POWELL, Secretary.

THE SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

It seems fitting that some official record should be kept of the spirit of this Conference. Both from the pulpit and the pew has come an expression of a felt need of spiritual power on the part of our people. Insofar as our Committee is able to determine, that is one of the most hopeful signs of our present time. When we come to the place where we are ready to face the fact that we are lacking, then and only then are we in a position to open our lives to Jesus.

However, the Committee feels the need not only of beginning but continuing and putting into practice the noble aspirations of this Conference. We all recognize that one of the most serious faults in our Church today is the lack of a spirit of worship. In all the services of the Church we need more sincerity, more reverence and more humility, all of which virtues were so clearly manifested in the life of our Lord.

Perhaps the next most vital point to consider is the home life of our people. While the modern home is very different from the home of a few years ago its importance has not changed. There is a danger that this will be forgotten. Your Committee, therefore, exhorts both preachers and laymen alike that they use their influence to perpetuate the Christian home by urging the reading of the Bible and family worship. One of our great modern philosophers has said, "If I could be omnipotent for ten minutes the thing I should like to do for the world would be to restore the practice of family worship in the homes of the world." The Church and home must also co-operate in rearing our sons and daughters in such a way that there will continually flow into our social life a Christian character which will meet every crisis in these trying times.

While our Church has had a brilliant record in its efforts to uplift humanity your Committee at this time thinks it wise to remind you that one of the chief characteristics of Methodism in its beginning was its tireless efforts in behalf of the less fortunate. Many times on Sunday morning we sit complacently in our pews while a stone's throw away people are dying both body and soul for the food which we could so richly give. We must not only make one spasmodic effort each year to awaken our people to the needs of humanity, but we must inculcate into their minds and hearts the spirit of Jesus by continuous personal evangelism on the part of both preachers and laymen which will send them in and out among our fellows knowing that they have the responsibility of bringing in the Kingdom among men.

There seems to be a danger today that the burdens of Church finance, building, and organization will blind the eyes of our people to the great spiritual values. The unseen realm of God at times gets blotted out in the turmoil of things. Our hope now as always lies in a concerted effort on the part of both preachers and laymen through fervent and devoted life to bring to the hearts of men the spirit of the living God. "O may our hearts and lips confess the holy Gospel we profess."

(Signed) E. E. WILLIAMSON, Chairman,
M. T. HIPPEL, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE

One of the special ways in which God showed His love for men is His provision that one day out of seven be particularly reserved for the development of the highest and best in him. We are enabled to know the terrible possibilities of a life without such a day by observing the debased condition of those who have forgotten God, and are living in heathendom. We need to remember that keeping the Sabbath holy lies at the foundation of all spiritual development and that a general and utter disregard for its sacred privileges and duties will inevitably plunge any nation, sooner or later, into an awful condition of immorality, lawlessness and atheism. The conditions under which we live are not conducive to a devout observance of the Sabbath. New industrial and commercial conditions seem to demand a vast amount of labor on the Sabbath; the greater prosperity of our people and greater ease in travel being also a greater temptation to make the Sabbath a holiday; the vast increase of number of social contacts, whether sought by us or forced upon us, tends to make God's day rich in social fellowship, but too often bare and unfruitful in the things of the spirit, the unprecedented output of reading matter of current interest too often displaces the Bible and devotional literature from the rightful place of privacy in the homes and hearts of our people.

Perhaps the most regrettable thing is the complacency with which we have come to regard the situation. We would urge our preachers and people, both by precept and example, in every reasonable way to check this unwholesome tendency and to demand for ourselves and others the opportunity for rest and worship on this good day. Our industrial and commercial leaders should diligently seek to reduce necessary labor to a minimum, and then, if at all practicable, to require the labor of any one person for only a part of the day; promiscuous visiting should be earnestly discouraged; and all of us should seriously determine to safeguard this, our holy day, from business cares, home duties and social responsibilities in every possible way.

J. A. BALDWIN, Secretary.

JOINT COMMISSION ON CHURCH AT CHAPEL HILL

Your Commission on the Church Building at Chapel Hill submits the following report:

The erection of the church building at Chapel Hill was completed nearly two years ago, and the various furnishings, such as pews, carpet, pulpit, and communion furniture, have been installed. The plant is proving itself adequate as a social, educational, and religious center for the 900 Methodist students who attend the University, and, on account of its strategic location with reference to town and University, fully meets the demands made upon it by the students, local congregation, and community.

At the last sessions of the two co-operating Conferences, action was taken to secure $12,000 from each Conference as a special fund to reduce the indebtedness and to provide a small maintenance fund, the present indebtedness on the Church being $72,318.18.

At a meeting of the Joint Commission and the Board of Stewards of the local Church at Chapel Hill held on October 11, 1928, an agreement was reached by which the Chapel Hill congregation will assume $10,000 of this indebtedness with interest from date, provided the Conferences assume the remaining indebtedness of approximately $62,000. This would make the total contribution of the local congregation to the building program, including Church and parsonage, $34,000.

Your Commission therefore recommends that the two co-operating Conferences assume an equal part of this indebtedness and that the plan to carry this item as a special be continued, that an amount of $10,000 be asked from each Conference the coming year, and that the Commission on Budget be requested to allot this asking to the several districts of the respective Conferences.

The financial statement of the Commission as of October 11 is attached. It will be seen that interest on the whole indebtedness will be due in December in addition to a payment of $3,000 on the principal of the note to the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company. The money to meet these obligations was supposed to have been collected during the year now closing, and the urgency of the situation confronting the Commission is obvious.

Your Commission has been most favorably impressed with the work with the students and University community made possible through the efforts of the Conferences, and bespeaks the sustained support of the Conferences and their Boards of Missions in continuing the program now being carried out at Chapel Hill.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMISSION

The Joint Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church of North Carolina, submit the following report:

1. We are glad to note that the sending of Fraternal Messengers from the Conference of one denomination to those of the other has brought about a better understanding between the denominations, and has also aided in creating a closer Christian Fellowship. So far, so good. But your Committee feels that the time has come when these two denominations operating in the same territory, fighting a common foe, and striving in the same way to build up the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in North Carolina, should begin a closer and a more active co-operation in a few communities in this State. This, we believe, can be done to the glory of God and to the advancement of His Kingdom.

We believe that in a few communities like Liberty, Siler City, Gibsonville, Osipee-Altamahaw, West Burlington, Graham, Haw River, Mebane and other like communities where there is a Methodist Episcopal Church, South and a Methodist Protestant Church, and where pastors of these Churches are serving on salaries ranging from $400 to $1,500, that in such communities surely God would have us exercise business judgment and common sense and religion sufficient to begin to work out a plan by which one Methodist pastor may serve each one of these communities, instead of two pastors as we now have. At present, pastors in such communities are having to serve on salaries which are scarcely living salaries when they could pay one decent salary, and in some cases, have a resident pastor where there is no resident pastor. We recommend, therefore, that this scheme be tried out definitely in certain carefully selected communities.

We suggest the following plan of operation for the beginning of the co-operation in the communities which may be chosen. And we express the hope that the plan will work so well that many similar communities will soon be thus co-operating.

THE PLAN

(1) The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, shall appoint a pastor to one of the communities, and the Methodist Protestant Church shall appoint a pastor to the other one.

(2) The pastor when thus appointed shall preach one Sunday in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and in the Methodist Protestant Church the next Sunday, thus alternating, and thus giving half time to each Church for the entire year. And he shall be the pastor of all Methodists represented in the membership of both Churches in the community to which he has been assigned, and his salary shall be paid jointly by the two congregations. And it shall be the pastor's duty to conform to the rules and regulations laid down in the Discipline of each Church in holding Quarterly Conference, and in making report of his work, and of the money raised to the two Conferences he is thus serving.

(3) The Sunday School in the two Churches shall continue as at present, and the pastor shall divide his time equally between the two.

(4) The Ladies' Aid Society and the Woman's Missionary Society shall also continue as at present, or in accordance with the laws of their own Church.

(5) The pastor may hold mid-week prayer service in each Church, or he may hold a union mid-week prayer service as per agreement with the congregations concerned.

(6) The pastors may also hold two revival services, or one union revival service for the two Churches as per agreement with the congregations concerned.

(7) The property of each Church in the respective communities shall be held just as it is now held.

2. We commend most heartily the effort to wisely consolidate rural Churches where it can be done to the advantage of Kingdom interests.

3. We recommend to the Annual Conference that an invitation be extended to the Christian Church (The O'Kelley Branch) to elect six members to co-operate with this Commission. This invitation to be extended through the Commission on Methodist Co-operation when sanctioned by the respective Annual Conferences.

4. Following the agreement of a year ago, that the term of office of two members of the Joint Commission, representing each of the two denominations, should expire each year, Rev. C. B. Culbreth and Fred N. Tate were nominated by the group of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the election by their Conferences, respectively, the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference. The matter of electing two members by the Methodist Protestant Conference was referred to the Nominating Committee of that Conference.

A. G. DIXON, Secretary.

REPORT OF MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

The work of the Pastors' School marks a distinct advance with each year, both in the numbers reached and in the class of work done.

For the first time all classes, this year, were open to women, and the Missionary Societies of the two Conferences co-operated in the work. The Epworth League also offered courses. With this fuller co-operation of pastors, Sunday School forces, Woman's Missionary Societies, and Epworth Leagues, the school continues to expand.

The Dean, Prof. J. M. Ormond, submits the following statistical report:

REPORT OF THE DUKE FUND COMMISSION

In submitting another report of this Commission we would call attention to the following items:

1. Rev. E. F. Lee has been nominated to represent the Board of Church Extension of the North Carolina Conference on the Commission, and Rev. J. M. Ormond has been nominated to represent the Board of Missions of the same Conference on the Commission.

2. Last summer The Duke Endowment sent out twenty-two young preachers to assist pastors on country circuits. The work done by these men was of a high type and justified the continuation of this plan. We would advise pastors who desire student assistants next summer to send in applications to Professor Ormond soon after Conference. The following statistics indicate a few of the results obtained on the circuits where these young men were placed as assistants last summer:

The twenty-two men served 101 Churches and preached 442 sermons. They assisted in 60 revival meetings which resulted in the addition of 299 new members, 255 being received on profession of faith. They conducted 43 training classes during the summer with a total of 270 credits issued. 17 Vacation Bible Schools were conducted with a total enrollment of 831.

3. We desire to express our endorsement of the resolution in the report of the Board of Managers of the Pastors' School, 1927, requesting that the Conference continue to publish in the Journals the report of each Church in the circuits, and heartily commend this action on the part of the Board of Managers.

4. There will be forthcoming in the near future a book by Professor Ormond containing much valuable information about rural conditions in North Carolina, with especial attention given to the country Church.

5. We repeat our statement of a year ago, viz.: The effort to aid in building Churches by securing plans and advising in the undertaking is making headway, but there is still need for fuller co-operation between local committees and the office at Durham. A joint effort of patient planning and careful co-operation will save the embarrassment of heavy debts and the failure to get money to carry out certain plans, too often ill suited to the situation.

R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

METHODIST MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

Your Board of Directors find the condition of your Insurance Company as follows on October 1, 1928:

Insurance in force	$1,800,460.00
Surplus as regards policyholders	53,123.29

During the year losses of $5,522.73 were paid in full, including $4,000.00 paid to our own Rutherford College.

We recommend that all Boards giving aid to Churches require that the property shall be adequately insured and preferably in our own company.

We recommend that the Presiding Elders be requested to nominate or appoint at the First Quarterly Conference an Insurance Agent, without pay, for every charge, to co-operate with the Trustees to the end that all our Church property may be well insured.

We recommend the election of C. A. Wood as Director, whose term shall expire in 1933.

The interest and support of the Church has not been as strong and universal as it should be in order to enable the company to serve the Church to the degree anticipated by its founders. Unless the Church shows more interest right soon, it might be wise to close out The Methodist Mutual Fire Insurance Company. Therefore, your Directors recommend that they be authorized to wind up its affairs at any time they deem advisable, provided the rights and interests of the Church and policyholders are fully protected.

(Signed) E. A. COLE, Chairman,
W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The District Conference Records of all Districts have been examined by the Committee.

Most of the records examined are in good condition and well kept.

The records of the Mt. Airy District are not as legible as the Committee would wish.

We recommend the following order of entry: Roll Call; Minutes; Committee Reports.

To those preferring typewritten records we recommend that suitable books be procured.

(Signed) W. L. SCOTT, Chairman,
PAUL HARDIN, JR., Secretary.

MINUTES OF THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The twentieth annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in First Church, Charlotte, N. C., at 2:30 P. M. on October 27, 1928, W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. The devotional service was conducted by H. C. Sprinkle. The minutes of last annual meeting were approved as printed without reading. The Treasurer's report showed that seven members have died during the year and that sixteen hundred dollars had been paid to each claimant except the last two to whom there is still due $2,700.00. Deducting this amount leaves a balance in bank of $3,127.77. On motion it was ordered that the Treasurer settle with the seven claimants on the basis of the action recorded in the minutes of last year. The following motion was made by J. W. Moore and carried, that eighteen hundred dollars be the amount of the benefaction to each beneficiary of the Brotherhood for the Conference year, 1928-29, and successively until a reserve fund of not less than $3,600.00 is secured.

As the next annual meeting will end twenty years of the Brotherhood under the new series, it was ordered that the Treasurer make an exhibit of the achievements of the Brotherhood during the last twenty years and present it at the next meeting.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: W. L. Sherrill, President; W. R. Ware, Vice-President; C. M. Pickens, Secretary and Treasurer. The chair then appointed H. C. Sprinkle and W. L. Dawson members of the Executive Committee.

The Brotherhood adjourned with the benediction.

(Signed) W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in First Methodist Church, Charlotte, at 7:30 P. M., Tuesday, October the 23rd, 1928. Dr. C. C. Weaver, President, was in the chair.

The opening devotional service consisted of the singing of Hymn 141, "When I Survey the Wond'rous Cross," prayer led by Rev. T. A. Sikes of the North Carolina Conference, and a selection, "The Old Rugged Cross," rendered by the local quartette. The minutes of the session of 1927 at Central Church, Asheville, were read by the Secretary and approved.

A nominating committee consisting of A. W. Plyler, T. J. Rogers, and C. M. Pickens was appointed by the chair.

A collection to meet the expenses of the Society was taken, and $42.30 was contributed. This sum and the collection of 1927, amounting to $11.73, were paid to the North Carolina Christian Advocate on account.

The Committee on Nominations made its report, recommending for President, W. E. Poovey; Vice-President, R. M. Courtney; Secretary-Treasurer, W. G. McFarland; member Executive Committee succeeding himself, W. L. Sherrill, and they were elected.

Dr. Weaver then introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Paul N. Garber, Professor of Church History in the School of Religion, Duke University. Dr. Garber delivered an excellent address, the subject being "Can we follow in their tread?" He magnified the heroic spirit of the early Methodists.

Following the address, Bishop E. D. Mouzon, assisted by the presiding elders of the Conference, celebrated Holy Communion, administering the sacramental elements to a large congregation.

(Signed) W. G. McFARLAND, Secretary.

Memoirs

REV. DANIEL ATKINS, D.D.

Rev. Daniel Atkins, son of Daniel and Elizabeth Moore Atkins, was born in Grayson County, Va., August 28, 1846. He was the youngest of twelve children, six sons and six daughters. Ten of these grew to maturity. Daniel grew up on a farm, going to school in the winter. At the age of seventeen he joined the Confederate Army, serving a little more than a year with the fifth regiment of the Virginia reserves. He came home at the close of the war broken in health, worked on the farm a year and taught three country schools.

Dr. Atkins was converted and joined the Methodist Church in early life, was licensed to preach at Lebanon Church, Grayson Circuit, Holston Conference, April 18, 1868, Rev. John M. McLean, Presiding Elder, Rev. W. W. Bays, pastor. He was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference October 4, 1868, and appointed to Spencer Mission, 1871. In 1872 he was a student at Emory and Henry College. December 21, 1875, he was married to Miss Anna Chapman, Asheville, N. C. Of this union four children were born, three of whom are living: Mrs. C. E. Gash, Weaverville; Misses Elsie and Margaret Atkins, Asheville.

The following is the list of appointments he served in the Holston Conference: 1868, Spencer Mission; 1869, Kingston Circuit; 1870, Charleston Station; 1871-1872, located and a student at Emory and Henry College; 1873, readmitted into the Holston Conference and appointed to Emory Circuit; 1874, Ducktown Station; 1875, Cleveland Station; 1876-79, Presiding Elder of Franklin District; 1880-81, Abingdon Station; 1882, Bristol Station; 1883-86, President of Weaverville College; 1887, transferred to the Northwestern Conference and stationed at Corvallis, Oregon, and elected President of Corvallis College to 1890; 1891, transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and stationed at Hendersonville; 1892, Statesville; 1893, Editor of the Raleigh Christian Advocate; under his administration the two church organs at Raleigh and Asheville were united into one publication with headquarters at Greensboro; 1894-95, Statesville; 1896-99, Presiding Elder of the Asheville District; 1900-03, Presiding Elder of the Winston District; 1904-06, Presiding Elder of the Salisbury District; 1907, Mount Zion Station; 1908-11, Presiding Elder of the Asheville District; 1912, Murphy Station; 1913, West Asheville; 1914-17, Chestnut Street, Asheville; 1918, Fletcher and Flat Rock; 1919, Mount Pleasant; 1920, Asheville Circuit; 1921-23, East Biltmore; 1924-25, Elk Mountain; 1926-28, superannuated.

During the sixty years of Dr. Atkins' ministry he received twenty-eight appointments, was located and a college student two years, and was on our Honor Roll nearly two years. For many years he was one of the leaders of the Western North Carolina Conference. On June 4, 1928, he died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Gash, in Weaverville, following a slight stroke of paralysis. The funeral service was held June 5 in the Asbury Memorial Methodist Church, Asheville, with Rev. George D. Herman in charge. The active pallbearers were the trustees of Weaver College and the ministers of Asheville and Buncombe County were the honorary pallbearers.

The Asheville Times had the following to say of Dr. Atkins immediately after his death:

"Well can it be said of the Rev. Dr. Daniel Atkins that he fought a good fight and kept the faith as a servant of God in the Christian ministry. As preacher, presiding elder, college head, editor of a church paper, Dr. Atkins spent 58 years as a Conference member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

In his long life Dr. Atkins saw many revolutionary changes in American life. Through all of them he passed with calm philosophy and robust faith. He kept abreast with modern thought, and yet he took no part in the bitter controversies of Modernists and Fundamentalists. He wrote and spoke for the cause of reuniting the Northern and Southern branches of the Methodist Church, but his influence was that of a conciliator and not of an advocate who stirred up animosities.

The influence of such a life runs deep and wide through the communities in which it spends itself. Dr. Atkins leaves a name, and a record of devotion to high ideals that will long live after him."

Dr. Atkins organized and built many churches in his long ministry: Oakley, Woodfin and Hendersonville in the Asheville District; also at Statesville and Winston-Salem in the more recent years. While President of the Board of Trustees he was largely instrumental in securing a new building at Brevard Institute and turning that institution over to the Woman's Board of Home Missions. He was twice a delegate to the General Conference. He never thought any work to which he was assigned too hard or unworthy of his best efforts. His daughter, Elsie, says this of him: "He was loyal and true to all the interests of the church at all times, and it was hard for him to give up the active work when he was unable to go on. In all the hardships and struggles I never knew him to show discouragement. He had absolute faith in people and loved every body." This is a beautiful tribute by one who knew him long and loved him with true devotion and undying attachment. And this tribute finds today a warm and hearty response with all who knew and loved "Uncle Dan" so well. We shall miss his smiling face and warm brotherly greetings. We recall with tender memories his message sent this Conference last year through the committee that bore him our love and sympathy as he lay on a sick bed at his home in Asheville: "Tell Bishop Mouzon and the brethren I love them all, and if I should not meet with them any more down here I will be waiting for them over on the other side, in the great Conference above. I am ready to go."

That was the last time I looked into his pleasing, sunny face. But I feel that I voice the sentiment and purpose of the whole Conference when I say I shall see him again, "when we are come unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels. To the general assembly and church of the first born which are written in heaven."

"Where congregations ne'er break up,
And Sabbaths have no end."

Till then, "Uncle Dan," a loving good bye. We will meet you in the morning.

W. R. WARE.

REV. CLAIBORNE McMILLAN CAMPBELL

Rev. Claiborne McMillan Campbell was born in Walker County, Ga., January 12, 1851, the son of T. J. and Sallie Bearden Campbell. His first marriage was in 1872 to Miss Kate Ashcraft of Memphis. To this union four children were born, three of whom survive, J. A. of Memphis; C. M., Jr., of Winston-Salem; and J. W. of Charlotte. The only daughter, Mrs. George Bell, died a few years ago. Two sisters survive, Mrs. W. C. Withers and Mrs. Eugene Beall, both of Chattanooga.

While he served as Presiding Elder of the Franklin District Mrs. Campbell's health failed, and early in his pastorate at Cornelius she died. His second marriage was in 1901 to Miss Emma Connelly of South Carolina, who for 26 years labored faithfully with him, sharing his joys and sorrows incident to the Methodist itinerancy.

Worn and weary, with 42 years of valiant service behind him, on Sunday morning, November 27, this faithful man of God passed to his reward. How fitting that his coronation should have been on the Lord's day and so near the hour the sorrowing women found the empty tomb.

Brother Campbell joined the Holston Conference in the year 1885. Prior to this, however, he had, as a local preacher, served for a number of years as city missionary in the city of Chattanooga. At the time of the organization of the W. N. C. Conference (1890) he was serving the North Asheville Mission. Though a Holston Conference product, he cast his lot with us as a charter member of our Conference.

His appointments in this Conference with the years of service follow:

North Asheville Mission, 1890-91; Gastonia Station, 1892-95; Albemarle Circuit, 1896; Brevard Street, Charlotte, 1897-98; Franklin District, 1899-1900; Cornelius, 1901-1902; Farmington, 1903; Thomasville, 1904-1905; Randleman, 1906-1908; Waxhaw, 1909-1911; Davidson College, 1912-1913; Granite Falls, 1914; Race Street, 1915; Bursar Davenport College, 1916; Spencer Memorial, 1917-1919; McAdenville, 1920-1923; East End, Gastonia, 1924-1927.

He possessed a logical mind and broad human sympathies. He was interested in people, their problems, their life decisions, their successes. He was, in turn, loved by people in all walks of life. His conversation was always interesting, and especially so when he talked of early Methodism in the Holston country.

Two years on the Franklin District and one as bursar of Davenport College bear witness to his ability as a man of affairs. His heart, however, was in the pastorate; and here he rendered his most conspicuous service.

He loved to preach. To him preaching was feeding the flock of Christ. He made new sermons to the last, because new situations called for new treatment. Not so long ago a friend asked him: "Brother Campbell, do you believe in the intermediate state, or do people at death go immediately to their reward?" His reply was, "You just wait until Sunday and I will preach on that subject."

He declined to lose his bearings in this changing modern age of ours.

Hopeful, sympathetic, cheerful, he served his day and generation, helping mightily in "bringing heaven a little nearer our earth." He was one of the youngest old men I ever saw. Young people followed him gladly. In his pastorate the Epworth League flourished. Whether at the efficiency institute, the district league union, or the standard training school, you might look for his benign and saintly face mingling with the boys and girls and young people. All felt, too, that his presence was a genuine benediction.

Brother Campbell was amazingly resourceful. Once when I assisted him in a revival meeting a number of bright boys and girls presented themselves for church membership. The parents, however, objected, claiming that these children were not old enough to understand the obligations of membership. He called an eleven o'clock service on Saturday for both children and parents, turned it into a catechetical service and won the day. By questioning both parents and children he soon demonstrated the fact that the children were as ready for church membership as were their parents.

His prayers were mighty to the tearing down of Satan's stronghold. When he led us,

"Heaven came down our souls to greet,
And glory crowned the mercy seat."

His prayer of dismissal at the Lincolnton District Conference was memorable. He sent us out with a tremendous spiritual glow to face the last lap of the Conference year.

He was a man of positive convictions and was not afraid to lead a reform when necessary. This I saw him do on his last pastorate. A place of amusement near his church had become a public nuisance. Nobody saw quicker than he its harmful effects on his people. A gentlemanly protest from him only brought the reply that the amusement company was within the law. Calling his faithful people to his aid he soon brought such pressure to bear that the amusement company vacated and moved away.

Despite the insistent call for young men, he served his last two charges, McAdenville and East End, four years each. At the end of his third year at East End he and I planned for lighter work for him the next year. This plan was abandoned only at the unanimous and urgent plea of his people for his return. He never wore out except in body. In his 75th year his people wanted him returned for the fourth year of service.

And the explanation is not far to seek. He spent his last ounce of strength in Christ-like service for his people. I have known him to rise at midnight in response to the cry of a soul in distress.

With broken health he continued to be the good minister of Jesus Christ. For a number of weeks before giving up East End last year he spent the days in bed, husbanding his strength, only to rise on Sunday and preach with power to his congregation. Even in the hospital while lingering on the very borderland, he spoke to the nurses of Christ and told them what they must do to be saved.

Through months of suffering he never murmured nor complained. His thoughts were of Jesus and the glory world. Near the end he sang the old songs of Zion, and assured loved ones that he would soon be with Christ the Saviour. We miss his genial smile today, but we know where to find him.

Brother Campbell's last days were spent in the Baptist hospital, Winston-Salem, and here the Methodist pastors visited him, bringing good cheer to a stricken comrade. Two of these, Dr. C. C. Weaver and Rev. C. A. Wood, conducted his funeral in the First Church, Charlotte, November 29, 1927. Interment followed in Elmwood Cemetery.

C. S. KIRKPATRICK.

REV. LUCIUS TISDALE CORDELL

Rev. Lucius Tisdale Cordell was born February 10, 1862, and died May 27, 1928. For 42 years he was a faithful preacher of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Born at a time when the guns of internecine strife were filling the whole country with heartaches, and growing up in the sorrowful and needy days of reconstruction there was little chance for an education. But he took advantage of what schools there were and learned how to study. He was always a student and a thinker. No man ever followed more seriously the advice of Wesley: "Never be unemployed; never be triflingly employed." He was from early life a reader of great books. The inevitable result was that he became a real scholar, and even in early life a great preacher. As the years passed his store of knowledge multiplied and his wisdom increased, and he became more and more a man of power.

But the most distinctive thing about him was that he was a man of prayer. He knew God personally. Jesus was his best friend. The Holy Spirit was his constant companion. It was inevitable that such a man should have a fruitful ministry. He was ever a builder—not so much in wood and stone, though he did that too, but in the things of the spirit. Men under him got a new vision of God. He was no actor. Men and women and even little children felt his sincerity, and were moved to worship the God who meant so much to him. It may truly be said of his preaching what Paul said of his own, "His speech and his preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the spirit and power."

He loved the country. Birds and beasts and all growing things had for him a special appeal. The murmur of running water was music to him. He reverently looked at the stars at night, drank in of their glory and silently worshipped the God who sent them into space. In the quiet of the country he could take time to think. There he pondered over the problems of life and death and the great beyond. There his heart found rest and peace in God's glad companionship. He cared little for the pretty phrases dear to society; he was too deeply absorbed in the great worthwhile things to care much for appearances. It is easy to see that the life and work of the farmer would particularly interest him. He knew the farmer's life, understood his thoughts, sympathized with the continual hazard of his crops, and brought him a message that met his needs. Though he found great happiness in the country his work in the city was also of a high order because he loved people and was always glad to serve human need anywhere.

Every charge he served he built up. Some were almost completely revolutionized. It was said that he literally prayed some communities to the very throne of God. Some of his meetings lasted for weeks and refused to be closed even for the annual Conference. No earthly standards can measure the value of such a life. And yet he was one of the most modest and unassuming of men. Those who appreciated him most in all of his charges were the thinkers and forceful men and women of the community. Years ago Dr. John R. Brooks, one of the greatest of North Carolina Methodists, said to the writer: "One of the best preachers in our Conference is L. T. Cordell." The great Baptist preacher, Dr. George W. Truitt of Dallas, Texas, in a recent letter to his widow said: "Your husband was one of the noblest men I ever met, and I thank God for him upon every thought of him. Although he has been removed from this earthly sphere, yet his influence will go on and on."

He was happily married Christmas, 1885, to Miss Emma Haigler in Murphy, N. C., where they were both teaching. The next fall he joined the Holston Conference at Knoxville and was appointed to Webster, N. C., thus beginning a ministry of 42 years of arduous labor, of mingled joys and sorrows, in the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Church. His appointments were as follows: Webster, 1886-88; Haywood, 1888-91. The Western North Carolina Conference was organized in 1890 and his appointments in this Conference have been: Hayesville, 1891-92; Murphy, 1892-94; Leicester, 1894-97; Gold Hill, 1897-98; Mt. Pleasant, 1898-1901; Randleman, 1901-04; Lenoir Circuit, 1904-05; Mt. Airy District, 1905-07; Polkton, 1907-11; Waynesville District, 1911-15; Haywood Street, Asheville, 1915-16; Brevard Street, Charlotte, 1916-19; Polkville, 1919-22; Bryson City, 1922-24; Leicester, 1924-26; Elk Mountain, 1926-27; Weaverville Circuit, 1927-28.

He preached at his regular appointments one Sunday. In the middle of the week he became seriously sick, and the next Sunday he went home to God.

When he perceived the evening shadows falling across his pathway his thoughts turned to the beautiful scenes of his boyhood on Haw Creek, just out of Asheville. There on a few ancestral acres he built a modest but comfortable little home and from it served his last two charges.

He was greatly comforted in his last years because he saw his children and his grandchildren following in his steps as faithful servants of his Lord. Besides his widow, one son and five daughters survive.

On Sunday, May 27, at the time of evening worship, the bells of Heaven called him to worship with the glorified hosts of the better world.

J. A. BALDWIN.

REV. IRA ERWIN

Ira Erwin, son of Ira and Martha Erwin, was born in Waco, Cleveland County, October 20, 1862. He was the fifth in a family of seven children. In early youth he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at St. Paul's Church near his father's home. It was in his childhood home and in this fine old country church that Brother Erwin learned his first great lessons that made it possible for him to develop his stalwart character and live his remarkably useful life. He was one of the large number of young men who were educated at Rutherford College. He attended Rutherford in the days of its founder, Dr. R. L. Abernethy. After graduation he taught school for a number of years, all the while realizing that he was called of God to the gospel ministry. At the age of twenty-five he entered the ministry, and for forty years he was a faithful minister of Jesus Christ. No higher tribute can be paid to any man than this, "A faithful minister of Jesus Christ."

Brother Erwin joined the North Carolina Conference at Fayetteville in 1887 and served the following charges: Leasburg, 1888-89; Burkhead, Winston-Salem, 1890-91; Hendersonville, 1892-94; Thomasville, 1895-96; Mt. Zion Station, 1897-98; Franklin, 1899-1902; Centenary, Greensboro, 1903-05; Waynesville, 1906-07; Lenoir, 1908-09; Brevard St., Charlotte, 1910; Marion, 1911-13; Murphy, 1914-15; Davidson, 1916; Asheboro, 1917-19; Norwood, 1920-21; Maiden, 1922-25; Davidson, 1926-27. At the Conference in Asheville in 1927 he was appointed to Westford Charge, Concord. He had just entered upon this work when the summons came.

In 1892 he was married to Miss Minnie Ector. To this union were born two sons, one of whom died, and the other, John Ira, lives in Durham, N. C.

This union was broken by the death of the wife on January 30, 1896. His second marriage was to Miss Bessie A. Thomas of Thomasville, on April 6, 1897. To this union were born six children, five of whom survive the father.

Ira Erwin was a man of tender and loving sympathy and at the same time of strong convictions. He would not willingly or needlessly hurt the feelings of any one, yet he was not the man to lightly surrender a principle. Out of his own experience he preached the love and the goodness of God. At the same time he was fearless in his denunciation of sin. His warnings were clear and emphatic, yet tender with sympathy and love. His was a growing experience. Through the years in him the Christian graces were constantly coming nearer to perfection. Only a few days before the call came to him, while he was yet in his usual health, I spent an hour with him talking of our Christian experiences. So far as I know he had no thought that day as we talked together that he was to go away from us so soon, yet I have thought since his going that he talked as one who knew that he was standing on the border of the "Land of pure delight." I felt that day and I have continued to feel that I had had the privilege of looking into the heart of a true man of God. Brother Erwin died in the harness. There were only two days of sickness. The end was less than twelve hours away when it was realized that he was seriously ill. Early Monday morning, December 12, 1927, he closed his eyes on earth to open them in the presence of the Master whom he had loved and served. On Tuesday, December the 13th, the funeral services were held by Dr. Z. Paris, his Presiding Elder, and his body was carried to Waco in Cleveland County and laid to rest among the hills that had been dear to him from his childhood. A good man and faithful has gone from among us.

REV. WILLIAM E. HAUSS

Rev. William E. Hauss, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hauss, was born in Lincoln County, January 14th, 1890, and departed this life September 15th, 1928. Very early in life he gave his heart to God and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, placing his membership at Bollingers Chapel, which is now on the Burke Circuit. He attended the public schools of his community, then entered Rutherford College. On receiving his preparation he went to Randolph-Macon College, then to Duke University.

On December the 25th, 1918, he was married to Miss Mary Elizabeth Powell of Burke County. To them were born three children, Harry, W. E., Jr., and Olive Hauss.

Having received the call of God to preach His gospel, he applied for license and was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1919. His first assignment was to Rutherford College as an instructor in that institution. He remained there for four years. The Conference then appointed him to the China Grove Charge, in the Salisbury District, where he gave his service without stint or reserve for four years. In these different positions of honor and responsibility he served with credit to himself and the utmost satisfaction to those directing his services. He was truly a man of God. He could say with the apostle, "I know him in whom I have believed." He was also a true friend of man. He was never happier than when trying to make others happy. He bore the marks of the hero. He suffered much, but was always cheerful and pleasant. He seemed to forget his own suffering in seeking to comfort others who were suffering. If he had burdens, and surely he did, he kept them to himself. To know him was to love him. The people of China Grove loved him as few men are loved. At the close of his third year there, his health was such as to question the wisdom of his return; but his people appealed to his Presiding Elder and said, "We had rather have Brother Hauss sick than anyone else well." So he was returned for the fourth year, but was forced, because of the wrecked condition of his health, to give up the fight. When put on the inactive list last fall at Asheville, his good friends in China Grove insisted that he locate in their midst. To this he agreed and he and his family were the recipients of their love and favors until God called him to the heavenly world.

He led his people in the erection of a splendid church building in China Grove, and for several hours his body lay in state at the altar of this new building. A brief service was held there, conducted by his Presiding Elder, Dr. Paris, assisted by the writer of this sketch. It was then carried to his home church in Burke County where the services were concluded. In the midst of hundreds of sorrowing friends, the body was laid to rest to await the call of the just.

REV. JACOB WINBORN STRIDER

Jacob Winborn Strider, son of William and Clara Strider, was born in Randolph County August 13, 1856, and died February 10, 1928, at his home in Concord, N. C. In early life he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. He joined the Alabama Conference in 1882, where he served for three years. In 1885 he transferred to the North Carolina Conference and when this Conference was divided he became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference. The following are his appointments: 1886, Junior preacher, Montgomery Circuit; 1887, Columbus Mission; 1888-89, Forest City Circuit; 1890-91, Pleasant Grove Circuit; 1892-93, Uwharrie Circuit; 1894-95, East Uwharrie Circuit; 1896-97, Supernumerary; 1898, Proximity Station; 1899, Rockford Circuit; 1900-03, Jacksonville Circuit; 1904-06 Pilot Mountain Circuit; 1907-08, Lincoln Circuit; 1909-10, Polkville Circuit; 1911, Lowesville Circuit; 1912-14, Albemarle Circuit; 1915-16; Gold Hill Circuit; 1917-19, Kerr St., Concord; 1920, New London Circuit; 1921, Matthews; 1922-23, Unionville Circuit; 1924-25, Elmwood Circuit. At the Conference at Statesville in 1925 he was granted the superannuate relation. He continued to labor till the very end. On the last Sunday that he spent on earth he preached two sermons and then went to hear Bishop Mouzon preach at the evening hour in Forest Hill Church. Almost every Sunday found him in a pulpit somewhere proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Brother Strider loved to preach. He had a message for sinful men, a message of salvation, of love, hope and power. His message was born out of his experience and constant study of the Bible. In his preaching as in his life he was quiet and unassuming. He made no effort at display, but was so earnest and sincere that he was always impressive whether in the pulpit or in private conversation. His sermons were well prepared and delivered with force, often with the demonstration of the Spirit's power. One of the remarkable things about him were his prayers. Those who heard him in his public prayers felt that he was consciously communing with the Father. No man can pray as this man prayed unless there is the constant practice of the presence of God. On December the 5th, 1885, he was married to Effie Jane Morgan of Montgomery County, who shared the joys and trials of the itinerant life with him. She, with seven children still survive. After his superannuation, with his wife and youngest child, Miss Anna, he seemed supremely happy in their home in Concord. Freedom from the burdens and cares of the pastorate brought a sense of relief. Was he to enjoy the quiet home life, the privilege of preaching from time to time as opportunity afforded, without the burdens and responsibilities of the pastorate? It was just this that had apparently come to him, and this he had earned through those more than forty years of hard work. But upon this scene the angel came. There were a few days of slight indisposition, nothing alarming. Friday evening, February 10, he spent in reading and conversation around the family circle. A little rest on a couch, then scripture reading and prayer. Then preparation for retiring when suddenly he reclined on the bed for that sleep from which there is no waking in this world. The funeral was held in Central Church, Concord, Sunday, February 12, by Dr. Z. Paris, R. M. Courtney, Rev. T. F. Higgins, and Rev. A. G. Loftin.

REV. ROBERT McKINLEY STAFFORD

Rev. Robert McKinley Stafford, son of J. F. Stafford and Ada (Curlee) Stafford, was born in Mecklenburg County, N. C., June 22, 1893, and died in a Charlotte hospital March 1, 1928, after several weeks of suffering.

His body was brought to Mooresville, his former home, for burial. The funeral service was conducted in Central Methodist Church by Rev. J. E. Abernethy, his Presiding Elder, assisted by Rev. J. P. Hipps and other members of the Conference. His body was interred in the Mooresville cemetery.

Brother Stafford was born and reared on the farm, and when he reached young manhood he decided to specialize in dairying and butter making. In order to fit himself for this work he took a two-year course in dairying and butter making at State College, Raleigh, N. C. He then took a post-graduate course at Purdue University, where he received his diploma as an expert butter maker. He took a position with the Mooresville creamery, which he held for about two years before yielding to the call to the ministry. In early life he united with the Presbyterian Church, the church of his parents. When he reached maturity he found himself more in accord with the doctrine and polity of the Methodist Church and united with it.

On May 3, 1916, he was happily married to Miss Susie Tomlinson of Mooresville, who was a great help and inspiration to him in his efforts to prepare for the ministry. They had one son, R. M. Stafford, Jr., a promising lad about ten years old. When he was finally convinced that he ought to preach, he gladly gave up his chosen work for the work the Master had called him to and immediately began to make preparation for this new field of service.

In the fall of 1919 he entered Rutherford College and spent three years there completing the course at Rutherford and then entered Trinity College, now Duke University, where he graduated in June, 1924.

He was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1923 and appointed a student at Trinity College. After his graduation the following June he was appointed Junior preacher at First Church, Hickory. He served in this position for three and one-half years. Meanwhile a new work was started, as a special Home Mission, in Highland, a suburb of Hickory, sponsored by and largely financed by members of First Church. Brother Stafford was actively in charge of this work and largely instrumental in the building of a splendid new church and built up a very promising work in that part of the city. Starting with nothing here, he and his good wife gathered a few folks together in the Community House, organized a Sunday School and later a church was organized, and at the end of three and one-half years left a nice church building and a membership of 147 well organized. At the last Conference it was made a separate charge and in a short time ought to be self-supporting.

He was ordained Deacon in 1925 by Bishop Denny, Elder by Bishop Mouzon at the last Conference in 1927, and appointed from this Conference to Lenoir Circuit, where he was beginning what gave promise of a very successful pastorate. But in the midst of his labors he was stricken with influenza from which he never recovered. He fell with his armor on, having fought "the good fight of faith." For three and one-half years the writer and Brother Stafford were closely associated in the work, and I knew him intimately and it gives me peculiar pleasure to testify to his fine Christian character. He was one of the most unselfish persons I have ever known, and seemed to find his greatest happiness and satisfaction in doing something for someone in need. Quiet, unassuming and full of good cheer, he, like his Master, went about doing good to all classes and conditions of the people among whom he lived. No doubt in that Great Day many will rise up and call his name blessed. He had a great ambition to live and serve God in whatever place his service could best be used by his church. From our short human point of view, his going away so soon after he had entered upon what gave promise of a life of great usefulness, seems a tragedy, but God knows best, and that which seems so mysterious to us now, will some day be made plain, and we shall understand that God never makes a mistake, and what He doeth is the very best that He can do, for He sees the end from the beginning. We shall miss his kindly face and genial smile, but hope to meet him in a better country where sickness and sorrow, pain and death are neither feared nor felt. Peace to his ashes.

H. H. JORDAN.

REV. JACOB ROBERT MOOSE

Jacob Robert Moose, son of Jacob and Nancy Holt Moose, was born near Albemarle, N. C., July 28, 1864. His mother and father having died while he was quite young, he lived with his relatives in different sections of the central part of the state while growing into young manhood.

He was graduated from Trinity College in 1892. He joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1892 and was appointed to Burkhead, Winston-Salem, 1893-94; Epworth, Concord, 1895-96; Troutman Circuit, 1897; Asheville, Bethel, 1898-99. At the Conference of 1899, he was appointed to Korea where he served during the greater portion of twenty-five years.

On account of health conditions in his family he was transferred to the North Carolina Conference and served the Wallace and Rose Hill Charge about two years. He then returned to Korea.

The first year in Korea was devoted to language study, having made marked progress in such study during that time. During the second year he was made superintendent of our work in Korea, holding such position a number of years. After our work developed and enlarged he served as Presiding Elder till transferring to the North Carolina Conference in 1919.

After returning to Korea in 1921 he was appointed to open a new station at Chulwon, where he served till he was first stricken with paralysis August 27, 1924. Soon afterwards he returned from Korea and settled in Greensboro, where he lived till his translation Tuesday night, August 28, 1928, at 10 o'clock.

During the different visits to the home-land he was abundant in work, including the visiting of Conferences in behalf of the foreign field. During the year 1906-1907 he worked in seven different states, making over 150 addresses—including Conferences of the Woman's Missionary Society. Brother Moose had a passion for his work, imbued with apostolic zeal. He had marked adaptability for the missionary work.

Outside of his own work assigned he rendered much service in evangelistic work, including assistance to other denominations.

As evidence of appreciation of his service he received various gifts, some of which he was able to keep as sacred souvenirs of such fellowship and gratitude. Among the marked tokens of high appreciation of the service and kindness was a tablet placed by the Koreans on the gate of Brother Moose. This was dedicated to Rev. J. R. Moose and Mrs. J. R. Moose. The placing of this tablet was in accordance with an old custom in Korea used for high officials for distinguished service. So far as we know, this tablet was the only one of the kind placed in honor of a missionary family by those people.

He knew how to find the way into Korean hearts. Before he had learned to speak the language a little Korean boy said, "He's all right, he smiles." Every one who knew him recalls the cheering smile which he carried wherever he went. On a later occasion a Chinese boy having been associated with him in the construction of a building, earnestly asked Brother Moose to let him call him father.

Besides evangelistic service he did much work in translating hymns, tracts and catechisms. He also did much Bible teaching, including work in the Bible institutes.

A great deal of his foreign field work was initial in establishing churches in towns and villages. Upon such foundations other missionaries have built.

A great host have been led to Christ through his ministry. While attending the Columbus Missionary Conference, Ohio, a few years ago a Korean approached him with a radiant face and told of his having been led to Christ by Brother Moose.

He assisted young people in securing an education through beneficence. He would render manual service in building churches, hospitals, etc. One of his last revivals was in Harbin, Russia, in which field he rendered much service and which he greatly enjoyed.

In 1893 he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Durham, Chatham County, N. C., an alumna of Greensboro College, who also had prepared for the missionary field of service. It is not surprising that, in dedicating the tablet already mentioned, the appreciative Koreans should have included the name of the consecrated, faithful wife with that of her worthy husband.

He combined gentleness with courage, kindness with frankness, and endurance with perseverance. Out of a glowing Christian experience he proclaimed with boldness the gospel of Jesus Christ, the divine Saviour of the children of men. With love for the erring he uncompromisingly rebuked sin. He lived and preached with the conviction that "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works."

After years of earnest longing for work in the foreign field he threw himself into the foreign missionary service with tireless energy and dedicated his life through sacrificial devotion to save Korea!

He is survived by his wife and four children.

On Friday morning, August 31, 1928, the funeral service was conducted from College Place Church, Greensboro, by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Rollins, assisted by Rev. Messrs. J. B. Craven, N. E. Coltrane and S. B. Turrentine. Interment was in Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro. S. B. TURRENTINE.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF AND HOMAGE TO THE MORALITY OF THE REV. J. R. MOOSE, THE CHARITY OF MRS. J. R. MOOSE

Following the command of Heaven,
Looking at the people as innocent children;
Upholding the fatherless, helping the needy,
Showing mercy to all men.

Restraining desires and likes of their own,
But never injure the wicked even;
Their deeds are lofty and charitable,
Their speeches are humble and honorable;
Love the righteous, befriend the truthful,
Sympathize the afflicted, and rule selves.

Heaven must be theirs,
We surely know this;
May they be the blessed heirs of ten thousand years,
Without feeling of the old age,
To spread the Great Way, to save the multitude!
This is the supplication of those Whose bowed heads, folded hands
Showing the praise of their virtues!

Seoul, Korea, March 6, 1915.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your Board has had before it representatives and reports from the following institutions: Duke University, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver, and Rutherford Colleges.

The report from Duke University shows that the building project is being rapidly completed and that some of the buildings on the new campus will be ready for occupancy by September, 1930. The student enrollment continues to increase. The School of Religion has grown from eighteen students in 1926 to one hundred and ten in 1929, while the Graduate School of Arts and Science has an enrollment of four hundred and twenty-three graduate students.

Greensboro College has added twenty-eight thousand dollars to her endowment during the year. She has also reduced her indebtedness by the amount of two thousand and six hundred and ten dollars. A religious spirit pervades the college life fostered by a Young Woman's Christian Association, and a Life Service Band, each of which has a strong membership. Two outstanding benefactors of Greensboro College, Mr. B. N. Duke and Col. Frank S. Lambeth, have passed away during the year. The report indicates that Greensboro College is moving forward steadily and hopefully.

Davenport College is making quite an improvement in its buildings and getting on a better financial basis. The outstanding need is a gymnasium and music building. There is an air of general improvement at Davenport.

Weaver College is improving the college spirit, developing good citizenship in the boy's dormitory, high school students have been eliminated and the enrollment is becoming exclusively that of college students. All the teachers of last year remained with the college this year and one teacher of Home Economics has been added. The indebtedness has been reduced by some eight thousand dollars. Weaver College recommends election of C. S. Kirkpatrick on Board of Trustees in place of Dr. D. Atkins, deceased. The indebtedness of the college has been reduced from $29,000 to $19,000 since the audit on June 4, 1929.

Rutherford College is gradually enlarging and improving her equipment, increasing the enrollment and is getting in much better shape financially. In this connection we desire to call attention to the needs of the new church building enterprise at Rutherford, and recommend its hearty support to all friends of this most worthy cause.

RESOLUTIONS

That Greensboro, Davenport, and Rutherford Colleges continue their campaigns for increasing their endowment funds.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 1

Your Board of Missions desires to report on the larger aspects of Missions before entering upon a consideration of our own Conference missionary work.

The coming year marks the close of the first quadrennium of the new missionary policy of our church, which provides for an intensive period of cultivation in January and February and a free-will missionary offering. The results of this policy are well known. It freed our church of a crushing burden of debt. It stopped the annual deficit in our missionary budget. It enabled us to send out a corps of new missionaries to fill up the ranks which had been depleted. It saved our missionary work in the hour of seeming disaster. At the same time it has stimulated the missionary spirit and increased the missionary knowledge of the church in a remarkable degree. During the quadrennium we will have placed more than 400,000 missionary books in the homes of our people who do not, we fear, buy many religious volumes; this record is unprecedented by any other denomination in the nation and will surely result in a deepening of spiritual life. The same could be said of the work of the district missionary institute, the school of missions, and other features of the new policy.

This policy has laid work upon us all. Some have felt it to be irksome. But it has advanced the Kingdom of the Lord throughout the world, and we are ready to gird our loins again in the supreme endeavor.

We therefore propose for your consideration and adoption:

1. We are grateful to God for the success of the missionary cultivation movement during the past three years, and we congratulate and thank the Presiding Elders, pastors and people whose self-sacrificing work made such success possible.

2. We pledge our hearty support to the movement during the coming year, pledging ourselves to work diligently for the success of the study period and to endeavor to raise the full share of our Conference allotment in the free-will offering.

3. We hereby respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. R. M. Courtney as missionary secretary for the ensuing Conference year.

4. We respectfully ask our Presiding Elders to hold their missionary institutes, provided for in the Discipline, early in January, to make them wholly and distinctly missionary, and to name the exact dates and places for these institutes before the adjournment of this Conference.

5. We hereby recommend and nominate R. M. Courtney and J. F. Shinn for membership on the General Board of Missions.

(Signed) E. K. McLARTY, President,
J. D. RANKIN, Secretary

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NO. 2

In presenting the Report No. 2, distributing the Missionary offering of the Conference to 118 charges, which are represented by a membership of 32,468, your Board wishes to direct attention to the success of the work being done, in terms of increase of membership on profession of faith. The increase for these Mission charges is 3.97%. The increase for the entire Conference is 3.28%.

Your Board suggests that as many as possible of both preachers and laymen attend the meeting of the Missionary Council of the General Board of Missions to be held at Raleigh, N. C., on December 10th to 12th, 1929.

The Board of Missions is hereby called to meet with the Presiding Elders at Statesville, N. C., on Tuesday, November 19th, 1929, for our regular mid-year meeting.

Their respective terms of office having expired, we hereby nominate the following brethren to succeed themselves:

On the Duke Fund Commission, R. M. Courtney.

On the Board of Managers, Duke Pastors' School, E. K. McLarty.

BOARD OF FINANCE

The campaign for Superannuate Endowment balances have been vigorously carried on throughout the year with encouraging results.

Under the plan of the General Board, the campaign has yet one year to operate. Therefore, your Board recommit itself and requests that every Presiding Elder, pastor and layman recommit themselves to carry on this movement until this fund has become adequate to care for the superannuates in a way that their years of faithful service deserve.

We request each pastor to make special effort to raise the quota for his charge early in the year, in order that it may be reported to the General Conference which meets next May.

In order to assist the charges in raising quotas, we recommend the reappointment of Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick as Director Superannuate Endowment for Western North Carolina Conference.

We further recommend that those strong charges which have already raised their quotas continue their efforts toward the raising of this fund.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Careful and sympathetic consideration has been given each application submitted to this Board.

It is gratifying to note that applications for aid in most instances are being sent in before the Annual Conference convenes. All applications for aid should be in the hands of the Secretary of this Board at least two weeks in advance of the date on which the Annual Conference is held.

It also should be borne in mind that the requirement that subscriptions or cash for at least three-fourths the cost of any project be secured before applications for aid are filed.

We commend the Building Committees for the many beautiful and well arranged churches and parsonages that have been erected during the past year. Building Committees are urged to get in touch with our Church Architect at Duke University when planning to build.

Churches and parsonages should be adequately protected by fire insurance.

We again wish to impress the fact that funds coming into the hands of this Board for distribution are very limited, and in making applications for aid this should be borne in mind. The total amount asked for is always far above the amount that the Board has to distribute.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES

The titles to all real estate covered by loans carried by our Trustees have been reviewed recently by Thomas C. Hoyle, Attorney, of Greensboro, N. C., and a new appraisal of the property made. The reports from this work show that all our securities are well protected by first mortgages. These mortgages are also guaranteed by Southern Real Estate Co.

Our Treasurer's books with all securities held by him, including all receipts and disbursements for the past year, have been audited by Mr. F. J. Phillips of Dixon, Russ & Carter, Certified Public Accountants, Raleigh, N. C., whose report is presented herewith.

The amount of our Treasurer's bond was increased to $20,000 during the past year.

The following officers of our Board of Trustees have been re-elected: W. R. Ware, Chairman; J. B. Ivey, Vice-Chairman; I. F. Craven, Secretary and Treasurer.

(Signed) W. R. WARE, Chairman,
I. F. CRAVEN, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

The Sunday school work of the Conference continues to grow in volume and effectiveness. The activities of the Board's employed workers during the past year have centered around the following major lines of endeavor:

The promotion of a system of training schools and classes.

Placing and interpreting of school Programs of Work.

The setting forth of plans for promoting evangelism.

Arranging plans for the cultivation of a missionary attitude and the securing of more liberal system of giving.

A study and application of the opportunities for Sunday school extension.

The promotion of plans for membership increase.

Emphasizing the importance of home work and co-operation.

Planning for proper church building.

A study and promotion of week-day and vacation religious education.

The promotion of the interests and objectives of Wesley class work.

The securing of adequate finances for promoting our program.

Particular emphasis has been placed upon the training of our Sunday school officers and teachers. During the year 27 standard and 55 Cokesbury training schools have been held. In these schools, in colleges and through correspondence 5,951 units of credit in our religious educational courses have been earned, this number being an increase of 948 over the previous year. We are glad to note that 187 of our pastors have joined their Sunday school workers in this studying process and have during the year earned one or more units of credit.

The attention of our pastors has been continually directed to the importance of co-ordinating their efforts with those of their Sunday school officers and teachers in properly spiritualizing the work of the Sunday school. The dynamic power and spiritual fervor of our pastors are greatly needed in the proper motivation and guidance of our Sunday school workers.

During the ten-year period ending with 1927 our Sunday school enrollment increased from 84,145 to 138,686, an increase of 54,541. However, during the year of 1928 there was a decrease in our enrollment amounting to 2,940. Special effort has been put forth during the present year to overcome this decrease and in addition to secure a largely increased enrollment. Assistance has been given in making community surveys and in the use of these surveys for reaching our unreached constituency.

Much emphasis continues to be given to the consideration of location, type of building and suitable equipment for new and remodeled church buildings. In co-operation with the Board of Church Extension and the Duke Endowment suggestions have been made and help rendered to local building committees. Much building has been done during the year, especially in our rural sections.

Under the direction of the General Sunday School Board plans have been made for the displacement of the three-type Programs of Work previously used by our Sunday schools and for the adoption of new Programs of Work provided for directing the activities of five types of Sunday schools. It is proposed that much emphasis will be given to the placement and interpretation of these new Programs of Work during the ensuing year.

In line with the agreement of the Board of Missions and the General Sunday School Board, as directed by the Discipline, and in order to train in missionary motivation and giving, much effort has been put forth during the year in encouraging our Sunday schools to observe the fourth Sunday missionary program and to give the offering of the day to the Dual Special, this offering, as the name implies, being divided into two parts, one-half going to support our mission work in China and religious educational work in all our foreign fields; and the other half going to the support of our extension work in hitherto neglected rural and industrial areas of the Western North Carolina Conference. We are pleased to note that gratifying results have attended these efforts.

We regret that there has been a decided decrease in the amount of Sunday School Day offerings received by the Treasurer of our Board during the present year. Over half of the Sunday schools of our Conference fail each year to observe Sunday School Day and to forward any financial returns to our Treasurer. Offerings made were in a number of instances much smaller than usual. Our work has thus been hampered during the past year and jeopardized for the ensuing year.

We have had in the field during the past year four whole-time workers, each of whom has given faithful and efficient service, these being O. V. Woosley, Conference Superintendent of Sunday school work; Paul F. Evans, Extension Secretary; Miss Corinne Little, Elementary Superintendent; L. F. Tuttle, Superintendent of Wesley Class work. We regret to report that the Board is unable to retain the services of L. F. Tuttle, he having elected to accept a more remunerative opportunity for Christian service elsewhere. The other three workers have been re-elected for the ensuing year.

We wish to recommend that H. G. Hardin be elected a member of the Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School.

(Signed) D. E. HENDERSON, Chairman,
GEORGE L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

Mr. Wesley in laying the foundation of Methodism did not overlook the children and young people. And to this day no man has ever been admitted into our ranks as an itinerant preacher until he has first promised to "diligently and earnestly instruct the children." For more than a third of a century "Methodism has found the Epworth League to be the best agency yet devised for giving in systematic and constructive fashion this instruction." The report of our General Secretary indicates that there has been a substantial growth in Epworth League work throughout the Connection.

The Epworth League's contribution to missions and other benevolences now aggregates about $500,000 annually. The contribution in Christian character is beyond computation.

We now have in this Conference 23 district and county unions; 20 new Senior Chapters and 8 Hi-Leagues have been organized.

The 16 institutes held during the year have issued 343 units of credit on the Christian Culture Diploma.

In addition to these our Conference Assembly at Junaluska issued 520 credits.

The Epworth Era ever grows bigger and better. It is a wonderful periodical for the young life of our church and its increasing popularity is shown by the fact that it now has a circulation of nearly 50,000 copies per month.

The Christian Stewardship Campaign should be continued and pushed more vigorously than ever before. As an aid in this work it is very important that all our Leagues observe the Christian Stewardship Covenant.

We are pleased to note that a number of Young People's Revivals were held last November and December. These evangelistic services were held under the auspices of local Chapter and Epworth League Unions and resulted in great good. We recommend that such revival be conducted again this fall wherever practicable. We would again call the League's attention to the Missionary Special and would insist that it be raised in full.

The Book-a-Month Club is a forward step and should be extended throughout the Conference. The Recreation Leaders' Association also merits the serious attention of all our young people.

Your Board approves the fine work done by our efficient Field Secretary, Rev. G. G. Adams, and recommend that he be reappointed to this position.

Our pastors should not overlook Epworth League Anniversary Day, the fourth Sunday in March. This day should be observed in every congregation whether there be a local Chapter of the League or not, and an offering should be taken and forwarded to Mr. Joe D. Thompson, Treasurer, Mooresville, North Carolina.

Let the entire Conference give serious and prayerful attention to our young people, "that our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace."

(Signed) T. A. GROCE, Chairman,
J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The literature produced by the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is large in quantity and high in quality. The total sales of our Publishing House last year were $1,966,927.67. On these sales a net profit of $176,818.67 was made. Out of this profit $105,000 was appropriated to Conference Claimants. The Publishing House distributed more than 35,000,000 copies of its various periodicals last year and in addition to this, thousands of books were sold.

We have Sunday school literature unexcelled. The Methodist Quarterly Review and the Christian Advocate deserve a wider circulation than they now have. The Epworth Era and the Missionary Voice are magazines of unusual excellence. Many books coming from the Cokesbury Press are attracting attention outside of our own denomination. A few of the most important books recently published are: "Prince of the Pulpit and Pastorate," by Dr. H. C. Howard; "Ministerial Ethics and Etiquette," by Harmon; "Walking With God," by Harrell; "Christianity's Contribution to Civilization," by Eldridge; "Christ and the New Woman," by Chappell; and many others of equal merit. Your Committee calls attention, along with these, to Bishop Mouzon's Lyman Beecher lectures delivered at Yale last spring and entitled "Preaching With Authority," published by Doran.

Our Publishing House has recently established the Mail Box Library, which makes available a large library of the choicest books for the small membership fee of $5.50 per year. This, together with the Missionary Circulating Library recently established, ought to make a large contribution to that enrichment which comes through the reading of good books.

The Department of Tracts has prepared for distribution more than 50 tracts, which are mailed free to pastors on request, in such quantities as are needed. We think a wise use of these tracts will do great good.

CONFERENCE ACTION REGARDING THE DIAMOND JUBILEE

We have come to a high hour in the life of our own North Carolina Christian Advocate. Seventy-five years of unbroken service is not to be passed over lightly. This is the year of our Diamond Jubilee. We would celebrate in a great way, having as our slogan, "The biggest and the best paper in Southern Methodism." We therefore recommend that this Conference make the following order:

1. Let the Diamond Jubilee campaign be put on early that all new subscribers may get the special features of the year. No one will want to miss such features as "Romance of American Methodism," by Dr. Garber, or the pictures of the preachers who minister to our people.

2. Let every pastor see that the Advocate is presented in every church so that every Methodist may be invited to become acquainted with it.

3. Let every preacher and layman who has our work at heart join with the Advocate office in securing the full quota of names in every pastoral charge to go on the Diamond Jubilee Roster.

4. Let all of our people know that the success of this celebration depends upon us. This is our business and we must make it a glorious success. We can, and we will. This is the best of all the years for our North Carolina Journalism.

We recommend that each Presiding Elder at his first district meeting plan a united effort for an early campaign in his district.

This year which brings the Diamond Jubilee of the North Carolina Christian Advocate also marks the seventy-fifth year of the history of our Publishing House. In view of this joint Diamond Jubilee year your Board requests an hour at the 1930 session of our Annual Conference when suitable recognition be given these agencies of our church.

We recommend the election of N. L. Eure to succeed himself as a member of the Board of Publication.

We also recommend Rev. A. W. Plyler for appointment as Editor and Assistant Business Manager of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

(Signed) L. D. THOMPSON, Chairman,
OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE

CHURCH SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE

1. We recommend to pastors the observance of Paragraph No. 512 of the Discipline which calls for the election of a Committee on Temperance and Social Service in each congregation, to be confirmed by the Quarterly Conference; and that the Disciplinary instruction be followed by which this Committee shall actively advance the interests of Temperance and Social Service in the congregation further.

2. That these Committees undertake such definite projects in community welfare as are in harmony with the spirit of Jesus.

3. That the pastors send the names and addresses of the Chairmen of these Committees to the Secretary of the Annual Conference Board of Temperance and Social Service (Mrs. W. A. Newell, Greensboro) so that she may send them leaflets containing practical suggestions for work.

TEMPERANCE

We are aware of a strong and subtle propaganda directed by wet interests against prohibition, and we believe it should be counteracted by an equally vigorous campaign for the education of children and young people in the effects of alcohol on body and mind. We therefore recommend:

1. Especial emphasis on the preparation of the Temperance lessons in the Sunday school.

2. Interest on the part of parents in the temperance teaching in the public schools required by the state.

3. That we give our hearty support to the Anti-Saloon League and the W. C. T. U., as the two great nation-wide organizations through which our people in the churches have co-operated effectively for the overthrow of the legalized liquor traffic and through which we may continue to co-operate effectively for the perpetuation of prohibition for the creation and maintenance of a proper sentiment for law observance, and law enforcement, and for the education of the masses concerning the evils of strong drink.

WORLD PEACE

The churches are the greatest force for world peace. We feel sure that the mind of the Prince of Peace is expressed in the spirit of the General Treaty for the Renunciation of War. We believe that the signing of this Treaty by 46 nations marks a new era in international relations. This pledge was signed by our senate in behalf of the citizens of the United States. It should be understood by them as a promise binding every citizen. We, therefore, urge our pastors to interpret its significance to their congregations. To this end we commend the observance of Armistice Sunday as prepared by the Commission on International Justice and Good-will of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, a copy of which has been sent to each pastor.

INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

We are deeply impressed with the acute situation in industrial relations, but since a commission was elected by our last Annual Conference to study industrial relations in this state and since they will bring in a report with definite recommendations, we are leaving this question with them.

RACE RELATIONS

When two races of widely differing history, tradition and characteristics dwell side by side, under the same government and economic system, difficulties inevitably arise, only to be dispelled by the exercise of justice and mutual forbearance. The relations between the Negro and the white races in North Carolina have been remarkably free from friction. This condition has been brought about by the efforts of leaders of each race, who have set themselves to achieve opportunity for each race to work out its destiny in racial integrity and racial self-respect, and yet with such consideration for the other as will avoid conflict and produce harmony.

As an organized body of Christians we owe encouragement to those groups that are making conscious effort to bring about this fine understanding, and to promote Negro welfare and progress. We are constrained to offer this support and fellowship in the name of our Lord, who made brotherhood and respect for personality the supreme law of life.

We therefore recommend:

1. That we pledge our co-operation to the North Carolina Commission on Inter-Racial Co-operation.
2. That Dr. Charles C. Weaver, Dr. W. W. Peele, Mr. Charles H. Ireland and Mrs. L. E. Brown and the Chairman and Secretary of this Board, ex-officio, be designated a Committee on Race Relations of this Annual Conference.
3. That wherever possible Race Relations Sunday be observed in our churches.
4. That the attention of Ministerial Associations be called to the needs and possibilities of inter-racial co-operation in their communities.
5. That we commend the policy of our church and secular papers in publishing constructive material concerning Negro achievement and progress in the form of editorials and news items.
6. That we pledge our co-operation to the General Commission on Inter-racial Co-operation in their "Adventure in Good Will."

(Signed) W. B. SHINN, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 1

The laymen of the Conference were requested by Bishop E. D. Mouzon to formulate a plan for the liquidation of the debt upon the Chapel Hill Church, and a special committee of laymen consisting of J. F. Shinn, J. Robert Long and H. L. Newbold considered the matter, and prepared the report herein. This report was submitted to the Board of Lay Activities and unanimously endorsed and recommend that the plan be adopted.

The report follows:

"A special committee of laymen from each district of the Western North Carolina Conference was called by Bishop Mouzon for the purpose of devising ways and means of liquidating the debt on the church at Chapel Hill, this debt having been guaranteed by the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences.

"In this meeting a Committee was appointed to submit a plan to the laymen in attendance at this Conference. The Committee recommends the following plan:

"1. A Committee of three laymen from each of the Conferences to be appointed by the Bishop as a general committee to perfect an organization for the purpose of liquidating the debt on the church at Chapel Hill, N. C.

"2. This Committee to be authorized to employ a field man, and to have authority to fix salary and expenses.

"3. The general committee to select a suitable layman from each district, who in turn will select an outstanding layman from each pastoral charge, as a point of contact for the field man.

"4. It will be the duty of these Committees to furnish the district chairman a list of persons in each pastoral charge who will assist the field secretary in raising the necessary funds.

"5. All moneys collected to be turned over to the Treasurer of the Joint Commission, M. E. Hogan, Chapel Hill, N. C., to be kept in a special fund and paid out only upon order of this general committee.

"6. The Treasurer of the Board of Missions of each Conference to be authorized to advance as a loan, not to exceed $1,000.00, from each Conference, for the purpose of defraying organization expenses; any borrowed money to be repaid from the collection by the field secretary.

"7. This plan is not to vitiate any previous plans, agreements or guarantees made by the Conference Boards of the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences."

THOMAS C. HOYLE, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 2

The future of the church depends upon an intelligent, consecrated body of laymen, and in order that it may be obtained, we most earnestly request the co-operation of every minister in the Conference, as well as every layman.

We wish to lay special emphasis on Christian Stewardship and Evangelism.

We believe that Christian Stewardship should be preached by our pastors, that our people should study the best books on the subject, and that our church should have a period of intense cultivation of this most important doctrine.

We recommend that an every-member canvass of our church, for the pastor's salary, benevolences, and all other expenses of the church, be made as early in November as possible; and in order to facilitate this canvass, this Board will furnish free of charge, to any church applying for same, printed pledge cards.

We recommend the early payment of the Conference assessments, and suggest as a minimum, that at least one-half of these claims on every charge be collected before the meeting of the District Conference, and that the remainder be collected at least one month before the next Annual Conference.

We pledge our hearty support to the Presiding Elders and pastors in the collection in full of salaries, and of all assessed benevolences.

The Board of Lay Activities is profoundly interested in Evangelism, and is thoroughly committed to the enlisting of all Christian laymen in the work of personal evangelism. Ours is a spiritual movement, and its ultimate goal is the deepening of the spiritual life of the men of the church. We pledge our hearty support to the efforts of our ministry to get back to the principle and practice of the early Christian church.

Sunday, June 8th, 1930, has been designated by the General Board as "Layman's Day," and we earnestly request that the pastors and lay leaders co-operate in planning and conducting lay services that day.

We wish to express our appreciation of the Methodist Layman, and recommend the plan suggested by Mr. G. L. Morelock, General Secretary, for increased subscriptions to that paper. We urgently request each lay leader to procure at once not less than thirty-six new subscriptions in his district.

We nominate Charles H. Ireland as Conference Lay Leader for the coming year.

In conclusion, we would urge upon the pastor and Presiding Elders the importance of appointing strong men as church and charge lay leaders; no more important place is held by any layman, and we respectfully request that the strongest and most consecrated laymen in each church or charge be appointed lay leaders.

(Signed) CHARLES H. IRELAND, Chairman,
THOMAS C. HOYLE, Secretary.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home has had a quiet year, but we think a year of progress. For the first time in several years we have no building on hand. This perhaps is well enough, inasmuch as there has been some decrease in the income from the churches. For the second time our fifth Sunday collection has shown a decided falling off. It is too early to say how the payments on the ten per cent will come out. Up to this time, however, this fund is considerably behind last year.

At some expense, we have put in a manual training department, and after more than a year's experience we are much pleased with the results. Many children who have no taste or aptitude for books take readily to manual training. And in some cases the activity of the hands stimulates the mental activities to such an extent that the whole attitude of the child toward an education is changed.

Another effort to improve our service is a case worker. We have employed a young woman to investigate all applications from children. Having no other duties, she is able to make these investigations promptly and more thoroughly than heretofore has been possible.

She goes more deeply into the conditions of the children for whom applications are made, studies the family history, ascertains the causes of the trouble, and investigates every possible method of relief. During the year she has been able to find places in private homes for more children than she has recommended for admission into our Home. Our usefulness has been very much enlarged by the activities of the case worker. Her work puts us in the way of being able to help almost every child who applies. We have not quite reached the point where we can say we will provide for every child, but we are making substantial progress to that end. Heretofore, we have been able to take such as we had room for, and assumed no responsibility whatever for the others.

In many cases the children for whom applications are made have relatives able and willing to care for them, but owing to some family misunderstanding they are not called upon. The case worker attempts to find every relative and tries to awake a sense of responsibility in them, and in most cases succeeds. Often there are circumstances and opportunities for these children which require a little persevering effort to uncover, but which make it unnecessary to place the children in an institution. It is due to facts like these, which the Superintendent, for lack of time, has not been able to find out, that has made it possible for our visitor to render such a service to the children, and at the same time protect the church from a great expense.

She has also discovered for herself that occasionally there is a mother who could keep her family of children together if she had a little larger cash income. After hearing her report, your Board has authorized the Superintendent to spend as much as $100.00 a month in aiding mothers to keep children in their own homes. This experiment has been begun so recently and in such a small way that we are now unable to make any report of our own experience. Many of us know that the Baptist Church has been much pleased with the results of this method of aiding needy children. Many also are acquainted with the favorable reports which come from the mother's aid work of the state.

HOSPITAL BOARD—REPORT NO. 1

The Commission appointed by this Conference at its last session has investigated prospects for the purpose of establishing a hospital within the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference.

The Duke Foundation offers $35,000 to establish a hospital at Elkin. The citizens of Elkin and nearby towns have secured a like amount, making possible the erection and equipment of a thirty-five room hospital.

The Chatham Manufacturing Company has donated a site of fifteen acres in a native grove within the corporate limits of the town.

We, therefore, recommend that this Conference authorize the erection of this hospital for which the funds and site have been provided, and that the hospital be named:

THE HUGH CHATHAM MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

We further recommend that the following board of directors be elected: L. B. Abernethy, Thurmond Chatham, H. K. Boyer, Dr. C. S. Lawrence, R. A. Doughton, Dr. J. W. Ring, Alex. Chatham, Dr. James L. Doughton, Mason Lillard and John Hanes.

That this Board of Directors be authorized to receive title to property to hold in trust for the church, and to perform such duties as may be necessary to the erection and maintenance of said hospital, and that they report to the Hospital Board of the Western North Carolina Conference annually, and in connection with the General Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Vacancies occurring on the Board of Directors from any cause shall be filled on nomination by and elected by the Western North Carolina Conference.

(Signed) H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

HOSPITAL BOARD—REPORT NO. 2

We find these stimulating facts from the General Secretary's annual report:

Eleven hospitals with 26 buildings on 40 acres of city land; 1,701 hospital beds, 32,275 patients, $400,000 free service in 1928, $66,000 being raised by Golden Cross; 10 nurses schools, training 690 nurses, $1,500,000 invested in 1928, $9,500,000 in physical property, besides the Duke values. The General Hospital Board was organized in 1922, since which time it has received $126,182 from General Conference and spent $116,189, thus leaving a surplus of $9,993.

We request $250 for operating expenses. Golden Cross was represented at every District Conference by L. W. Colson in person or proxy, with one unavoidable exception, and he also represented our Conference in General Hospital Association.

We recommend Rev. L. B. Abernethy as Conference Director Golden Cross, and Rev. L. W. Colson as Chaplain United States Veterans' Hospital, Oteen, North Carolina, and Conference representative in General Hospital Association.

(Signed) H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

BIBLE BOARD

The Holy Scriptures have been powerful, under God, in promoting civilization; in stimulating to great achievement; in giving a knowledge of theistic correctness; in teaching the fundamental truth concerning God and man in their relation to each other and in many other things. We do not believe the Bible to be of such a nature that its interpretation should be restricted to a limited few. We hold that every one should know the scriptures and have the right of personal interpretation. To this end we have sought to place the Bible or parts of the Bible into the homes of the people, in both the homeland and in the mission fields where we work. This implies a large amount of work and talent. Translations must be made, helps must be prepared, the mechanical work in printing and binding must be done. We have found it expedient to use the American Bible Society as our agency in doing this important work. For these reasons there is in our budget an item for the American Bible Society.

We urge that our people be made acquainted with what we are doing in this important field as well as in the field of Missions, Church Extension and other realms of activity.

H. L. POWELL, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH

Whereas, the year 1930 will be the nineteenth Centennial of Pentecost:

Whereas, we believe that the primary function of religion is to impart the consciousness of the presence of the living God to men: and,

Whereas, both the social and the evangelistic functions of our religion are dependent upon the genuineness of our spiritual experience:

Therefore, be it resolved by the Western North Carolina Conference:

First: That the Bishops be requested to take such steps as, in their wisdom, will utilize this historic occasion for the further development of the church's sense of the Divine Reality; and of its God-given commission to save the world.

Second: That the Bishops be requested to invite the co-operation of such other religious bodies in this celebration, as in their judgment may seem proper.

Third: That as a Conference we commit ourselves, beginning now, to the spirit and principles of this triumphant era of our glorious gospel.

Fourth: That Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon be requested to call the ministers and laymen of the Western North Carolina Conference together at such time and place as he may deem advisable for meditation, prayer and testimony in order to prepare our leadership for the most fruitful observance possible of this occasion for the local church.

Fifth: That a copy of this resolution be sent to those Annual Conferences of our Connection yet to convene prior to the fall meeting of the Bishops.

(Signed) W. W. PEELE, Chairman,
H. B. TRIMBLE, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

We are deeply conscious of the growing laxity in the observance of the Christian Sabbath. We recognize the distinction in origin and purpose between the ancient Jewish Sabbath and the modern Christian Sabbath. If a Sabbath grounded in law was necessary for the molding of a righteous people from a primitive race, how much more is a Sabbath transcending that law necessary for the perfecting of a holy people from a race tutored in modern Christian enlightenment. The Lord's Day is no less important to our spiritual needs today than the legal Sabbath was to man's needs two thousand years ago. The observance of it serves as a spiritual tonic to our religious life. We, therefore, deplore its desecration as a death-blow at a divine institution. Its observance affects the very foundation of our civilization and determines the character of our peace and prosperity. Men are menacing its security and perpetuity by digging away at its foundation. The church itself oftentimes seems unmindful of the damaging action, even within its own confines, against the holiness of this day. There are today violations of the commandment of God given to man to help him to find life at its best, and these violations are contrary to Christian conscience and to the faith of our fathers, who truly found life at its best in its observance. Now we fully recognize that there is a superiority of Christian conscience over ritualism or Pharisaical observance. Individuals differ in their conception of the day and in their interpretation of its significance in moral conduct and religious experience. They must, therefore, regulate or modify their observance of it in the light of its meaning to them. Again, we recognize the truth that man was not made for the Sabbath, but the Sabbath for man. We believe that the richest blessings that this day can bring to man will come, and come only, to those who observe it in the spirit of the Master, who was Lord even of the Sabbath.

To save this divine institution, which is recognized as one of the pillars of our civilization and which is being undermined by modern abuses, we submit to this Conference for adoption the following recommendations, believing that delay will tend to increase the menace our church now faces rather than diminish it:

First. That we in our Christian practice be more careful to remember this holy day.

Second. That we in our Christian pulpits impress the importance of a holy observance of this day upon our members, seeking to teach them to observe all things which Christ commanded.

Third. That we in our Christian press do all possible to create a conscience for a more faithful observance of the Lord's Day in the spirit of Christ, seeking thereby blessings for ourselves and glory to our God.

W. E. BIRD, Secretary.

JOINT COMMISSION

The Joint Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Protestant Church of North Carolina, submits the following report:

1. We are glad to note that the sending of Fraternal Messengers from the Conferences of one denomination to those of the other has brought about a better understanding between the denominations, and has also aided in creating a closer Christian fellowship. So far, so good. But your Committee feels that the time has come when these two denominations operating in the same territory, fighting a common foe, and striving in the same way to build up the Kingdom of Jesus Christ in North Carolina, should begin a closer and more active co-operation in a few communities in this state. This, we believe, can be done to the glory of God and to the advancement of His Kingdom.

After careful consideration at two meetings of this Joint Commission, it was agreed to recommend to our respective Conferences the elimination of one Methodist group in communities where each of the churches represented on this Commission has a small following, and where neither can have satisfactory growth. If this plan should not be acceptable, then we recommend a co-operative effort in keeping with the plan proposed a year ago.

The plan of this elimination is for one group to join the other, and the church thus demembered to be closed and the property disposed of in harmony with the law of the church involved.

We, furthermore, recommend that this plan be tried out in two communities where similar conditions maintain, and that this Commission, together with the Presiding Elder involved and the President of the Methodist Protestant Conference, be authorized to choose these communities, and to put the plan into operation.

We, also, recommend that with the approval of this plan by the Conference, the Commission proceed in the communities selected to make effective the plan proposed.

The Commission understands, of course, that full co-operation is hardly to be expected in the local churches where the plan may be tried. There will be those with strong local and denominational attachments, who, perhaps, will not be able to adjust themselves to this new order. The Commission understands, too, that church membership is not a matter in which coercion can or should be used. Each individual has a right to settle this for himself. If some prefer to go into other Methodist Churches in other communities, they would have that privilege. Others, perhaps, would elect to join the churches of other denominations; they would be perfectly free to follow that course. However, it is our hope that the majority of our members would join the merger. Though, in any event, it is our opinion that we would be better off in the end with only one Methodist Church in these communities than we are or can be under the present conditions.

The Commission proposed a fair, and equitable, and Christian adjustment between the two denominations in working out this scheme. If the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, yields the territory in one community the Methodist Protestant Church will give way in another community of equal strength and opportunity. There will be no scheming for advantage. The aim will be to promote the interest of each church; and above all, the progress of the Kingdom.

In this spirit, and as the result of our deliberations and best judgment, and in obedience to what we understand to be the purpose of this Commission, we submit this proposal to our respective Conferences for their deliberation, and we do it with the earnest prayer that their conclusions may be in harmony with the spirit and purpose and glory of Him who is the great Head of the Church.

2. We commend most heartily the effort to wisely consolidate rural churches where it can be done to the advantage of Kingdom interests.

3. Following the agreement of a year ago, that the term of office of two members of the Joint Commission, representing each of the two denominations should expire each year, C. B. Culbreth and J. F. Kirk were nominated by the group of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for the election by their Conferences, respectively, the North Carolina Conference and the Western North Carolina Conference. The matter of electing two members by the Methodist Protestant Conference was referred to the Nominating Committee of that Conference.

MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

Your Board of Managers is pleased to report that the Pastors' School at Duke University the past summer was up to its high standard of service to the pastors and laity of the church.

We desire to call attention to the changes made at the 1929 session of the school in regard to the opening date and duration of the Pastors' School for the coming 1930 session. The school will open June 10th and will continue for ten days through June 20th. We believe this will allow more pastors to attend the school and will work for the accommodation and convenience of all concerned.

The Dean, Prof. J. M. Ormond, submits the following statistical report:

NUMBER OF CREDITS RECEIVED

	N. C. Conf.	W. N. C. Conf.	Other Confs.	Total

Undergraduate	25	38		63

Those on the Board whose terms expire this year are:

North Carolina Conference: M. T. Plyler, J. C. Wooten, L. L. Gobbel, J. H. Lanning.

Western North Carolina Conference: H. H. Jordan, E. K. McLarty, H. G. Hardin.

DUKE FUND COMMISSION

We are pleased to report that the plan of sending out student assistants to serve ten or twelve weeks on country circuits was continued this past summer with gratifying results. There were thirty-nine circuit pastors in the two North Carolina Conferences who were able to use one of the young preachers in their work. We would urge all pastors who desire assistants for the summer of 1930 to apply to Prof. J. M. Ormond immediately after Conference when plans have materialized for the year's work.

We take pleasure in announcing that the Board of Church Extension in Louisville has placed an architect at Duke University to co-operate with Duke University and The Duke Endowment in the building of country churches. He will be available not only for providing plans and supervision for country churches, but his services may be had by any congregation that is planning to build a church.

Those on the Commission whose terms expire this year are:

North Carolina Conference: M. T. Plyler.

Western North Carolina Conference: R. M. Courtney.

METHODIST MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

Pursuant to authority given by this Conference at its session last year, your Directors re-insured all of our policies in strong Mutual Insurance Companies through the Mutual Insurance Agency of Greensboro. This was done without loss to the Methodist Mutual Insurance Company or to its guarantors.

We commend the liberal policy of the Mutual Insurance Agency and thank the Manager, Mr. R. T. Settle, for his assistance in winding up the affairs of our Company so successfully.

W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

Your Committee to examine District Conference Records had the Records from the following districts: Asheville, Charlotte, Gastonia, Marion, Mount Airy, Salisbury, Waynesville and Winston-Salem.

We found the record for the Asheville District a model of neatness and a work of art. Rev. W. F. Sandford, the efficient and painstaking Secretary, deserves the highest commendation for the way he has preserved these records.

The record for the Charlotte District has typewritten sheets pasted to the leaves of the book. With this exception the record is well kept.

The record for the Gastonia District was found to be in good shape.

The record for the Marion District was in splendid condition.

The Mount Airy District record was well kept with the exception of some ink stains on the paper.

The Salisbury record was efficiently kept.

The Waynesville record was in good form.

The Winston-Salem record was in splendid condition.

The records for the Greensboro and Statesville Districts were not in our hands for examination.

(Signed) R. F. HUNEYCUTT, Chairman,
H. L. POWELL, Secretary.

CHURCH PROPERTY

We are under a sacred obligation to care well for the house of God and all other property consecrated to the service of the Master. With the passing of the years much improvement has been made in church buildings and grounds, and increased interest has been manifested in the care of all church property. But we should continue to go forward in this work. The church should be just as beautiful and just as well kept as the very best home in the community. We still see, especially in the rural sections, many church buildings sadly in need of paint, window panes, recovering and other repairs, and proper lighting systems. We see church yards washed into series of gullies or grown up with weeds and sprouts, and we see church cemeteries overgrown with weeds and briars. Inside the church we see dirty, uncarpeted aisles, a few wornout hymn books scattered here and there on the seats, and Sunday school magazines piled on a front bench or on the chancel floor. We desire to repeat with emphasis that these church properties are sacred possessions and should be reverently and systematically cared for.

We recommend that all our church buildings be kept in good repair and well painted, with window panes complete, aisles, chancels, and pulpits carpeted; neat bookcases for the Sunday school supplies; good lights, kept clean and in working order; and adequate heating plants.

We recommend that our church grounds be kept neat, not just once or twice a year, but all through the year, that walks be conveniently arranged and kept clean, that parking spaces for cars be set apart and used by the car-owners, and that evergreens and flowers be planted in intelligent order for beautification.

We recommend that our church cemeteries be kept clean, with graves systematically arranged as far as possible and carefully marked, and with walk-ways intersecting the cemeteries in a convenient system.

We recommend that each of our congregations provide in the front yard of the church a bulletin board containing the name of the church, the times for services, etc.

We recommend that all our churches keep a sufficient number of our own Methodist song books, in good condition, to supply the entire congregations at our services, and that book racks be placed on the backs of the pews to preserve the books and keep them conveniently distributed throughout the church.

Since what is everybody's business is nobody's business, we suggest and recommend for the carrying into effect of our preceding recommendations that each church employ a janitor or caretaker, whose duties shall be to care for the church building and grounds as we have herein before recommended. We recommend that an annual church upkeep fund be raised and expended for this purpose. Where the church trustees will not attend to this work we recommend that a church property committee consisting of both women and men be appointed by the pastor to raise and administer this fund.

We further recommend that when a new church is planned, or an old one remodeled, the building committee consult and co-operate with the Department of Architecture of our General Board of Church Extension, Louisville, Ky., or Duke University, and also that wherever feasible consolidation of churches be effected.

We desire to call attention to the matter of insurance. According to the last Annual Conference Journal there are 874 church buildings and 252 parsonages with a combined value of $14,074,262, but only $4,061,953 of insurance is carried on this property, a little less than one-third of the value of the property. We recommend that all our churches and parsonages be insured for at least three-fourths of their value.

It has been the experience of all church historians that church records extending back any considerable distance into the past are very difficult to locate. There seems to be no definite place designated by the Discipline for the preserving of church record books. We, therefore, recommend finally, that all church records, including records of church Conferences, Quarterly Conferences, and church rolls, when they are ready to be stored for preservation and future reference, be kept in the parsonages of the several charges, that all district records of whatever nature be kept in the several district parsonages.

(Signed) J. M. BARBER, Chairman,
J. P. MORRIS, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON SOUTHERN ASSEMBLY

The Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has received with interest the proposal of the stockholders and commissioners of the Southern Assembly to convey the ownership and administration of the Assembly to a Board of Trustees to be elected by Annual Conferences east of the Mississippi River.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: First, That the Western North Carolina Conference accept said proposition and will co-operate in the proposed plan on the basis set forth.

Second, That this Conference endorses and commends to our people an appeal for voluntary contributions for the enlargement and better equipment of the Assembly that it may serve the interests of the church in the most efficient way.

Third, That this Conference does not assume any liability for any financial obligations of the Southern Assembly, nor is said Conference either financially or morally obligated for any present or future indebtedness of the said Assembly. We hope and believe that it will be amply sustained by the thousands who shall benefit by it and by those who habitually support the great and worthy institutions of our church.

Fourth, That the Board of Trustees created by this Conference, in co-operation with other Annual Conferences, is hereby authorized and empowered to secure incorporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina whenever in its discretion incorporation may be necessary or desirable for the better discharge of its trust.

Fifth, That Rev. A. W. Plyler be elected a Trustee of the Southern Assembly, to serve one year, and that Mr. E. A. Cole be elected to serve as Trustee for two years, and as their terms expire one Trustee shall be elected for a term of two years at each session of this Conference hereafter.

Sixth, That the Board of Trustees shall submit annually to each of the co-operating Conferences a full report of the condition and operations of the Southern Assembly together with such recommendations as the Board may deem advisable.

Seventh, That the above acceptance on the part of the Western North Carolina Conference shall not be effective until at least nine other Annual Conferences east of the Mississippi River have accepted this proposal on similar terms.

COMMITTEE ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Your Commission has been hindered in its work of investigation by constant agitation and resulting economic distress in our industrial life. Disorder, killings, violence, and mob action have disgraced our citizenship. Our church deplores this situation; feels a keen responsibility in these things, and is eager to assume her share in remedying these evils.

For many years our church has been a member of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, and our Conference has, each year, for a long while voted complete adherence to this social creed. Our General Conference has adopted the creed and it is now a part of our Discipline. (See Discipline, Paragraph 513).

We delight in co-operating with the Christian forces in seeking a better social order.

At our last session, through the adoption of the report of the Board of Temperance and Social Service, the Conference took the following action:

"Our Conference territory is rapidly becoming one of the great industrial areas of this continent. This evolution from a rural section into factory and urban centers, with the attended shifting of population will open to us possibilities for marvelous expansion and entail inescapable responsibilities. We must develop all existing fields as they are established, and seek a broader understanding of Methodism's relation to economic needs.

"We rejoice in the homogenous character of our population. This common origin of employer and employee is the basis of our progress and to it is due the fine understanding which exists between capital and labor in this state and we hope that in the expansion of our industries there may be no importation of ideals or policies alien to this fine Southern tradition.

"For the benefit of all who toil, for the preservation of the home, for the improvement of the product, and for the stabilization of industry we urge both employer and employee to join with us in urging the gradual and complete elimination of night work for women and adolescents and we seek the co-operation of all lovers of humanity in securing wise and conservative legislative enactment for accomplishing this purpose."

The following action was taken through the adoption of the report of the Board of Missions:

In view of the increasing industrialization of our Conference territory and the new problems which necessarily arise thereby, your Board wishes to go on record as having a sympathetic interest in every phase of the social, economic and moral problems connected with this work. And in order that we may be able to act with knowledge and efficiency in this field, the following have been selected as a committee to study the industrial situation and make report with a view to arriving at a sane, helpful and Christian plan of work: R. M. Courtney, J. F. Shinn and W. A. Newell.

Since that time profound disturbances have been felt in our textile industry. Twenty per centum of our charges are composed of textile workers, and those related to the industry. Seventy-five per centum of these receive aid from the Board of Missions. It is a field of prime importance in our development. We desire to present certain facts for your consideration.

First. The textile industry is a "sick industry." This is revealed in current price quotations on standard mill stocks. These quotations show a net decline of more than 50 per cent in average price within the last nine years. This decline continues. The oft cited "huge dividends" do not exist and are useful for propaganda only. Very few mills have made more than a reasonable return upon the investment. While it is probable that more than half of them have made nothing in this period of readjustment.

Second. A definition of the Minimum Standard of living has been stated as follows:

"The minimum normal standard of living must furnish everything necessary for a manner of living that will make possible a high standard of physical, mental, and moral health and efficiency for adults, the full physical and mental growth and development of children, and provision for their moral welfare."

"At present cotton mills can not pay a wage scale sufficiently large to secure this standard. The wage scale in North Carolina is decidedly higher than in the states south of us which are engaged in this industry. The industry is highly competitive and is now suffering from over expansion. But this living wage should be paid the workers and the cost added to the price of the product. This can be worked out in such a way as to secure this living wage for the worker, a just return for capital and a fair price for the consumer."

Third. No hope of relief is to be found in wage cuts, stretch-out system, extension of hours of labor, shut-outs, or other forms of economy which lay additional burdens or privations upon the workers. On the other hand, strikes, sabotage, restricted production and similar action by the workers can only add to the general distress; these expedients belong to economic warfare but long and costly experience has taught us that conference, understanding and co-operation of Christian brotherhood should prevail in industrial as well as in all other human relations.

Fourth. We beg both employers and employees to, in the Spirit of Christ, join hands, minds, and hearts in securing a better industrial order, whereby all shall prosper. We pledge to them our hearty good will and brotherly co-operation in every effort for improvement and assure them of our sympathy in this time of stress and trial.

Fifth. We urge our senators and representatives in the Congress of the United States to secure the creation of a permanent, non-partisan, non-political commission for the proper study of all related problems and that the report of such commission be made as a whole, covering the entire textile industry so that wise changes may be made in our laws relating to the industry. It is a national industry and is worthy of national study.

Sixth. We rejoice in the reduction of hours of labor in this industry and pray for the further reduction of night work for women and children. The gradual elimination of night work for all is an ideal toward which we strive.

Seventh. Our church should seek to render a larger service in this field. Our methods do not seem so successful as we should desire. It would greatly benefit the entire industry if the manufacturers would assume a larger share in the support of existing churches in their respective areas. Surely capital should bear at least one-half the burden of maintaining religious worship in mill communities. It may be possible that it would be wise for us to conduct a Sunday school in every village where the disciplinary requirements can be met. We find that the people in a mill group prefer to attend church in the mill village.

Eighth. We recommend that a conference of all pastors who labor in textile centers be called at an early date for further consideration of the problems involved.

Ninth. Since Duke University is becoming the great seat of ministerial training, and, since so many of these ministers will eventually be called upon to serve industrial congregations, we should be pleased to have established there a chair of Industrial Relations for the training of our future ministers in these great problems.

MEMORIALS TO THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

Changes in Paragraphs 901 and 904 of the Discipline have been recommended by the Presiding Elders and referred to this Committee for consideration. The petition is:

1. To change Paragraph 901, on boundaries in lines 12, 13 and 14, so as to omit the words: "and Patrick and Carroll Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, west of Dan River."

2. To change Paragraph 904 on boundaries, in lines 7, 8 and 9, so as to omit the words: "including all the territory in Carroll and Patrick Counties, Virginia, south of the crest of the Blue Ridge, west of Dan River."

Your Committee recommends that the General Conference give favorable consideration to this memorial by amending Paragraphs 901 and 904 of the Discipline, as above set forth.

(Signed) JAMES A. BELL, Chairman.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in Wesley Memorial Church, High Point, North Carolina, at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, October the 22nd, 1929. W. E. Poovey, President, was in the chair.

The opening devotional service consisted of the singing of Hymn 415, "Faith of Our Fathers," prayer offered by J. O. Ervin, and the singing of Hymn 180, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

The minutes of the session of 1928 at First Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina, were read by the Secretary and approved.

A nominating committee consisting of J. P. Hipps, T. C. Jordan and W. L. Sherrill was appointed by the chair.

A collection to meet the expenses of the Society was taken, and $34.17 was contributed. This sum was paid to the North Carolina Christian Advocate on account for printing.

The Committee on Nominations made its report, recommending for President, R. M. Courtney; Vice-President, Dr. Dred Peacock; Secretary-Treasurer, W. G. McFarland; member Executive Committee succeeding himself, C. M. Pickens; and they were elected.

Mr. Poovey then remarked upon the very important place of the Historical Society in our program of work and introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Dred Peacock of High Point. Dr. Peacock delivered an excellent address, the subject being "The History of Trinity College Since 1882." Afterwards a rising vote of thanks was tendered Dr. Peacock by the Society and congregation in appreciation of this interesting and instructive address.

The closing prayer was led by Dr. W. P. Few, President of Duke University.

(Signed) W. E. POOVEY, President,
W. G. MCFARLAND, Secretary.

THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in twenty-first annual session in Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, High Point, N. C., at 2 o'clock p. m., October 26, 1929, W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. After devotional services, conducted by W. R. Ware, minutes of the last session were read and approved. The report of the Secretary-Treasurer showed that five members of the Brotherhood had died during the year, namely: S. T. Barber, L. H. Griffith, R. M. Hoyle, E. R. Welch and W. F. Womble. The report also showed that $1,800.00 had been paid on each of the five claims except that of R. M. Hoyle, on which had been paid $800.00, leaving a balance yet due on that claim of $1,000.00. Amount in banks on this date, $4,146.00. All of which showed the Brotherhood to be in excellent condition, and rendering fine service.

The following resolution was presented by E. M. Jones:

"Be it resolved and passed that if any preacher does not join the Brotherhood the year he is admitted into full connection into the Conference, or prior thereto, he shall be required, when he does join, to pay all dues back to the date he was admitted into full connection."

The action on this resolution was favorable, but as it is an amendment to the constitution, it is required that it be published in the North Carolina Christian Advocate three weeks before the next annual session of the Brotherhood and may then be finally acted upon at that annual session.

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice-President, W. R. Ware; Secretary-Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. G. D. Herman and W. L. Dawson were appointed by the chair as members of the Executive Committee.

Adjourned with benediction by W. L. Dawson.

(Signed) W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary and Treasurer.

Memoirs

REV. SAMUEL TURNER BARBER

The tribute that one is faithful to duty merits the prime eulogy of Him who declared: "Ye are my disciples if ye do whatsoever I command you." The life of Samuel Turner Barber was a true exponent of fidelity to duty in the varied spheres of life and conduct.

With courage was blended gentleness; with zeal was united patience; with positive conviction was cherished the charity which never faileth.

Brother Barber's ministry was constructive. He became noted as a church builder, beginning from his early ministry. Having a trained mind, he prepared well his sermons; and being endowed with evangelistic talent, he was efficient in revival work. During his membership of thirty-seven years in the Western North Carolina Conference he wrought faithfully, and the fruitage of his labors will abide as imperishable blessings in promoting the Kingdom of Christ.

In paying a worthy tribute to his memory Rev. James B. Craven, his presiding elder, stated that no other interpretation of the life of Samuel T. Barber could be made than that based upon assurance of immortality. With such sacrificial devotion to heroic service he had the spiritual vision as "seeing Him who is invisible."

From an article which Rev. J. B. Craven furnished the North Carolina Christian Advocate the following extract is quoted: "Brother Barber labored well. As a preacher, pastor, leader in church building enterprises, an advocate of more efficient work in Sunday school, he pressed forward with a persistency and determination which brought results. He gave himself without stint to the ministry of the church and has entered into the reward of the faithful."

Samuel Turner Barber, son of William Zachariah and Sarah Waters Barber, was born in Rockingham County, N. C., April 17, 1868. He was graduated from Trinity College in the class of 1892, and in the fall of that year he was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference. His appointments were as follows: Jamestown Circuit, 1893-94; Pleasant Garden, 1895-98; Old Fort, 1899; Lowell, 1900-01; Walkertown Station, 1902-03; Linwood Circuit, 1904-05; Henrietta-Caroleen, 1906; Mooresville, 1907-08; Mt. Zion, 1909; East Greensboro, 1910-11; Asheboro, 1912; Matthews, 1913; Andrews, 1914-15; West Asheville, 1916-17; Morven, 1918-19; West View, Hickory, 1920; Main Street, High Point, 1921; Conference Evangelist, 1922-23; Denton, 1924-25; Randleman, 1926; Coleridge, 1927-28; Glenwood, Greensboro, 1929.

On June 29, 1892, he was united in marriage to Miss Annie Palmer of Rockingham County. Surviving are the wife, two sons and two daughters.

His last sermon at Glenwood Church, Greensboro, was delivered about one week before his going to the hospital. His text was: "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."—Isaiah 40:31. In this valedictory message he preached with unusual fervor, and seemed to speak out of an experience of triumph through sustaining grace.

For some time before his departure he gave evidence of being aware of his physical condition, was calm in reference to the matter, and spoke with the assurance of faith. During this period he would engage in reminiscence including his former experience in the hospital elsewhere when he was instrumental in leading two patients to Christ, stating the opportunity a hospital has in doing spiritual good.

He returned home from a local hospital only two days before his passing. During this time he was preparing to conduct his prayer meeting, Wednesday evening. On that Wednesday morning, February 6, 1929, the end came suddenly and without suffering, when he was translated from his earthly home to "a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

The funeral service was held in Glenwood Church at 11 a. m. on Friday, February 8, being conducted by J. B. Craven, assisted by J. H. Armbrust, L. D. Thompson and S. B. Turrentine. Interment was in Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro.

S. B. TURRENTINE.

REV. LINWOOD HIGGINS GRIFFITH

Rev. Linwood Higgins Griffith, son of John O. and his wife, Sarah Griffith, was born April 27th, 1873, and died June 12th, 1929. On the 16th of October, 1892, he was happily married to Miss Lillie Josephine Brinkley of Yancey County. To this happy union seven children were given, four sons and three daughters, all of whom with their mother remain on this side of the River.

Brother Griffith was born and reared in Yancey County. There among the mountains, hills and the fine people of that great section of country he grew and gathered the strength of body and mind, and the deep spiritual power of soul that helped to make him the excellent man he was as a worker and minister in Christ's kingdom on earth. He descended from a people who were strong Methodists, who loved the Methodist Church and believed its doctrines. Growing up in the midst of such a wholesome Christian atmosphere he naturally gave his heart and life to Christ early in young manhood. He joined the Methodist Church and was ever afterwards deeply devoted to his church and its work. He attended the best schools of his county and was during his life a student.

While a young man Brother Griffith felt the call to preach and finally yielded his life to the work of the ministry. He was for awhile active as a local minister and served in the Conference as a supply. His work was so fruitful and gave such evidences of the stamp of God's approval that he was led to apply for admission into the Western North Carolina Conference, and was admitted in 1910 at Winston-Salem. During his work in the Conference he served very successfully the following charges: Ball Creek Circuit, 1905-09; Mars Hill, 1909-13; Bethel, 1913-14; Jonathan Circuit, 1914-18; Polkton, 1918-22; Thrift-Moores, 1922-23; Albemarle Circuit, 1923-26; Bethel-New Hope Circuit, 1926-29. In every charge where he served he was greatly loved by his people. They loved him and believed in him because he was a man of God. He won the confidence of children and young people, and they seemed glad to follow in the way he was leading. As a result of this fine leadership the charges he served were greatly strengthened.

Brother Griffith's faith in his Lord was strong and steadfast, even unto the end. He seemed to believe the word of God fully. Just a few days before his going the writer of this sketch heard him give a funeral talk in which he expressed his faith in the future life, and the Heavenly Home of the soul, in utterances which were profound. He loved the great and beautiful things of nature and was a close student of the world about him. He often found there much excellent material which he built into some of his best sermons. He greatly loved the people of the rural sections and through his splendid preaching won many of them for Christ and to a life of service in His kingdom.

On June 12th, while working in his garden, he was stricken with that dreaded disease known as apoplexy, and a few minutes after reaching his home he became speechless and unconscious and soon slipped away from earth and loved ones to rest in that beautiful land of unclouded day.

W. B. DAVIS.

REV. ROBERT M. HOYLE

Robert McNeely Hoyle was born February 26, 1850, and departed from this life June 30, 1929. He was 79 years, four months and four days old when he died. He was the son of John and Mary (McNeely) Hoyle of Cleveland County.

He was united in marriage to Miss Rebecca Wilson in 1873 and to this happy union were born four children. Two of his children preceded him in death, and he is now survived by his widow and two children. His son, Caleb, of Shelby, and his daughter, Mrs. Lucy Wells, of Middleburg, N. C.

He was converted in 1865 and joined Big Hill Methodist Church in Cleveland County. He was licensed to preach in 1870, having received his local license at Palm Tree Church under Dr. Hudson. He attended the public schools in his home neighborhood, and received his training for the ministry at Rutherford College under the direction of the late Dr. R. L. Abernethy. He was always a friend to this great old institution and for many years served as one of the trustees. He made many sacrifices for Rutherford College and was always interested in her progress. In his death the school has sustained the loss of one of its best friends and most ardent supporters.

He was admitted into the North Carolina Conference on trial at Durham, N. C., November 24, 1881, and served on the following charges during his long and fruitful life. His first appointment was Columbus Mission, 1882; Cherry Mountain, 1883; and in this year he was ordained as deacon by Bishop Keener. His third charge was the South Fork Circuit, and he served there for three years, 1884-85-86. In 1885 he was ordained as elder by Bishop Keener. His ministerial record from his ordination is: Davidson Circuit, 1887-88; Forest Hill, Concord, 1889; Mount Airy District, 1890-93; Central, Monroe, 1894; Morganton District, 1895-96; Statesville Station, 1897; Shelby District, 1898-99; Forest Hill, Concord, 1900; Polkville Circuit, 1901; Palm Tree and Lawndale, 1902; Waynesville District, 1903-04. (In 1904 he entered upon his second year as presiding elder of the Waynesville District and about a month after Conference an exchange was made by which Rev. C. F. Sherrill was transferred to the Waynesville District and Brother Hoyle took Brother Sherrill's place at Central Church, Shelby, for the remainder of the year). Shelby District, 1905-08; Morganton District, 1909-12. In 1913 he took the supernumerary relation with the expectation of getting some much needed rest, but about the middle of the year Dr. S. B. Turrentine, who was presiding elder of the Shelby District, was elected president of Greensboro College, and Brother Hoyle was appointed by Bishop McCoy to fill out the year as presiding elder of the Shelby District; Mount Airy District, 1914; Mocksville Station, 1915-16; Kings Mountain, 1917; Newton, 1918-19. In 1920 and 1921, superannuated. Then to Kings Mountain, 1922-24; Belmont, Main Street, 1925-26. He was superannuated in 1927 and remained in this connection until his death. He gave 44 years of his life in active service in the ministry and eternity alone will reveal all that was accomplished in that time.

Brother Hoyle had a rich religious experience and was an ardent contender for the great doctrines of Regeneration and the Witness of the Spirit. He had a keen mind and a warm heart. He was one of the greatest Bible scholars that it has ever been my privilege to meet. He knew what the Bible taught, and he also had the ability of getting other people to understand the truths that he wanted to bring in his messages. He had the apostolic spirit, and was a worthy follower of the great Founder of our church. He grew up in the days when people knew what real hardship was and he had within him the true fiber and character of the soldier. He was truly a hero of the Cross. He was dauntless in his convictions, and aggressive in spirit. He was one of the best known men in our conference, and was greatly admired by all who knew him. He was a true shepherd of the flock over which he was appointed and was loved by the people that he served. Truly it can be said that a prince in Israel has fallen; but we all know where to look for him. I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write, blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." Many shall stand at the last day and answer, "Saved by Jesus' blood"; and he shall rejoice in the knowledge that he was instrumental in leading them to Christ.

The last few months of his life were spent in the most intense pain and suffering; but he bore it with the courage of a soldier and the patience of a saint. He affirmed over and over again his strong faith in God, and gave every assurance of being ready to depart and be with Jesus when the summons came. In fact it seemed that his greatest desire was to depart and be with Jesus. Truly he passed through the fires of afflictions without the smell of fire upon his garments, and the pure gold of his character shone with a greater luster and splendor during these hours than ever before. In the hours of darkness his spiritual sight became keener until he pierced the veil and saw things that only God's chosen ones are permitted to see before the crossing. Those who had the privilege of being with him in these last days have a stronger faith by having heard his clear ringing testimony to the realities of the world beyond. God sat as the refiner of silver, and when he saw his own image reflected in this life, which had stood the test of every fire, he said it is enough and the fire was withdrawn and a pure soul went home to be with God where it will shine throughout eternity.

The funeral service was held at Central Methodist Church at Kings Mountain. Many shall stand at the last day and answer, "Saved by Jesus' tain. The writer was assisted in the services by Revs. W. R. Ware, W. A. Newell, H. K. Boyer, E. K. McLarty and A. C. Swafford. Many other ministers were present for the service. The body was laid to rest in the Mountain Rest Cemetery of Kings Mountain.

J. R. CHURCH.

REV. EDWIN RUSKIN WELCH

Edwin Ruskin Welch, son of Henry and Mary Ellen Welch, was born at Clio, S. C., March 31, 1874, and died at the French Broad Hospital, Asheville, February 21, 1929, after an illness of about ten days.

The Welch family moved to Red Springs, N. C., when Edwin was ten years old, and it was here that he spent the formative years of youth. He was educated at Trinity College, now Duke University, graduating with the class of 1899, and joined the North Carolina Conference at Washington, and was appointed to Richlands Circuit.

On January 30, 1900, he was married to Miss Lula King of Wilmington, N. C., and to them were born two children, Joseph Hodges, deceased, and Elizabeth, now at the head of the Latin department of the Biltmore High School.

He remained a member of the North Carolina Conference for eleven years, his last charge in that Conference being Trinity Church in Wilmington, when in 1910 he was transferred to West Oklahoma Conference and was stationed at Lindsey, Oklahoma. Then to the Guymon District as presiding elder; in 1916 to First Church, Ardmore. The last appointment that Brother Welch held in the West Oklahoma Conference was that of field agent for the proposed University Place Church at Norman, Oklahoma. While serving in this field our country entered the World War, and Brother Welch volunteered for service and was stationed at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C. After the armistice was signed, he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, and in 1918 was stationed at Wadesboro. It may be noted that our present Bishop Mouzon was then in charge of the West Oklahoma Conference and granted the transfer that was received by Bishop Darlington, who was that year in charge of the Western North Carolina Conference. After three years at Wadesboro he was sent to Lenoir, serving that charge for one year. The charge granted him a vacation trip to Palestine, voting him his expenses for the trip. His next charge was Chestnut Street, Asheville, which he served for two years, when he was assigned to Brevard, where he remained for three years. At the conference at Gastonia in 1926, he was appointed to his last field of active labor, the Oakley Charge in the Asheville District. In May, 1927, he suffered a breakdown in health and was relieved of the charge by Bishop Mouzon, and at the conference that fall was granted the superannuate relation, which he has since held.

The following are, in order, the charges he served: Richlands Circuit, 1899-1900; LaGrange, 1901; Roanoke Rapids, 1902-03; Hope Mills, 1904; Roanoke Island, 1905; Siler City, 1906-07; Buckhorn Circuit, 1908; Trinity, Wilmington, N. C., 1909; transferred to the West Oklahoma Conference, 1910; Lindsey, Okla., 1910; Guymon District, 1911; Altus, 1912-13; Wynnewood, 1914; Ardmore, First Church, 1915; Norman, First Church, 1916; field agent for Oklahoma Conferences for the University Church to be built in Norman, November, 1917-May, 1918; May, 1918, entered service as Y. M. C. A. worker, U. S. Army, and stationed at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.; at conference held in Charlotte, November, 1918, at close of the war, was transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference and stationed at Wadesboro; Wadesboro, 1918-19; Lenoir, 1920; Chestnut Street, Asheville, 1921-22; Brevard; 1923-26; Oakley, Biltmore, 1926.

The influences that surrounded Brother Welch in his early years were a great factor in determining for him the direction of his life work. Both his father and mother were devout people. However, the mother stamped upon the susceptible nature of the growing boy more indelibly the religious principles that were to guide him in his after years. It was to her that his thought turned when he was appointed pastor at Lenoir, where he became the pastor of the girls at Davenport College. For it was to this school that his mother had come as a girl for training, from her then distant home in South Carolina.

For thirty years he served the church in these three Conferences in twenty-one different fields of labor. His was an experience that carried him into almost every section of North Carolina, from the Atlantic on the east to the heart of the hills in Western North Carolina, and his work in Oklahoma as field agent for the University Church carried him all over the two conferences in Oklahoma.

For thirty years he gave himself in service to the people. For thirty years he carried on, sometimes in the joy that comes from an appreciative people whom he tried to serve, sometimes with a lack of response that tended to sear and deaden the enthusiasm that was natural to him. But in the face of difficulties that would have caused the average man to surrender, he carried on to the end. On his last charge at Oakley he gathered the young people about him and urged them on to reorganization, and gave to the Epworth League a renewed lease on life and usefulness.

His last illness came suddenly. He had undergone an attack of influenza a few weeks before, but had apparently recovered and was at work as usual. But about ten days before the end came he developed a cold which passed quickly into pneumonia, and with it the release. He passed away quietly into that rest that remaineth to the people of God, in the early morning hours of February 21, 1929. His body was laid away on the slope of a hill in Riverside Cemetery at Asheville.

JOHN F. KIRK.

WILLIAM FLETCHER WOMBLE

When William Fletcher Womble passed to his reward the church lost a loyal member and a faithful minister of the gospel, and his family a devoted husband and father and brother.

Brother Womble, son of the late J. J. and Lois Atwater Womble, was born in Chatham County, N. C., February 21, 1859, and received his translation from Winston-Salem, January 7, 1929, being in the seventieth year of his age. His father died in Virginia in service during the war between the states, leaving his wife and four little children to continue the struggle for the necessities of life without his aid. Fletcher was the third child of the family, and was about five years of age when his father died. With rare courage, the widow devoted herself to the task of rearing the children in the fear of God. Only a few years ago she passed away at about the age of ninety years. To the last of her life, Brother Womble visited his mother regularly and showed every mark of abiding affection for her who had done so much for him under difficulties which he knew so well.

In 1881 Brother Womble was happily married to Miss Olivia Snipes, also of Chatham County, and thus were laid the foundations of a home as beautiful and true and wholesome as mutual love and the grace of God can produce. Mrs. Womble gave herself unstintedly, intelligently, and with a deep and beautiful consecration to the joint task of making a home and of fulfilling the demands which devolved upon her as the wife of a minister. To this union were born three children, a daughter who died in infancy, a son who passed away at the early age of eight years, and another son, Hon. Bunyan S. Womble of Winston-Salem, who, with his mother, survives.

In young manhood the subject of this sketch entered the mercantile business in Siler City and was quite successful in it. However, having felt all the while the obligation to enter the ministry, but having put the impression aside temporarily on account of the exacting demands of such a calling, he came to a decision at about the age of thirty years, to enter the ministry. Accordingly he relinquished all active participation in business and, after several years educational preparation for the work, he joined the Western North Carolina Conference at Asheville in 1891 and served the following charges: Wentworth, 1892-95; Lincolnton, 1896-98; Shelby, 1899-1902; Newton, 1903-06; Morganton, 1907-10; Reidsville, 1911-13; Hendersonville, 1914-17; Lincolnton, 1918; Presiding Elder, Mt. Airy District, 1919-21; Presiding Elder, Greensboro District, 1922-25; Newton, 1926-27.

At the Conference held again in Asheville in 1927 he asked for and received the superannuate relation, feeling that the cares and burdens of the pastorate were becoming increasingly difficult under his advancing years. He came, with Mrs. Womble, to Winston-Salem where they built a home and lived for a few months until his release came suddenly.

Such are some of the brief facts of his life and ministry among us. It would be out of the question for us to frame a memoir containing, in proper adjustment, all the elements which entered into his character. It would not be proper for us to attempt it, even if we had all the facts, since his manner of living in our midst was such as to preclude all suggestion of ostentation. A few additional words, however, should be said in justice to his cherished memory.

There are various standards by which a human life may be measured, but only one of these can stand the acid test of the great Adventure which we call death. In the business world, one is measured by what he is worth; in the professions, by his clientele; in academic circles, by what he knows; in society, by that subtle quality which we call gentility. The athlete examines his muscle; the scientist, his brain; the employer, his earning capacity; the state, his patriotism; the school, his ideals.

But when the shadows of the day lengthen and the sun goes down; when the holy hush of twilight has softened all the discordant notes of the fretful hours of stress and struggle, we are apt to place a new emphasis upon certain qualities which seemed less conspicuous before, but which now are seen to undergird the whole life structure, imparting to it a strength and a nobility which is bound to endure.

If I were asked to say the biggest thing about him that I can think of, having known him intimately, it would be this: "He was a good man." And that is the greatest thing that can be said of any person. Brilliancy may scintillate for a little while; genius may dazzle and charm us; fame may place the laurel today which fades tomorrow; but goodness is the enduring virtue that never grows less nor disappoints anybody who comes in touch with it. Brother Womble was an honest man, and an honest man is the noblest work of God. He was a man of gentle spirit, possessing a high sense of personal integrity, and one who was governed by conscientious principles in his dealings with his fellow men. He was a genuinely religious man, giving the best of all that he had to Him who gave His all that he might live. Moreover, he was a quiet man, never thrusting himself forward in any joint enterprise with his brethren, but all the more valuable for that reason when called upon to render real service.

His was a well poised life. As a minister, he was alert, efficient, painstaking, sympathetic, and conscientious. He possessed the pastoral heart in a peculiar way. It is said of our Lord that he went out and saw the multitude and that he "was moved with compassion toward them." In this essential particular, our brother shared the emotions and feelings of his Lord in the presence of those who were committed to his charge as the shepherd of the flock. He gave of his time and energy and service unstintedly and ungrudgingly. Even after his retirement from the active ministry, he eagerly responded to every invitation or opportunity to preach and assist the brethren with their work.

As a presiding elder, he manifested always a kind and brotherly spirit. He failed in no particular to counsel and advise with and help the pastors committed to his charge. If he ever spoke evil of any man, the records are silent at that point. He did not criticise his brethren in the ministry. A high tribute was paid him by a member of his family who said that no single instance could be recalled of his ever having spoken harshly or with a show of anger toward any living man.

As a man, he was capable of drawing men very close to him. He had the subtle power of making men love him. I suppose no man has worked among us for a generation whom the people loved more genuinely than they did this fine Christian gentleman. He was an optimist. Very sensitive to the frailties of people, yet he judged them in all charity, and refused ever to be completely discouraged.

Furthermore, he was always studying to do good to somebody else. It was a life-long custom of his, never paraded before the public, to assist, out of the meager salary that a minister customarily receives, some worthy boys and girls in the matter of getting an education and securing other needed life equipment. Deprived of the best educational advantages in his early life he, nevertheless, recognized its value and furnished others the opportunities which were denied him.

His devotion to his family was perfect.

His going was unexpected, but he was ready—more ready than we to part with him.

The funeral service, participated in by Rev. C. C. Weaver, Rev. C. A. Wood and the writer, was conducted in West End Methodist Church, Winston-Salem, N. C., on January 8, 1929, after which his body was laid to rest in the city cemetery to await the resurrection of the just.

The Methodist Church in North Carolina never had a better friend than the late Mr. Benjamin N. Duke, who was a great-hearted and consecrated layman of Durham, North Carolina. He never refused to give liberally of his means for the betterment of mankind. Every school controlled by our Conference has been strengthened through his generosity, and our Conference Orphanage was not forgotten by him. And then his will contained a bequest of $50,000 to our Conference Superannuate Endowment Fund for the benefit of our superannuate preachers.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. That we are very thankful to Mr. Duke for all that has been done for our schools, our orphans, and our retired ministers. We shall ever remember him with love and gratitude for his bestowment of gifts for our benefit.

2. That we express to Mrs. Duke and all the family our Christian love and tender sympathy, and pray the blessed Lord may comfort and sustain them in the loneliness and sorrow through which they are passing because of Mr. Duke's decease.

3. That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes and that a copy be sent to Mrs. Duke.

(Signed) W. W. PEELE, Chairman,
A. P. BRANTLEY, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—REPORT NO. 2

The new Board of Christian Education has carefully reviewed the work of the various Boards now merging under the head of the Board of Christian Education. It is the desire of the new Board to take all the interests of these Boards into consideration and conserve their efforts as far as possible.

The Board of Education has served our Conference with honor and we wish to express our appreciation for their constructive work among our colleges and universities.

The work of our Sunday School Board is no less deserving of our words of appreciation than that of the Board of Education. Their efforts have touched every local charge in the Conference. Such influence has been far reaching and will be lasting, for the work of this Board has touched the lives of the entire constituency of our church, from the youngest to the oldest.

The Epworth League Board has concentrated its interests and efforts on the young life of the church and its influence will be felt in the generations to come.

We recognize with a sense of appreciation the accomplishments of these Boards, and feel assured that whatever may be the contribution of the newly created Board of Christian Education, much honor will go back to its predecessors who blazed the trail and left their imprint that we might follow.

The Board recommends the following appointments for the ensuing year:

J. M. Downum, Professor in Appalachian State Teachers College.

Dr. S. B. Turrentine, President of Greensboro College.

W. M. Curtis, Business Manager of Greensboro College.

E. P. Billups, President of Rutherford College.

J. E. Yountz, student Duke University.

D. D. Holt, student Duke University.

J. G. Wilkinson, student Duke University.

Reid Wall, student Chicago University.

G. R. Stafford, student Duke University.

	Sustentation Fund	2,500.00

For expenses of this Board for the coming year (salaries, training schools, office expenses and traveling expenses)—$17,325.00.

We also recommend that the General Board of Christian Education make appropriations as follows:

For Student Pastor at N. C. College for Women	$1,000.00
For Student Pastor at Chapel Hill	1,200.00
For Rutherford College	1,000.00
For Weaver College	1,000.00

The Board further recommends that Rutherford College be allowed to continue in the field and collect a sufficient amount from pledges and other sources to liquidate its indebtedness.

A Committee from this Board has been named, consisting of the President, W. L. Scott, and R. D. Ware, to work with a joint Committee from the Board of Missions as a Committee of Co-operation for the extension program of our work.

In the promotion of the work of the Local Church the Board emphasizes the following recommendation, and urges the Executive Secretary of Christian Education to sponsor, as far as possible, in every charge of the Conference, that two special days be observed: namely, That Church School and League Anniversary Day be on the same day, preferably morning and evening, and that it be as near as practical on third Sunday in April. That College Day be observed on or near the second Sunday in June.

The Board reviews the educational statistics of our colleges and university for your information:

It is, therefore, the purpose of the Board to carry on all the work, that the three merging Boards have had in hand, and we ask the hearty support of pastors and people in this undertaking.

Plans are already under way for securing the largest possible efficiency in the educational work of the church. Some of the workers who are to co-operate with the Executive Secretary, John F. Kirk, have already been selected:

Miss Corinne Little, Secretary of the Elementary Division.

Rev. G. G. Adams, Director of Young People's Work.

Rev. W. A. Kale, Secretary of Extension Work.

It is the desire of the Board that pastors lay emphasis on the circulation of the Epworth Era, the monthly magazine for our young people, published by the General Board of Christian Education.

Also, pastors and leaders are urged to give careful attention to the selection of young people as representatives to our Epworth League Assemblies held at Lake Junaluska during the summer. Every charge should be represented.

In consideration of the welfare of the educational work among the young people of our Conference, a Committee composed of W. W. Peele, W. R. Odell and W. H. Worth has been elected from this Board to confer with the trustees of Rutherford and Weaver Colleges in regard to the best interest of Christian Education as it relates to our Conference and the junior colleges.

The financial policy of the Board will be to work out a detailed budget and confine expenditures for each purpose within the amount allotted.

(Signed) W. W. PEELE, Chairman,
A. P. BRANTLEY, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Your Board of Education has had before it representatives and reports from the following institutions: Duke University, Greensboro, Davenport, Weaver and Rutherford Colleges, and hereby submits the following report:

DUKE UNIVERSITY: The outstanding points of interest relative to this great university are:

1. The occupancy of the new buildings on the new campus for the first time. Thousands of visitors have inspected this wonderful equipment and have been very commendatory in regard to its structure and arrangement.

The Hospital was opened July 21st. Seventeen patients were admitted the first day, and by the fourth day over one-half of the available ward and private beds were occupied. An additional hundred beds were made ready on August 18th. Out-patients attend the clinic from the beginning, at the rate of over one hundred per week.

The School of Medicine admitted fifty-three first-year and seventeen third-year students at the opening October 1st. These seventy students were carefully selected from over three thousand applicants and are from thirty different colleges and universities. One-half are from North Carolina and the remainder from New England and Utah to Cuba.

The School of Nursing has had over four hundred applicants and twenty-five will be admitted January 2nd.

The Law Building was occupied on August 1st. It is admirably equipped for library, class room and office purposes.

2. The organization of the University:

The Hospital and medical school staff consists of forty-three salaried professors and instructors and forty graduate nurses, in addition to sixty-one physicians and surgeons on a voluntary basis.

The Law School faculty is composed of such able men as Justin Miller; Clariel Horack, a graduate of Harvard Law School, Professor Douglas Blount Maggs, a graduate of the University of California and Harvard Law School, and others of equal note and ability. Further appointments of outstanding men will be made during the coming year.

The School of Religion now has sixteen men on its faculty. Its enrollment has steadily increased until it has reached one hundred and twelve in 1929-30. This school specializes in the country church; and during the past summer fifty-seven of its students were engaged in church work in the country districts of North Carolina. We must not fail to make mention of the fact that in September the old campus, including its twelve new buildings, was set in order and opened for women.

Thus Duke University is being developed and organized for the years and even centuries to come.

GREENSBORO COLLEGE: It is with genuine sorrow that we note the passing during the year of three strong friends and supporters of this institution. Mr. John A. Young, a member of the Board of Trustees, died January 11, 1930, at the age of 73. On Monday, February 10, 1930, Mr. James A. Odell, a former Trustee, died at the age of eighty-nine years. May 28, 1930, Mrs. Lucy H. Robertson, president emerita of Greensboro College, in her eightieth year passed into the larger life.

The outstanding needs of the college are the completion of the endowment fund of $500,000.00 and the installation of a central heating plant. Otherwise Greensboro College is making fine progress.

DAVENPORT COLLEGE: The faculty for this year is exceptionally strong, and so far as these requirements are concerned, Davenport is in position to enter the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the main handicap, however, being a lack of sufficient endowment funds. The prospect of coming out this year with an even balance in finances is encouraging. All things considered, this is decidedly the best year of the present administration.

WEAVER COLLEGE: This is the first year Weaver College has operated without the enrollment of high school students, and the experiment justified itself. Even with the elimination of the high school students, the enrollment for the session was just six less than for the preceding year. The financial condition shows decided improvement over previous years. Religiously the year was rather above the average. The members of the faculty are doing satisfactory work, and there is the usual improvement in administrative problems. In spite of business depression, this college reports a net profit as to the cost of running expenses for the year 1930 of $136.83. It looks as if Weaver among the hills will abide and abound continuously.

RUTHERFORD COLLEGE: The past year has been one of the best in the school. The enrollment for this year shows an increase of 21, and because of a lack of scholarships, thirty boys could not be enrolled. Also a number of girls turned away. There are 26 ministerial students, 2 student volunteers, and 13 children of ministers enrolled. As to cost of current operation, the college is on a sound financial basis. The new church building has been completed and is a fine religious asset to the college and community. The management is to be congratulated on operating successfully a farm of 100 acres owned by the college, the proceeds of which are applied to the running expenses of the college.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

During the seventy-five years history of our Publishing House, progress has been made from the most meager beginnings to the very forefront of the Southern publishing business. The annual volume of business now is about $2,000,000. Our satisfaction, however, is rather in the fine quality of literature published than in the amount of sales. It really looks as though this enterprise of our church had "come to the kingdom for such a time as this." It is not that the people would be without something to read if we did no printing. There is no shortage of reading matter. The problem is not to find something to read, but to find something fit to read. Finding something worth while calls for much picking when one stands before the present-day news stand. There is reading matter there, but much of it is worse than useless; it is largely vicious. The reading of it enfeebles the mind, dulls the moral sense, and fights against all that is spiritual within us. Our Pure Food and Drugs Act has guaranteed quality in food and medicine, but we have not yet attempted a similar protection of the mind against the vilest impurities and adulterations in the reading matter of the time. In the absence of such provision, the part of wisdom would seem to be the patronage of our print shop, whose products we can guarantee to be clean. Our books are modern, prepared by scholarly men, attractively published and reasonably priced; and we can keep up with the times without buying elsewhere. Our Publishing House maintains a Department of Tracts in order to furnish us, without cost, leaflets and tracts on Doctrine, Stewardship, Evangelism and Polity of our church. More than half a million of these tracts were distributed during the last fiscal year. Abundant testimony has been given of the value coming from this work. Lamar & Whitmore will send a list of the tracts published to anyone who makes request.

To attempt to set forth the merits of our periodical literature would place a greater tax upon space in the Journal than this Board is privileged to make. Our papers are good and they are all the time becoming better. They are worthy of the great church for which they speak. They need a bigger audience that their message may do a greater good.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

In the face of much complaint of hard times, the Advocate has steadily come forward with an enlarging subscription list. The plan for "trial subscriptions" has been a remarkable success, 7,000 having been received within the last two months. We are now sending out 22,000 papers each week.

We offer the following recommendations for next year:

1. That the Methodists of these two Conferences in the state set themselves to the work of building up a printing plant at Greensboro that will be in keeping with our colleges and other institutions in North Carolina. The North Carolina Christian Advocate is closing its seventy-fifth year, but only for twenty-five years have we been working in a permanent way. Our united effort in the state dates back for only a decade. With wise planning and persistent effort much can be done in the next twenty-five years. Preachers and leading laymen should lend every energy to this end—they can keep this ideal before the Methodist people.

2. A special state-wide effort should be made to secure more job work. With the plant we have, it should be possible for us to save our people money and at the same time to give them first-class work. We certainly can meet all competitors for the same grade of work done. Let our Conferences, schools and Boards, as well as individuals, turn work to the Advocate office. We have some regular customers who, without questions, forward to us work to be done. We desire to increase the number of those who know where to go for good work at a reasonable price. Our chief business is not to make money—though we must have a care to see that we make ends meet. We have no subsidy or help from any source.

3. Careful work must be done to make our "trial subscribers" permanent readers of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The office expects to follow these up through the mails; let the pastors encourage the people to renew before the twelve weeks are out so they may not miss a copy. A united effort to hold our present readers and to secure those who are testing out the paper should enable us to make a fine showing this new year. The North Carolina Christian Advocate is now at the head of the procession; let it be an increasing influence in the homes of the people.

If a drop of ink may make millions think, what should a great printing plant here at Greensboro do for the state and the regions beyond? Can we Methodists rise to the opportunity of the hour? The years will make answer.

We recommend that Thomas C. Hoyle be elected to succeed himself as a member of the Board of Publication and that A. W. Plyler be reappointed editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

(Signed) J. H. BARNHARDT, Chairman,
 OTHO J. JONES, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

The Board desires to express appreciation of the splendid service rendered, as a whole, by the heroic men who have served in our mission charges this year. In the continuance of this good work we suggest that every reasonable effort be made to build the charges into self-supporting units.

Three things stand out in a review of the past quadrennium in our Conference: The popularity of the Missionary Institutes, as shown by attendance; the increasing interest in the cultivation literature, as shown by the larger circulation of books; and a growing, vital concern for the spread of the Gospel, as shown by the liberal support given to the Mission Specials. We call with confidence upon our pastors and forward looking laymen to continue this progressive work, to the end that the Kingdom Extension Special shall do even larger things toward the observance of the Great Commission.

We call special attention to the Missionary Institutes to be held in January and bespeak an effort for a larger attendance than ever before.

We request that the charges continue all present Missionary Specials, and that the amount collected on these specials be credited on the apportionment of the respective charges on the Kingdom Extension Special.

We hereby respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. L. B. Hayes as part-time Conference Missionary Secretary for the ensuing year.

We nominate Rev. W. B. West on the Board of Managers of Duke Pastors' School.

We appeal to the Conference to abolish the office of Annual Conference Treasurer, as now constituted, and we request that the monies of the Conference be handled by the Treasurers of the various Boards on the same basis as was the custom prior to the Conference year 1929-1930.

BOARD OF FINANCE

The General Conference requests that this Conference fix a month during the year in which the pastors shall make a real effort to raise their charges' unpaid Superannuate Endowment quota balance. We recommend that you fix the month of April, 1931, for this purpose.

We request the Presiding Elders to provide in their respective District Conference programs an opportunity for the Conference Director of Superannuate Endowment, or his representative, to speak in behalf of this cause.

To assist the pastors in their effort to raise their quota balances, we recommend the appointment of Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick as Director of Superannuate Endowment for the Western North Carolina Conference.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

The applications submitted to this Board have received careful and painstaking consideration.

The Board appreciates the growing tendency to file applications in advance of the time set for Conference sessions, but regrets that a few still continue to wait until Conference convenes to hand in their applications. It is the earnest wish of this Board that applications be complete in detail and forwarded to the Secretary at least ten days before the Annual Conference meets.

A church architect, working under the supervision of the General Board of Church Extension, is located at Duke University. Building Committees are urged to confer with this architect before starting their projects.

We wish to again emphasize the importance of churches and parsonages being properly protected by fire insurance.

We must again impress on Building Committees of churches and parsonages that funds coming into the hands of this Board for distribution are limited and applications for aid should be made on a conservative basis. The funds received this year for distribution were much smaller in amount than for some years and much to the regret of the Board it has been necessary to omit help at a few points and give others much less than their projects deserved.

Many of our churches, we feel, have unwisely built beyond their means, thus bringing embarrassment to their congregations and incurring the serious risk of losing money and property. Churches should not build beyond their ability to pay.

HOSPITAL BOARD

1. There are now twelve Southern Methodist hospitals, counting the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital now being finished at Elkin, North Carolina.
2. Our hospitals have about 1,800 patients' beds and treat annually 32,000 to 33,000 patients.
3. The Southern Methodist hospitals during 1929 gave $475,000 of free service to men, women and children unable to pay the regular fees.
4. These Southern Methodist hospitals have eleven Nurses' Training Schools, and are training over 700 young women for the ministry of healing.
5. Our hospitals are worth upward of $15,000,000.
6. The Golden Cross last year raised on the enrollment around $90,000.

We are pleased to report that the General Hospital Board has been able to prosecute the ministry of healing with its limited resources and at the same time keep out of debt.

THE GOLDEN CROSS

We trust you will give careful attention to the Golden Cross Enrollment as this is the point of contact between the healing ministry in Southern Methodism and the work of the local church. Again and again at needy places this movement has proved that it is a highly efficient method of enabling the church in general to serve the sick in particular. This is the point where the individual church member may federate himself with other good Samaritans of the twentieth century in the Christ-like ministry of healing. We urge pastors to appoint intelligent and capable men and women Charge Directors of the Golden Cross. We ask the Presiding Elders to secure men and women of real leadership as District Directors of the Golden Cross, and we ask you to elect one of your most effective leaders as Conference Director of the Golden Cross.

We are glad to report increasing interest in Golden Cross and hospital work in our Conference. We wish to report funds in hand for completion of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital and expect the completion of the building by January, 1931. There has been raised, including site, the sum of $102,000.

We request the election of the following Directors for the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital for one year: Dr. J. L. Doughton, R. A. Doughton, John W. Hanes. For two years: Dr. J. W. Ring, L. B. Abernethy, H. K. Boyer and Dr. Fred Hanes. For three years: Mason Lillard, W. A. Neaves, Alex Chatham and Thurmond Chatham. Their successors to be nominated by the Board of Directors and elected by the Annual Conference.

We ask the appointment of Rev. H. K. Boyer as Director of Golden Cross for the Western North Carolina Conference without salary.

We commend the fine work done by Rev. L. B. Abernethy in the securing of funds and the erection of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital at Elkin, North Carolina, and in the interest of the Golden Cross registration.

We recommend the appointment of L. W. Colson as Chaplain of Oteen Hospital.

(Signed) H. K. BOYER, Chairman,
L. W. COLSON, Secretary.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE

The past year has been another forward step in the advance of the nations toward world peace. Although the naval reduction treaty did not call for the sweeping retrenchment for which we had hoped and although the United States is not still a member of the World Court, and the Pan-American Treaty is yet before this nation, we rejoice in the progress that has been made in building international machinery for world peace through conferences, treaties and pacts, in which conciliation, arbitration and adjudication will take the place of war for the settling of international disputes. The Pact of Paris is the mightiest achievement of all the ages for relegating war to the limbo of outworn and outlawed things.

If all this laboriously constructed machinery for peace is to serve its purpose, the church must play its part in the development of enlightened good will. The Church of Christ is committed to the ideals which have produced and will vitalize the Peace Pact and to be true to its task the church, through teaching from the pulpit, class room and prayer service, must help its constituency to interpret in the spirit of Jesus the concrete issues that the nation faces in its international relations. To this end we recommend a season of study in every church of some of the literature so liberally prepared for such use by the Commission on International Justice and Good Will of the Federal Council and by other organizations for the promotion of peace and prevention of war. A study of *The Turn Toward Peace, by Florence Brewer Boeckel. We especially commend study to Epworth Leagues and Young People's Divisions and adult groups in the local churches.

INTERRACIAL RELATIONS

Your Board is represented on the North Carolina Commission on Interracial Co-operation by two members. One of these members, Mrs. L. E. Brown, Superintendent of Social Service for the Conference Woman's Missionary Society, attended the meeting of the Committee on Church Relations of the Interracial Commission in Raleigh last April as a delegate from this Board. The meeting was largely attended by delegates from the various denominations in the state, and the discussions centering about the function of the church in promoting the welfare and progress of Negroes through interracial co-operation were interesting and helpful. Through the courtesy of the Chairman of that Committee, Rev. I. Harding Hughes, we have here copies of the findings of the Committee and a brief report in the form of a letter addressed to pastors. These will be placed in the church post office that each pastor may receive a copy.

We hope that these findings will be delivered by the pastors to the Chairmen of the Social Service Committees of their respective churches and may be suggestive of helpful interracial activities.

The Negro women of the Federated Women's Clubs of the state have built and maintained, out of their slender resources, a school for delinquent Negro girls at Efland. At two former sessions of the legislature they have petitioned the state to take over the school as a much-needed state institution. It is not possible for these clubs to maintain the school for the numbers that should be committed to it for reformation. Two years ago a small appropriation was made to its maintenance by the legislature. Their appeal should be reinforced by white citizens. We hope that church men and women will speak of the merits of this institution and of the great need and make known to their representatives their desire that this school, sacrificially enterprised by colored women for unfortunate girls of their own race, may be put on a secure basis as a state institution.

This state has held a high reputation for justice to all and her treatment of Negroes has received merited praise from friends of the race. For nine years the record of North Carolina was not stained by mob murder. We bow our heads in shame because this crime has again been perpetrated within her borders.

The crime was committed under aggravated circumstances. The victim was a prisoner in the county jail and under the care of officers of the law. No effort was made by his custodian to protect him, and so far the authors of the crime go unapprehended and unpunished.

It is our conviction that the fact of a lynching under the sight and knowledge of the officers of the law should automatically call for the suspension of the sheriff from office, until the criminals have been identified and punished.

What has the church at stake in the unchecked commission of mob murder? Our foreign missions are blocked. Confidence in the sincerity of our Christian religion is destroyed abroad, while at home the law and government are lynched through diabolical and insane fury. The history has been that women, youths and children have been witnesses of these spectacles. The brutalization is unspeakable. While members of His church engage in the frenzy of race hatred, the Christ is crucified anew. The Christian Church could prevent lynchings in any community if its entire membership in that community were loyal to the teachings of their religion. The church must be shamed into abolishing this heinous crime.

MOTION PICTURES

Despite the wonderful possibilities for good in the motion picture, which we have all seen realized in marvelous artistry, and with tremendous educational value, we must go on record this year as being profoundly disheartened at the prostitution of the art. Salacious publicity marks the display on bulletin boards and in the newspapers, while on the screen scenes of vice and crime, of nudity and semi-nudity, of dishonor and lust insult the intellect and conscience of the American public. The exportation of these films is serving to discredit the private and public life of the American people in the eyes of foreign peoples from Europe to the Far East.

When we consider the hosts of children that attend the theatres (estimated to average one visit a week from every child in the United States), and remember that the majority go unattended and with no selection by parents of the films they will see, we cannot wonder that the teaching of an hour a day on Sunday is nullified, and that juvenile delinquency is the major problem of the home, the school and the courts. Six thousand cuts were made from films in Chicago by the Board of Censors in 1928, as being morally corrupting. But these same scenes were shown to thousands of youths and children in cities and towns the country over where there was no censorship for their protection.

In 1922, promises of reform were made by the magnates of the industry and Will Hays was employed to see that the public sense of decency should not be offended and that there should be no violation of the 13 points in the good pictures code to which the producers had pledged themselves. Mr. Hays has succeeded—in staving off the federal censorship they feared—while every point has been violated in hundreds of films every day, and all agree that the pictures have grown flagrantly worse from that day to this. Protests sent to his office are met with bland denials of harmful influence.

Protests to exhibitors are of no avail, for they find themselves helpless, owing to the system of block booking which requires them to accept from seventy to eighty films in a continuous succession without the privilege of rejecting any save a small percentage. Producers also exercise a monopolistic control through the ownership of chains of theatres.

Local censorship has failed, and it will fail, being out of harmony with the “free American spirit.” What can the church do?

The church can do much through influence with its constituency, especially with parents. It can use the opportunities afforded in the pulpit, the Sunday school classes, the Brotherhood, the Missionary Society and the Epworth League. The following are some of the methods that may be used:

First, urge parents to send their children to those pictures only that they know to be free from objectionable features. Parents will be to blame if their children go wrong under the influence of over-stimulation, if they are sex-obsessed, craving thrills, insensitive to impurity and dishonor, confused in their measures of right and wrong, mistaking shrewd devilry for success, as a result of the demoralizing effects of the misleading teachings of the screen.

Second, urge the study of Dr. Fred Eastman's admirable pamphlet, *The Menace of the Movies, in adult and young people's classes and Epworth Leagues.

Third, use influence with exhibitors to refrain from using salacious publicity on bulletin boards and newspapers. They are not obliged to use it and it often is worse by far than the scenes which it alleges to forecast.

Fourth, study the provisions of the Brookhart Bill now before the Senate, and which calls for a Federal Motion Picture Commission empowered to supervise the production of films at the point of production, and also the export of films calculated to present the home and social life of the United States in distorted perspective or in other ways to create bad feeling between our nation and foreign peoples and governments. In this bill block-booking and other unfair procedures to the disadvantage of the trade are forbidden.

Fifth, let your own Senator know your approval of this measure. We have profited by federal laws for controlling sale of poisons, narcotics and foods. Should we not support some federal provision for preventing in some similar way the wholesale poisoning of children's minds which will eventually cause a citizenry impaired in intellect and moral fiber?

TEMPERANCE AND LAW OBSERVANCE

From time immemorial, temperance has been regarded as a moral problem. Within the last four years the forces of intemperance have used every lever to make it a political issue. It is a political issue only so far as all questions of right and wrong have a place in the political thought of a nation. The danger underlying the incorporation of temperance in the political thinking of the nation is that a few men, desiring power or prestige or profits, may come into the control of a political organization through which, in the past, voters have been able to express themselves. Since men are loath to break political ties, this constitutes a major danger to the cause of temperance. Many of them will feel that party fealty demands a sacrifice of principle on the altars of party regularity. The nation must be taught that the party which willingly and wilfully accepts a principle of action which is known to be evil in principle and in results, is unworthy to be trusted with the reins of government.

Let the moral forces make themselves heard upon these issues and let the churches serve notice that the Christian force of the nation will not be subject to the political dictation of men who have been corrupted by the insidious forces of alcohol.

Prohibition has been a success wherever the moral forces of the community demanded its enforcement. It has been a failure only where those who make liquor and sell liquor and drink liquor have joined with corrupt political bosses and prostituted officials to nullify the law.

To turn the government of this state or nation over to any group whose chief political doctrine is traitorous destruction of the Constitution is unthinkable. It will be two years before another political convention will be held. Let the church speak her mind now and gird herself for a conflict which is inevitable.

This does not in anywise minimize the need for preaching and teaching the evils of intemperance. We have been remiss at this point. Moral and social observances can only be outlined in law. To teach their observance and establish them in the minds of the people is one of the chief functions of the church. We demand that the evils of alcohol be taught in the curriculum of our public schools and colleges and we call upon our preachers to give earnest presentation to that form of godliness which expresses itself in sobriety. And we call upon all our people to abstain from this dangerous drug which maims the body, blights the minds and destroys the souls of countless millions of mankind. Surely here is a call of sufficient urgency to unite the moral forces of the nation.

For twenty-five years the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League has been the interdenominational, non-partisan agency through which our people have waged relentless warfare against liquor. Methodists have had a great part in the organization, conduct and support of the League. In season and out of season the League has stood on the firing line and has not faltered under the attacks of the enemy. At this time, when the well-organized, highly financed proponents of liquor seek to restore the outlawed traffic, we pledge anew our co-operation and support of the North Carolina Anti-Saloon League.

It has always been the policy of the General and Annual Conference Boards of Temperance and Social Service to co-operate with other agencies for social welfare and reform.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Your Sunday School Board has experienced another year of continued development and achievement in its program of activities throughout the Conference.

To the end that an ongoing Christian experience, beginning in childhood and growing richer, more Christ-like, and consequently more satisfying and powerful for good, may come to every life that may be guided by Southern Methodism we have employed various means, including:

1. Emphasis in all our contacts on the work of Evangelism.
2. Training of present and prospective workers.
3. Assisting in planning church buildings and providing suitable equipment.
4. Encouraging the use of best literature.
5. Efforts to cultivate missionary attitudes.
6. Aiding in plans and work of week-day and vacation periods of religious education.
7. Providing programs and otherwise encouraging the observance of Sunday School Day.
8. Promoting plans for maintaining and increasing our Sunday school membership.
9. Placing and interpreting new Programs of Work.
10. Restudy of the needs of our Sunday schools and of means of serving them more effectively.

There has been some degree of progress along each of the lines indicated. The training program of this year has exceeded in number of credits the work of any previous year, with more than 6,000 credits having been issued.

Our Extension Department has been very active and the results are far-reaching. Through the Duke Endowment Fund the services of five ministerial students were given in Cokesbury schools during ten weeks of the summer. This made possible the most extensive training program for the small church we have ever had. We held 80 Cokesbury schools, reaching 299 churches with credit students numbering 2,205. Our so-called "neglected areas" are shrinking rapidly.

The Elementary Department continues to serve helpfully the parents and teachers of approximately 70,000 boys and girls. The activities in this department have been directed toward helping those who train children to realize the unlimited opportunity to develop Christian character during the first years of life, and toward a persistent search for better means of meeting this challenge. The response from the field is both gratifying and stimulating. More than 150 of our Sunday schools are this fall lifting to the fore the spiritual needs of young, growing persons in the observance of Childhood and Youth Week. The increase in vacation schools this year is more than one hundred per cent. The call of childhood is awakening the church to a growing conviction that therein lies its greatest opportunity.

As our emphasis upon missionary education through fourth Sunday missionary programs increases, our Dual Special offerings have, until this year, shown some increase over former years.

During the year we have lost the services, but we are sure not the interest, of two of our all-time workers, Messrs. O. V. Woosley and Paul Evans.

Mr. Woosley has had charge of our Sunday school work for thirteen years and we venture the assertion that no Conference has had a more efficient, painstaking, and conscientious worker than Mr. Woosley. The work of the Sunday school is on his heart as it is on the heart of few people. It was a very distinct loss to our Board when he felt the call to what he thought was a wider field. We predict a great future for him in the management of our Children's Home.

Mr. Evans has responded to the call of the citizens of his native county of Davidson to take charge of the county schools. That he will succeed in a remarkable way as County Superintendent of Schools we have not the slightest doubt. Mr. Evans has done a splendid job as Superintendent of our Rural work. This employment requires a man of unique qualities. It takes him to the outposts—to the remotest corners of our Conference. The work is not spectacular but tremendously important. It requires tact and faithfulness to duty. Mr. Evans has filled the bill perfectly.

We regret the loss of the services of these two splendid workers and wish them great success in their new fields of endeavor.

Fortunately for us no Board has stepped in and taken Miss Corinne Little away from us, though her services have been sought several times. She has had full charge of Sunday school affairs, since Messrs. Woosley and Evans left, and, in addition, has attended to the work of her own department. We doubt if we have ever had a more competent worker than Miss Little. It is a pleasure to state that Miss Peacock is again at the Secretary's desk, after an absence of several months. With Misses Little and Peacock in charge, interest in the work has made good progress.

In conclusion, we wish to recall some of our achievements and growth during the past thirteen years of our active, organized efforts as a Sunday School Board. Our Sunday school enrollment has increased from 84,145 to 135,749, a gain of 61 per cent. The number of officers and teachers has grown from 6,432 to 9,385, or 46 per cent. The number of credits awarded to those studying the work of the Sunday school has increased from less than 100 to more than 6,000 issued in one year alone. The total amount of offerings in the Sunday schools has increased from $51,612 to $195,009, a gain of 276 per cent.

Our Sunday school extension work has involved and almost reached a self-sustaining basis, operating to the benefit of 500 or more small Sunday schools under the direction of a whole-time worker.

Our work with children has arisen from almost neglected obscurity to a supervised department with full-time services of an Elementary Superintendent, ministering to our children through the home and through four or five thousand Sunday school teachers.

Great as has been our success, we face the increasing magnitude of the task and the utmost needs with a sense of humility, praying for the ongoing success of our great work of Christian Education.

GEORGE L. HACKNEY, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD

Your Epworth League Board in submitting its final report under the old regime would call your attention to the confident and almost triumphant tone sounded by Dr. F. S. Parker, for many years the General Secretary of our League work. Dr. Parker says, "The best days of the Epworth League are ahead of us, just around the corner. I have never known a time when I had more faith in the future of the Epworth League of Southern Methodism than today." Truly the past has been filled with epic achievement, but tomorrow will be a still greater day than any of our yesterdays. The call of youth is not to a defense of the past nor to the championing of the present but to the building of the future!

In our own Conference we find much to hearten us. The growth of the League has been steady and at times rapid. The Senior League Assembly held at Junaluska the past summer was beyond doubt the best of all those conducted hitherto. Two hundred and fifteen young people earned credits, having met all the requirements of the standard program. The Assembly adopted a budget of $1,500 for Conference work and $3,000 Mission Special. Six gold seals, five blue seals, five green seals and three red seals have been awarded for efficiency.

We now have nineteen working units, not including the ten district units. Fourteen institutes have been held, enrolling five hundred and fifty Epworthians. Four hundred and seventy-five units of credit were awarded. A total of eleven hundred and twenty-five units have been earned during the year.

The first Hi-League Assembly ever held in our Conference convened the past summer at Lake Junaluska; and under the leadership of Mrs. G. G. Adams, was regarded as an unqualified success in every way. These Hi-Leaguers promised to double their enrollment before next summer.

Your Board would go on record as appreciating highly the work done by the Field Secretary, Rev. G. G. Adams. He has been methodical and painstaking. Much of the increased interest in the Epworth League has been due to his intelligent and untiring efforts. The Epworth League Conference organization has also contributed much to this success.

In turning over the interests of the Epworth League to the new Board of Christian Education, your Epworth League Board would pledge to this body its full and enthusiastic support. We are happy and confident as we see this generation of youth set out boldly upon the highest adventure known to man—that of living and achieving for God and eternity.

J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 1

At a meeting of this Board during this Conference, Mr. Charles H. Ireland handed in his resignation as Conference Lay Leader, and the Board, in recognition of his valuable and untiring service to it, and to the church, passed the following resolution, which they desire to have made a part of the permanent record of this Conference:

WHEREAS, Mr. Charles H. Ireland has, for many years, been the outstanding layman in the Western North Carolina Conference, and one of the most loyal and valuable laymen of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South;

AND WHEREAS, Mr. Ireland was very influential in promoting and organizing the Layman's Movement in our church, and in the entire nation;

AND WHEREAS, He has been the Conference Lay Leader of the Western North Carolina Conference ever since that office was created, and in that capacity has served his church in a preeminent degree;

AND WHEREAS, Mr. Ireland has had a broad vision of the needs of the world, and especially of the South, and has taken an active, intelligent, and enthusiastic interest in all the work of the church, and has given liberally of his means to the support of the church and its benevolences.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: First, that we accept the resignation of Mr. Ireland with sincere regret.

Second, that we extend to him our hearty thanks for his past service, and assure him of our appreciation of his devotion, and his great love for, and loyalty to our Lord and His work.

Third, that while we have allowed Mr. Ireland to give up the office of Conference Lay Leader, we shall in the future, as in the past, expect to receive from him wise suggestions, and unselfish and loyal service.

(Signed) THOS. C. HOYLE, Vice-Chairman,
G. B. GOODSON, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES—REPORT NO. 2

Your Conference Board of Lay Activities submits its annual report as follows:

GENERAL CONFERENCE LEGISLATION

The last General Conference made some changes in the program of work and the organization of the Board of Lay Activities to which we direct your attention.

1. The scope of work is enlarged to include "Training of Church Officers" in co-operation with the Board of Christian Education.
2. The charge and the church Lay Leaders and the Chairman of the Stewardship Committee are made members of the Quarterly Conference, being elected by the Quarterly Conference.
3. The District and the Associate District Lay Leaders are members of the District Conference.
4. The District Board of Lay Activities is required to meet with the District Stewards in the interest of the benevolences and to plan the lay work for the year.
5. The Board of Stewards is made responsible for the work of lay activities in the charge and the local church under the direction of the pastor and lay leader.

STEWARDSHIP

We recommend that the program of Stewardship education be continued along the lines used during the past quadrennium: Stewardship revivals, sermons, lay programs on Stewardship, Stewardship pageants, the distribution of literature and Stewardship study classes in pastors' schools, standard training schools, and in organized Bible classes in the Sunday school.

THE BENEVOLENCES

According to the instructions of the General Conference, the Board of Lay Activities will continue its efforts to promote full payment of all benevolences, "but under the direction of the Commission on Benevolences." Success has attended our work in this regard in the past, and we urge the entire lay organization, including the Board of Stewards of each church, to co-operate earnestly in the plans outlined and adopted for this work. We must go forward in this endeavor until all our people are informed concerning the great causes represented in the benevolence dollar and gladly bring their offerings as an act of worship and an investment in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

MEN'S WORK

We urge our pastors and lay leaders, and especially the Board of Stewards, to study carefully the needs of the men in the local congregations for spiritual culture and development, and to co-operate in the plans that shall be worked out by the General Board of Lay Activities in co-operation with the Board of Christian Education for the inspiration and enlistment of the men of the churches.

THE METHODIST LAYMAN

We recommend the Methodist Layman, not only as an official organ of the Lay Board, but also as a religious magazine for the men of the church, and in particular for the members of the Boards of Stewards. This paper will prove to be invaluable to the stewards in their new responsibility. We pledge ourselves to secure a wide circulation of this paper, and set as our goal a subscription from each lay leader, the chairmen of the Stewardship Committee, and each member of the Board of Stewards.

LAYMEN'S DAY

We concur in the plan of the General Board for the observance of "Laymen's Day," using as the theme for the day, "The Way to Spiritual Power," and we ask the Conference to designate for this purpose the second Sunday in June, June 14th, 1931. We pledge our best efforts to secure on this day a service conducted by laymen in every church in the Conference.

SPIRITUAL LIFE

The laymen wish to assume their part in the program of the observance of the nineteenth anniversary of Pentecost, and to this end we pledge the lay organization to co-operate with the Bishop, the Presiding Elders, and our pastors, to bring about a higher spiritual life in all the churches in our Conference.

LEADERSHIP

We earnestly plead for the sympathy, encouragement, and leadership of our Presiding Elders and pastors in inspiring and training the lay organization for its task. We have only one desire, and that is to serve as best we can in advancing the work of our great church and the cause of Christ.

IN APPRECIATION

We wish to record our sincere love and esteem for our Bishop, Presiding Elders, and pastors, and pledge to them our loyal support in all their labors for our beloved church.

WORLD CONFERENCE ON STEWARDSHIP AND CHURCH FINANCE

We nominate J. E. Lambeth, C. H. Ireland, and H. A. Dunham delegates to the World Conference on Stewardship and Church Finance, to be held in Edinburgh, Scotland, in June, 1931.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

We nominate J. E. Lambeth, of Thomasville, N. C., for Conference Lay Leader.

(Signed) C. H. IRELAND, Chairman,
G. B. GOODSON, Secretary.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

Since our last report to this body Rev. Charles A. Wood, who for eight years was our faithful and efficient Superintendent, has passed to his reward, he having died on January 31 of this year after a lingering illness. On February 18, following, your Board of Trustees elected O. V. Woosley as Superintendent of the Children's Home, and already evidences of the wisdom of this action are manifest.

The Children's Home is now providing for 273 children at Winston-Salem. Seventy additional children are being partially supported through our Mother's Aid fund as they are located with their mothers in various sections of our Conference. It is, therefore, evident that we are now supporting wholly, or in part, 343 dependent and orphan children.

We are pleased to report that these children are well fed and comfortably clothed. They are apparently happy as they live, move, and have their being with one another. We think that those who are guiding their activities and stimulating their aspirations are well equipped for the direction and supervision of their physical, mental and spiritual growth and development.

Since March 1, fifty-three children have been admitted into the Children's Home, these coming from over a wide area, extending from Surry County, on the north, to Anson, on the south, and from Guilford, on the east, to Jackson, on the west. These children have been received after careful investigation on the part of our case worker, as well as by the other agencies employed by your Board. Twenty-four youths have been dismissed from the Home, they having been placed in wholesome surroundings, these placements having been made after careful thought and direct visitation. Eleven of our youths are now in colleges and boarding schools, and seven are in training in leading hospitals, several of them taking training for specialized nursing.

Your Trustees, in recent session, authorized the erection of a new building which, when completed, will house 30 additional children, funds for this building being already available through the donation of the late Benjamin N. Duke. The erection of this building will tend to relieve the urgent pressure for the admittance of deserving children, now deprived of home and care.

We regret to report that our financial situation is not as pleasing as we would like to have it. We are, however, glad to state that the fifth Sunday contributions of the present year show a healthy increase over similar contributions during the past year. We hope that the receipts from the ten per cent assessment for the present year will show a corresponding increase. Every effort is being made to reduce expenses to the safest minimum.

We regret to report that death has again invaded the ranks of your Board of Trustees. James K. Norfleet, a charter member of the Board, and throughout succeeding years a most interested and valuable member of this body, has recently passed away, he and his good wife, another good friend of the Children's Home, having departed this life on the same afternoon.

Your Board of Trustees wishes to report the election to its membership of R. O. Lindsay, of High Point, and of B. S. Womble, of Winston-Salem, in place of A. E. Smith and Hugh G. Chatham, deceased, former esteemed and valuable members of your Board.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, President.

COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

In the midst of the great variety of legitimate interests of the modern church it is deemed advisable by your Commission on Spiritual Life to call for a re-emphasis upon those essentials of our holy religion, dealing with our personal relationship to God and the evangelization of those not personally acquainted with the saving grace of Christ.

We, therefore, offer the following recommendations:

1. That Regional Spiritual Life Conferences for ministers and laymen be held, grouping the Districts in the following order: Group No. 1—Asheville, Waynesville and Marion Districts. Group No. 2—Charlotte, Gastonia and Statesville Districts. Group No. 3—Winston-Salem, Greensboro, Salisbury and Mt. Airy Districts. It is the desire of the presiding Bishop and the sincere hope of your Commission that he be present and preside over these conferences.

2. That these Spiritual Life Conferences be held immediately preceding the District revivals herein provided for.

3. That the Presiding Elders and Lay Leaders of the Districts involved in each conference constitute a committee on arrangements to assist the Bishop in setting up these meetings.

4. That there be held during this Conference year a District revival in each Presiding Elder's District during the months of March and April; and that these District revivals be arranged by the Presiding Elders and District Lay Leaders after consultation with the Bishop in charge at the most convenient time and place. Each of these District revivals to be visited by the Bishop at some time during the two months.

5. That each pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference plan for a revival of religion in each church in the Conference, with the pastors offering their services to assist in building up the weaker churches.

(Signed) H. B. TRIMBLE, Chairman,
HOWARD POWELL, Secretary.

BIBLE BOARD

Since the Word of God is the effective instrument by which the Holy Spirit renews the mind of man and transforms his life; since the Word of God is spirit and is life and, rightly received, imparts new life to man and saves his soul; since the Word of God is the seed of life and gives new life to the soul that receives it in faith, making him a new creature—"being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever" (I Peter 1:23); therefore:

1. We wish for our Holy Bible a more vital place and use in the homes of our people.

2. We wish that all who fight with us the battles of the Kingdom shall recognize the fact that the Word of God is the Sword of the Spirit, and that we need no other.

3. We wish to sow down all lands on earth with the leaves from this tree of life for the healing of the nations.

4. We wish to recognize the good work done by the American Bible Society in its great work of circulating the Holy Scriptures and to pledge our co-operation with it and all other worthy agencies in this great work.

(Signed) E. MYERS, Chairman,
O. P. ADER, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

Your Commission on Benevolences begs leave to report its organization and action as follows:

Chairman ex-officio, Bishop E. D. Mouzon
Vice-Chairman, James E. Lambeth
Secretary-Treasurer, Thomas C. Hoyle

Mr. G. L. Morelock appeared before the Commission as the representative of the General Conference Commission on Benevolences, and reported its organization at Nashville, Tennessee, and brought communications from that body.

This Commission, under the law, is to co-operate with the General Conference Commission on Benevolences, and to promote in the Annual Conference the full program of cultivation for the General and Annual Conference Benevolences, and for the Voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering, as authorized by the General Conference at Dallas. The General Conference has constituted the General Commission on Benevolences and the Annual Conference Commission on Benevolences as the regular agencies during this quadrennium for the cultivation of the church with reference to its whole benevolent program, and has charged these agencies with the primary responsibility of securing the regular benevolences and the Voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering.

In view of this legislation of the General Conference, and the responsibility thereby conferred upon us, the members of the Western North Carolina Conference Commission on Benevolences pledge their co-operation with the General Conference Commission on Benevolences in its effort to carry out the financial policy established by the recent General Conference.

(a) We hail the purpose of the General Conference, and the organized effort pursuant thereto, and of the General Commission on Benevolences, to stabilize the Methodist benevolent dollar. We join with them in the passionate hope and Christ-like purpose to redeem this benevolent dollar until it is worth one hundred cents.

(b) We pledge our efforts and venture to pledge the co-operation of our entire Annual Conference in carrying out the wise and comprehensive cultural program inaugurated by the General Commission on Benevolences in response to the instructions of the General Conference. We suggest, as requested by the General Commission, the months of January and February for the particularly intensive period of cultivation.

(c) We recommend that you authorize the Presiding Elders to distribute our Conference allotment of the Voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering among the various districts on the basis of their ability and willingness to pay, and that we accept this allotment of $64,712 on condition that all Missionary Specials now carried by the charges be counted as credits upon our apportioned allotment until the share apportioned to the Board of Missions has been fully met.

We believe that the instruction of the General Conference and the program of the General Commission on Benevolences to use the existing agencies of the church, and to utilize the various meetings and conferences of the church as already constituted, in a broad, church-wide program of cultivation, will so unify our forces and so inspire our people that the Western North Carolina Conference will do its part nobly and well in this great program of Southern Methodism.

Your Annual Conference Commission on Benevolences has adopted the following By-Laws for the regulation of its proceedings:

BY-LAWS OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

1. The Conference Commission on Benevolences shall organize with the Bishop in charge as Chairman, a Vice-Chairman, a Secretary-Treasurer.
2. The Commission shall meet regularly at the Annual Conference session and at any other time on the call of the Chairman, or on the written request of five members.
3. The traveling expenses and other expenses of the members of the Commission shall be paid by the Treasurer on the order of the Chairman and Secretary, or Vice-Chairman and Secretary, if the Chairman so designates.
4. The Treasurer shall be bonded and shall keep the accounts in a depository to be approved by the Commission. His books shall be audited annually as directed by the Commission.
5. The Commission may appoint sub-committees to consider and plan for various phases of work pertaining to the whole financial program of the church.
6. The Conference Commission shall designate special representatives to go before the District Stewards' meetings and District Conferences to represent the whole financial program of the church.

(Signed) JAMES E. LAMBETH, Vice-Chairman,
THOS. C. HOYLE, Secretary.

THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL

Handed Down by the General Conference for the Approval of the Annual Conferences

The General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its session in Dallas, Texas, in May, 1930, by the required constitutional majority initiated the following change in the constitution and submitted it to the several Annual Conferences for their determination:

JUDICIAL COUNCIL

SECTION I—HOW COMPOSED

All appellate power shall be vested in a Judicial Council to be composed of nine members—five traveling elders and four lay members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South—to be nominated and elected in the following manner:

The College of Bishops shall nominate by a majority vote of the effective Bishops four times the number of traveling elders and lay members of the church to be elected; and from such nominees or from such other nominees as may be named from the floor of the Conference, without discussion, the General Conference shall elect, by ballot and without discussion, five traveling elders and four lay members, and from the remaining nominees the General Conference shall elect by separate ballot five traveling elders and four lay members as alternate members of the Judicial Council. These alternates shall be eligible to fill vacancies occurring from any cause in the membership of the Council for the remainder of the term of the member whose place the alternate may have been called to fill, and in the event of a vacancy it shall be the duty of the President and Secretary to notify the alternate of each class in order of their election.

SECTION II—TERM OF OFFICE

The term of office shall be for eight years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. At the first election the three traveling elders and the two lay members receiving the highest majority of votes shall be elected for eight years, and the two from each class receiving the next highest majority vote shall be elected for four years. Thereafter all elections shall be for a term of eight years, and all elections shall be by majority vote. In the event of vacancies occurring after the exhaustion of the list of alternate members, the Council shall be authorized to fill such vacancies for the remainder of the quadrennium.

SECTION III—MEMBERSHIP

No member of the Council shall be under forty years of age, nor eligible to membership in the General Conference, nor to any connectional position, nor to membership on any General Conference Board or Commission during his term of office; and no member shall sit in any case in which he has any personal or official interest otherwise than as a member of the church.

SECTION IV—POWERS

The Judicial Council shall have appellate power to determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference or of an Annual Conference, whether or not any act of the General Conference or of an Annual Conference violates the constitution of the church; to hear and determine the appeal of a traveling preacher; to determine an appeal taken by one-third of the Conference, Board, or body from which the appeal comes, or by one-third of the College of Bishops, all appeals from a Bishop's decision on the question of law in an Annual or District Conference; to hear and determine all other questions involved in appeals from any connectional board or body of the church; to have such other jurisdiction as may be conferred upon it by the General Conference; provided, that it shall have no jurisdiction under an appeal by a Bishop involving his character or the efficiency of his administration. In such cases the Bishop shall be allowed an appeal directly to the General Conference.

The Council shall have power to arrest any act of a connectional board or body of the church, when such action is brought before it on appeal by one-third of the members of such board or body or upon complaint of a majority of the College of Bishops present at a regular or called session; provided, that such an appeal shall be taken at the session of the board or body from the action of which the appeal is asked, or within thirty days after the adjournment of said session.

The decision of the Council shall be final; provided, that when the Council shall have declared any act of the General Conference unconstitutional it shall take the course provided for constitutional alterations.

The Council shall have free access to all papers and records of any Conference, board, or body, and may require the production of any papers, documents, or records which in its judgment may pertain to any matter pending before it.

SECTION V—SESSIONS

The Council shall meet at the same time and place as the General Conference and shall continue in session until the adjournment of that body. It may meet at such other times and at such places as it may deem necessary; provided, that it shall meet at least once each year on the call of the President, should there be any business demanding its attention.

SECTION VI—QUORUM

Seven members of the Judicial Council shall constitute a quorum. A vote of as many as six members of the Council shall be necessary to suspend or inhibit any action of the General Conference or of an Annual Conference, as is provided in Section IV of this article. A majority vote of the entire Council shall be sufficient to decide all other appeals, motions, cases, and proceedings before it.

SECTION VII—GOVERNMENT

The Council shall provide all necessary rules and regulations for its government and procedure.

SECTION VIII—REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

The General Conference shall have power to remove members of the Judicial Council from office for cause.

SECTION IX—TRANSFER OF JUDICIAL FUNCTIONS

The judicial functions of the Bishops and the Committee on Appeals shall continue as at present until the Judicial Council shall have been elected and organized; whereupon such functions shall cease. All business remaining before the College of Bishops or the Committee of Appeals, pending or undetermined, shall be transferred to and decided by the Judicial Council.

At the session of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held in Greensboro, N. C., on November 7, 1930, the measure came before the Annual Conference. Two hundred and eighty-four members of the Conference were present and voted. Two hundred and eighty-four voted aye, and none voted no.

WILLIAM L. SHERRILL, Secretary.

DUKE FUND COMMISSION

The Duke Endowment in 1929 made 142 separate appropriations toward the support of country churches in North Carolina, totaling $53,167. The money appropriated to 44 church buildings amounted to $75,400. The grand total for support and for construction is $128,567.

Every effort is made to spend this money to the best advantage, both in the way of securing results and also to the end of stimulating self-reliance. A part of the maintenance fund goes to the support of men serving the country churches in needy fields, and a part to young ministers who are assigned during the summer months to aid the pastors in country places. This money does the double service of aiding the work, and at the same time helping to train young ministers. This is an experiment that is attracting the attention of students of the country church throughout the nation.

The money for building churches stimulates worth while undertakings as well as aids in carrying out the plans in building churches adequate to meet the needs of the several communities in which they are located.

That an architect may be had, our Board of Church Extension of Louisville, Kentucky, provides a branch office at Durham. Mr. H. N. Haines, a competent architect, has been in charge of this office at Durham since September, 1929. Thus architectural plans and architectural supervision, essential in most instances to secure adequate and attractive buildings, are provided by this arrangement.

We may add that the study of the country church made by Professor J. M. Ormond has been embodied in a volume which is now ready for the printer.

To spend more than $125,000 in one year on the country churches in North Carolina is highly significant. It is too much to hope that not a dollar of this is wasted, but this should be the ideal. Surely every member of these two Conferences should aid in every way possible to see that the proper methods are formed to get a maximum of good with a minimum of waste. The personal element plays a large part in this difficult undertaking—more in the expenditures made for sustenance than in the outlay for buildings.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Pastors' School at Duke University opened June 10th and closed June 20th, thus lasting for ten days, including one Sunday, instead of fourteen days and embracing two Sundays as heretofore. This plan gave entire satisfaction, and the same plan will be followed next June. The work done was most satisfactory and the interest well sustained.

Dean J. M. Ormond submits the following statistical report:

COMMITTEE ON SOUTHERN ASSEMBLY

We wish to endorse the fine program of the past session at Lake Junaluska:

- The Fire Camp Life Program for Boys and Girls;
- The Hi-League and Senior Epworth League Assemblies;
- The Leadership Training Program;
- The Duke Summer School;

The fine conferences on Missions, Temperance and Social Service.

And especially the Spiritual Life Conference, which brought to a close the summer's program.

We recommend:

1. That our preachers frequently call the attention of their congregations to the wonderful opportunity offered at Junaluska for recreation, education and inspiration.
2. That Dr. A. W. Plyler be re-appointed as Trustee of the Junaluska Summer Assembly.

(Signed) CHAS. C. WEAVER, Chairman,
R. C. GOFORTH, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The record of the Asheville District was in every way excellently kept.

The records of the other nine districts were in good shape with these exceptions: the record of the Greensboro District has the official roll pasted in; that of the Mount Airy District contains no official roll; the record of the Waynesville District is well kept, but the book is of a poor loose leaf type and does not insure permanence.

The Committee recommends that all these records have the reports and resolutions arranged alphabetically with a table of contents showing the number of the page on which each report is contained.

(Signed) W. A. ROLLINS, Chairman,
IVON L. ROBERTS, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Your Commission has given due study to the industrial situation. The decline in production, noted in our last report, has continued throughout the year. Unemployment is acute and widespread. We face the winter with the certainty of want and suffering for many of our people. The fact that this condition is world-wide does not lessen our interest or responsibility. The general level of prosperity is far below that of a few years ago. Few have incomes sufficient to make large contributions for public relief. Through the coming winter relief, upon a large scale, will be necessary. Let our people give liberally and wisely to this cause until the present need is relieved. He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord. Let the infinite compassion of Jesus be our guide.

We ask that a series of conferences be held at the earliest practicable date at which time our more pressing problems, related to our church work, may be discussed and concerted action taken. Last year we asked for a study of the textile industry. Since that time distress has overtaken other industries. Agriculture has been vitally affected by drought, curtailed production and general depression.

We join with the other Christian forces of the state in asking the following legislation for the protection of children in industry:

LIMITATIONS ON HOURS

Remove the exemption of children who have completed the fourth grade from the provision of the law establishing an 8 hour day and 48 hour week for children under 16.

EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENT FOR WORK PERMITS

Require the completion of the sixth grade for children between 14 and 16 leaving school for work.

EMPLOYMENT IN DANGEROUS OCCUPATIONS

Prohibit the employment of children under 16 in a specified list of hazardous occupations and grant power to the appropriate State Commission to extend this list.

We take this action for the purpose of setting a minimum of protection without receding in any way from our more advanced action taken in former years.

We rejoice to note the resolutions adopted at a recent session of the Textile Institute in which they ask for the legal prohibition of night work for women and children. We beg all employers of labor, together with all organizations working for the public weal, to join with us in demanding the enactment of such legislation in all the states of the union. We ask this for the protection of the women and children who toil through the long hours of the night and also for the industrial leaders who are working for a better day.

We are not blind to the fact that these changes will produce some distress. All social changes work hardships upon some of the units involved. But the church must insist that during the hours of the night the place for women and children is in the home. Night employment for these will mean the disorganization of all home life and the final deterioration of our people. It must not be continued.

On the other hand, we know that many of our industries were organized upon the night work plan and are now operated upon this basis. Immediate and complete change would work untold and unnecessary hardship. We ask all employers to join in the effort to make this change as completely and quickly as can be done without causing undue suffering. We feel that this can be done only by the enactment of just and uniform laws by all the states. The manufacturers should insist that these laws have no loop holes through which greed may find a way to evade the law and thus penalize those who wish to advance the cause of the home and to enrich the child life of the nation.

We plead with our employers of labor not to reduce wages in this time of readjustment of methods. Reduction will result in further distress through the reduction in production and consumption. Such action will always work round in a vicious circle and cripple all along the line.

We plead with our workers not to engage in strikes or any other action which would stop the machinery of production. Such action avails nothing in a time like this through which we are passing.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in West Market Street Church, Greensboro, North Carolina, at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, November the 4th, 1930, with R. M. Courtney, the President, in the chair.

The opening devotional service consisted of the singing of Hymn 461, "How Firm a Foundation," prayer offered by W. L. Hutchins, choir selection a solo, "Give Thanks and Sing," Bible reading from the 11th and 12th chapters of Hebrews read by the President, and singing of Hymn 415, "Faith of Our Fathers."

The minutes of the session of 1929 at Wesley Memorial Church, High Point, North Carolina, were read by the Secretary and approved.

A nominating committee consisting of C. S. Kirkpatrick, A. C. Gibbs, and W. L. Sherrill was appointed by the chair.

A collection to meet the expenses of the Society was taken, and $17.00 was contributed. This sum was paid to the North Carolina Christian Advocate on account, for printing.

The committee on nominations made its report, recommending for President, Dr. Dred Peacock; Vice-President, Dr. P. N. Garber; Secretary-Treasurer, W. G. McFarland; member Executive Committee succeeding himself, A. W. Plyler; and they were elected.

Mr. Courtney then discussed phases of our history as presented in the past and introduced Rev. E. H. Nease, who made an instructive and stimulating address on the "History of the Western North Carolina Conference since 1890."

The doxology was sung and then after the benediction by Dr. Rowe, the meeting adjourned.

(Signed) R. M. COURTNEY, President,
W. G. McFARLAND, Secretary.

THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The twenty-second annual session of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in West Market Street Methodist Church, Greensboro, N. C., Friday, November 7th, 1930, 2 p. m., W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. After devotions, led by W. R. Ware, the minutes of the previous annual meeting were read and approved. The report of the Secretary-Treasurer showed that nine members of the Brotherhood had died during the Conference year, namely: A. Sherrill, C. A. Wood, P. T. Durham, Frank Siler, B. F. Fincher, W. L.

Dawson, J. C. Postelle, J. J. Eads and R. F. Mock. The claims of the first four of these had been paid in full while the next four had been paid in part and none of the last one had been paid. While an accurate statement could not be made of the finances of the Brotherhood on account of this meeting being held one day in advance of the announced time, yet enough information was before the organization to show it to be in good condition, notwithstanding the large number of deaths.

The amendment to the constitution presented one year ago and properly printed in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, was taken up, discussed and passed, the vote being 80 in favor of and 20 against. The amendment is as follows:

"Be it resolved and passed that if any preacher does not join the Brotherhood the year he is admitted into full connection into the Conference, or prior thereto, he shall be required, when he does join, to pay all dues back to the date he was admitted into full connection."

Officers were elected for the next year as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice-President, W. R. Ware; Secretary-Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. G. D. Herman and H. C. Sprinkle were appointed by the President as members of the Executive Committee.

The Brotherhood adjourned with the benediction.

(Signed) W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary-Treasurer.

Memoirs

REV. WALTER L. DAWSON

Walter L. Dawson was born in Forsyth County, N. C., August 2, 1866, and died April 20, 1930.

He spent his boyhood days on the farm, the place where most of our truly great men come from. It has been said that we go to the city for money but to the country for men. It was never his privilege to go to college, but he was endowed with an unusually bright mind and by close application and hard work he easily ranked as a strong, logical and effective gospel preacher.

He was married July 29, 1888, to Miss Frances Wagner, who was a faithful helpmeet throughout his ministerial life. Is it not a fact that we too often fail to give due credit to the faithful self-sacrificing wives of our ministers? In the day of final accounts these good women will stand by their husbands receiving from the hands of the Judge a crown of glory for their unselfish service down here.

He joined the North Carolina Conference at Greensboro in 1889, and the next year the Western North Carolina Conference was organized and he served the following charges: 1890, Dobson; 1891, Salisbury Circuit; 1892, Woodleaf; 1893-95, Mooresville Circuit; 1896-97, Wilkesboro Circuit; 1898, Watauga; 1899, Taylorsville; 1900, Statesville Circuit; 1901-02, Stokes Circuit.

At the end of 1902 he asked for and was granted a location. In 1905 he was readmitted and served the following charges: 1906, Laurel Springs; 1907, Yadkinville; 1908-09, Wilkes Circuit; 1910-13, West Greensboro; 1914, Matthews; 1915-16, Conference Evangelist; 1917, Rock Springs; 1918, Randleman; 1919-20, Forest City; 1921-22, Spray; 1923-25, Summerfield; 1926-27, Proximity; 1928-29, Farmington.

At the conference of 1929 he was granted the superannuate relation.

He was an unusual man. His life was pitched upon a high plane. He lived above the sordid things of earth. Being risen with Christ he naturally sought the things which were above. His citizenship was in heaven, his marvelous life was hid with Christ in God. He preached a full gospel and no one could doubt that he lived what he preached. We find ourselves searching for the secret of this remarkably useful life. Surely the secret lies in the following facts:

He knew Christ in the pardon of his sins. Like the blind man he could say, "This one thing I know, that whereas I was once blind, I now see." He knew positively whom he had believed. He knew that Jesus Christ could keep us from falling. Many times the writer has heard him sing, "There is a fountain filled with blood," and then with all the tenderness, earnestness and passion of his golden heart he would urge sinners to come to the fountain that had been opened up in the house of King David for sin and uncleanness.

He believed in the Bible as the inspired word of God; that it was the sword of the Spirit and he wielded that sword with remarkable skill and telling effect; that it contains the mind of God, the state of man, the way of salvation, the happiness of believers and the doom of sinners; that Christ is its subject, our good its design, and God's glory its end; that we should read it to be wise, believe it to be safe and practice it to be holy. With him there were no question marks upon the pages of this Holy Book. While others were quibbling over imaginary inaccuracies he preached that this book is a personal message from a personal, loving Father to guide a world lost in the darkness of doubt and sin into the light and liberty of the children of God.

He believed implicitly in the Incarnation, the Virgin Birth, in the Lordship of Jesus Christ; that there was no other Name given under Heaven among men whereby we can be saved. He preached Jesus and the Resurrection as the Saint's delight and the sinner's only hope and plea, and the grace of God was always upon his ministry. When some men preach the people go away to magnify the preacher, but when he preached the people went away to magnify Christ.

He had a love for men whether in velvet or rags, whether high or low, because Jesus loved them. He could say the love of Christ constraineth me. He was a true, tender, faithful undershepherd. Like Paul, he taught the people publicly and from house to house. His coming was hailed with delight, his stay in the home a constant benediction. He did not believe that Christianity would cause a long face, a sad heart and a joyless life, but his face radiated sunshine wherever he went. For forty years he received his marching orders at the hands of our Bishop and always went with a glad heart and a loyal spirit.

Behold a prince and a great man hath fallen. He loved his church. For her welfare his tears fell and his prayers ascended. To the best interests of his church he devoted all his ransomed powers. He was intensely evangelistic in his preaching. Few of our preachers have ever been instrumental in leading a larger number into the kingdom. The last Sunday of his active ministry he preached three times, though so weak physically he had to hold to the pulpit. Those who heard him said he preached that day with unusual liberty, unction and power. He doubtless realized that the "crowning day" was near and he wanted to make every moment count. He served worthily and well his day and generation by the will of God and peacefully fell asleep and went to dwell with the redeemed in our Father's many mansioned home above.

ALFRED L. STANFORD

REV. DR. PLATO TRACY DURHAM

On a wall of the Chapter House of Westminster Abbey, London, is a tablet that bears the following inscription:

"To the Glory of God and in Memory of Walter Hines Page, 1855—1918; Ambassador of the United States of America to the Court of St. James, 1913—1918; the Friend of Britain in Her Sorest Need."

In the Theology Chapel of Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., is a tablet of bronze with this inscription:

PLATO TRACY DURHAM

A MINISTER OF THE GOSPEL
ONE OF THE ORGANIZERS OF EMORY UNIVERSITY
FIRST DEAN OF CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
PROFESSOR OF CHURCH HISTORY
A CRUSADER FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

If Great Britain should in Westminster Abbey, among the memorials of her illustrious dead, place a tablet to a friend in need who was, therefore, a friend indeed, and, if a great university should write in bronze the name and achievements of one who had a part in making that university what it is and what it is to become, why should not we with warm appreciation place among our memorials a friendly estimate of a brother who by his life and achievements enriched the Methodist brotherhood and gave added distinction to the Western North Carolina Conference of which for more than thirty years he was an honored member?

* * * *

My first acquaintance with Plato Durham was in the fall of 1891 when he entered Trinity College, located at that time in Randolph county, six miles from High Point. Upon his arrival it quickly became common knowledge of that student body numbering approximately 200 that young Durham was a gifted orator and an enthusiastic athlete. And he beautifully sustained this reputation. For in his first year at college the young orator played right end on a football team that won the Southern championship and as a college orator he was without a peer.

To the end of his days he continued an enthusiast for all forms of athletics and retained to the last his primacy in the pulpit and upon the platform. Through his entire life he was in constant demand as an orator upon patriotic occasions. The orator was also a poet. His poetical writings show that he possessed unusual gifts and strange as it may appear, the poet and dreamer became a crusader of the first rank, especially in behalf of social justice.

* * * *

Plato Tracy Durham was born in Shelby, North Carolina, September 10, 1873, and died at a quarter of eight o'clock on the morning of February 10, 1930, at his home, 1933 North Decatur Road, Atlanta, Ga.

Hon. Plato Durham, lawyer and a prominent figure in North Carolina's political life through those stirring years following the War Between the States, was his father, and his mother was Lenora Catherine Tracy Durham, a daughter of Dr. James Wright Tracy of King's Mountain, North Carolina, and for many years a prominent physician of his community. Dr. Tracy was a surgeon in the Confederate Army with the rank of major.

The father of Plato Durham was born September 20, 1840, and died November 9, 1875. Plato was only two years old. Several years after his father's death his mother married Dr. B. F. Dixon, a practicing physician and a Methodist minister of unusual pulpit ability, who proved to be a devoted father and counselor through their early years to Plato and to his brothers, Robert and Stonewall. His mother is still living. His grandfather, Micajah Durham, was born in 1804 and died 1864; his grandmother, Esther Baxter Durham, was born in 1817, died in 1868. Charles Alexander Durham, who was born in 1773 and died in 1853, was his great-grandfather and Patience Davis Durham was his great-grandmother.

It will serve to throw light upon the life story of Plato Tracy Durham to recall the military and political history of some of his forebears. His father, Captain Plato Durham, was in charge of his regiment when General Lee surrendered at Appomattox. Captain Durham was a member of three legislatures and two constitutional conventions. Both his grandfathers were members of the North Carolina convention of secession and Micajah Durham was killed at the battle of the Wilderness in 1864. His great-grandfather was in the War of 1812 and several of his ancestors served in the war of the Revolution.

These facts may help to explain why the gospel minister enlisted as a soldier in the Spanish-American War and why the poet through his whole life was a crusader.

Added to the lad's ancestral heritage was the circumstance of his youthful years. The very landscape of his boyhood home had tongues that could speak to less sensitive spirits than his. For at any hour of the day the rugged slopes of King's Mountain were in view and that mountain to the dreaming Durham was full of invisible patriots clad in homespun who had made it a battlefield of undying fame. Furthermore, he grew to manhood in those days of our Southland history when in every political speech and memorial address and frequently in the pulpit, orators and gospel ministers grew eloquent in rehearsing the valorous deeds of the Confederate soldier and in proclaiming the praises of Stonewall Jackson and Robert E. Lee.

It was to be expected that Plato Durham with such a heritage should be an intense Southerner and patriot who would keep these altar fires burning till the end of his days. And he did. He never proved recreant to the trust committed to his keeping, but rather glorified the heritage that he received from a civilization that was rich in spiritual treasures.

* * * *

The educational advantages of Plato Durham were the best. The preparatory schools, colleges and universities were Bell's Academy, King's Mountain, N. C., The Horner Military School, Oxford, N. C., Trinity College (now Duke University), Yale University, Oxford (England), Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

His college degrees and other academic honors were A.B. degree, Trinity College, 1895; D.D. (same institution) 1913; diploma Union Theological Seminary, 1899; member of Phi Beta Kappa and Alpha Tau Omega.

Dr. Durham married Miss Lucy Cole, daughter of Rev. John N. Cole, for long years a leader of the North Carolina Conference. Mrs. Durham, a fair and cultured daughter of the Methodist parsonage, graced every circle she touched and the home life of Mr. and Mrs. Durham was beautiful indeed. The crowning of these happy years, however, came at the birth of Lucy Cole Durham, July 31, 1925. No father was ever more devoted to his child than Dr. Durham was to little Lucy Cole with whom he was at play that tragic morning when his heart stood still and he entered beyond the veil.

In 1899 Brother Durham joined the Western North Carolina Conference and remained a member thereof till his death. From 1899-1906 he was a teacher of Biblical Literature and Church History, Trinity College; pastor Trinity Church, Charlotte, N. C., 1906-1908; Central, Concord, 1908-11; presiding elder Winston-Salem District, 1911-1913; Charlotte District, 1913-1914. In the year 1914 he became dean of the Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, Ga. In 1918 he was forced on account of heart trouble which finally was the cause of his death to give up the executive position, but he remained a member of the faculty, occupying the chair of Church History, where he was one of the most highly esteemed members of that superior teaching force of the Candler School of Theology.

The foregoing figures show that the greater part of his life after completing his education was devoted to teaching young men who were preparing for the Christian ministry. But through all the years he was pre-eminently a preacher. Whether pastor or presiding elder, or college professor, preaching was the great passion of his life. From the beginning of his ministry to the end of life the pulpit was his throne. And an outstanding characteristic of his preaching was the revival power that accompanied his ministry. When presiding elder he set his districts aflame with revival fires. A memorable revival, perhaps the most memorable in the history of Emory University, was held by Dr. Durham. And in all sections of the church he was in demand to hold revival services.

This revival power that accompanied his preaching was not confined to the early years of his ministry, as is the experience with the majority of Christian ministers. On the contrary, his evangelistic gifts increased with the passing years. But this was only what should have been expected. For the depth and richness of his spiritual life became increasingly manifest to all who knew him.

Dr Durham was a mystic who held direct fellowship with the spiritual world. To him the veil was very thin between this and the other world. In fact it has been said by some of his friends that he belonged to that other world—the spiritual world that lies beyond the world of time and sense.

Dr. W. A. Shelton, his associate, friend, and fellow worker in the Candler School of Theology, manifestly acquainted with his hidden life, has with fine discrimination said: "His greatest self was in his conception of the unseen. To him the spirit world was as real as the present world. God was as much an entity to him as his own father had ever been. The dead were only for a time just out of sight."

"Someone has said that he had everything to make him happy: A happy home, happy family life, he had a house that was his own, friends were about him and honors were thick upon him; he knew he was serving his day and generation and that his Church appreciated him. Yet, with all the reasons for being happy, he seemed to bear the sorrows of the whole world upon his heart. Those who know him best knew that his was a tragic soul. He suffered for the black man; he suffered for the underprivileged, for the lost, for his friends. His suffering was that of the spirit. Like his great Master, he bore the sins of the world upon his heart; he bore the sufferings of others until it broke his heart. He realized in his experience that of which St. Paul spoke in his Letter to the Philippians (3:10-11), 'That I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His suffering, becoming conformed unto His death; if by any means I might attain unto the resurrection from the dead.'"

This spiritual sensitiveness that made him to suffer with the underprivileged and his mystical perception of the heart of his Master, combined with his ability to see the world of humanity as Jesus saw it, accounts for his deep and abiding interest in the Negro and all other peoples who had been denied their rights.

Many professed friends of the Negro love him at a distance, but a close up contact cools their ardor in his behalf. But not so with Durham. Let it be written in letters of gold that this crusader seeking social justice for the black man as well as the white man, became a fellow toiler with those leaders of both races who stood face to face with the problems for which they sought to find a solution.

In his own choice language Dr. M. Ashby Jones, leading Baptist pastor of Atlanta, Ga., and later of St. Louis, Mo., said: "His great spirit circled in chivalric care the interests of the Negroes in our midst. He could never plan for the future welfare of the South without including within his thought their welfare also. As one of the founders of the Inter-racial Commission for the South he was continuously involved in every forward step of its constructive ministry. His chivalric southern heart could never endure the thought that the southern white people should ever take a single step forward at the expense of the welfare of the Negro race."

Dr. Jones continues with none too partial estimate of his dear friend when he writes:

"But one never really knew Plato Durham until he discovered the poet within him. This poetic instinct was oftenest hidden within the inner sanctuary of his soul. He had been a rough and tumble youth, and to the end, was an unbeaten sportsman, to the last inning or the last green. So this retiring poetic person, shy and reticent, was wont to shield himself behind a more robust, even militant, expression. But when the deeps of his great emotional nature were stirred, his spirit uttered itself in its native tongue of poetic passion.

"Durham, Wilmer and I not only worked together and fought shoulder to shoulder together, but we played together. How often we were a 'threesome,' with many a stroke and many a joke, making the round of the 18 holes of familiar beauty at Druid Hills. It was the sixth hole we loved best. The 'tee' is almost at Durham's back door. From here it descends in graceful slope to cross a babbling brook, then stretches itself in level verdant beauty; to cross once again this same little rambling, talkative stream. From there it climbs straight up to the brow of a great hill, where its 'putting green' is shadowed by the circling protection of a medley of forest trees. One Christmas there came to each of us a card with the winsome picture of little Lucy, who had just come into the Durham home, like some radiant dawn, with its promise of ever increasing brightness. There was written on it, in his own characteristic hand, these revealing lines:

'I'm strolling down on fairway number six
To watch the twilight work its olden spell,
With green and gold and gloom, you know so well,
As day and night their mystic colors mix.

Within my heart quite other colors blend,
The gold of memory, the blue of time
Mix with the twilight's deepening gloom sublime,
To make what color with what name my friend?"

I have not finished the story of his life, but must now in concluding this sketch say in his own poetic terms—

"Though sorrow veils our eyes with love's last tear
And make our lips with wistful silence mute,
As you pass on I stand at high salute,
A soldier to a soldier free of fear.

And know that we who tarry but a night
Shall follow when the weary night is done
To find the land of love's unsetting sun,
To join you in the everlasting light."

REV. JOSEPH JOSHUA EADS

J. J. Eads, son of Thomas and Barbara Albright Eads, was born in Guilford County, June 16, 1859; married to Miss Sarah Keller of Davidson County on June 24, 1896, and at Mount Airy, on August 25, 1930, passed to his reward. He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Harold Click and Miss Ruth Eads, and one son, Joseph A. Eads.

Brother Eads' educational advantages were limited to the public schools of Greensboro and a course in the Smithdeal Business College. The support of his mother and sister falling to him, he found it necessary to go to work at an early age. As a young man he worked as stock man in the Odell Hardware Co. of Greensboro. For industry and fidelity he was advanced step by step until there occurred an opening in the traveling force. He was then put on the road to sell goods, a field in which he achieved success.

His Christianity was of the positive type while engaged in business. As a traveling salesman he let his light shine. In those days he touched the life of a boy who is now a church leader, and who writes as follows: "One of my most vivid recollections is that of my father's little country store and the periodic visits of the traveling salesman. The one who stands out in my memory apart from all the others is J. J. Eads, who represented the Odell Hardware Co. He spent many nights in our country home. I recall the pleasure which these associations brought to my father and mother as well as to all the children because of his beautiful Christian character. He carried with him a very handsome Bible and it was not uncommon to see him reading it."

Later there came the unmistakable call to preach the Gospel, an interesting account of which has been furnished by Mr. C. H. Ireland. He says: "Brother Eads came to me one day and told me that he felt a distinct call to preach. Knowing the responsibilities upon him, I tried to persuade him to become a local preacher and not join the Conference. He insisted his call was from God and not from man, and he would have to obey it." So, leaving a salary of $1800 per year, he went out to serve his Master full time at less than one-fourth that amount.

He was admitted on trial at the Conference of 1892, at Winston, and ordained Deacon by Bishop Duncan in 1895, and Elder, 1897, by Bishop Key.

Here are his appointments for the 34 years of his active ministry: Green River, 1893-95; Zion and Prospect, 1896-97; Franklin Circuit, 1898; China Grove, 1899-1900; Matthews Station, 1901; Hoskins, 1902; Gold Hill, 1903-04; Coleridge, 1905-07; Bryson City, 1908-09; China Grove, 1910; West Concord, 1911; Lenoir Circuit, 1912; Race Street, Statesville, 1913-14; Troutman, 1915; Robbinsville, 1916; Oakboro-Loves, 1917-18; Danbury, 1919-22; Jonesville, 1923-24; Ararat Circuit, 1925-26.

His health was never robust, and, at the Gastonia Conference, in 1926, worn and weary with preaching and travel, he asked for and received the superannuate relation. Retiring from the Ararat Circuit, he continued to reside in Mount Airy, where he filled a real place in the church life of our people. Cases of need drew him like a magnet. At the death of an aged supply on the Ararat Circuit, it was he who started the movement which resulted in the raising of sufficient funds in Mount Airy to relieve the widow's needs.

His devotion to his family was genuine and tender. Out of his meager salary, by strictest economy, he was able to send all three of the children away to college, and two of them are graduates of Methodist institutions.

His last day on earth was no doubt as he would have had it. Nine forty-five found him in his usual place at Sunday School. He sat with the wife and daughter in their accustomed pew at the morning service. The daughters, the son-in-law, and the little grandchildren were with them for dinner and during the afternoon. Before the break of day the following morning he answered the call from above.

One who knew him from boyhood furnishes the following estimate: "If there ever was a man who was a sincere Christian it was J. J. Eads. He didn't know what it was to disobey the will of God; his one aim in life was to live as God would have him. Savonarola never preached with more assurance of his divine instruction than he; no prophet of old would have gone through greater suffering in order to preach the gospel. And if there is a saved man, who passed through this world, I know it is J. J. Eads."

REV. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN FINCHER

Benjamin Franklin Fincher, son of James and Levicie Fincher, was born in Union County, N. C., May 15, 1856. As a boy he attended the public schools. In early life he was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at Little Bethel, near his father's home.

On December 4, 1873, he was married to Miss Louise Starnes of Union County. There were twelve children, eight of whom still survive.

This union was broken by the death of Mrs. Fincher in January, 1906. On April 7, 1907, he was married to Miss Dovie Mae Patterson of Iredell County. To this union were born three children, all of whom with their mother are now living at their home in Derita, N. C.

As a young man Brother Fincher worked for the Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company. He followed this work for more than a score of years, and would have continued but for the fact he began to feel the strange thrill of that divinely given impulse, which those who have felt it never can forget, which said to his soul, "Go preach my gospel." He was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision.

He attended Rutherford College, where he was trained for the work of the ministry under the teaching of Dr. R. L. Abernethy, the founder of that institution.

He was licensed to exhort in 1881. On November 8, 1884, he was granted license to preach. He served as supply eleven years before joining the Conference. Three years on the Charlotte Circuit, four years on the Polkton Circuit and four years on the Clear Creek Circuit.

He was admitted on trial at Gastonia, N. C., in 1901. The following is the list of appointments he served: 1902, Clear Creek Circuit; 1903-04, Stony Point; 1905-06, Uwharrie Circuit; 1907-08, Ruffin Circuit; 1909, Randolph Circuit; 1910, Watauga Circuit; 1911-12, Lowesville Circuit; 1913-14, McAdenville Station; 1915-19, Thrift; 1920, Cottonville Circuit; 1921-22, Rhodhiss; 1923, Kerr Street, Concord, N. C. The fall of 1923 at the Conference held in Winston-Salem, he was granted the superannuate relation, which relation he sustained until his death.

At the Conference held in New Bern, N. C., December 2, 1888, he was elected Deacon and ordained by Bishop John C. Granbery. He was ordained Elder by Bishop H. C. Morrison at Greensboro, N. C., November 25, 1900.

He was all man. He was a splendid preacher. He lived a great and sinewy gospel. As a preacher he was wise, witty, keen in insight into things spiritual as well as men temporal; original, his words having a flavor of himself; humble, but never cringing, devoted to his church and the Christian faith and given to song. He was ever brave and unlamenting. His last days were free of all complaint. His sense of humor was keen and such as made for him a welcome to any company.

Brother Fincher lived to serve. With him a man's value was ever determined by his service. Said he, "There are only two rules for good manners. One is, always think of others; the other is, never think of yourself." These rules were factors in the life of this good man. He was always mindful of others. He gave his life for others. In the presence of death he was thinking of others. The writer was with him much. Many hours and in many circumstances, and he never had a thought in the range of his variegated thinking that did not center in Jesus Christ. It was lovely to know him. No mean or selfish thing ever seemed to peek around the corner of his life. He lived out in the open where you could see him from sky to sky.

He thought of death as a sweet adventure but was in nothing morbid and did not talk about it, but smilingly looking forward to it as a caged bird to get a chance at the sky. When told by his doctor that he could not endure but a few brief hours and to make his plans to move, he cheerfully replied, "I made my arrangements years ago, I am not afraid."

As he lived, so we found him at his dying—in his home in Derita, N. C., on the 17th day of April last—a gentle, sturdy, and strong personality, devoted to his family, in love with mankind and at peace with God.

Benjamin Franklin Fincher was moved. He has received his last appointment, not by the Bishop of an Annual Conference, but by the Bishop of souls. We are all glad today that we knew this true man of God, for we are better because he was here, and today grief is in our hearts because he is not here, but a song of gladness is in our hearts because we know where he stops and where he will spend the day and all the days following. This brave and true spirit is taking his rest, much deserved, in his Father's house.

"No chilly wind nor poisonous breath
Can reach that blissful shore."

In First Methodist Church, Charlotte, N. C., on the afternoon of "Good Friday," April 18, 1930, the funeral was held, conducted by Drs. E. K. McLarty, W. W. Peele, Revs. J. B. Fitzgerald and N. C. Williams. His body was laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery.

Brave soul and true, sturdy and strong, we expect to meet you in that morning land.

N. C. WILLIAMS.

REV. ROBERT FRANKLIN MOCK

Robert Franklin Mock, son of the late L. N. and Mrs. Jane Kamouse Mock, was born in Davidson County, August 18, 1886; died October 15, 1930. He was converted about the age of twelve and joined Mount Olivet Church. At fourteen he felt the call to preach which he interpreted as a call, first of all, to get ready to preach. He attended Arcadia High School, Rutherford College, and Mars Hill College. His theological work was done by correspondence with Vanderbilt and Emory Universities. He was married to Miss Eugenia Roberts, April 23, 1912.

He joined the Western North Carolina Conference at High Point in the year 1912. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Waterhouse at Shelby in 1914, and Elder by Bishop Kilgo at Gastonia in 1916.

His appointments were as follows: Hunt Dale Circuit (now Micaville Circuit), 1913-15; Old Fort, 1916-20; Bryson City, 1921-22; Harmony, Concord, 1923; Cherryville, 1924-27; Franklin, 1928-30. Eighteen busy, fruitful years.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Eugenia L. Mock; two daughters, Mrs. C. G. Clapp and Robbie Gay Mock.

On a lovely autumn afternoon, October 17, 1930, a host of friends and old neighbors, former parishioners, and brethren of the ministry assembled at Mount Olivet Church to pay respect to his memory. Delegations were present from Cherryville and Franklin, friends who had profited by his helpful ministry. Here he had attended Sunday School and church as a barefoot boy. Here he was converted and joined the church. From this spot he had gone out to college and then to preach the gospel. And now his body is laid tenderly to rest near the church which gave him spiritual birth. Rev. C. M. Pickens, his Presiding Elder, was in charge of the services, being assisted by Revs. S. M. Needham, J. A. Flannagan, pastor of the Presbyterian Church of Franklin, A. W. Plyler of Greensboro, and the writer. Warm words of appreciation were spoken of his life of service.

Just as the white light of the sun is made up of a number of constituent elements, so this good life shines with a number of splendid characteristics and virtues. First of all, like Stephen of old, he was a good man—warm-hearted, tender, sincere, sympathetic, a man to be trusted implicitly. In his home these sterling traits of character shone to fine advantage.

He was a strong, helpful preacher. There was a warmth and glow about his messages that rendered him most effective. He was genuinely evangelistic and much in demand to assist his brethren in revival meetings. He believed in the necessity for better preparation for church workers. The Efficiency Institute and the Standard Training School found him studying side by side with his leading church workers.

No more faithful pastor has labored among us. During the terrible flu epidemic of 1918 he rendered such signal service to his stricken people at Old Fort that nothing would satisfy them but his return for the fifth year.

Brother Mock possessed executive ability to a large degree, and was at home when facing a business proposition. Two of his appointments grew out of the need for a pastor with just these gifts. At the time of his death he held membership on the Conference Budget Commission.

He was a versatile and resourceful preacher and church leader. His power of adaptability was unusual. The three charges which he served longest are each in a class by itself, the country circuit, the situation part town and part textile, and the cultured and conservative county town. On each of these charges he made good.

We thought of him as one of our younger men, and his going comes with a distinct shock. His health had been poor for nearly a year. He knew that the end was just ahead, and so announced to loved ones and friends. As this soldier of the Cross came to stack arms it was no doubt with the consciousness of having fought a good fight.

The following words of appreciation are by a member of this Conference and a close friend: "If forgetfulness of self in loving service to others is a virtue, R. F. Mock excelled us all. He never knew when he had done enough. The night was never too dark for him to respond to the call of need. Just before going away to the hospital, after walking the floor one night till three a. m., because unable to sleep, he went to the bedside of a dying man and spent the remainder of the night, praying with him and helping him find the sinner's Friend. A purer, cleaner, or more conscientious man never walked within our ranks."

REV. J. C. POSTELLE

Rev. James Coachman Postelle was born in York, S. C., October 21, 1854, and died in Lenoir, N. C., June 23, 1930. His early life was spent in Lincolnton. Later the family removed to Asheville, and in 1886 Brother Postelle was received on trial into the Holston Conference and held pastorates at Marshall, Franklin Circuit, Coke Creek, Clear Fork and Cedar Bluff until 1892, when he transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, where he served as pastor on Monroe Circuit, South Fork, McAdenville, Lilesville, Rock Springs, Table Rock, Fairview, Franklin Circuit, Macon and Gold Hill in the order mentioned until 1906, when he transferred to South Georgia Conference and there served Oglethorpe, Ocilla, Richland, Statenville, Valdosta and Mill Town until 1912, when he returned to his Conference, where he served in the following fields: Mills River, Prospect, Lenoir Circuit, Olin, Sulphur Springs, Spruce Pine, Burnsville, Henrietta, Gilkey and Old Fort until 1926, when, after forty years of constant service, he was granted the superannuate relation.

His father, the late Rev. James H. Postelle, was one time member of the South Carolina Conference, as was his grandfather, Rev. Jehu Postelle, and the ministry of these three covered the period from 1811 to 1930. His great-grandfather, Captain Jehu Postelle, was in the brigade of Francis Marion in the war of the Revolution. The Postelles were of Huguenot stock and the first of that name coming to America landed in Charleston in 1680 and our Brother Postelle was the eighth in the line from this pioneer. His mother, Mrs. Cornelia Wilson Postelle, was a sister of the sainted Jethro Wilson, late of Lenoir, and a niece of the late Joseph Wilson, the brilliant lawyer and distinguished citizen who was state solicitor in the old Salisbury District in the early half of the last century.

But Brother Postelle with every right to be proud of his forebears never boasted of his ancestry, but rejoiced rather of the spiritual birth which assured him of sonship to God through faith in Jesus Christ, for he had a rich Christian experience, and those who heard him preach knew that he felt in his own heart the mighty truths he uttered.

He was a good preacher, earnest, consecrated, aggressive and evangelistic. He was uncompromising for the truth as he believed it; he denounced wickedness in high and low places but always appealed tenderly to the sinner to turn to Christ. He wore no man's collar, thought his own thoughts, preached his own convictions without fear or favor, believed the Apostles' Creed as literally interpreted and was generally successful in winning souls to Christ. He was not regarded as a popular preacher, but all believed he was a conscientious and good man and he thus commanded the high respect of the people. An examination of his record shows that most of his work was on circuits and that his salary was generally small, but his reports indicated good revivals, for during the twenty-five years he served in this Conference his average salary was hardly $750, but during that period he added fully one thousand members to the church on profession of faith. The records are not available to estimate results of his work in the Holston and South Georgia Conferences. He was fortunate in his marriage in 1889 to Miss Martha Frances Cook of Surry County, who was his devoted helpmeet through the long years of his ministry. They were both happy with each other and their home life was beautiful. "Plain living and high thinking" was the rule in their parsonage, and by economy and faith they reared three sons and two daughters, all of whom reflect credit upon their parsonage training. These with the widow still abide.

When superannuation came he settled in Lenoir, surrounded by friends and neighbors who appreciated and loved him.

He suffered much during the last days for he had a lingering malady, and when the pain was tense he would often exclaim: "Though he slay me yet will I trust him," and then sometimes when semi-conscious he would preach to those about him with all the fervor of former days. His wife and children nursed him with beautiful devotion and when the end came there was no fear, but unfaltering faith, as he passed from earthly suffering to the joys of that better country.

The funeral service, held in the Lenoir Methodist Church, was conducted by R. G. Tuttle, J. M. Downum, J. S. Hiatt, W. E. Poovey, R. M. Couriney, W. M. Smith and the writer, after which the body was laid to rest in the Lenoir cemetery.

He was my boyhood friend and the friendship of the early days grew steadily with the years and was mutually tender to the end. May comforting grace sustain those upon whom this stroke falls most heavily.

WILLIAM L. SHERRILL.

REV. ALBERT SHERRILL

The most abiding assets in life are spiritual values. According to such standards the life and work of Albert Sherrill occupy a worthy rank as an acceptable Methodist minister, expressed in true service for the betterment of humankind.

He was born in Rowan County, November 13, 1861. During his early life he was a member of Saint Enoch Lutheran Church, at Enochville, Rowan County. He was educated at the North Carolina Lutheran College at Mount Pleasant. While teaching at Hickory in 1890 he joined the Methodist Church and was licensed to preach during the pastorate of Rev. T. P. Bonner. During 1891-92 he served as junior preacher on the Enochville Circuit, Salisbury District, with Rev. J. D. Buie, pastor.

At our Annual Conference at Winston-Salem, in 1892, he was admitted on trial into the traveling connection. The following are the appointments which he served: 1893, Old Fort; 1893-94, Granite Falls; 1895-97, Stanley Creek; 1898-99, South Fork; 1900-02, Randolph; 1903-05, Lenoir Circuit; 1906, Concord Circuit; 1907, Spray and Draper; 1908, Table Rock; 1909-12, Rutherfordton; 1913-16, Summerfield; 1917-20, Stanley.

During this fourth year of his pastorate on the Stanley charge his health failed and he moved to Greensboro, where he spent the remainder of his life. While living in Greensboro he attended West Market Street Methodist Church preaching services and the Sunday School whenever practical.

During favorable weather he could be found often sitting in his favorite arm chair on his veranda engaged in reading or in conversing with friends about thoughtful issues and pleasant reminiscences.

While respecting the opinions of others Brother Sherrill had positive convictions and had courage to express them. He advocated the doctrines of evangelical Christianity. Throughout his active ministry he was abundant in service in preaching the word, in shepherding the fold and in promoting the varied interests of the charge committed to his trust. Entertaining in conversation he enjoyed pastoral visiting and won the interest and esteem of the people among whom he ministered. Of him it has been worthily said that he was a true servant of the Lord.

On June 15, 1892, he was married to Miss Mintie Rodgers of Rowan County, who faithfully shared in the joys and trials of the itinerancy, and who tenderly ministered unto her companion during his affliction.

For more than five years he endured physical affliction with Christian courage and submission. On Thursday night, December 5, 1929, he suffered a second stroke of paralysis, and on the following Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock he entered the larger life.

Surviving are the wife, three daughters and four sons.

The funeral service was conducted in Greensboro, Sunday, December 8, by Rev. H. G. Hardin, assisted by Rev. Messrs. W. A. Newell, G. A. Stamper, and S. B. Turrentine. Interment was in the Pisgah cemetery on the Summerfield Circuit, the service conducted by Rev. H. G. Hardin, assisted by Rev. H. L. Powell, pastor of Summerfield charge. Both occasions were largely attended by sympathizing friends, and a profusion of beautiful floral designs, which betokened love and esteem.

S. B. TURRENTINE.

REV. FRANK SILER

Frank Siler, son of Jacob and Mary Thornton Siler, was born near Franklin, N. C., on September 21, 1865. He joined the church at twelve years of age, and three years later had an experience which he regarded as his definite conversion. His call to the ministry came soon after while he was helping to clear off the cemetery at Mt. Zion, his home church.

After going to high school at Franklin and Hayesville, Brother Siler entered Emory and Henry College and remained there until his graduation in 1888. He served as supply pastor at Bristol, Va., during the summer and joined the Holston Conference at Asheville in October of that year. In the meantime he had been granted license to exhort in 1883, and license to preach in May, 1885.

Immediately after conference he was married at Franklin to Mary Elizabeth Crawford, who became the mother of his children and remained with him as mistress of the parsonage and helpmeet until May, 1901. The children are Gilmer Siler, of New York; Mrs. H. E. Howard, of Worcester, Mass.; Beal Hendrix Siler, of Tampa, Fla.; and Mrs. O. S. Buckner, of Northboro, Mass.

Brother Siler's first charge was the Webster Circuit, which had seventeen appointments. In the summer he consented to become principal of the Franklin High School and went to Conference at Morristown, Tenn., in the fall expecting to continue teaching. But an urgent call for preachers came from the west, and after being ordained deacon by Bishop A. W. Wilson, he was transferred to the Western Conference.

Brother Siler's appointments in the west were: Western Conference—Seventh Street, Kansas City, Kansas, 1890-92; Missouri Conference—Maryville, Mo., 1893-94; and Francis Street, St. Joseph Mo., 1895-97.

In the meantime, in 1892, he was ordained elder by Bishop E. R. Hendrix at the session of the Missouri Conference at Council Grove.

In the fall of 1897 Brother Siler transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference, and the next series of appointments was as follows: Trinity Church, Charlotte, 1898-1901; Central, Asheville, 1902-05; Statesville, 1906-07; Charlotte District, 1908.

In July, 1903, while he was in the midst of his quadrennium at Asheville, Emily Allen, of Forsyth, Ga., a daughter of the Methodist parsonage, left the faculty of Wesleyan College to become his wife and the second mother of his children. She brought to him sympathetic understanding, spiritual insight, and unfailing helpfulness, and shared his labors, joys, and sorrows until he was taken from her.

In the fall of 1908, Dr. Siler responded to an earnest solicitation to transfer to the North Georgia Conference in order to become pastor of Wesley Memorial Church, Atlanta. His appointments in the North Georgia Conference were: Wesley Memorial, 1909-11; Gainesville, 1912; St. James, Augusta, 1913.

Returning to the Western North Carolina Conference in 1913, he served as follows: Conference Missionary Secretary, 1914-16; Financial Secretary, Greensboro College, 1917; Winston-Salem District, 1918-21; Hendersonville, 1922-24; Clyde-Junaluska, 1925-28.

At the conference of 1928 Dr. Siler was granted the superannuate relation, and the following year was spent without pastoral responsibilities and cares. In early June of this year came the apparently sudden illness revealing a long existing heart trouble. The following months of recurring strength and weakness were met with characteristic cheer, courage, trustful resignation, and marvelous patience.

On Friday night, February 21, 1930, in the home of his son, Beal Hendrix, in Tampa, Frank Siler took his departure for the heavenly home. On the Monday following the funeral was conducted at Lake Junaluska by the pastor, F. O. Dryman, assisted by the presiding elder, C. M. Pickens, and W. L. Hutchins. On the afternoon of the same day the body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Franklin.

Dr. Siler was faithful to every task that God and the church gave him to perform. The results of his labors remain and can be seen in beautiful, commodious edifices, congregations built up by his pastoral diligence, and thousands of souls instructed and edified through his ministry. As a preacher he was earnest, interesting, alert, and vital, and as a pastor he entered sympathetically into the joys, cares, and aspirations of all ages and classes. He loved God and his fellow-man.

REV. CHARLES ALBERT WOOD

Charles Albert Wood, son of the late Dr. Marquis L. and Mrs. Ellen Morphis Wood, was born in Shanghai, China, October 17, 1863, died in Winston-Salem, N. C., January 31, 1930, and his body was laid to rest in the Winston cemetery February 2, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and acquaintances from all over the western section of North Carolina.

It is a difficult matter to trace the determinative influences in any man's life; and in his case this is a peculiarly difficult task, for the reason that the traditions that surrounded his early life, and the general environment and his associations were so various as to make it almost impossible to determine which or what influenced him most.

His mother died in China while he was an infant of only six months. He, with an older brother, Edward, were placed with two Baptist missionaries, a man and his wife more than a hundred miles distant from Shanghai, a Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, who looked after the children for the father for the next two years. Cut off from support by the church at home by reason of the war between the States, the death of Mrs. Wood left Dr. Wood with two little boys on his hands, and his work to be cared for. It was a fortunate circumstance that Mr. and Mrs. Crawford could take them into their home.

As soon as the war was over, Dr. Wood returned to the States and took up his work as a pastor in the North Carolina Conference. He served various pastorates until the summer of 1883, when upon the death of Dr. Braxton Craven, he was elected president of Trinity College. It was while his father was president that Charles entered the freshman class at Trinity College. He attended the college for about three years, but left before completing the courses for his degree. The greater part of the next ten years was spent at Winston-Salem in various business positions. On September 23, 1891, while living in Winston, he was married to Miss Martha Elizabeth Mann, also of Winston-Salem, daughter of the late Reverend James E. Mann, prominent member of the North Carolina Conference.

He joined the Methodist church when a boy, but it was in the early part of 1896 that he underwent a religious experience which he always looked back upon as the date of his real transformation. Then he acknowledged a call to preach and was licensed to preach July 18, 1896, and at the annual conference, at Salisbury, was admitted on trial November 21, 1896. He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Fitzgerald in 1898 and Elder by Bishop Morrison in 1900.

He has served, during his ministry, the following charges: 1896, East Bend Circuit; 1897-99, Forsyth Circuit; 1901-02, Ruffin Circuit; 1903-06, Ramseur and Franklinville; 1907-10, Asheboro Station; 1911, Mount Zion; 1912-15, Asheville District; 1916-19, Shelby Central; 1920, Wadesboro; 1921-1930, Superintendent Children's Home.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Martha M. Wood, and an only daughter, Miss Margaret Wood, who make their home in Winston-Salem.

Perhaps the outstanding characteristic of this man was his uncompromising honesty. He was so straight and forthright as, at times, to appear stubborn. For him, to choose the lesser good was sin. To Charlie Wood there were no degrees of goodness. Anything less than simple goodness was wrong. He did not, therefore, believe in compromises. He believed in the power of the unconditional right and of unmodified goodness. Such a standard to others might seem stern and forbidding, to him it seemed to be the logical and natural thing for a man who believed in the right.

This background of sincerity and of uncompromising honesty caused the courage of the man to stand out as a definite trait of his character. He had the courage of his convictions. He had schooled himself to deliberation in thought and action. His habit was always to take time for consideration before arriving at any important decision. Once he had thought a thing through and had arrived at a definite conclusion, it was a difficult matter to influence him to change his decision or proposed line of action. The question for him always was, Is this the right thing to do? Having answered this question affirmatively, no question of mere expediency had any weight with him. Nor could he be overwhelmed by the weight of mere majorities. More than once have I seen him stand out against majority opinion with such persistent devotion to his sense of right, that his courage would finally win a sufficient number of the opposition to make his opinion the final majority opinion.

Another clearly defined trait in Charlie Wood's character was his faith in the supernatural God. His assumption of the presence of God was almost terrifying. Sometimes his seemingly casual conversation partook of the nature of prayer. He had the rather unusual faculty of unexpectedly bringing an ordinary conversation around to the subject of what would Jesus have to say, and of how would God look upon such and such a proposition. Often he has brought me up suddenly and in a brief phrase to the realization of God. Also he knew how to pray. Rarely, if ever, eloquent, he could lead a congregation to talk with God, and to listen reverently for His voice.

One must not neglect to emphasize the trait of loyalty so often manifest in this man's life. He was loyal to the truth as he saw it. This was seen in the strange admixture of conservatism and liberalism in his theology. No man was more devoted to the doctrines of John Wesley than was he. He avowed most strongly his belief in a prayer hearing and a prayer answering God, and he believed literally in the witness of the Spirit Himself, to our acceptance with God. Yet he read the very latest and the most liberal books and church periodicals, and strongly recommended them to his people for their instruction. He was not afraid of the truth, nor did he fear for the perpetuity of the Christian religion. He was also loyal to his friends. Once having accepted a man as his friend, he was slow to accept any evil report concerning him. He himself was honest, he himself was true and loyal, and he believed his friends to be possessed of these same qualities. Being the man he was, honest, sincere, courageous, loyal, he was the valued counselor of those who had learned to appreciate the man's worth. He made no attempt to sell himself to the public. He was never spectacular, or sensational in manner or method. He was not so widely known as some, but to those who did know him well, he was counted one of that limited circle whom one could fully trust for counsel and support.

Left an orphan at six months of age, he was peculiarly fitted to be the foster father for the past eight years of 200 children at our Children's Home. His closest official associate during these eight years rendered this fitting tribute: "He loved his children." His business career of ten years gave to him an aptitude for organization and business administration that stood him in good stead for the eight years expansion program that he supervised at the Home. He erected one building for each year that he was at the institution. He left it expertly staffed and thoroughly organized. That was his real contribution to the Home, and it was a contribution that is vital to the future of the institution.

His background of the place and circumstances of his birth and first two years spent in China, gave him an abiding interest in missions. His father and mother went as bride and groom on the ship, "The Seaman's Bride," embarking for the voyage in December, 1859. With them on the same ship went another young couple, also life volunteers for China, Mr. and Mrs. Young J. Allen. No wonder that Brother Wood always followed the development of our work under the able leadership of the world-famed Dr. Allen, for his own father and Dr. Allen had alone held this great territory for our church in the most trying period of modern missions, from 1861 to 1865.

He was also interested in the development of Trinity College. His father was president and he was a student at the college in those trying days that followed the death of Dr. Craven, the real founder of Trinity College. Had Dr. Craven lived, the financial crisis of 1883-87 would probably have never developed. Dr. Marquis L. Wood was at the helm at Trinity at what was probably the crisis hour of its history, just as he was in China at the crisis hour of our mission there. Charles Wood was not abashed by difficulties, he was born into and grew up in the very atmosphere of difficulties bravely faced and overcome. He came to the Children's Home at an hour when a man of calm temperament was needed. He had to fight through two different phases of litigation, the favorable issue of which meant a great deal to the future of the Children's Home. He, with the Executive Committee, chose such wise counselors and fought the cases with such wise judgment, that he won both issues.

He seemed, indeed, "a man called to the Kingdom for such a time" as this period in the history of the development of the Children's Home. He met the issues calmly, courageously, fought them through, laid down his task for other hands to carry forward, and has entered into a well-earned reward.

JOHN F. KIRK.

MR. JAMES ALEXANDER ODELL

Near Cedar Falls, Randolph County, James Alexander Odell was born November 4, 1841. Like so many prominent men of this Nation, J. A. Odell was reared in the Christian home on the farm. Here he learned from youth the essential lessons of self-reliance, economy and industry.

Throughout his business career he steadily won success on solid, honest methods and principles. While noted as a busy man, giving strict attention to his private affairs, he was also noted for his public spirit manifested in civic, moral, educational and religious interests. As a citizen he was loyal to the principles of civic righteousness. Always standing firmly on the right side of any moral issue, he contributed much to the formation of municipal reform, of temperance and other causes that make for the betterment of a community.

Besides contributing of his means to the education of worthy young people, he rendered a valuable service to the cause of liberal education in his contribution to institutions of learning, especially in behalf of Greensboro College. When this time-honored institution was threatened to be sold about 1882, Mr. J. A. Odell, with a few other liberal-spirited men, came forward and assumed financial responsibility, and established the college on a stronger basis than ever before. For over twenty years during such period his best thought and effort were devoted to this college, which he loved.

During the many years following he continued to show his interest in the college through various contributions including his munificent gift of $100,000.00 on the Odell Memorial Building in memory of his wife, Mary Jane Odell. In his will he bequeathed to this college amounts estimated at more than $100,000.00.

In the direct interests of the church his labors were also abundant. For about fifty years he was a member of the board of stewards of Greensboro West Market Street Methodist Church, a large part of the time serving as chairman. To him much is due to the building and equipment of Greensboro West Market Street Church. For thirty-five years he was treasurer of the joint board of finance of the two Conferences of North Carolina Methodism. He was elected a delegate to the General Conferences of this church which met in St. Louis in 1890, in Memphis, 1894, and in Dallas, Texas, 1902. For twelve years he was a member of the Book Committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The life and service of James Alexander Odell have thus made a lasting contribution to the betterment of human-kind.

On the late afternoon of Monday, February 10, 1930, it was my sacred privilege to visit the bedside of this grand old man, when the place seemed filled with a heavenly atmosphere. Amid the hush of the moments, prayer was offered for sustaining grace and guidance. At the close of devotions visible tokens of consciousness seemed evident in his serene efforts of response.

Soon came the eventide, near the time of "Sunset and evening star," when the noble spirit, released in triumph, met his "Pilot face to face."

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—REPORT NO. 1

THE LOCAL CHURCH

The Board of Christian Education has had before it the report from the Executive Secretary concerning various aspects of the work of the Board. This report indicates that the unified program of Christian education has been favorably received by the people of our Conference. The Board is pleased to state that in each division of the local church there has been practical unanimity in cordial approval of the new program and we would specifically mention the fine spirit manifested by the constituency of the Young People's Division and the enthusiasm with which they have gone into the task of organizing their work along the line of the new program as provided in the legislation of the General Conference and the interpretation of that legislation by the staff of the General Board.

The General Board of Christian Education has now furnished materials for the basic courses in organization and administration, and your Conference staff has already made a beginning in interpreting the new program to the local church in certain localities. The courses interpreting the new program are already making a wide appeal and in each standard school held since they have been made available, they have attracted the largest enrollment and resulted in the largest number of credits of any courses offered in these localities.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE CONFERENCE YEAR 1931-1932

1. That each pastor set up at once in each of his local churches the Church Board of Christian Education and proceed as rapidly as possible to introduce the full program of the local church as provided by the General Board of Christian Education.

2. Inasmuch as the primary responsibility for missionary training of the rising church is in the hands of this Board and since funds for carrying on the missionary extension program are derived from the Home and Foreign Missionary Special, we therefore recommend that the provisions of the Discipline and the recommendations of the General Board calling for monthly observance of Missionary Day and the raising of funds on that day for the Home and Foreign Missionary Special be put into operation at the beginning of the ensuing Conference year. Attention in this connection is called to the fact that the fourth Sunday offerings may not be diverted and that their directed use in this way is mandatory.

3. The great majority of our church members, both children and adults, come through the Sunday school. But in recent years there has been a serious decrease in Sunday school enrollment. This leads inevitably to a loss in church membership. It is furthermore a fact that an overwhelming number of our people are outside the Sunday school. In the light of these facts we urge our pastors and church leaders to make a persistent and continuous effort not only to increase Sunday school membership everywhere, but also to make provision for reaching our entire constituency with the program of Christian education. We further urge that increasing attention be given to the work of evangelism in and through our Sunday schools and to pastoral care in training children and adults for church membership.

4. We request the Conference to give its support to the plan of the Board to give this year increased emphasis to Standard and Cokesbury Training Schools; to develop, as far as practicable, a complete conference and district organization; to hold three simultaneous conference-wide assemblies at Lake Junaluska next summer; and to hold at the same time and place, a conference adult Bible class federation.

5. We recommend that as early as possible in the Conference year there be held a Conference council of employed and volunteer workers in Christian education, and that this be followed in each presiding elder's district by an institute on Christian education.

6. We recommend the observance of special days as set forth in the Discipline, as follows:

- (a) Sunday School Day.
- (b) College Day, offering to be used for scholarships and departments of Religious Education in the Conference institutions.
- (c) Anniversary Day for Young People's Division. (Epworth League Day.)
- (d) World's Temperance Sunday and Prohibition Day.

7. We urge the importance of using in the program of the local church the literature that is prepared by the General Board of Christian Education, and we note with satisfaction the economies and improvements that will be represented by the combination of the Sunday School Magazine with the Worker's Council in the new Church School Magazine, and in the combination of the Epworth Era with the High Road, forming the Epworth Highroad, the youth journal which will appear January 1. We urge the wide use of the guide, "How to Order and Use Our Church School Literature." We recommend that the Conference approve the policy of the Board of making the North Carolina Christian Advocate the medium of the Board for the promotion of its program and of recommending to our Sunday schools the circulation of the Advocate among its officers and teachers.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

The Board of Christian Education has had before it reports from Duke University, Greensboro College, Davenport, Rutherford and Weaver Colleges. Duke University has had a marked increase in enrollment in the undergraduate schools and in the graduate schools. Although all our educational institutions have been compelled to use strict economy, they have managed to hold their own. Rutherford College has developed a new farming, dairying, and nursery feature which seems to contain large promise in student self-support.

The statistical report concerning Duke University and the several colleges of the Conference follow:

	Teachers Students		Value Property	Endowment	Indeb- tedness

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

Our editors and publishers have maintained a high standard in the quality of the literature that is abundantly supplied the church. The various publications, leaflets and tracts of our church are of the best obtainable.

We note from a recent report by our Publishing House that the Cokesbury Press continues to make progress, and is now recognized as one of the largest and most progressive publishers of religious books in America, having during the past year issued forty-six books, the authors of which represent practically every Protestant denomination.

There has been a slight decrease in the circulation of Sunday school literature, and the Christian Advocate, general organ of the church, fails to show an increase in circulation. We trust it will be possible for this condition to be remedied during the coming year.

Total sales of our Publishing House amount to $1,842,864.39 for the year. The profits amount to $104,431.35. This, we feel, is most gratifying.

The Book Committee has appropriated $100,000 for the benefit of the claimants on the Conference funds.

THE COUNTRY CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA

Dr. J. M. Ormond, Professor of Practical Theology in the School of Religion, Duke University, has recently brought from the press a book on the study of the Country Church in North Carolina in comparison with the material progress and condition of other social institutions of the state. The title of the book is, "The Country Church in North Carolina," and should be in the hands of all who are interested in rural life and in a constructive program for the welfare of rural communities. Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon says of this book: "I do not see how anyone interested in the future of North Carolina can afford to be without the information you have presented in your book."

THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

This Board is informed that the Methodist Board of Publication, Inc., has encountered the financial stress and strain that during the past year has been the common lot of most, if not all, business enterprises. Constant hard work has been the order of each day without the results that one would like to see.

The job department had an income this year of $2,723.68 over last year, but, notwithstanding this increase, our expenses have been $7,025.03 more than our income, which is to be accounted for by the following: The income from advertising this year has been $4,122.60, while three years ago the income from the same source was $12,193.00, a difference of $8,070.40. The income this year from subscriptions was $2,626.78 less than last year. For the last twelve months our mail has almost daily brought the message, "I am not able to pay for my paper." With a loss of $8,070.43 in advertising and $2,626.78 in subscriptions, it is easy to see why we are in the red $7,025.03.

There are other heavy drains upon our income. To the clerical members of the two annual conferences, including superannuates and widows of preachers, and to charity subscriptions go 1,000 Advocates without cost to them. Then there are approximately 1,000 who receive the paper for one dollar a year. These are ministers of the gospel and people unable to pay to whom friends send the Advocate as a gift. These items constitute a donation of $3,000 from the Methodist Board of Publication to the parties we have mentioned.

In addition to the foregoing, there are those subscribers who owe from $1.00 to $4.00 but neglect to pay for the paper because there is no one to see them in person and make the collection. If in each congregation the list could be followed up by some member of that congregation, many dollars would be saved to the Advocate.

In the face of these losses we are putting out a paper that costs $2.00 a year, relying on the job work to supplement the needed funds; this, too, at a time when job work is cut to the bone.

Our only recourse is to increase our business. A united effort must be made to secure renewals and new subscribers to the Advocate. We, therefore, submit the following plan for next year:

1. Let two weeks be set apart in each district to stress good literature in all our churches; special effort to be made in each church to get new subscribers and renewals for the North Carolina Christian Advocate. The presiding elder and pastors in their district meetings will select the time and determine the methods of procedure in their several districts. One of the editors of the Advocate will try to be present at each district meeting.

2. Let our church literature have a prominent place in all the efforts for Christian Education. The Advocate gives two pages each week to the Boards of Christian Education. The contents of these pages should go into many more homes each week. Let plans be laid to foster the reading of the church paper by securing new subscriptions among the young people and the teachers in our Sunday schools.

3. Let the Women's Missionary Societies extend the work for the Advocate and the Voice. Many auxiliaries have a Voice and Advocate agent who is doing a fine work. Let every auxiliary have one member devoted to this end. The Advocate has two pages each week telling of the wonderful work of the missionary societies. To this missionary cause the Advocate is fully committed.

In all church work the preacher in charge is the man who must lead. This Advocate plan is no exception.

Other papers in our church have subsidies from the Publishing House and from conferences, ranging from $4,000 to $20,000, but we have to go it without any outside help. With the losses sustained in these days of depression, we must unite all our agencies to keep up our subscription list and to turn all job work possible to the Advocate shop. This is our way out.

James E. Lambeth is nominated to succeed himself on the Board representing the Western North Carolina Conference, and we request Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon to appoint A. W. Plyler editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

(Signed) A. W. PLYLER, Chairman,
W. A. BARBER, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

The missionary work of the church is so closely related to economic conditions that much uncertainty and apprehension has been felt during the year. Many feared that the missionary impulse was, after all, exotic and could not, therefore, stem the tide of economic depression. Yet, we find reason to rejoice in that through it all the financial income is but .07% less than for last year. This is a difference far less than that recorded for other interests, by economists everywhere. This first necessity of testing our missionary vision and loyalty under adversity leads to a new estimation of the value of our years of emphasis upon missionary information through our cultivation literature, study courses, laymen's activities which is building for us a more vital knowledge of spiritual world need and a corresponding loyalty to the missionary impulse.

But the most gratifying cause for thanksgiving is that a new glow of revival interest has brought increased numbers into the church by profession of faith and baptism.

Your Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That our missionary secretary and representative laymen attend the Missionary Council meeting to be held at Oklahoma City.

2. That a mid-year meeting of the Board of Missions, the presiding elders and the district lay leaders be held to plan for special district missionary institutes.

3. We call attention to the Missionary Year Book for 1931 as a most complete and satisfactory source book of information for an understanding of the fundamental principle upon which our General Board of Missions administers our missionary work.

4. We nominate C. C. Weaver, L. B. Abernethy and J. S. Folger as a Committee of Co-operation for the Rural Extension Work, from the Board of Missions, to meet with a like committee from the Board of Christian Education to work out a closer plan of activity between these interests of the church. W. B. West is a member of this committee, ex officio.

5. We nominate C. C. Weaver to succeed C. H. Ireland on the Board of Managers of the Duke University Pastors' School.

6. We suggest that our pastors and churches, wherever possible, take advantage of mission specials in raising the Kingdom Offering.

7. We hereby nominate Rev. W. B. West for appointment as Conference Missionary Secretary.

8. We hereby call attention to the excellent work being done by the General Board of Missions through the School of Missions at Junaluska. We urge our pastors to attend this school in larger numbers.

9. We wish to direct attention to the work being done in our rural churches through the maintenance fund of the Duke Endowment. Seventy-seven of our rural charges have participated in this benefaction. The total amount, including the $5,000 Duke fund, appropriated by your Conference Mission Board is $26,600 for the year now closing.

10. We hereby state the policy of the present Board of Missions in making distribution to the charges after this year to be as follows: To supplement salaries, up to $1,500 for men of families, up to $1,000 for single men.

11. Word has come to us through our Conference Missionary Secretary that the president of our Conference, Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon, is joining with his colleagues in the College of Bishops in the call to the church for a special emergency self-denial offering on behalf of our missionary work on the two Sundays, November 29 and December 6, or on some Sunday before January 1, 1932. The Board expresses its hearty concurrence in the call and wishes hereby to urge that every pastor in the Conference make the call in each congregation on one of the two Sundays named, giving our people the opportunity out of their generosity and self-sacrifice to aid our imperilled missionary work, and we especially request the presiding elders in their early rounds to bring the self-denial offering to the attention of pastors and churches.

BOARD OF FINANCE

In accordance with the wishes of the General Board of Finance that this Conference fix a month during the year in which the pastors shall make an effort to raise the revised quotas of the Superannuate Endowment Fund in their charges, we recommend that you fix the month of September, 1932, for this purpose.

We request the presiding elders to provide in the programs of their district conferences an opportunity for the Conference Director to present the claims of this fund.

To assist the pastors and presiding elders in this effort we recommend the appointment of Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick as Conference Director of the Superannuate Endowment Fund.

In addition to the distribution made by this Board, the Duke Foundation will distribute $15,000 and the General Board approximately $8,000 to the claimants of this Conference.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Very careful consideration and thought have been given applications submitted to this Board.

Many of the applications were very incomplete, both as to the statement of the financial status of projects and explanations thereof. The Board desires to impress again on the preachers and laymen the importance of seeing that applications submitted are fully and accurately completed before they are forwarded to our secretary.

It is a matter of much regret that sufficient funds do not come into our hands to enable us to distribute any large amount to any one project.

We have noted with much regret the financial embarrassment that has come upon some of the churches in our Conference, and we are sorry that we do not have sufficient funds to relieve the situation existing to any great extent.

It is the opinion of the members of this Board that the coming year should be devoted in some measure at least to reducing debts on churches and parsonages rather than to the erection of new buildings; however, where a church building is contemplated, we urge building committees to confer with the architect of the General Board of Church Extension, or confer with the architect at Duke University who works under the supervision of the General Board.

We rejoice to report that through the Duke Endowment, from November, 1930, through October, 1931, there were 27 appropriations to the building of rural churches in Western North Carolina Conference, an amount totaling $41,630.

In closing this report we would again impress upon all concerned the importance of carrying adequate fire insurance on churches and parsonages.

HOSPITAL BOARD

1. Your Conference Hospital Board notes with satisfaction the progress of the hospital movement throughout the church, as shown by the developments of the past year. Kentucky Methodism rejoices in the completion of a new hospital unit, at a cost of $500,000, upon the campus of the Good Samaritan Hospital at Lexington, Kentucky. The records of the Duke University Hospital for the first twelve months of its operation show that $90,000.00 worth of free service was performed during that time. The General Hospital Board has acquired and successfully operated for eight months the Warren A. Candler Hospital in Savannah, Georgia, and plans are being completed for the expansion of this institution.

2. The Golden Cross Enrollment constitutes the opportunity for every Methodist in the Western North Carolina Conference to share in the Christ-like ministry of our own institution at Elkin, North Carolina, and we urge the Conference-wide observance of Golden Cross week, and also the appointment of wide-awake Golden Cross Directors for the local churches and the election of suitable persons as district directors of the Golden Cross in the various districts.

3. We have heard with interest and pride the report of the Board of Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, for the period beginning April 20, 1931, and ending with October 31, 1931. The amount of the charity work done during that time is $3,394.64. Ten of the ministers of the Conference have received treatment in the hospital since its opening, without charge, having been received as courtesy patients. We commend the untiring efforts of Rev. L. B. Abernethy, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, and his associates, in behalf of the success of the institution.

4. We hereby nominate the following Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital, to serve for a term of three years: Dr. J. L. Doughton, R. A. Doughton, Dr. E. G. Click, Ralph P. Hanes and R. M. Chatham for one year in place of Dr. J. W. Ring, deceased.

5. We hereby place in nomination the name of Dr. H. K. Boyer as Conference Golden Cross Director, and also the name of Rev. E. J. Harbison as assistant Golden Cross Director.

6. The report of the Board of Trustees of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital called attention to the lack of a Nurses' Home, which necessitates the renting of a building one mile from the hospital at a rental of $75.00 per month, or $900.00 per annum. The report further stated that the Duke Foundation has agreed to appropriate $8,000.00 on a Nurses' Home to cost $20,000.00, and also that private subscriptions have been secured and guaranteed for $6,000.00 and that the General Hospital Board has agreed to turn over to the Hospital Board of the Western North Carolina Conference all of the funds received from said Conference from the Kingdom Extension offering for hospital purposes, until the sum of $6,000.00 has been realized for the purpose named.

Upon consideration of the report of said Board of Trustees, and the recommendations it contains, your Conference Hospital Board unanimously adopted the following resolution, upon which we ask your action and endorsement:

WHEREAS, There exists a pressing need for the early erection of a Nurses' Home upon the campus of the Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital; and

WHEREAS, A suitable Nurses' Home can be erected for the sum of $20,000.00; and

WHEREAS, The Duke Foundation has agreed to appropriate $8,000.00 towards the erection of said Nurses' Home, provided the balance of the total sum required can be raised within six months after December 1, 1931; and

WHEREAS, Good subscriptions have been secured and guaranteed from private sources to the amount of $6,000.00; and

WHEREAS, The General Hospital Board has agreed to allocate the entire amount of the Kingdom Extension funds raised for hospital purposes in the Western North Carolina Conference, to the Conference Hospital Board of said Conference until the sum of $6,000.00 has been realized for the purpose aforesaid, the amount from this source now available being about $1,200.00, with $1,519.03 in Golden Cross funds on hand October 1, 1930;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: That we request the Western North Carolina Conference to authorize the Conference Hospital Board of said Conference to borrow the sum of $4,500.00 for the aforesaid purpose; said loan to be secured by and repaid from the Kingdom Extension returns of the Western North Carolina Conference, raised for hospital purposes, until said loan is fully paid, with interest; and further, that in the event the Kingdom Extension returns shall not be sufficient, such portion of the annual Golden Cross Enrollment funds shall be applied to the repayment of said loan as shall make possible the full retirement of the loan within three years, in three equal annual installments.

(Signed) J. B. IVEY, Chairman,
W. L. HUTCHINS, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

The evils of intoxicating liquor are obvious and inevitable. The benefits of state and national laws prohibiting the traffic in liquor are no less obvious and inevitable. Perhaps the most daring piece of legislation ever put on the statute books of any nation was the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States, forbidding the manufacture and sale of intoxicants. This law has not ushered in the millennium. No right-thinking man expected as much, but it has vastly improved the physical and moral condition of our people. It has added greatly to the sum total of human comfort and human happiness. It is being belittled by some and openly defied by others, but are not other laws being thus disregarded? If every other law of the land were being perfectly enforced and unquestionably obeyed, there would be some reason for the attitude which the opponents of prohibition take. We quote Judge E. Yates Webb: "The prohibition law is one of the best obeyed laws on the statute books."

This nation must effect a new mobilization of its citizenry. We must mobilize to keep the law! And this mobilization must be brought about largely through the Church of Jesus Christ. Every member of the church in all the land should set an example to the law breakers. As long as church people join the enemies of righteousness in criticizing the violating one law, it will become increasingly easy to violate all law, and when men lose respect for law, tyranny begins!

In order that our great army of children and young people may be saved from a fate worse than death, we should stoutly demand that the evils of all alcoholic beverages be taught in the curriculum of our public schools and colleges. The mighty impact of a united moral conscience on the subject of liquor will overthrow the reign of this hideous monster and usher in a new and better day. The only way by which a nation can exalt itself is for that nation to exalt its childhood and youth! The Methodist Church will ever stand between its children and their worst enemy!

Methodism was born dry, is dry today and will be dry always, and she will never support by her influence any wet candidates anytime, anywhere. Methodism has always been ready to co-operate with every agency that has for its object the building of a sober world and, therefore, has found it easy to give encouragement and support to the Anti-Saloon League of North Carolina over a period of a quarter of a century. We this day renew our pledge of help to it and all other groups who are seeking to uphold the laws of this land and we here and now serve notice on the liquor interest operating under any name or guise whatsoever, that the Methodist Church in North Carolina will fight them and fight them hard just so long as they continue to defy righteousness and seek to pull goodness from the throne of the human heart!

JUVENILE PROTECTION

Your Board calls attention to a neglected task for the Protestant churches: namely, the need of co-operation with the courts in cases of youthful delinquents. Some church agency should be ready at an hour's notice to take charge of a girl or boy who has been brought before the court for misdemeanor or other charge. This is a call to women especially to act in behalf of wayward girls. The jail is no place for such offenders. Often they are first cases, ready for salvage under sympathetic guidance and restraint. When will our divident Protestantism unite to protect youth in these crucial moments? We challenge our Methodist people in cities to take the initiative in providing proper facilities for meeting this need.

MOTION PICTURES

We recognize motion pictures as a great educational force of the modern world, but as also in need of some form of social control, without which they are a moral peril. A nation that protects its people from impure foods and drugs, and its cattle from infections, should be able to protect its children from the contamination of impurity and crime as seen on the screen and stage. Last year we urged you to support a bill for the control of motion pictures at the point of production, and for the protection of exhibitors from the evils of block-booking. That bill died with the last Congress. The same forces will introduce a bill in December of similar import. We urge a study of its provisions by church leaders. It will never become a law until you let your representatives in Congress know that you insist on preventing exhibitions of filth and lawlessness through a proper law, properly enforced.

The church should request the membership of the church not to patronize any theatre that persists in showing vicious pictures. The occasional exhibition of a good picture does not condone the sin of exhibiting a vicious picture. The most effective censorship that can be devised is a reduction in the receipts of the box office.

RACE RELATIONS

Hard times are very hard on Negro families. Let not a man be denied the means of subsistence because of color. This time of readjustment in financing the public schools of North Carolina is a time of testing for school authorities in interracial fairness. We hope the claims of Negro children may be equitably met and that North Carolina may continue to lead the South in the development of an enlightened and stable Negro citizenry through well equipped, well manned schools.

We have had no lynchings in North Carolina this year. We commend citizens of several communities for self-restraint maintained when crimes have been committed, or alleged, that in former times might have been the occasion of mob violence.

Recently the most horrible crime in the annals of North Carolina was committed in the very center of our state. It presented the most provoking and aggravating attendant circumstances; its atrocious character startled the nation. We call attention to this crime merely because it presents a demonstration of the way in which similar situations should be handled by our constituted authorities. All the powers of the executive and judicial departments of our state government, from governor to deputies, were invoked to protect the prisoner and to assure a fair trial of the accused. At the same time those who may have been of contrary mind were restrained from committing a crime that would have brought reproach upon the commonwealth. The church must not evade the question of mob violence. In the case just cited above, in the very face of an organized mob of outraged citizens that had sought to take the law in their own hands, two ministers of our church, assisted by a minister of another denomination, conducted the funeral of the victim of this crime; the very plainest words were spoken; wise council was given; mob action was reprobated and the courts upheld. It is comparatively easy for us to pass resolutions, but it remains for a consecrated ministry to take charge of every similar situation and seek to allay the inflamed passions of men. Only the glorious gospel of God can hold and steady men under such extreme provocation. At the same time these ministers pleaded for the other Negroes of the community, and begged that the crime should not be considered a racial offense, nor that anger engendered by the crime arouse resentment toward innocent men and women because of color.

WORLD PEACE

We face an event of tremendous significance in the progress of the nations toward a warless world in the World Disarmament Conference which will convene in Geneva in February, 1932. It is needless to remind you of its issues or of the gravity of the world situation with respect to peace. Our question is: what can the churches do to help make that conference a power in securing the world against the recurrence of a war that would mean the death of civilization? We must strive to assure delegates from our nation to this conference who will be committed to genuine disarmament; who are convinced of the futility of continuing an international race in armaments. Such delegates will be appointed when the appointing powers of our government are convinced that the citizens are standing solidly upon their Christian principles of brotherhood as applied to international affairs.

We must transmit to the President of the United States our convictions in this matter; your Board, therefore, offers the following resolution and recommends its adoption:

WHEREAS, The United States has become signatory to the Kellogg Peace Pact, and

WHEREAS, We have sent representatives to sit at the Council of the League of Nations, and

WHEREAS, There is imminent danger that the entire world may become embroiled in the frenzy of armed conflict, and

WHEREAS, This threatened crime against the peace of the world can be overtaken only through the leadership of men committed to the ideals of peace, be it, therefore,

RESOLVED: That we request the President of the United States, in the approaching Disarmament Conference, to select only those who are known to be apostles of peace throughout the world.

(Signed) J. FRANK ARMSTRONG, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We are happy to report progress in our lay work, in organization, interest, and general activity. The lay organization has supported loyally the elders and the pastors in the entire program of the church and especially in their efforts for spiritual life development and full payment of the benevolences.

STEWARDSHIP

We recommend constant effort in the cultivation and promotion of Christian Stewardship in all of its implication, both as to life and property. To this end we request that our pastors preach frequently on the subject that courses in stewardship be given in our Standard Training Schools and as an elective in the organized classes of the Sunday school; that the months of April and May be designated for special emphasis in stewardship.

THE BENEVOLENCES

The Board of Lay Activities pledges its full and hearty co-operation in all efforts to secure in full the benevolences and preachers' salaries. Our slogan should be: "A full report of finances from every charge."

SPIRITUAL LIFE

The one great need of our church, we feel, is the deepening of the spiritual life of our people. To this end we urge special effort on the part of our lay organization to lead our congregations into more consistent attendance on public worship, a life of prayer and Bible study and loyal support of the church. Let all our people become effective witnesses for Christ.

LAYMEN'S DAY

We recommend that the second Sunday in June be officially designated for "Laymen's Day" and that the subject for the program on that day be "The Ideal Layman."

THE METHODIST LAYMAN

We cordially commend to our constituency, especially the officials of the church, our official organ, The Methodist Layman. We urge that at least three subscriptions to this magazine be secured in each charge to include:

1. The charge Lay Leader.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Stewards.
3. The Chairman of the Stewardship Committee.

MISSIONARY COUNCIL

We nominate G. B. Howard, of Spindale, N. C., as delegate to the Missionary Council, and G. W. Hutchison, of Mt. Airy, as alternate delegate.

CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

We nominate James E. Lambeth for Conference Lay Leader.

(Signed) JAMES E. LAMBETH, Chairman,
G. B. GOODSON, Acting Secretary.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home, the youngest of the leading child caring institutions in the state of North Carolina, has material assets in excess of any other similar institution in the state. Its capital assets amount to $1,352,340.27, by far the greater part of which has been donated to us by loving friends of orphan children in the Western North Carolina Conference. No people have had more given them with which to do a great work.

These donations carry with them the implied challenge that the equipment thus provided be used to the fullest advantage in providing for fatherless and motherless boys and girls. We think the Methodist constituency of our Conference should see to it that deserving orphan children should be admitted into the care of the Children's Home as long as room can be provided for them. Up to the present time we are far from becoming strained in the support of these children. Total offerings to the Children's Home from our people throughout the Conference amount to less than thirty-five cents per year per member.

There are at present 313 growing boys and girls enrolled at the Children's Home. Twelve additional children seeking admittance have been favorably acted upon and will soon be numbered in the family of your foster children, thus increasing the number to 325. Eighty-three additional children are being provided for through your mother's aid department, thus making the Children's Home family number beyond the 400 mark. These boys and girls, with varying temperaments, needs, hopes and aspirations, look to their foster fathers and mothers, the Methodists of this Conference, for food to eat, clothes to wear, and a chance to grow like Jesus grew, "In wisdom, and in stature, and in favor with God and man."

Since our last report to this body, 65 children have been received into the Children's Home and 22 have been dismissed, the latter having been placed in such surroundings as to insure their continued healthy growth and wholesome development. Thirteen of our boys and girls are now pursuing courses in college, a slightly smaller number are in training preparatory to becoming registered nurses, and quite a large number are serving apprenticeships in various other occupations. A recent investigation of 170 of our alumni, from whom reports were received, tend to indicate that practically all of them are doing well in the practicing of Christian citizenship and in service activities. Certainly the Children's Home is a great character producing institution for which we may well be proud and to which they may rejoice in their continued support.

Every effort is being made to make the contributions to the Children's Home serve as well and as far as possible. We now have 71 more children at the Home than were enrolled a year and a half ago and our mother's aid family has been quadrupled. Your institution is caring for this increased number of children on a less total income than was received prior to their enrollment. Your trustees are glad to report that your family has been able to live during this time within the income received. We sincerely trust and hope that our two sources of income from our Methodist people—the fifth Sunday offerings and the ten per cent apportionments—can not only be sustained, but increased.

The following members of your Board of Trustees, whose term of membership has expired, have been re-elected and are submitted for confirmation: J. L. Nelson, James A. Gray, Charles H. Ireland, R. G. Stockton, Rev. J. T. Mangum, Rev. T. B. Johnson and Fred N. Tate. Thurmond Chatham, a son of the late Hugh Chatham, a former member of your Board of Trustees, has been selected in place of James K. Norfleet, deceased, and is also presented to you for confirmation.

(Signed) T. F. MARR, President.

COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

Your Commission on Spiritual Life feels that today the church has as her opportunity the privilege of offering to a restless world, the comforts, triumphs, and victories of the Christian religion.

Therefore, we offer the following recommendations:

1. That during the coming Conference year, all district conferences be planned to cover a period of two days. And that the first day be given to the importance of deepening the spiritual lives of our people.

It is the hope and suggestion of your Commission that the presiding Bishop be present at as many of these conferences as possible; and that the presiding elders plan their district conferences with this in mind.

2. That the pastors be prepared to offer their consecrated services for revival work in those churches of easy access; and that this service be given without financial remuneration.

3. That the regular services of our churches be evangelistic in effort, spirit, and expectancy, not only on the part of the preacher, but the congregation as well.

4. That since the majority of those who join our churches come from the Sunday school, there be given a new emphasis to spiritual life through the educational program of the Sunday school.

5. That each pastor encourage some form of family worship in the homes of our people.

(Signed) JOHN W. MOORE, Chairman,
HOWARD P. POWELL, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

Your Commission on Benevolences submits its report as follows:

It is our conviction that unusual effort should be made during the ensuing Conference year to secure the maximum payment on the General and Conference apportionments and the voluntary Kingdom Extension Offering. Because of the decreased payment on the benevolences, all of the great interests of the church, both general and conference, are suffering. These funds represent the base line operations of the church. For this reason we feel that every pastor and Board of Stewards should, by every possible means give the people of their congregations the facts, lay the matter on their hearts and consciences, and by the use of practical business methods secure systematic and proportionate giving to these sacred causes.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the dates for the meetings of the Kingdom Extension Institutes be fixed as follows:

Place	Date	Hour
Winston-Salem	January 11th	10:00 a. m.
Mount Airy at Pilot Mt.	January 11th	2:00 p. m.
Greensboro	January 12th	10:00 a. m.
Salisbury	January 12th	2:00 p. m.
Charlotte	January 13th	10:00 a. m.
Gastonia at Lincolnton	January 13th	2:00 p. m.
Statesville at Hickory	January 14th	10:00 a. m.
Marion	January 14th	2:00 p. m.
Asheville	January 15th	10:00 a. m.
Waynesville	January 15th	2:00 p. m.

2. That special emphasis be given at the district stewards' meetings for a real day of information and inspiration under the leadership of the presiding elder.

3. That a real every-member canvass for the General and Conference apportionments be put on in all charges as soon as possible after the session of the annual Conference.

4. That special effort be made to promote attendance in the Kingdom Extension Institutes and that following these a well-organized plan of study and cultivation be carried out in each charge to be followed by the voluntary offering.

5. That the presiding elders be requested to make quarterly reports to the Bishop on all benevolent giving of each charge.

6. That the General Commission on Benevolences be requested to send all free literature direct to the pastors.

7. That the annual Conference Commission on Benevolences hold at least two meetings during the Conference year.

8. That the Conference Treasurer be instructed to pay to the Treasurer of the Conference Commission on Benevolences for its expense, out of the amount received on Conference apportionments before distribution is made to the several Boards, the sum of $400.00.

(Signed) JAMES E. LAMBETH, Chairman,
G. B. GOODSON, Acting Secretary.

TEXT OF THE CONSTITUTIONAL QUESTION, ENTITLED "JUDICIAL COUNCIL"

By the requisite constitutional majority, which requires a two-thirds vote, the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its session in Dallas, Texas, May, 1930, directed that the subjoined amendment to the constitution of our church, entitled "Judicial Council," should be submitted to the several Annual Conferences.

The College of Bishops at its meeting in Nashville, Tennessee, on May 1, 1931, directed that the vote on the amendment in the Annual Conferences should be taken on the next succeeding round.

In the text of this amendment that was submitted to a number of Annual Conferences last year inaccuracies were discovered, and one of these inaccuracies was of great importance—namely, the clause in Section I, "four times the number of traveling elders and lay members of the church to be elected." This clause was not adopted by the General Conference as shown by the official record. According to the record, it was proposed, but never voted on. The official record contains the language, "twenty traveling elders and sixteen lay members of the church," as the text of the act that was passed by the General Conference. The subjoined text conforms exactly to the official record.

JUDICIAL COUNCIL

SECTION I—HOW COMPOSED

All appellate power shall be vested in a Judicial Council to be composed of nine members—five traveling elders and four lay members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to be nominated and elected in the following manner:

The College of Bishops shall nominate by a majority vote of the effective bishops twenty traveling elders and sixteen lay members of the church; and from such nominees or from such other nominees as may be named from the floor of the Conference, without discussion, the General Conference shall elect, by ballot and without discussion, five traveling elders and four lay members, and from the remaining nominees the General Conference shall elect by separate ballot five traveling elders and four lay members as alternate members of the Judicial Council. These alternates shall be eligible to fill vacancies occurring from any cause in the membership of the Council for the remainder of the term of the member whose place the alternate may have been called to fill, and in the event of a vacancy it shall be the duty of the President and Secretary to notify the alternate of each class in order of their election.

SECTION II—TERM OF OFFICE

The term of office shall be for eight years, and until their successors are elected and qualified. At the first election the three traveling elders and the two lay members receiving the highest majority of votes shall be elected for eight years, and the two from each class receiving the next highest majority vote shall be elected for four years. Thereafter all elections shall be for a term of eight years, and all elections shall be by majority vote. In the event of vacancies occurring after the exhaustion of list of alternate members, the Council shall be authorized to fill such vacancies for the remainder of the quadrennium.

SECTION III—MEMBERSHIP

No member of the council shall be under forty years of age, nor eligible to membership in the General Conference, nor to any connectional position, nor to membership on any General Conference Board or Commission during his term of office; and no member shall sit in any case in which he has any personal or official interest, otherwise than as a member of the church.

SECTION IV—POWERS

The Judicial Council shall have appellate power to determine the constitutionality of any act of the General Conference or of an Annual Conference, whether or not any act of the General Conference or an Annual Conference violates the constitution of the church; to hear and determine the appeal of a traveling preacher; to determine an appeal taken by one-third of the Conference, board or body from which the appeal comes, or by one-third of the College of Bishops, all appeals from a Bishop's decision on the question of law in an Annual or District Conference; to hear and determine all other questions involved in appeals from any connectional board or body of the church; to have such other jurisdiction as may be conferred upon it by the General Conference; provided it shall have no jurisdiction under an appeal by a Bishop involving his character or the efficiency of his administration. In such cases the Bishop shall be allowed an appeal directly to the General Conference.

The Council shall have power to arrest any act of a connectional board or body of the church, when such action is brought before it on appeal by one-third of the members of such board or body or upon complaint of a majority of the College of Bishops present at a regular or called session; provided that such an appeal shall be taken at the session of the board or body from the action the appeal is asked, or within thirty days after the adjournment of said session.

The decision of the Council shall be final, provided that when the Council shall have declared any act of the General Conference unconstitutional, it shall take the course provided for constitutional alterations.

The Council shall have free access to all papers and records of the Conference, board or body, and may require the production of any papers, documents or records which in its judgment may pertain to any matter pending before it.

SECTION V—SESSIONS

The Council shall meet at the same time and place as the General Conference and shall continue in session until the adjournment of that body. It may meet at such other times and at such places as it may deem necessary; provided that it shall meet at least once each year on the call of the President, should there be any business demanding its attention.

SECTION VI—QUORUM

Seven members of the Judicial Council shall constitute a quorum. A vote of as many as six members of the Council shall be necessary to suspend or inhibit any action of the General Conference or of an Annual Conference, as is provided in Section IV of this Article. A majority vote of the entire Council shall be sufficient to decide all other appeals, motions, cases, and proceedings before it.

SECTION VII—GOVERNMENT

The Council shall provide all necessary rules and regulations for its government and procedure.

SECTION VIII—REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

The General Conference shall have power to remove members of the Judicial Council from office for cause.

SECTION IX—TRANSFER OF JUDICIAL FUNCTIONS

The judicial functions of the Bishops and the Committee on Appeals shall continue as at present until the Judicial Council shall have been elected and organized; whereupon such functions shall cease. All business remaining before the College of Bishops or the Committee on Appeals, pending or undetermined, shall be transferred to and decided by the Judicial Council.

DUKE FUND COMMISSION

From the first, money received from the Duke Fund went to aid in the building of churches in the country, and to support preachers in country places. Later, assistant pastors have been sent out to the country places to engage in various lines of church work.

For several years the Board of Church Extension of Louisville has placed a competent architect, Mr. H. N. Haines, at Duke University, Durham, N. C., to co-operate with Duke University and the Duke Foundation in the building of country churches. He is available for drawing plans and for supervising all kinds of church buildings in both town and country.

The several lines along which the Duke Foundation proceeds are well known. Details may be secured from Prof. J. M. Ormond, Durham, N. C.

The several items, with the amounts for each, during the conference year 1930-31 are as follows:

CHURCH BUILDING FUND

Appropriations, 46; amount appropriated, $65,480.00.

CHURCH MAINTENANCE FUND

Appropriations, 159; amount appropriated, $54,750.00; total, $120,230.00.

SUPERANNUATE FUND

Appropriations, 231; amount appropriated, $30,650.00.

ASSISTANT PASTORS

Sixty-seven assistant pastors were sent out to work on the rural circuits of North Carolina for ten weeks during the summer of 1931. Some did evangelistic work exclusively, some Cokesbury work exclusively, some did the general work of an assistant pastor, and one man distributed books.

Special attention is directed to a new book just off the press by Prof. J. M. Ormond, entitled, "The Country Church in North Carolina."

R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

The Pastors' School at Duke University held its Summer Session in June, lasting for ten days.

The attendance was not quite up to that of some years, but the work done was most satisfactory.

Dean J. M. Ormond submits the following statistical report:

NUMBER OF CREDITS RECEIVED

N. C. Conf.	W. N. C. Conf.	Ministerial Students	Other Confes.	Total
119	62	110	7	298

In other years the Board of Missions, the Board of Education and the Sunday School Board contributed four hundred dollars each for the support of the Pastors' School. The Board of Christian Education will please take note of this in making its appropriation this year.

Those on the Board of Managers whose terms expire this year are: C. H. Ireland, his successor to be nominated by the Board of Missions; O. V. Woosley and E. W. Fox, their successors to be nominated by the Board of Christian Education; H. H. Jordan having died, his successor shall be nominated by the Board of Christian Education.

The report of the treasurer is attached.

BIBLE BOARD

Esteeming the Bible above all other books made by man and inspired of God, your Board is happy to report good progress in the work of circulating the Holy Scriptures among the peoples of earth.

The Bible has been translated into 906 languages and some portion of the Bible appears in a new language as often as once every five weeks. The American Bible Society is doing a notable thing in promoting this work. There is no purpose of profit in the American Bible Society's activity. The scriptures are sold at cost and frequently below cost.

The society calls attention to the increasing popularity of its so-called "penny portions." Complete books of the Bible, each sell at one penny.

During 1930 the American Bible Society, through its home and foreign agencies, distributed 12,035,133 Bibles, Testaments, and portions.

Since its institution in 1816 this society alone has distributed 288,234,048 volumes of scripture in over 300 languages.

The society is doing a notable work in printing the Bible for the blind. 4,142 volumes in Braille or other suitable systems were sent to people unable to see. Our own Publishing House is doing a great, growing business in the circulation of the Bible. Its catalogue advertising its various editions can be had from the House for the asking, showing a rich variety of type and binding and Bible bargains to match the best.

Your Board respectfully presents for adoption the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, Our Publishing House, as well as the American Bible Society, is carrying on this work of increasing the circulation of the scriptures, a task essential to the whole Christian enterprise, be it

RESOLVED, First: That we endorse heartily the products of our own Publishing House and recommend that our people patronize our own institution and also the American Bible Society in their efforts to bring about a wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures.

Second: That inasmuch as Sunday, December 6, 1931, has been designated as Universal Bible Sunday, the ministers of our Conference are asked to co-operate on this date, as generally as possible, in directing the attention of our people to the important place in the Christian faith which the Holy Scriptures occupy.

Third: We are pleased to know that our Conference last year contributed $1,686.00 to this good cause.

(Signed) E. MYERS, Chairman,
O. P. ADER, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON LAKE JUNALUSKA METHODIST ASSEMBLY

Since our report to you last fall, the Virginia, Mississippi and Alabama Conferences have accepted the offer of the Southern Assembly to elect trustees to hold in trust the property of the Assembly for the church. This now makes a total of seventeen Annual Conferences that are responsible for the management of the Assembly. In each of these Conferences there is a quadrennial committee on Junaluska which takes its rank along with the other standing committees of the Annual Conference. Gradually, but surely, the church is taking a deeper interest in the work of the Assembly, and more and more our people are taking advantage of the opportunities that are offered at Lake Junaluska for study, inspiration and recreation.

In accordance with the action of the trustees in their 1930 meeting, the Assembly has secured incorporation under the laws of the State of North Carolina, and the official name under which the Assembly operates is "Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly, Inc."

The Summer Assembly, like other institutions of the church, has felt the effects of the depression. However, we are glad to inform you that some progress has been made in the liquidation of the indebtedness.

The 1931 season was the nineteenth one conducted at Lake Junaluska. While the attendance was not as large as last year, yet in other respects the season was one of the most satisfactory ever held. Several thousand people attended the schools, conferences and camps. The sermons and lectures were of a high order. The Young People's Conference, the Missionary Conference, the Spiritual Life Conference, the Layman's Conference, the Leadership Schools and the School of Religion were led by men and women of exceptional ability. All in all we feel that the work done at Lake Junaluska this past summer made a distinct contribution to the general upbuilding of the church.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend that the Western North Carolina Conference Committee on Junaluska be authorized to secure the appointment of a director in each presiding elder's district. The duties of this director would be to co-operate with the trustees and Conference committee in advertising the schools and conferences, and in general look after the interests of Lake Junaluska within the bounds of the district.

2. We recommend that whenever possible, the district conferences be visited by one of the trustees or one of the members of the Conference committee to represent Lake Junaluska.

3. We recommend that Mr. E. A. Cole be elected to succeed himself for a period of two years as trustee of the Lake Junaluska Summer Assembly.

R. C. GOFORTH, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Committee is pleased to report that all records examined were found to be faithfully kept.

Certain records were not before the Committee.

COMMISSION ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

Every phase of our industrial life has changed from ancient custom to a new order within the last few years. The rapidity of this change has been greatly accelerated by a financial depression which has gripped all the peoples of the earth.

Until the last few years both capital and labor have been controlled by divisive and exclusive organizations, where they were controlled at all. Through these organizations many gains had been made toward a better industrial life. But under existing conditions these hard won gains have been swept away and this nation, together with all other nations, faces the future with unsteady purpose. No leader has yet arisen with power and purpose sufficient for the hour. While we honor the leaders of state and nation for their efforts at relief, we all know them to be palliative rather than remedial. The proponent of these measures make no other claim but bid us live in hope that things will right themselves. We live in hope.

We call upon our people to contribute liberally to every organized form of charity and relief. The burden is upon us all. But in all this let us remember that the huge sum of one hundred million dollars, proposed for relief, will give to each of our unemployed men in America a bare ten dollars each for the support of their families through these winter months. There is not now enough money in the world to alleviate the suffering of this immediate and urgent situation among all peoples through charity.

Since the church of Jesus Christ is the one all-inclusive organization upon the earth and since it has been instituted by God himself, it must assume its responsibility in this hour. All other organizations have broken down. The church will go right on until the end. For this reason she must assume her rightful place of leadership and call the hosts of the redeemed to this service. It is the hour of her opportunity.

We have much to learn of the mind of the Master. Others can teach us. We should be willing to learn. For instance, yonder in India a lone man, insignificant in appearance, without official authority, without money or munitions, squats in his loin cloth and dominates the life of one-eighth of the human race by simply insisting that the "Sermon on the Mount" will really work in this troubled world. Even godless Russia has evolved a plan that keeps all her people employed in this time of stress. Communism to us is detestable and a perversion of all human rights and dignities but hungry men will follow the smell of bread though it be black bread.

What we need is Divine guidance rather than the wisdom of men. This nation has abundant resources for the satisfaction of every human need. God has given the increase. That is His will expressed in unmeasured largess. The church must distribute not only to the saints but to all who should be saints. It is not the price that matters. It is that men stand in the presence of this abundance and are denied the elemental human right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. To most men this right can be attained in no other way than through daily toil. But millions have been excluded from this right. Management of industry must face Almighty God, the Creator of men and means upon this issue.

We would submit to the thought of the world this plan for stabilizing the employment of men, the production of goods and the satisfaction of human needs to all people. Let our leaders of industry, in the fear of God, and by consent of those who know, or should know, set a minimum wage in every industry, and through such agencies as they may devise, with governmental sanction and authority, enforce this decision so that greed may not grind the face of the poor, nor force men of good will to either cut wages beyond reason or desire, or to close their industries in the face of godless competition. This is not a five year plan but a plan that is from all eternity. Most of the management of industry is in the church. It can be done. It must be done or greed will consume the corporate body of our civilization. And let us not forget that it is more just to have twenty million men employed part time than it is to have ten million men unemployed all the time.

What men most need is not money, but a chance to make an honest living by the sweat of the face. With this should go the assurance that when he comes home to his loved ones after his day of toil, he can lie down with assurance not only for today, but for tomorrow and other tomorrows. Rid the world of this haunting fear and the Kingdom of God will be firmly established in our land.

(Signed) R. M. COURTNEY, President,
W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in Central Church, Asheville, North Carolina, at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, November the 10th, 1931. In the absence both of Dr. Dred Peacock, President, and Dr. P. N. Garber, Vice-President, Dr. W. W. Peele presided by request of Dr. Garber.

The devotional service consisted of the singing of Hymn 2, "Come Thou Almighty King," prayer and Scripture reading from the fourth chapter of Ephesians by Dr. S. B. Turrentine, and then a quartet sang "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

The minutes of the last year's session were read by the Secretary and approved.

A nominating committee consisting of J. H. Barnhardt, C. C. Kirkpatrick and E. H. Nease was appointed by the chair.

A communication was read by the Secretary expressing regret from Dr. Peacock that ill health and business combined to prevent his presence at the meeting. The Secretary was instructed to make suitable response to Dr. Peacock's letter.

A collection to meet the expenses of the Society was taken, and $20.50 was contributed.

The Committee on Nominations made its report, recommending for President, Dr. P. N. Garber; Vice-President, Dr. E. K. McLarty; Secretary-Treasurer, W. G. McFarland; member Executive Committee succeeding himself, W. L. Sherrill; and they were elected.

Dr. Peele then presented Rev. W. L. Sherrill, speaker of the hour, who delivered a most interesting and inspiring address on the life of Peter Cartwright. This address was heard with unusual appreciation by the Society.

Hymn 388, "A Charge to Keep I Have," was sung and then after the benediction by Bishop E. D. Mouzon, the meeting adjourned.

(Signed) W. W. PEELE, Acting Chairman,
W. G. McFARLAND, Secretary.

THE CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The twenty-third session of the Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood was held in Central Church, Asheville, N. C., Saturday, November 14th, 1931, at 2 p. m., W. L. Sherrill, President, in the chair. Devotional service was led by W. A. Barber after which minutes of last annual meeting were read and approved. The report of the Secretary-Treasurer showed the organization to be in good condition. Four members have died this year, as follows: W. M. Boring, H. H. Jordan, Elmer Simpson and D. W. Brown. On motion, a rising vote of thanks was offered to the Secretary-Treasurer for his careful handling of the funds of the Brotherhood during the time when so many banks were failing. No funds were lost.

An amendment to the constitution was offered by R. S. Howie which will be acted upon at the next annual meeting.

On motion, the Treasurer was ordered to pay $1,200.00 to each claimant as soon after it is due as possible. The balance to be held until the annual meeting and paid in such amounts that all claimants for each year shall receive the same amount.

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice-President, W. R. Ware; Secretary-Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. The President appointed G. D. Herman and H. C. Sprinkle as members of the Executive Committee.

The Brotherhood adjourned with the benediction.

Memoirs

REV. WILLIAM MILBURN BORING

Rev. William Milburn Boring, the son of Washington and Elizabeth King Boring, was born in Sullivan County, Tennessee, October 15, 1850. He came of preaching stock, his father being a member of the Holston Conference and dying when William was but four years of age. He was also a nephew of Rev. John Boring, one of the strong preachers of the Holston Conference. William was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, "in the days of his youth." Despite the meagre educational advantages of his day, he attended the public schools of Sullivan County, and finished the course offered in the school at Johnson City. He was, moreover, a student throughout his entire life, often being found studying the high school books of his children, especially those in English and mathematics. His marriage to Miss Martha Wampler of Dickerson County, Va., August 10, 1880, proved a happy one. There were seven children, six of whom with their mother still live.

He joined the Holston Conference at Knoxville, October, 1878, and at the same Conference was ordained Deacon by Bishop Kavanaugh. He was ordained Elder by Bishop Wilson at Asheville, October 29, 1882. He became a charter member of our Conference at its organization in 1890. His appointments for the 45 years of his active ministry follow: Taswell, Va., 1879; Clintwood, 1880; Fall Branch, 1881; Haywood, 1882-4; Sulphur Springs, 1885-6; Burnsville, 1887-9; Fairview, 1890-3; Bethel, 1894-6; Haywood, 1897-1900; Leicester, 1901-2; South Fork, 1903-4; Lowesville, 1905-7; Polkville, 1908-10; Crouse, 1911-14; Yadkinville, 1915-19; South Fork, 1920-23.

At the conference of 1923 because of advancing years and declining health he was granted the superannuate relation. Settling at Crouse among a people whom he had served as pastor, he easily found his place in the life of the church and the village. Here the last seven years of his life were spent, doing what his hands found to do, for he found employment for time and talent in superintending the Sunday School and assisting the pastor generally. On November 28, 1930, at the ripe age of eighty years, one month, and thirteen days, he passed to the saints eternal rest. After funeral services conducted by Rev. H. C. Sprinkle, assisted by a number of other pastors, his body was tenderly laid to rest in Pleasant Grove cemetery, near Crouse.

The minutes of our Conference reveal some interesting facts regarding the subject of this sketch. He could stay and he could repeat. Two charges, the Haywood Circuit and the South Fork Circuit, were blessed by his consecrated leadership for two terms each. He was also one of the two first pastors in our Conference to be returned to a pastorate for the fifth year. In November, 1918, he was returned to Yadkinville for the fifth year. He served the Haywood charge seven years, the South Fork six years, and the Yadkinville five years, making a total of eighteen years on three charges. Another fact worthy of notice is that his later pastorates were his longest ones.

There were reasons for this unusual acceptability. He went to his work with a sense of a divine commission to rescue the perishing. He spoke as the mouthpiece of God. As he ceased speaking, men felt that they had heard a message from the very throne of God. Revival fires burned and men were saved with a great salvation. A layman who knew him was recently asked to give as he saw it the most outstanding characteristic of this good man's life. Without a moment's hesitation came his reply: "Deep spirituality." He lived the life hid with Christ in God and preached as the evangel of Christ. Hence sinners were saved with an everlasting salvation and the Church was greatly edified. His evangelistic zeal was contagious. Sometimes at a District Conference the entire assemblage was thrilled by a five minutes' appeal out of his warm heart.

His life was not crippled by the conflict of divided interests. He drew all his studies one way. More than once he was heard to refer to himself as a man of one Book and one paper: the Bible and the Christian Advocate. His uncompromising devotion to his Church is attested by the fact that during the 45 years of his active ministry he never failed to answer Annual Conference roll call and missed but one Quarterly Conference.

I did not have the privilege of association with him in the later years of his active ministry. I have, therefore, asked Rev. H. C. Sprinkle to furnish an account of those years. He says: "I found him then, in the ripeness of his years, just the same devout, modest, unassuming, loyal Methodist preacher he had always been. Brother Boring had a very rich and definite experience of personal salvation, and he yearned to see others come into that experience. To this end he preached, prayed, and labored, always finding joy in his work. He was a good pastor, spending much of his time in the homes of his people. It is no surprise that as a result of this sort of devout life he was a great soul-winner. There could be no better evidence of the fact that his people loved him than that in the next to the last charge he served his people were glad to have him return for the fifth year as their pastor."

A word personal: Brother Boring was pastor of my father's family for two terms. He made me a steward when I was seventeen years of age. I am deeply grateful for the large contribution he made to my religious life, and I have found the preparation of this paper a labor of love.

C. S. KIRKPATRICK.

REV. J. J. BROOKS

Rev. J. J. Brooks was born in Polk County, Tennessee, March 6, 1847; was reared in McMinn County and died at his home near Dayton, Tennessee, July 23, 1931. He was converted when a small boy and joined the church, led a Christian life and was licensed to preach in 1873, admitted into the Holston Conference in 1877, and ordained Deacon by Bishop Doggett at that time. He preached in Holston Conference for thirteen years, serving as pastor during that period on Hamilton, Rye Creek, Tazewell, Moss Creek, Clinton, Taylorsville, Old Town, Tar River and Lenoir charges.

When the Western North Carolina Conference was organized in 1890 out of a part of Holston territory, he with many other Holston preachers came into this new Conference, in which he served on Granite Falls, Uwharrie, Salem, Salisbury Circuit, Woodleaf, Toe River, Bakersville and Fairview charges until 1906, when he was granted the supernumerary relation. In 1908 he was left effective and served North Catawba Cir-exit until 1910, when he superannuated and sustained that relation until his death.

Brother Brooks was twice married: first to Miss Boosy Gibbs in August, 1885. They had six children, two of whom died in infancy, and Mrs. Brooks died in 1899. Seven years later, in 1906, he was married to Miss Sarah Fulbright. By this marriage there were six children, five of whom with the widow still survive.

He was a good man, true and steadfast in the faith to the end of his pilgrimage. When he retired from the active work in 1910, he located near Dayton, Tenn., and lived there for the remainder of his life.

During this long residence in another state, beyond our Conference bounds and being physically unable ever to attend our annual sessions, after his removal to Tennessee, he was practically a stranger to a majority of our Conference membership who had been admitted since his retirement, but to the older members who knew him in the days of his active ministry he was appreciated for his noble traits of character and devotion to the Church.

His life was a blessing to those who knew him best and his only ambition was to lead souls to Christ, and now that he has gone, his friends will miss his cheerful greeting and brotherly companionship. In his latter days he was an invalid and for many months before the end was confined to his bed, but he endured affliction with patience and when the end came there was peace.

The funeral was conducted from Dayton Methodist Church July 25 by Dr. C. L. Cox, the pastor, and Rev. Carl Howell. The burial was in the cemetery near the graves of many of his former friends, and the grave was covered with many floral offerings, expressive of friendly devotion.

"The Lord buries the workman, but carries on the work."

REV. DWIGHT WALTER BROWN

"Dwight Brown is dead!" was the startling message that flashed over Greensboro, North Carolina, Tuesday morning, September 15, 1931. After a pastoral round visiting members of his flock, this under shepherd of the Great Shepherd of the sheep returned to his home seriously ill, lay down upon a lounge and almost without warning passed from earth. The silver cord had been loosed, the golden bowl broken, the pitcher broken at the fountain, and Dwight W. Brown "goeth to his long home and the mourners go about the streets." At one o'clock the next day Proximity Methodist Church, where he was closing a ministry of four golden years, was packed with sorrowing friends at the funeral service, and at his old home church just west of Mocksville another great concourse of people including scores of his brothers of the Western North Carolina Conference gathered to honor the young prince whose body was laid to rest beside his kindred amid the scenes of his boyhood.

"Dwight was always a good, obedient boy," declared his mother, and all his neighbors and friends affirmed that this good woman was not too partial in her motherly estimate of her boy.

When just a lad, he was determined to have an education, some winters walking two or three miles to school. One of his former teachers, now a Presbyterian minister, has said in a letter to Dwight's parents, "Dwight was one of the most faithful students and well behaved boys I ever had in school. It was 1903-05 that I had the pleasure of his tutelage and friendship and confidence. It was at the old Mocksville Academy.

He came to school regardless of weather or roads, helped the younger students in crowded times, and even was taken into confidence, as few students are, with reference to the moral conduct of the student body. After that, just a few years, I turned from teaching to the full work of the ministry, where I found myself happy, and I was not in the least surprised when I learned that Dwight was following the same call, 'Come and follow me.'"

A memoir of Dwight would be incomplete if in it we failed to mention his life in the home and his entire unselfish devotion to his parents, brother and sisters. Just two weeks prior to his death he was with home-folks, seemingly in perfect health, and there never was a time that he seemed to enjoy being at home quite so much.

Dwight was born in Davie County, N. C., March 21, 1886. His parents, Richard Jesse Brown and Mary Jane Bowles Brown, belong to the substantial citizenship of that section and were members of the Methodist Church. In this environment Dwight spent his childhood and youth, united with the church, felt an early call to the ministry, attended the community schools and later Weaver College.

Brother Brown joined the Conference at High Point in 1912. His appointments were as follows: 1913-14, Mt. Holly; 1915, McAdenville; 1916, student in Candler School of Theology, Atlanta, Ga.; 1917, Chadwick, Charlotte; 1918-21, Belwood Circuit; 1922-25, West End, Gastonia; 1926-27, Weaverville Station; 1928-31, Proximity, Greensboro. He was a member of the Junior Order and in Masonry a Scottish Rite, Royal Arch and a member of the Shrine.

Dwight Brown was a devoted follower of his Lord and Master and in many ways was like him. He was like him in being a lover of little children, of the fields and flowers, and of the sunset and the stars. He was like him in overlooking the faults in others and in his ability to see the best in men. He was like him in his habit of prayer. In his diary which he had been keeping for the last year there appears almost a constant repetition of the sentence, "The day was begun by reading God's Word and prayer and was closed in the same way." Like his Lord, he was constantly eager to complete in the best manner possible the task assigned to him. His dear wife gives us a glimpse of the man's zeal when she writes: "The week before his death, I plead with Dwight to take some time for rest. The fall revival was to begin in a few days and he was visiting constantly inviting people to the services. The heat was intense that week and I saw that he was overtaxing his strength. Even at the noon hour he was seeing people and told me he didn't have time to rest."

With rare insight and beauty his presiding elder, W. A. Newell in the funeral service said, "The angels must teach him to rest. He had forgotten self so long that he was never able to take thought of self. In these last weeks he often stopped at my home and told me that he must make a change this year and that he preferred a lighter work. This had been arranged for him and to his entire satisfaction. But his appointment was in other hands. He would not have chosen the time of his going for his times were in God's hands, but the manner of his going was in accordance with his soul's desires. He passed this way at mid morning with his armor on. One clear call and he beheld his Master's face. He needs no witness, but every one in the world who knew him knows where he is and the way to the place of his abode."

On the 27th day of October, 1926, he was happily married to Miss

Anna Mae Fuller of Raeford, N. C. These two walked the shining way without a shadow, and those five short years were the most beautiful of the forty-five of his earthly sojourn. Between him and his wife there were at all times a deep devotion and a thorough understanding. Their happiness was complete. Their lives were together blended in the life of their Master, and their greatest joy was to do His will. It was one of their dreams to visit together the land where our Saviour dwelt in the flesh and where a former visit of Dwight's had been a perpetual inspiration to him.

In the presence of a tragedy like this which tears asunder two hearts and lives of so great devotion, human understanding staggers and earthly wisdom grows silent. To attempt to explain is but the chattering of a magpie. Yet love is stronger than death and the broken life that abides on the shores of time will stagger on toward the gates of the Celestial City.

A. W. PLYLER.

REV. H. H. JORDAN

Henry Harrison Jordan, eldest son of Miles C. and Lucy Edwards Jordan, was born in Iredell county August 14, 1862. He grew to manhood during that period immediately following the Civil War, when the country schools were inadequate and general conditions so adverse that only a limited few were able to secure more than a common school education. Despite his limitations he had such a thirst for knowledge that he made the most of the meagre school facilities of the countryside, read such books as he could secure and remembered what he read, so that by the time he reached his majority he was well informed and gifted in speech with an ambition to make the most of himself.

He read law under Major Harvey Bingham of Statesville, secured his license in September, 1888, and located in Mooresville to practice law. It was there that I first knew him.

While his parents were Baptists he was converted under the preaching of Rev. W. M. Bagby on Statesville circuit and joined the Methodist church in which he was an active worker when he came to Mooresville and proved to be a capable teacher in the Sunday school, of which I was then the superintendent, and later in 1890 he succeeded me in that office. He was a frequent and welcome visitor to our home and it was there he met a charming young lady, Miss Annie Sellars of Burlington, who was our house guest, with whom he fell in love and they were married February 17, 1891, and for full forty years she was his devoted helpmeet and home keeper until his decease May 2, 1931. Heeding the call to preach he forsook the law for the gospel, was licensed to preach and received on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in November, 1891.

He soon grew into a popular preacher and filled the following appointments in the order mentioned, covering a period of thirty-eight years: Lenoir Circuit, Ramseur, Mocksville, Henrietta, Kernersville, Walkertown, Marion, Morganton, Gastonia, Monroe, Shelby District, Hickory, and last, Coburn Memorial, Salisbury; and while on this charge his health failed and at the Conference of 1929 was granted the superannuate relation.

He served the four year term in six out of the thirteen fields of his activity, and to any one of the others he would have been welcomed back for the full quadrennium.

Brother Jordan was a consecrated Christian, warm-hearted with lovable social graces, interested in everybody and loved by little children, by young people and old people.

He was what we call an all round minister, but first of all an earnest gospel preacher with the evangelistic note prominent in all his ministry. He believed in a real heaven and a real hell and pleaded with sinners to forsake the evil and give their hearts to Christ. He was not a narrow sectarian for he loved all people, but he had deep convictions and believed with all his soul in the doctrines and polity of Methodism, and he preached sound doctrine to the edification of believers and the conversion of sinners and backsliders, and many were added to the church in every charge he served.

He was a house to house pastor and knew his people intimately and knew how to unite his forces for every forward movement. His practical knowledge of business was a great help in raising money to pay church debts and to build churches and parsonages.

He was a patron of education and encouraged the young to go to college, and it is said that he directed more young people to Trinity College than any other pastor in the state. For fifteen years he was chairman of the board of trustees of Rutherford College, and in several crises in the history of that school it was his faith and resourceful leadership that kept its doors open for students. On account of ill health he finally gave up the chairmanship and then they honored him with the position of chairman emeritus.

He was also for some years chairman of the Conference Board of Education and retired from that position, being no longer eligible because of his appointment as presiding elder.

When they organized the Pastors' School at Duke University he was a director from our Conference and never missed a meeting of the Board nor failed to attend a session of the summer school until prevented by physical illness.

He stood high with his brethren, was influential in shaping Conference policies and was a delegate to the General Conference of 1922. He possessed native intellect of high quality and his mental vigor steadily increased through constant exercise, for he was a diligent student. He made friends by being friendly and held them constant as with hooks of steel. His influence over young people was great and he inspired many of them to make the most of life. As he had a passion for knowledge and often studied far into the night, he was not content without quickening the ambition of youth to push forward in search of wisdom and truth.

He was fortunate in his marriage and happy in his domestic life. The Christian virtues were beautifully exemplified in his home, for there the very atmosphere was saturated with the spirit of love. He was a devoted husband and a wise and gentle father. He and his faithful wife succeeded in bringing to maturity a well trained group of children who honor their parents and fear the Lord. There are four sons: B. E. Jordan, in business in Alamance; Dr. Henry W., a dentist in Belmont; Chas. E., a lawyer officially connected with Duke University, and Frank B., who this year received the B.D. degree from Duke and will join the Western North Carolina Conference at this session. Then there are two daughters: Mrs. J. O. Taylor of Mount Croghan, S. C., and Mrs. H. C. Sprinkle, Jr., of Nashville, Tenn., gentle and cultured Christian women.

For two years prior to his death he was a great sufferer and for many months was a patient in the Duke Hospital in Durham, where he died last May 2; but in his affliction he was patient and full of faith.

He lived wisely and to noble purpose and made the world better by the work he did and the example he set. When the last messenger came there was no fear, for a sure confidence filled his heart with the peace which passeth understanding, and thus he entered into that rest which remaineth to the people of God.

The funeral and burial service was at Burlington, conducted by his close friends, Dr. C. C. Weaver and Rev. H. C. Sprinkle, assisted by Rev. L. D. Hayman of Burlington. The honorary pallbearers were Doctors W. P. Few, R. L. Flowers, W. H. Wannamaker, H. E. Myers, H. E. Spence and J. M. Ormond of Duke University, and W. A. Lambeth and W. A. Stanbury of Durham.

The active pallbearers were W. E. Whitfield, Harold Groce, Herbert Minga, J. G. Wilkinson, Chas. P. Bowles and A. C. Waggoner, all graduates of the Duke University School of Religion. The funeral service was simple and beautiful and the abundant floral offerings expressed the love and sympathy of many friends.

Ever since we first met in Mooresville in our young manhood there has existed between Brother Jordan and myself a friendship which the years have not dimmed, and his departure brings sorrow to my heart. May the Lord whom he served give comfort to and ever keep secure the stricken widow and children.

WILLIAM L. SHERRILL.

REV. ELMER SIMPSON

Rev. Elmer Simpson, who died July 28, 1931, at his home in Dobson, following a paralytic stroke, April 3, 1931, was born at Liberty Town, Maryland, May 31, 1861. He was the son of Richard W. and Julia Hammond Simpson. He received the A.B. degree from New Windsor College, New Windsor, Maryland, and the B.D. degree from Westminster Theological Seminary, at Westminster, Maryland. He had been in the active ministry forty years, having been a member of the Western North Carolina Conference for the past twenty years. Those who survive are his wife, who was Miss Lula Virginia Peerman, of Altavista, Virginia; one daughter, Mrs. Julia S. Shafer; two sons, Rev. Oscar L. Simpson, of Nashville, Tennessee, and Elmer M. Simpson.

Concerning the passing of this noble man from the ranks of service in the Conference, it may be said that a good man, a faithful pastor, and a strong preacher of the gospel has gone.

It is an engaging thought that such men as Chaucer, Goldsmith, and Fielding have commemorated in literature the "good man of religion"—the true pastor, and that their words show not mere conventionality, or visionary idealism, but rather personal admiration and reverence. It may be said with certainty of Rev. Elmer Simpson,

"A good man was ther of religioun.

But Cristes loore and his Apostles twelve,
He taughte, but first he folwed it hymselfe."

And it may further be said that—

"A man he was to all the country dear."

The many people whom he served during the long years of his ministry are witnesses to these facts. An old man who had lived next door to him for over three years had this to say: "Mr. Simpson's life causes me to have confidence in religion." A young man said, "I have watched Mr. Simpson's life for over three years, and his goodness has made a deep impression on me." His son, Rev. Oscar L. Simpson, wrote of him in "A Tribute to My Father," published in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, August 27, the following:

"I honor my father not only because of his dependability and his intense loyalty to duty; I honor him because of his noble and upright life. He was a gentleman. He had a very high code of honor. From my own early childhood, as far back as my memory goes, I do not recall a single act of his that could be considered in any sense dishonorable or unworthy of a man of his high calling. He always carried himself with shoulders well back, head erect; his whole life was like that."

And many people have been blessed by his life, many have loved him, and many have been brought to Christ through his preaching.

An interesting fact connected with the life of Brother Simpson is that when he was a tiny baby, his beautiful and talented young mother dedicated him to the ministry of Jesus Christ, and that although she died when her son was only ten years old, he never heard a sermon preached during his childhood and youth without feeling within his soul a yearning to stand, himself, behind the sacred desk and preach the gospel.

With a motive like that; with a life characterized by industry, promptness, courage, complete honesty, intense loyalty to duty, remarkable unselfishness, wonderful tenderness of heart, and innate culture; with a superior and a well trained mind—is there any wonder that this man

One thing more must be recorded in regard to his life and work. He had done a great deal of building and repairing of churches and parsonages; but the best church he ever built was dedicated just one year lacking three days before his funeral was preached in it. He had been a good and faithful pastor for forty years; but he was perhaps never so generally and dearly loved as by the people on the Mills River and Dobson charges—the last two charges he served. He had preached good sermons for many years, but the sermons he preached during the last few years of his life were certainly among the best. On the day of his first stroke, Friday before Easter Sunday, he told Mrs. Simpson, "My Easter sermon is ready." L. B. ABERNETHY.

HEROINES OF THE PARSONAGE

MRS. EDITH (SPARGER) CREASY

Mrs. Edith (Sparger) Creasy, born in Surry County, N. C., September 19, 1847, married to Rev. Dr. W. S. Creasy on November 25, 1867, and was his faithful helpmeet until his decease August 21, 1899.

She led a saintly life and entered upon her eternal reward January 27, 1931.

MRS. MARY JANE (HAYES) WIGGINS

Mary Jane (Hayes) Wiggins was born in Cherokee County, April 26, 1848, and died in Bryson City, N. C., May 6, 1931. She was married to Rev. Joseph Alexander Wiggins, August 8, 1866, and proved herself a sympathetic co-laborer with her husband throughout his ministry. She submitted to many privations without a murmur, and was a good Samaritan wherever she went. She was a loyal member of the church and the mother of an honorable family.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION—REPORT NO. 1

THE LOCAL CHURCH

Rigid economies have been effected during the past year, but a more comprehensive program of service has been successfully promoted.

Three new features developed during the year deserve special mention and the approval of the Conference: The Young Adult Assembly, held in July at Lake Junaluska; the reinstatement of the Conference Bible Class Federation, with a meeting at Lake Junaluska in July; and the North Carolina Methodist Student Conference, held in October at Duke University, where 125 students from all the North Carolina tax-supported colleges and from each Methodist college in the state were in attendance as representatives of the 5,000 Methodist students attending these schools.

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE YEAR

1. Your Board recommends that immediately after Conference the presiding elders, in collaboration with the Conference Staff, proceed immediately to the organization of a district program of Christian education in each district.

2. We recommend that your Extension Secretary and the rest of the Conference staff and each district staff give attention to the enlistment of as many new churches as possible in support of the Home and Foreign Missionary Enterprise; and that they be urged to secure the acceptance by church school classes of as many shares as possible in this Enterprise.

3. We recommend that increased emphasis be placed upon such institutes, conferences and classes as may deal directly with the immediate problems involved in the establishment of the Local Church Board of Christian Education and the furthering of its program. Your Board has requested the staff to give more time to this work.

4. We call special attention to the remarkable advantages offered by the General and Conference Boards at Lake Junaluska through camps, training schools and assemblies. We urge the use of these facilities for the development of leaders in the local church.

5. We recommend the observance in our local churches of the following special days and occasions: Sunday School Day; Anniversary Day in the Young People's Division; College Day; Missionary Day (each fourth Sunday); World Temperance and Prohibition Sunday; Childhood and Youth Week. The first four of these are required by the Discipline.

6. We recommend a renewed emphasis upon temperance education in our church schools, and we urge that our young people and adults make effective use of their organizations in the support of the eighteenth amendment and law enforcement.

7. Since our Methodist program of Christian Education cannot be carried out in the local church without the use of our own periodical literature, we suggest that the importance of proper ordering and distribution of lesson materials be kept before our officers and teachers.

8. We recommend that the Conference confirm the election by the Board of the following men as a Country Life Commission: R. M. Courtney, Paul F. Evans, R. C. Goforth, J. C. Sales, W. A. Newell, Charles Osborne and W. B. West. This Commission shall co-operate with your Extension Secretary in promoting the work of the country church.

CONFERENCE STAFF

We recommend the election of the following staff for the year 1932-33: (a) Salaried members: Executive Secretary, J. F. Kirk; Extension Secretary, W. A. Kale; Director of Children's Division, Miss Corinne Little. (b) Unsalared members: Director of Adult Division, C. P. Bowles; Associate Director of Adult Division, J. Chalmus Grose.

A Director of Young People's Division will be named later by the Executive Secretary and the Executive Committee.

SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

In May, of this year, the Board of Trustees of Rutherford College and the Board of Trustees of Weaver College each addressed a communication to the Chairman of the Conference Board of Christian Education, stating that the affairs of each of these institutions were in such a condition as to make some readjustments necessary. It was stated that each Board had appointed a special committee to confer with the Executive Committee of the Board of Christian Education, and that each institution was ready to follow the advice of the Board of Christian Education and the Conference as to its future policy.

In accordance with this request, the Chairman of the Board of Christian Education called a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board, jointly with the Special Committees of the two college Boards. This meeting was held in Statesville on June 3, 1932. Consultations in this committee seem to indicate that the first step to be taken to be that of a thorough-going survey of these institutions.

Immediately following this meeting, consultation was had with the General Board of Christian Education, with the result that it seemed wise, both to the General Board and the Conference Board, to broaden the survey so as to deal with all the educational institutions supported by the Conference.

On the basis of a survey of educational institutions supported by the Conference, the following facts regarding Rutherford College and Weaver College appear:

I. Finances. Accumulated indebtedness, depleted income, and decreasing patronage indicate the practical impossibility of continuing the present programs of these institutions on this basis.

II. Material Equipment. Material equipment is inadequate for present needs and for future requirements.

III. Overlapping Patronage. The survey indicates an increasing overlapping of the territory from which the students of these two institutions are drawn, caused by improved highways, etc.

IV. Competition. Improved county and state institutions are largely serving the constituency formerly served by these institutions. In addition there are other small denominational colleges competing for the remaining constituency.

Conclusion. In view of the foregoing facts, and other points of the survey, it seems obvious that:

First: With present resources these institutions will not be able to offer the educational program which the church can afford to endorse and which the students are entitled to receive.

Second: In view of the decreased need for two institutions so similar in their educational program, and in view of the improbability under all conditions of raising the funds necessary for their continuance, it would seem both impracticable and unwise to attempt to continue Rutherford and Weaver Colleges as separate institutions.

The survey also brought out facts and information regarding Greensboro and Davenport Colleges which seemed to make it wise also to include these institutions in a total program of realignment of the educational institutions supported by this Conference.

We, therefore, recommend that as soon as it can be brought about under the provisions hereinafter set forth, the educational institutions supported by the Conference shall be so realigned:

First: That there shall be one, and only one, Junior College for this Conference and that this shall be co-educational in its nature.

Second: That there shall be one, and only one, college exclusively for women and this shall be our Woman's College at Greensboro.

Third: That Davenport College be merged with Greensboro College so as to conserve and protect all endowments of Davenport and, as far as possible, to carry over the patronage and good will of Davenport into the college at Greensboro; that the material equipment of Davenport shall be made temporarily available for the use of the co-educational Junior College as hereinafter set forth.

Fourth: That Rutherford College and Weaver College, with the traditions, history, good will and available resources of each, be merged in the new co-educational Junior College, together with such additional resources as may be set aside by the Conference or otherwise made available for this purpose. (Provided that the available resources of each of these institutions shall be used in the payment of its own indebtedness before the merger shall be effected. Any other merger shall be null and void.) Provided, further, that none of the trust funds of one institution shall be used in liquidation of the indebtedness of the other.

Fifth: That temporarily and until all the factors in the case can be thoroughly considered and plans worked out for the establishment of the new Junior College, temporary provision be made by the Commission hereinafter designated, to merge the educational program and the student bodies of Rutherford and Weaver Colleges and to carry on this program in the present buildings and with the material equipment of Davenport College at Lenoir. This is to be effected at the earliest practicable time.

Your Board has had under consideration the very great difficulty involved in making any more specific or detailed recommendations in addition to the general recommendations set forth above. Legal complications, problems of location, of audits, and other difficulties, together with the urgent need that some authoritative action shall be taken at this session of the Conference, have led your Board to recommend the following plan for the execution of the will of the Conference touching the matter set forth above.

That the Conference create a special Commission composed as follows: Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon, I. F. Craven, G. R. Jordan, J. T. Mangum, E. K. McLarty, J. F. Spruill, J. W. Shackford, with Boyd McKeown to serve this Commission in an advisory capacity.

This Commission shall effect its own organization.

The Board of Christian Education is empowered to fill any vacancies that may occur on the Conference Commission.

This Commission is authorized and empowered as follows:

To take necessary steps to carry out the provisions of these recommendations, including the sale and purchase of property as required; to determine location and name of new institution; to nominate to the Annual Conference Trustees for the new institution; to prepare and submit to Annual Conference a new charter and to do all other things necessary to the fulfillment of the recommendations above; provided that nothing in the above resolutions shall set aside the present responsibilities of the Boards of Trustees of these institutions affected.

We recommend that the Conference appropriate a sum not to exceed $800.00 for the work of the Commission.

(Signed) W. W. PEELE, Chairman,
R. DWIGHT WARE, Secretary.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN LITERATURE

The Christian Literature of the church continues to occupy a high place in our program of service.

PUBLISHING HOUSE

Our Publishing House has effected large savings in expense of operation during the year by taking advantage of the lower costs of materials, a general reduction of salaries and by careful administration of its business. These economies have made it possible to reduce prices on church and Sunday school supplies and on many items necessary to our churches, including text books for Cokesbury Training Courses.

The Sunday School Magazine and Workers' Council have been combined into one periodical known as the Church School Magazine. The Epworth Era and the High Road have been combined and is known as the Epworth High Road. We believe these religious periodicals are the greatest published in the country for young people. A saving of $50,000.00 annually is effected by these combinations.

The circulation of the Christian Advocate has increased 2,650 over the previous year. The Cokesbury Press continues to publish better and better books.

Total sales of the Nashville House and its branches for the year amounted to $1,666,230.61, a decrease of 9.6 per cent as compared with the previous year. In spite of this, a net profit of $37,635.75 was made. To this amount has been added $22,364.25 from the special emergency reserve fund, making a total appropriation of $60,000.00 to be distributed this year to our superannuate preachers, their widows and orphans.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE

The auditor's report shows a total income for the current year of $47,066.35. The expenses amount to $46,918.03. This gives a profit of $148.32 for the year.

The audit discloses a reduced income of $3,019.91 over that of last year, and the expenses are reduced $10,188.85. Most of this results from a reduction in cost of paper and by reduction in salaries and wages. The most rigid economy has been practiced and every effort possible made to keep the volume of business at a maximum.

From the minutes of the Methodist Board of Publication we quote the following:

"Diligence and the finest co-operation has been shown by the entire force in the office and in the shop. Only by persistent effort here and in the field has the management been able to make so favorable a showing with the reduced income on subscriptions and advertising and in the job department. The editors have traveled thousands of miles in the two Conferences in an effort to keep the paper before the people, and they have done the best they knew to make a paper that would stimulate the preachers and encourage the laymen in a common effort to advance every interest of the Methodist church. More than this: they have rendered a service for the common good by promoting the causes that make for civic righteousness, moral betterment, and spiritual uplift. Into this effort has gone weariness of body and anxiety of soul."

The following resolution was adopted:

The Board hereby approves the intelligent and courageous attitude of the editors of the Advocate upon the great moral questions of the day.

The Board recognizes the need for special effort on the part of all, this year, in turning business to our own house and promoting the North Carolina Christian Advocate. We offer the following suggestions for the consideration of the Conference:

1. That the pastors, as authorized agents for the Advocate, do all possible to collect for renewals and to secure new subscribers.

2. That the laymen in each District secure at least 100 new subscribers to this, our church paper.

3. That the women of the Missionary Societies secure at least 100 new subscribers in each District. Each of these groups shall determine the methods to be used.

An unrelenting effort in pulpit, in group meetings, and in the several Conferences should be made until our church becomes Advocate-minded; then the paper will be looked upon as an essential in the work of the church. Let us increase the number who cannot get on without their church paper.

S. B. Turrentine is nominated to succeed himself as a member of the Board, representing this Conference. And we request Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon to appoint A. W. Plyler editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

(Signed) A. W. PLYLER, Chairman,
W. ARTHUR BARBER, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS

Your Board of Missions has heard the report of Dr. O. E. Goddard, Foreign Secretary of the General Board of Missions. This report indicates that while we have been sorely pressed by economic conditions, we have cause for gratitude to God in that we have been able to keep our missionary forces practically intact, at home and in every foreign front.

Still our General Secretaries and other leaders are greatly distressed about the immediate future of our work. The General Board, within the past two years, has cut its apportionments $584,263; retrenchments have been made in all fields; missionary workers have taken cuts in salaries, and yet the Board reports an impending deficit of $640,000 for the current year.

How we shall secure money with which to operate its work for the first six months of the new year is the problem of our General Secretaries and the whole church. Last year the benevolent dollar reached the low level of forty-five cents. Present conditions indicate a new low level of thirty-five cents for the church at large, while in our own Conference it is scarcely more than fifty cents. Therefore, your Board was compelled to make grave reductions in appropriations this year. The disquieting fact that missionary interest is generally waning gives grave concern.

The benefactions administered through the Duke Endowment help in material measure to alleviate these critical conditions within bounds of our own Conference. This contribution for the year, November 1, 1931, to October 31, 1932, is as follows:

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

Attention is called to the fact that the General Board of Church Extension and our own Conference Board of Church Extension were organized in 1882. Therefore, this is the fiftieth anniversary of these Boards. The General Board is sending to each minister admitted to the Conferences in our church an interesting book giving the history of the Church Extension Boards.

Careful consideration has been given to each application presented to us at this annual meeting of our Board. It regrets very much that it could not comply with the wishes of many of the brethren whose churches are in great need. Much to the regret of the Board, the amount received for distribution is smaller than it has been for many years. There are many worthy projects which should have help from this Board, but which, for lack of funds, we are unable to assist this year.

Many applications could not be properly considered because of the fact that they were not fully completed, and the members of the Board were not able to determine the exact needs of these projects. Pastors are urged to see that all applications presented to this Board are completed in every detail. We note in a number of applications the Trust Clause is not shown to be in the deeds to the properties. Attention should be called to the Trustees of church properties to this fact so that any deeds not properly drawn can be corrected.

At the last Conference session, after our Board had made an allotment of all funds on hand and had adjourned, some of the members were advised of the communication from the Bishop and his cabinet relative to amounts to be allotted on the indebtedness of Chapel Hill Church and College Place Church.

The Board has this year, out of the funds received, allotted the amounts to these churches that were due last year, and has also arranged for payments for this year.

In connection with these allotments to Chapel Hill and College Place, the following resolution has been adopted by our Board:

RESOLVED: That the Board of Church Extension of the Western North Carolina Conference is willing to co-operate with the Board of Missions of this Conference and similar Boards in the North Carolina Conference in perpetuating for the Conference year, 1932-33, the plan as adopted last year for the assistance of these two churches, reducing the amounts to be paid, as follows: $800.00 on interest on the indebtedness of Chapel Hill Church and $400.00 on interest on the indebtedness of College Place Church falling due during the next Conference year. This is to be done with the distinct understanding that both Conferences comply with the terms of this agreement.

Some of our churches and parsonages burned during the past year, and our attention is called to the fact that there was no fire insurance on one of the buildings. We wish to suggest again that Trustees of church properties be urged to take out adequate fire insurance on such properties.

The following donations have been granted:

Churches	Donations
Glenwood	$250.00 (conditional)
Valdese	300.00 (conditional)
Westview	300.00
Iotla	50.00
Central Terrace	200.00
Parsonages	Donations
Acton	$100.00
Weddington	150.00 (conditional)
Lincoln Circuit	100.00 (conditional)
Marion Circuit	100.00 (conditional)
East Spencer	250.00
Maiden	200.00 (conditional)
Glenville	50.00

The following applications are being referred to the General Board: Coolee-mee, Reeds, Kings Mountain.

(Signed) J. H. BARNHARDT, Chairman,
M. B. WOOSLEY, Secretary.

BOARD OF FINANCE

Your Board recommends that one month during the second quarter be set aside on each charge for the presentation of the Superannuate Endowment Fund and collections made on pledges, and finished for report to the Third Quarterly Conference. To assist the pastors in this effort we recommend the appointment of Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick as Conference Director of the Superannuate Fund.

Owing to a decrease of over $7,500.00 this year, we strongly urge our people to meet their pledges in order to prevent another decrease next year. The checks will be smaller this year than last, but we hope that the larger buying power of the dollar will in some measure meet the needs of our claimants.

COMMISSION ON BUDGET

APPORTIONMENTS 1932-33

General Work	$107,100	.5000
Conference Work	107,100	.5000
Total	$214,200	1.0000

The apportionments show a decrease in the Annual Conference apportionments of approximately 25%, and a general reduction of total apportionments of approximately 17%, or $36,550.00.

It gives to the General Work a larger proportion of the total funds raised, but in the light of the shrinkage of their income from the Special and Free-will Kingdom Extension offerings of the church, this re-adjustment of proportions seems necessary.

Apportionments to the Districts for next year are as follows:

District	Members	Salaries	Average	Gen. Wk.	Con. Wk.	Total
Asheville -----	.0791	.0892	.0841	$ 9,007	$ 9,007	$18,014
Charlotte -----	.1348	.1224	.1286	13,773	13,773	27,546
Gastonia -----	.1068	.1120	.1094	11,717	11,717	23,434
Greensboro -----	.1318	.1358	.1338	14,330	14,330	28,660
Marion -----	.0756	.0781	.0768	8,225	8,225	16,450
Mt. Airy -----	.0876	.0784	.0830	8,889	8,889	17,778
Salisbury -----	.0958	.1009	.0984	10,539	10,539	21,078
Statesville -----	.1131	.1027	.1079	11,556	11,556	23,112
Waynesville -----	.0537	.0599	.0568	6,083	6,083	12,166
Winston-Salem -----	.1217	.1206	.1212	12,981	12,981	25,962
	1.0000	1.0000	1.0000	$107,100	$107,100	$214,200

It seems imperative that apportionments be reduced. It is not within the power of the Annual Conference to reduce the apportionments of the General Conference. The Annual Conference is, therefore, shut up to the reduction of apportionments for its own work. We regret the necessity.

We hope, however, that reduced apportionments will result in larger offerings since many charges will see a possibility of paying out, and will make earnest effort to do so. We hope that not a single cause will suffer under this arrangement, but that they will rather profit by it.

APPROPRIATIONS TO CONFERENCE BOARD

Church Extension	$ 8,000	.0747
Conference Claimants	30,000	.2801
Conference Expense	6,600	.0616
Conference Missions	29,000	.2708
Christian Education	32,000	.2988
Junaluska Assembly Program	1,000	.0093
Hospitals	500	.0047
	<hr/> $107,100	<hr/> 1.0000

We recommend that apportionment for the Children's Home continue at an amount equal to 10% of the pastors' salaries for the current year, and that the fifth Sunday free will offering by the Sunday school, and all contributions for private maintenance made by classes or individuals, be added to the amount contributed on the 10% apportionment, and that the total be reported in one column of the Conference Journal.

Since our "Conference Collections" are the chief dependence of our General and Annual Conference Boards, we earnestly recommend that special emphasis be laid upon the collection of these funds, and that they be given precedence over any and all other funds to be raised for these causes—or for any other causes whatsoever.

JAMES E. LAMBETH, Secretary.

They have completed the new Nurses' Home and Surgeons' apartment at a total cost of $21,202.00. Of this amount, the Duke Endowment paid $8,000.00; General Hospital Board, $1,113.00; Conference Hospital Board, $4,500.00; leaving a balance of $7,589.00 secured from private subscriptions. All of this has been raised except $200.00 still due on the furnishings.

We wish to express our appreciation to the Chatham Manufacturing Company for the free use of their trucks and forces of men all during the erection of the nurses' home this year. This saved the church hundreds of dollars.

We appeal to our pastors and churches to make the Golden Cross enrollment this year 100%. Looking toward this end we suggest the plans for the May enrollment to begin early in the year. The Hugh Chatham Memorial Hospital depends upon us for aid, through the Golden Cross, for all charity work.

We recommend the confirmation of the following directors for a period of three years: Rev. L. B. Abernethy, Dr. H. K. Boyer, R. M. Chatham, A. L. Butler.

We also request the appointment of Rev. L. B. Abernethy as director of the Golden Cross and Rev. E. J. Harbison as assistant director for the Conference.

BOARD OF TEMPERANCE AND SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT NO. 1

Year after year your Board has come before you with a review of outstanding social conditions, and we have made recommendations for your action with regard to them. We have done this as your appointees, and, after the modification and adoption of the report, as your spokesmen. All this is done under the mandate of the church.

Before again reviewing some major conditions in church and society let us examine that mandate. It may be expressed in two words—love and justice—yet these remain only pious platitudes until we seek, as a church, to carry them into attitudes and deeds. It is possible for us to point out our common task, of translating the spirit of Christ, which is the spirit of love and justice, into our collective life and still leave the individual conscience free.

The Methodist Church lays upon the conscience of its members but three rules. The first two of these are addressed to us as servants of Christ in the world—Do no harm; and, second—Do all the good you can by doing good, by being in every kind merciful after their power, as they have opportunity, doing good of every possible sort, and, as far as possible, to all men. These two rules are mandates of conduct and character, required of every candidate for membership in the Methodist Church, and ratified by a solemn oath in our church vows. Under them the church is invested with authority to speak for the brotherhood. The desire of Christ for the coming of the Kingdom is a mandate of love unto the church and brings all our relations—social, economic, national, international and racial, to the judgment bar of God, whom we worship, “our minds being willing thereto.”

This effort of the church to save the souls and bodies of men carries implications and responsibilities far beyond the ordinary conceptions of personal salvation. The church can usually be relied upon to resist the devil when he appears in the grosser forms, but compromise is easy when fear or favor motivates our actions. The present impotence of the church has developed from its dereliction. Just as the Kingdom of God is composed of saved souls, motivated by righteous principles, so the kingdom of this world is motivated by the wills of lost men. A devil, personal or impersonal, must be individualized in human personality. Unless the church is willing to recognize this fact, and take up its ancient fight we shall not, with Christ, behold “Satan as lightning fall from heaven.”

In a democracy the will of the people seeks expression through political action. This action will be wise or otherwise, as the principles expressed through the ballot are good or bad. Therefore, in every political question there is a moral question and every moral question is the business of the church. The demands of the politicians are that the church remain out of politics. The church cannot yield to this infamous demand, nor remain supine in an unholy alliance with the forces of evil. Our present low state as a nation is largely due to our yielding at this point. The church can become the church triumphant only through its organization as the church militant. Without conflict there can be no victory. A church afraid cannot appeal to courageous souls. This has always been the position of the Methodist Church as related to moral questions. It must remain our position.

A forward movement of the church along this line will revive the spirits of the faithful and call to our banners men of good will and flaming courage. Youth, the hope of the church, will gladly respond and continue the fight when our day is done. A righteous purpose, militantly declared, will never lack soldiers for the fray. If the church vacates the field of politics, the enemy will advance and cover the whole field of retreat. The captured standards of the church will be left upon the surrendered ramparts and deceive the untaught faithful. This was never more apparent than in the recent political elections.

All the forces of evil have grouped themselves around the single standard of Alcohol. And King Alcohol has ruled in the whole realm of politics. It has become an empire of evil and under its standard have been gathered all the ancient wrongs. The church has never faced a greater fight, nor a surer victory, if there be fight in us. Let the church lift up a standard to which the people may repair. Let the church enter politics whenever a moral question is involved, fearlessly, openly, unafraid. Let her declare that there is a Kingdom of God as well as a kingdom of evil, and let the battle be engaged upon this issue.

This course will result in the defection and desertion of "those who have no part among us"; but no great cause takes shape or purpose through divided minds and wills. No good cause has ever been weakened by desertion. Let the church be purified by the infusion of the spirit of Christ until death has no terrors for those who follow Him.

Let us not deceive ourselves. In this war, alcohol is the symbol and seal of the kingdom of crime. It is the rallying point for all the spawn of crime. It is the tax gatherer for the kingdom of sin.

From time to time our church has spoken against many evils and sought to promote many good causes. We shall win our war in this battle. Public corruption, prostitution, child exploitation, plunder of the people, racial terror, war, poverty, disease and death are the allied forces of evil. The cry of "crime increase, banditry, lawlessness, racketeering, corruption of youth" and such other charges laid at the door of national prohibition, are the coinage of those who profit thereby. The real bandits, gangsters, racketeers, corruptionists, and anarchists are those who seek to make of these crimes political issues that they may profit by fostering crime. If public opinion has been depraved, they have depraved it. If racketeering thrives, they have fostered it. If bribery exists in officialdom, they have received the bribes and paid the bribes. If youth is corrupted, they have corrupted it. If prostitution exists, they are the panderers. If war and riot break loose between the nations, they have incited it. If little children are ground into powder, their hands feed and turn the mill. No wonder they want the church to stay out of politics! Of course the spirit of the Methodist Church is opposed to all these evils and has, without ceasing, given expression to this opposition. We are still opposed. We have, in the past, adopted all these resolutions, now let us be resolute!

You have heard much of intolerance. Your enemies say you are intolerant. Your enemies say you are the greatest menace to this nation. Let all the forces of evil receive notice here and now that, as far as their evil purposes are concerned, menace and Methodist mean the same thing.

The recent betrayal of the church by both political parties gives the church room for reorganization of its forces. If other churches wish to join hands with the betrayers of evil, let them do so. For Methodism there is a high command—"Come ye out and be ye separate!" We cannot destroy evil politics without destroying evil politicians. Let this be due notice of declaration of war!

It matters little to the church how the tide of battle ebbs and flows. The eternal years of God are hers. The victory is absolutely sure. God cannot be defeated, God cannot be destroyed. His Kingdom will come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

"Let the call be sure and certain for if the trumpet give a certain sound, the people shall prepare themselves for the battle."

PUBLIC EDUCATION

During three decades people all over North Carolina struggled with adverse conditions to secure tax supported public schools for their children. Our state began at the bottom in per capita expenditure for public education and while the majority of the states spend now more per capita on the education of their children in the public schools, North Carolina has excelled them all in the rate of increased expenditure over a period of twenty-five years. The provision of six months school term for every child in North Carolina was the major problem that held our legislature in 1931. While the friends of education won the battle, there are still problems confronting our school boards and superintendents arising from the necessity of finding the money and equalizing opportunities in all sections of the state.

We recommend a sympathetic attitude toward this problem and a loyal support of those who are wrestling with it in the interest of all the children.

The struggles of white people have opened the door of hope to every negro child of school age. Various funds established by philanthropic people have aided and are still aiding in building school houses, furnishing county supervisors of negro schools, and county training for negro teachers. Without these resources in the past, our task would have been the harder and the conditions for negro children so much poorer. Despite our new law with these helps the parents of negro children in some communities are distressed by difficulties that white people and white people alone can mitigate or remove.

Many school houses for elementary school children are poorly built, poorly equipped, poorly lighted and in unsanitary surroundings. In the heart of our Western North Carolina Conference there are seven counties in which forty-six buildings are found. There is much over-crowding in the lower grades; in one school eighty children. The legal limit is thirty-six.

In at least six hundred special tax districts white children have an extension term of two months and colored children do not. These districts have numbers of negro children, we are not counting special tax districts, where there are few or none, as in some mountain localities.

At present many groups of colored children of high school age cannot attend high school because there are no negro high school classes provided in their communities and no means of transportation to a school. Appeals have come to the Director of Negro Education from twenty-five such places located in sixteen counties. From five to eight hundred negro boys and girls are so situated.

In view of these facts, we recommend that pastors aid in remedying these conditions by: first, consulting with local superintendents of schools, principals of white and colored schools, talking frankly with them and finding the facts; second, by directing the attention of their local church Social Service Committees to any situations similar to those described above and together with the leaders of the colored people working for public sentiment for better conditions.

We recommend the addition to local church Social Service Committees of the Superintendents of Christian Social Relations of the Missionary Societies. They will be especially helpful in this work, since they are committed to a program of survey and betterment of rural white and negro schools.

RACE RELATIONS

We recommend the support of the Efland School for Negro Girls by the state, and the use of our influence to that end when the matter again comes before the Legislature this winter.

We are glad to record the fact that in 1931, and so far in 1932, there have been no lynchings, and that there has been but one in eleven years in this state. Let us pledge ourselves to such a continuous campaign of education against this evil that the crime of mob murder may be completely eradicated from North Carolina.

MOTION PICTURES

We deplore the continued tendency of motion picture producers to exploit the lowest impulses and areas of human life and we urge parents to exercise greater care in the selection of pictures for their children to see. We recommend to Social Service Committees support of a bill which will be introduced to Congress at its coming session, for the control of motion pictures at the point of production, for curbing the evils of block booking and preventing the exportation of films inimical to fair conceptions of American moral standards and customs and to international understanding.

WORLD PEACE

We recommend to pastors and teachers continued stress on right international relations through lessons, discussions, forums, prayer meetings, and sermons on measures leading toward world peace and the outlawry of war.

We rejoice in the fine cultural material being offered to our Sunday schools in the lessons on social topics, and we recommend to teachers of Young People and Adult classes the fullest use of this material in the regular lesson series and in the alternate or elective courses. We are no less hopeful of the influence of the work of the Women's Missionary Societies in both the study and the practice of social ideals.

The Council of Federated Religious and Social and Civic Agencies has been formed in North Carolina and should prove effective in furthering interests dear to the heart of the church. Membership in the Council is by election of representatives by constituent organizations. Each body contributes $25.00 to the support of the Council. We recommend that this Conference become a member; that this small fee be appropriated; and that Rev. W. A. Newell be nominated our representative.

TEMPERANCE AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

Apathy is a sullen and deadly danger to which the moral forces of this nation dare not yield themselves for one single day. Particularly as concerns the liquor traffic they must be as vigilant as the stars and as vigorous as fire! In recent months too many of our people have been as silent as the sphinx when, above the din and the clamor of the enemy, their united voice should have been heard like the voice of a mighty storm. However, we are devoutly thankful that here, in our state, we have had our great and militant Bishop and the editors of our Conference organ to make vocal the feeling of our hearts and to point us to that wicket gate of duty in this hour of confusion.

It has been urged that we should legalize beer and liquor in order that the government might collect a large revenue and thus throw off the depression. We do not believe that the state or national government should ever again put its seal of toleration upon the sale of intoxicants in order to meet the expense of operation. Dollars must not be weighed against common decency! The prosperity of a nation depends not upon the amount of gold in its coffers but rather upon the physical and moral fitness of its people. A drunken, debauched citizenry will never bring the millennium of plenty to any nation.

It has been loudly declared that bootlegging and every other curse that rests upon us today are the children of prohibition. These wicked sons of destruction are older than prohibition or local option. They are the direct and immediate descendants of the liquor traffic itself! They are the sons of their father! In the days of the barroom, the bootleggers outnumbered the barrooms two, three, and sometimes five to one. The speakeasy has not replaced the saloon; it has simply outlived it!

It has been charged that since prohibition, drunkenness has increased among students. Your board and all sober-minded people resent this slanderous attack upon the student life of America! The editor of Journal of the National Education Association testified before a committee of the Senate of the United States last February that he had received reports from over three hundred colleges and universities and that all but nine reported that conditions in their institutions had greatly improved under prohibition. After making a careful study of conditions among children, this noted editor said: "Excepting only the founding of the Christian Church and the common school, the Eighteenth Amendment is the greatest child-welfare measure in all human history!"

Your Board offers a line of action for every friend of prohibition. First, give the people of America the FACTS concerning the destructive manner in which intoxicating liquor effects both the individual and human society. Second, give them the facts concerning the quantity of liquor manufactured now as compared to the days before the Eighteenth Amendment was adopted. The Commissioner of Prohibition has stated under oath that it is, today, less than ONE-THIRD what it was before this amendment was ratified! Third, the inestimable benefits of prohibition upon our social, material and moral life must be taught in season and out of season. Fourth, let it be said once more: it is the duty of our citizens, high and low, rich and poor alike, to obey THIS law as well as every other on our statute books. And, furthermore, let us continue the agitation for a law and its enforcement, which will make the buyer equally guilty with the seller!

We recommend that you support the Anti-Saloon League of North Carolina and beg that our churches be opened to their representatives.

That the presiding elder, in co-operation with the pastors and lay leaders of his district, arrange mass meetings to promote temperance and prohibition.

That the Board of Christian Education in each charge co-operate with the young people in meetings to promote temperance and prohibition; and that the young people's organizations of our church take the initiative in enlisting the young people of other denominations in city-wide and county-wide mass meetings.

That all our pastors preach on the curse of liquor and foster temperance in every way possible.

Finally, we desire to notify the wets of America that the moral forces, with the Cross of Jesus going on before, are NOT on the run, as they suppose, but we're on the march and when they resubmit the Eighteenth Amendment, we will face them on every stump and fight them at every ballot box, and this fight can only end in victory!

(Signed) J. F. ARMSTRONG, Chairman,
MRS. W. A. NEWELL, Secretary.

BOARD OF LAY ACTIVITIES

We recognize in world-wide conditions, and especially the conditions of the constituency of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, a challenge to the deepest consecration upon the part of our people; and we call upon our laymen to give themselves wholeheartedly to the program of our church.

We suggest that in the very beginning of the year, the pastor, in co-operation with the local Board of Lay Activities and the local Board of Christian Education, map out a program of activities for the entire year. This program should include spiritual activities, and make provisions for sufficient funds for the adequate support of our institutions. It should give every member of the church something to do.

We believe that we are God's stewards, and that the program of the church should cover the whole field of man's activities. We should consecrate not only our money, but our lives to God's service; our people should, therefore, be educated not merely in Christian giving, but in Christian service.

We, therefore, request that each church make an every-member canvass, and so far as possible get an adequate offering from every member; that our young people especially be taught both by precept and example to be liberal givers. We also urge our pastors to instruct their people in the doctrine of the stewardship of life; and suggest that the program of activities of each church be so worked out that the spiritual life of each member will be deepened and broadened.

We desire to emphasize our benevolent offerings. This is the most unselfish part of our work; and the General Conference has made it our bounden duty to raise them. We urge our laymen to see that these offerings are not neglected.

The church can never do its full duty until it takes an intelligent interest in the work it is trying to do. We accordingly urge our laymen to take the Methodist Layman and the North Carolina Christian Advocate. We heartily endorse the plan of getting a subscription to the Methodist Layman from each district, charge and church lay leader, every steward and every chairman of a Stewardship Committee. We also endorse the plan of the North Carolina Christian Advocate to get a hundred new subscribers from each district and pledge our help in putting the plan across.

We recommend that Layman's Day be observed the third Sunday in June, 1933, and request the General Board of Lay Activities to prepare a special program to be used throughout the entire church on that day. We especially urge district, charge and church lay leaders to co-operate in a proper observance of the day.

We have elected Thomas C. Hoyle Secretary and Treasurer of the Conference Board of Lay Activities; and we nominate James E. Lambeth Conference Lay Leader, and request that the Conference elect him to that position.

(Signed) THOS. C. HOYLE, Secretary.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME

The Children's Home is now providing a real home for 162 boys and 164 girls, 326 youngsters of varying temperaments, gifts and possibilities, children who look to you for a chance to make a success in life. In addition to this large family your child-caring institution is now providing funds for 118 children through the Children's Home's mother's aid department. The Methodists of the Western North Carolina Conference are now responsible, directly and indirectly, for the welfare of 444 children, the largest number ever coming under our fostering care. Applications are one file for well over 100 additional children, whose friends are urging that they be admitted into the Children's Home.

Three hundred of our resident children are in school, 227 being enrolled in the elementary school, conducted on the Home grounds, and 73 being enrolled in the Richard J. Reynolds High School, located nearby. Our Home school is conducted through ten months in the year, so arranged that about half of the boys and girls of the first seven grades attend school in the morning and the other half in the afternoon, thus enabling the children to get text book training and vocational training, as they serve themselves and the Children's Home. The high school boys and girls are away from the Home throughout the entire school day. Our school facilities are rated very highly by the Duke Endowment.

Religious services, adapted to the needs and understanding of the boys and girls, are conducted regularly on the Home grounds. Our larger youths attend Sunday school and church services at Centenary Methodist Church, Winston-Salem. All our children above about nine years of age attend preaching services at Centenary and contribute regularly to its budget. Each child voluntarily gives a tenth of his earnings to Christian causes, the church budget being included.

The Children's Home is rated by the Duke Endowment as being one of the five best conducted child-caring institutions in North and South Carolina. This good rating has been attained at a time when the Home was living down a sizeable debt, directed by a reduced number of workers, and having to give special emphasis to essentials regardless of scoring values.

The health and happiness of our children are being carefully looked after. The condition of the buildings and grounds is in better shape than at any time during the past several years. Every cottage occupied by children has been supplied with quite a bit of new furniture, and all the interior walls on the ground floors repainted. Our farming and dairying operations are proving quite an asset to the Home and its family, both continuing to show improvement and increased productive qualities. All other training and productive departments are in good shape.

We are pleased to report that our boys and girls leaving the Children's Home are, in the main, making good at the work they are now engaged in. Fifteen are in college and eight in training to become registered nurses. Others are busily engaged in work, serving as a means of livelihood and ministering to the care and comfort of others. Close contact is maintained with these members of the family until they are well established in some gainful occupation.

We regret to report that financial receipts from the ten per cent apportionment and fifth Sunday offerings, congregational opportunities for sustaining the Children's Home family, show a continued decline. The record for the past several years is as follows:

Year	Ten Per Cent	Fifth Sunday	Total
1927 -----	$43,089.00	$15,851.00	$58,940.00
1928 -----	45,219.00	12,725.00	57,944.00
1929 -----	43,895.00	9,787.00	53,692.00
1930 -----	39,922.00	12,780.00	52,712.00
1931 -----	35,725.00	12,918.00	48,643.00
1932 to date -----	26,858.00	9,179.00	36,037.00

But for special contributions from individuals, Sunday school classes and missionary societies, in the way of clothing and other provisions, the Children's Home would not be able to operate within its income. We urge that special effort be put forth during the ensuing year for an early raising of the ten per cent apportionment and that intensified effort be made for securing enlarged fifth Sunday offerings. We earnestly urge that these two sources of income be kept separate and that no fifth Sunday offerings be used to pay the ten per cent apportionment. An increased number of children cannot be properly provided for with a decreased income.

Charles W. Gunter has been elected to membership on your Board of Trustees in place of Charles H. Ireland, deceased, and is submitted to you for confirmation.

(Signed) J. T. MANGUM, Vice-President,
GEO. F. IVEY, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON SPIRITUAL LIFE

Your Commission on Spiritual Life would commend you, and rejoice with you, in the spiritual progress shown by the reports of the Conference year now closing. We believe that our people are anxious to go forward as never before, and surely God waits to give unto us a gracious outpouring of His Spirit.

Encouraged by the reports of the past year, and with faith in God and in each other, we make the following recommendations:

1. That we face humbly our needs and the needs of our people for the deepening of our spiritual lives. This should have primary and central place in all our plans.
2. That there be added to our revival efforts, Sunday school evangelism, personal evangelism, and home visitation evangelism.
3. We wish to commend, and to encourage the continuance of the emphasis that has been given to spiritual life in our District Conferences.
4. We would urge that the pastors make an effort to enlist in some plan for daily family devotions and the giving of thanks at meals.
5. That the pastors co-operate with each other in the immediate enlistment of Methodist people as they change their place of residence, a letter of introduction to precede their arrival in a new field.
6. That special effort be made to reach the needy places. For this purpose laymen should be enlisted and preachers should volunteer their assistance without compensation other than the joy of service.
7. That the pastors lead the people by example in a more consistent prayer life; with the organizing of prayer groups for the chief purpose of intercession.
8. That we share with others the inspiration of Christian testimony, both publicly and privately, with special emphasis upon the sufficiency of our God for the times in which we live.
9. That one week of the coming Conference year, the time to be arranged by the Presiding Elders and the District Lay Leaders, we observe Methodist Loyalty Week, with a service in every church on every charge, using the following subjects for discussion:
 - (1) "Loyalty to Methodist Doctrine."
 - (2) "Loyalty to Methodist Emphasis Upon Christian Experience."
 - (3) "Loyalty to the Methodist Way of Living as Laid Down by Our General Rules."
 - (4) "Loyalty to Our Educational Program."
 - (5) "Loyalty to Our Missionary Program."
 - (6) "Loyalty to the Church."
 - (7) "Loyalty to Jesus Christ."
10. "A call to our people everywhere to live the principles of Christ in their social, industrial and political relationships so that through their very lives, men may see the Christ."
11. That February 19-25 be set apart as Loyalty Week throughout the Conference.

(Signed) W. B. DAVIS, Chairman,
HOWARD P. POWELL, Secretary.

COMMISSION ON BENEVOLENCES

Owing to present financial conditions, it is imperative that we make an unusual effort to secure the maximum payments on the General and Conference apportionments and the Voluntary Kingdom Extension offering. We have had to retrench; our offerings for the past year were less than the previous one. Our apportionments for the coming year have been substantially reduced and if every dollar apportioned is paid, much needed work must be left undone. It, therefore, behooves us all to use unusual diligence in this emergency. We have carefully studied the situation, and we recommend:

That the District Stewards meeting be held at the following times and places:

District	Place	Date	Hour
Asheville	Asheville	November 28	1:30 P. M.
Charlotte	Charlotte	November 25	2:00 P. M.
Gastonia	Gastonia	November 29	10:00 A. M.
Greensboro	Greensboro	November 28	10:00 A. M.
Marion	Marion	November 30	10:30 A. M.
Mt. Airy	Mt. Airy	November 25	9:00 A. M. and night before
Salisbury	Salisbury	November 29	1:00 P. M.
Statesville	Statesville	November 30	10:30 A. M.
Waynesville	Sylva	December 2	2:00 P. M.
Winston-Salem	Winston-Salem	December 1	10:00 A. M.

We request each Presiding Elder, at his early convenience during the month of November or December, to arrange for the holding of a Kingdom Extension Institute; that he and the District Lay Leader make a special effort to promote attendance at these meetings; and that they make them occasions of real inspiration. Following these meetings, a cultivation period in each charge should result in a large voluntary offering.

We also wish to concur in the recommendation of the Board of Lay Activities that an earnest every-member canvass be made in every charge as soon as possible.

THOS. C. HOYLE, Secretary.

DUKE FUND COMMISSION

From the first, money received from the Duke Fund went to aid in the building of churches in the country, and to support preachers in country places. Later, assistant pastors have been sent out to the country places to engage in various lines of church work.

For several years the Board of Church Extension of Louisville has placed a competent architect, Mr. H. N. Haines, at Duke University, Durham, N. C., to co-operate with Duke University and the Duke Foundation in the building of country churches. He is available for drawing plans and for supervising all kinds of church building in both town and country.

The several lines along which the Duke Foundation proceeds are well known. Details may be secured from Prof. J. M. Ormond, Durham, N. C.

The several items, with the amounts for each, during the Conference year, 1931-1932, are as follows:

CHURCH BUILDING FUND

Appropriations, 3; amount appropriated, $420.00.

CHURCH MAINTENANCE FUND

Appropriations, 159; amount appropriated, $5,385.00.

SUPERANNUATE FUND

Appropriations, 236; amount appropriated, $29,000.

ASSISTANT PASTORS

Sixty-seven assistant pastors were sent out to work on the rural circuits of North Carolina for ten weeks during the summer of 1932. Some did evangelistic work exclusively, some Cokesbury work exclusively, and some did the general work of assistant pastors.

R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

MANAGERS OF PASTORS' SCHOOL

The regular session of the Pastors' School met at Duke University last June. Though the attendance was not quite up to the usual, the work done and the spirit shown was most gratifying.

The plans for next year are shaping up well and the prospect is for an excellent program of notable teachers and preachers. One of these will be Dr. James Moffatt.

BIBLE BOARD

Holy men of old, moved by the Holy Spirit, gave a message to men from another world—the Holy Scriptures. "The Word is the Seed." The seed has life in it. Jesus said, "The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit and they are life." This word of life we want to share with the world: for from this seed grows the tree of life, whose leaves are for the healing of the nations.

Our church, with others, does a great work through the American Bible Society.

Your Board on the Bible Cause records with satisfaction the following items related to the significant service rendered during the past year by this society.

At the end of 1931 translation statistics showed that the Bible had been translated in its entirety into 172 languages, while some part of it had appeared in 752 additional languages or dialects, so that the total number of languages in which the Scriptures have been translated is 924. It is estimated that the Bible, or a part of it, appears in a new tongue as often as once every five weeks.

During 1931 special attention was given and marked progress was made toward the publication of an entirely new series of self-pronouncing Bibles and Testaments in English in a modern, bold-face type suitable for easy reading.

The Book of Psalms was made available during the year in bold-face type (brevier) at the new low price of two cents per copy.

There is no purpose of profit in the American Bible Society's activity in publishing the Scriptures, for they are sold at cost and frequently below cost.

During 1931 the Society, through its Home and Foreign agencies, distributed approximately 9,375,000 copies of Bibles, Testaments, and portions throughout the United States and in more than fifty foreign countries.

Since its institution in 1816 the Society has distributed over 238,600,000 volumes of Scriptures in over 300 languages. The Bible still retains its popularity and ranks today as the "best seller."

Your Committee would call attention to Universal Bible Sunday, promoted annually by the American Bible Society, on December 4, 1932. The theme will be "Rejoicing in Hope." Attractive material will be mailed to every pastor.

Your Committee would further remind you that the American Bible Society serves the pastor in providing stereopticon lectures on Bible work; in publishing Scriptures in various forms, including Bibles in large print; in furnishing posters, leaflets, and information for lectures, addresses, and sermons; and in publishing Hebrew and Greek Scriptures for study use.

The American Bible Society looks to the churches of America for financial support in its program. During 1931 the income from living donors fell 15.8% below that of the preceding year. Like every religious organization the Society is feeling the depression and should be generously supported in these days of financial anxiety. The budget of the Society is carefully studied by a denominational Advisory Council composed of officially appointed representatives of all the supporting denominations. This Council meets annually in New York City with the officers and Budget Committee of the Society's Board of Managers.

Your Committee respectfully presents for adoption the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The American Bible Society, in carrying on its work of increasing the circulation of the Scriptures, is engaged in a task essential to the whole Christian enterprise, be it resolved:

First: That we heartily endorse the efforts of the American Bible Society in its program of encouraging a wider circulation of the Holy Scriptures;

Second: That inasmuch as Sunday, December 4, 1932, has been designated as Universal Bible Sunday, the ministers of this body co-operate in directing the attention of their congregations on that day to the important place in the Christian faith which the Holy Scriptures occupy;

Third: That this body, recognizing that our denomination has officially recommended the giving of per cent of its benevolence budget to the American Bible Society, urge each of our churches to send its proportionate share of benevolence gifts to the Society, either through the usual benevolence channels or directly to the Society's headquarters, Bible House, Astor Place, New York City.

O. P. ADER, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON LAKE JUNALUSKA METHODIST ASSEMBLY

The receivership procured by a few creditors last June has brought a great opportunity for the Assembly.

First: A sale of the property under a court order has been agreed upon and this sale will wipe out more than half of the present debt of nearly $400,000.00.

Second: In consideration of our assignment to them of the entrance fees for ten years, the holders of the $94,000.00 of bonds have agreed to carry these bonds for ten years and will not require any payment on the bonds other than the receipts from entrance fees. Based on past receipts, this means that these bonds are entirely out of our way for ten years and will be largely and probably entirely paid by the entrance fees.

Third: In order to save the Assembly it was necessary for certain Trustees, ministers and laymen to endorse notes from time to time. About $14,000.00 of these notes are very pressing and must be paid. Also, it is necessary to raise $7,000.00 to pay taxes left over from the old corporation and a few other claims.

Fourth, having paid the above $21,000.00, the remaining debt will be about $53,000.00 held by parties friendly to the Assembly, and will not endanger the future of the Assembly.

Fifth: The new result sums up as follows: over $200,000.00 of old unsecured debts are wiped out; the bonds of $94,000.00 are automatically taken care of for ten years; the remaining debt of $53,000.00 is held by friends; and the burden of debt is so greatly relieved that the Assembly's income, outside of the entrance fees, can be made to take care of the running expenses.

All settlements agreed upon are reasonable and just and fully maintain the honor and the good faith of the church. This Conference has elected Trustees to hold and operate the Assembly and it is certainly right that it should give them reasonable aid to entirely free it of debt and greatly enlarge its usefulness to the Church and to the cause of Christ.

We recommend that A. W. Plyler be elected Trustee for a term of two years.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Committee is pleased to report that all the records examined were found to be faithfully kept with the exception of the Salisbury District record. The Secretary of the Salisbury District Conference failed to add the reports of committees. We especially commend the Secretaries of the Gastonia and Winston-

Salem Districts for the neat manner in which they kept their books. The Greensboro and Waynesville District records were not before the Committee.

R. B. CRAWFORD, Secretary.

THE JOINT COMMISSION ON METHODIST CO-OPERATION

1. We rejoice that through this Commission, and through the messages of the Fraternal Messengers sent annually to the sessions of our three Conferences, there is developing among us a fine spirit of fraternity and co-operation in Kingdom service.

2. We recommend that we continue to develop as far as practicable a co-operative program in communities where our two branches of Methodism are represented. As an item in such a program we suggest the holding of joint Training Schools for Christian Workers under the directions of the Secretaries of Religious Education of the Conferences. This could be done with teachers chosen from both denominations, the students receiving credits from their respective Boards.

3. We are in accord with the resolutions submitted by the Commissions on Church Union of the Methodist Episcopal and the Methodist Protestant General Conferences, and adopted by their recent sessions, to wit:

"That we unite . . . in recommending to our respective Commissions and through them to our General Conferences meeting in May, 1932, and 1934, the creation of continuation of Commissions authorized to begin at once after May, 1934, definite efforts on the part of the three Commissions to make and agree upon plans for the union of the three churches, and others that may enter upon the negotiations . . ."

"That we recommend that in the meantime, by prayer and fellowship and by co-operation in all good work, we labor everywhere and in all the churches to promote a spirit of union which will, before the sun goes down upon our earthly lives, make a visible as well as a spiritual union of these churches which we love."

4. Following our usual agreement that two members of the Joint Commission, representing each of the denominations, shall expire each year, we recommend that the matter of electing their successors be left to the respective Conferences concerned.

5. We recommend that John F. Kirk be nominated to succeed himself on the Commission.

(Signed) M. T. PLYLER, Chairman,
C. W. BATES, Secretary Pro Tem.

COMMISSION ON INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS

We have passed through the third successive year of industrial and financial depression. There is faint promise of early improvement. The situation is most perplexing. In a world of abundance there is chronic want. People everywhere are clamoring for work but the ease with which overproduction overtakes consumption in these disjointed times prolongs the suffering.

All will admit that this is a machine age with all the evils and perils attendant upon an era of mechanization. But the church is not willing to admit that humanity has lost the ability to use and control the machine in such a way as to make it contribute to the welfare of mankind. The church has a capital stake in all the means of production and in all the forms of its distribution until the primary needs of every human being have been met. This interest is, of course, secondary to the primary obligation to men's souls but it is no less real.

The interest of the churches does not extend to the machine further than as an instrument to serve men's needs. The machine has no soul. It is not a consumer. It has no need beyond the attention of an intelligent operator. It can not enjoy nor can it suffer. This materialistic nature of the machine is the inherent danger of our civilization. Separated from its human attendants it has no power or use. But it can serve and, therefore, must become the servant of humanity. Since the church can not save the machine, it must seek the salvation of those who make the machine, own the machine, operate the machine and of those who use the product of the machine. Without the integrating power of religion operating upon the souls of these, the machine will, in evil hands, become a horrible monster that will destroy our civilization.

It is useless to blame the machine with our present distress. Since it is purely mechanical, its place is incidental. The economic fallacy which holds that the machine is an evil because it increases production and, at the same time displaces human labor, is full of error. Any contrivance that lifts the burden of toil from the backs of men and at the same time gives increased satisfaction to his needs can not be evil. The acceptance of the heresy of inherent evil in material things makes possible the evils arising from exploitation and greed. Moral questions must be settled by moral beings. Immoral men must not be permitted to assign their sins to immoral machines.

This year has been disturbed by many industrial upheavals. A new form of strike has been developed and operated. The workers have organized local unions directed by local leaders. In this way the workers have won a larger measure of local sympathy and support. This seems a distinct gain in that the issues involved were not beclouded by the introduction of extraneous issues. Most of these troubles were settled amicably and with some gain to the workers. Others failed to reach any set objective.

While our people are restive under continued deprivation, they, as a whole, remain loyal to our forms of government. The recent political campaign has been waged around questions of little moment. Moral issues have been made subservient to political expediency. Real relief from our distress found little place in the discussion. So the burden again falls where it has always fallen. The church must take up again the ancient burden and carry on with a will until sane common sense is again illuminated by the mind and will of Christ our Lord. Little of our boasted prosperity remains but enough is left for Christian sharing. And the deepest suffering does not seek but must be sought.

At our last session, a resolution was proposed by your Commission and adopted by the Conference, relating to the distribution of surplus cotton and wheat then in the hands of the Federal Farm Board. Letters of appreciation came from many quarters in the official life of the nation. Our request has been enacted into law and millions of our hungry and poorly clad citizens have been relieved. This good work still continues and will do much to ameliorate conditions through the approaching winter. Part of the surplus wheat was sent to alleviate the millions of flood sufferers in China and thus the second item of your request found favor in the eyes of your government. Our sincere thanks are due all those in official life who gave support to this movement.

Our state legislature will soon be in session once more. Much legislation favored by this Conference has already been enacted into law. From our statement of objectives of two years ago three items have not received favorable action. We ask for your reaffirmation of these principles.

Since our last meeting in Conference, the Council of Religious and Civic Agencies has been organized. The Council seeks the same objectives and asks us to unite with them in forwarding such legislation. Your Commission joins with the Board of Temperance and Social Service in requesting this Conference to become a member of the Council and to elect representatives in that body. Its membership is confined to organizations in North Carolina and is a state project in plan and purpose.

Progress is slow and the way is won step by step. Let us not weary because the way is long nor falter because the opposition is powerful. The church of the living God stands for the right—right in every thing; right in every way; right in every relation; and, the Kingdom of God will be established in righteousness. The means by which men live is a part of that Kingdom and must be brought into subjection to Him.

Let every devout Methodist pray without ceasing that God may give us light to see and to solve these problems that now perplex us. There is a way. There is a solution. Only eyes that see by faith can find it.

(Signed) W. A. NEWELL, Chairman,
R. M. COURTNEY, Secretary.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MINUTES

The annual meeting of the Historical Society of the Western North Carolina Conference was held in Centenary Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, at 2:30 p. m., Thursday, November the 10th, 1932. The President of the Society, Dr. Paul N. Garber, presided.

The devotional service consisted of the singing of Hymn 415, "Faith of Our Fathers," followed by a Scripture reading from the eleventh chapter of Hebrews and prayer by Rev. W. A. Rollins.

The minutes of last year's session were read and approved. Rev. W. L. Sherrill, of the Executive Committee, made explanation of the loss of last year's collection: that the Secretary, W. G. McFarland, immediately after the collection, deposited the funds for safe keeping in the office safe of Central Church, and that the subsequent robbery of the church safe lost these funds along with other amounts belonging to the local church; that the Secretary's prudence was to be commended, although an unforeseen result was the loss of the collection.

A Nominating Committee, consisting of W. L. Sherrill, J. H. Armbrust, and C. P. Bowles, was appointed by the chair.

A collection to meet the expenses of the Society was taken, and $17.41 was contributed. This sum was paid to the Advocate Publishing Company on account for printing.

The Committee on Nominations made its report, recommending for President, Dr. E. K. McLarty; Vice-President, Dr. S. B. Turrentine; Secretary-Treasurer, W. G. McFarland; member Executive Committee succeeding himself, C. M. Pickens; and they were elected.

Dr. Garber then presented Rev. W. E. Poovey, Presiding Elder of the Mt. Airy District, who delivered a most interesting and inspiring address on "Beginnings of Methodism on the Branches of the Yadkin and Beyond."

A rising vote of thanks was given Brother Poovey for this address, and the Society adjourned with benediction by Brother Rollins.

(Signed) PAUL N. GARBER, President,
W. G. McFARLAND, Secretary.

CONFERENCE BROTHERHOOD

The Western North Carolina Conference Brotherhood met in twenty-fourth annual session in Memorial Chapel, Centenary Church, Winston-Salem, N. C., Friday, November 11, 1932, at 2:30 p. m. W. L. Sherrill, President, was in the chair, and conducted the devotional service, calling on P. E. Parker to lead the prayer. Minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. The Treasurer's report showed that W. R. Ware, A. W. Jacobs, D. S. Richardson and J. A. Cook were the members of the Brotherhood who have died during the year. Due the beneficiaries of these claims, $4,800.00. Paid on these claims, $2,800.00. Balance due on claims, $2,000.00. Amount on hand, $2,896.41. It was suggested by Ebenezer Myers that an organization similar to the Brotherhood be organized by the preachers' wives. This matter was referred to a Committee composed of R. M. Courtney, W. E. Poovey and H. C. Sprinkle. A Committee to solicit members during the Conference was appointed. A proposed amendment to the constitution offered one year ago was withdrawn. An audit of the books of the Secretary-Treasurer was ordered.

The following amendment to the constitution was offered: "That whereas each clerical member of the Brotherhood now pays five dollars on the death of a clerical member, that our regulation be so changed that when one superannuates that he be required to pay just two dollars instead." This was signed by E. N. Crowder.

Officers were elected as follows: President, W. L. Sherrill; Vice-President, H. G. Allen; Secretary-Treasurer, C. M. Pickens. G. D. Herman and H. C. Sprinkle were appointed as members of the Executive Committee.

(Signed) W. L. SHERRILL, President,
C. M. PICKENS, Secretary-Treasurer.

REV. RUFUS KING BRADY

Rev. Rufus King Brady was born in Randolph County in 1871. Here he grew to manhood, working on his father's farm and attending the public schools of the neighborhood. He then pursued his education further in Shiloh Academy. Here he took high rank and was recognized as one of the brightest students in the school.

While a mere boy he professed faith in Christ and joined the Christian Church at Shiloh.

After a few years spent on his farm and in teaching in the public schools of the county he was licensed to preach. Then, after two or three years, he transferred his membership from the Christian to the M. E. Church, South, and was received into the Western North Carolina Conference on trial at Hickory, in 1909. At this Conference he was assigned to Burnsville Circuit. After leaving Burnsville he was in the Salisbury District ten years, serving the following charges: Bethel-Big Lick, four years; West Concord, three years; East Spencer, two years; Salisbury Circuit, one year. Other charges served were: Prospect, Lowesville, Hudson, Moravian Falls, Wilkesboro.

At the Statesville Conference, in 1925, he was transferred to the South Georgia Conference, where he served for three years on the Herbarville and Plains charges of that Conference. He was then transferred back to this Conference in 1928 and appointed to the Delwood charge. In 1929 to Fines Creek. In the spring of 1931, at his own request, he was released from this charge by the Bishop and moved to a farm near Guilford College. At Asheville Conference in November, 1931, he was granted the superannuate relation and continued to live on his farm.

On April 20th, 1932, he died suddenly while riding along the highway with two friends near Climax, N. C., being in the sixty-first year of his age.

Brother Brady was twice married; first, to Miss Nettie Cheek of Randolph County. To this union two children were born, one of whom, a daughter, still survives. His second marriage was to Miss Flora Sugg of Erect, N. C. To this union there are five surviving children, two sons and three daughters, as follows: Harold K., Ruth Kate, Mary E., Juanita S., and Hugh Parks, who, with their mother, mourn his going.

Brother Brady had good natural ability which he had improved by study, and was a ready and fluent speaker and a good preacher. He was faithful in his work and laid down his mantle without a spot. He was also a thirty-second degree Mason, his membership being in Salisbury, N. C.

On April 22nd, in the cemetery of the church of his boyhood at Shiloh, in the midst of a large gathering of sorrowing friends, we laid his body to rest until the resurrection morning.

W. T. ALBRIGHT.

REV. JOSEPH ALBERT COOK

Joseph Albert Cook, the son of Anderson and Nancy Booker Cook, was born near Mount Airy, N. C., March 7, 1854, and died in Asheville, N. C., July 13, 1932.

Brother Cook was educated in the public schools of Hawkins County, Tenn., and at St. Clair High School. He felt the call to preach in boyhood but, like many others, he waited until he felt, "Woe is me if I preach not the Gospel." Having answered the call, he was licensed to preach January 5, 1876, at the age of twenty-two. He was received on trial in the Holston Conference at Knoxville, Tenn., in 1878, was ordained Deacon by Bishop McTyrie at Wytheville, Va., October 30, 1881, and was ordained Elder by the same Bishop at Abingdon, Va., October 9, 1887.

The dates, 1854 to 1932, measure the length of his life but there is nothing by which we can measure the breadth and height and depth. If we measure by the rule that Christ used, "By their fruits ye shall know them," then we may know something of the imperishable values within his life.

During the fifty-four years of his ministerial life he served the following charges: in the Holston Conference, 1879, Junior Preacher on Liberty Hill Circuit; 1880, McDowell Mission; 1881, Buchanan Mission; 1882-84, Fall Branch Circuit; 1885-88, Clinton Circuit; 1889-90, Staffordsville; 1891-92, Elk Creek.

In the Western N. C. Conference he served the following: 1893, Jefferson; 1894-96, Polkville Circuit; 1897-98, Forest City; 1899-1900, Polkville Circuit; 1901-03, Franklin District; 1904-05, Mount Airy District; 1906-07, Haywood Street, Asheville.

At the Conference in 1907 he transferred to the South Carolina Conference where he served the following charges: 1908, Greer; 1909-10, Ninety-Six Island; 1911-13, Inman; 1914, Jonesville; 1915-16, Duncan Street, Spartanburg.

In 1916 he came back to this Conference and served the following charges: 1917-20, Sylva; 1921, Randleman; 1922-23, Mount Airy Circuit; 1924, Pilot Mountain; 1925, Randleman; 1926, superannuated; 1927, Mount Airy Circuit. In 1928 he superannuated and moved to Asheville where he lived until his death.

When the writer, as a little boy, first knew Brother Cook, he got the impression of a man who was strong in body, vigorous in mind, and fervent in spirit. He did not have the educational advantages of the present age in his preparation but he was a diligent student of both books and men. He was always found in the thick of every fight for the building of God's Kingdom and the promotion of civic righteousness. While pastor of Haywood Street Church, in Asheville, he, along with four others, began the movement which resulted in driving saloons out of the city.

He was a builder as well as a preacher. He built churches at Clinton, Tenn., Jonesville, S. C., Polkville, N. C., and Sylva. He built or completed churches or parsonages at twenty-two other places. When he became pastor at Polkville Circuit there was no Methodist Church in Polkville. At a session of the Quarterly Conference, when the question was asked, "Where shall the next Conference be held?" Brother Cook answered, "Polkville." The members of the Conference smiled, for there was no church at that point. The following three months were busy ones, for the preacher, along with others, set to work to build a church which was completed and ready for the next Quarterly Conference.

Very few men, after serving a charge once, are sent back but he went back to three charges: Polkville Circuit, Mount Airy Circuit, and Randleman. All his work was not on circuits. He served as Presiding Elder on the Franklin and Mount Airy Districts.

He was a man of strong convictions, yet he was willing for others to think differently. His preaching was clear and simple. He not only preached for something but he also preached against something; he believed that Christ came into the world to save people from their sins. Sin to him was not something to be excused but something to be repented of if one expected to find the Kingdom of God. The Holy Spirit was God working in the penitent heart to bring conscious salvation.

He lived and labored during the days when great revivals were held, when people came to the altar and were gloriously saved. In the evening of his life, as he lay upon his bed in his modest home, he lived again through the experiences of other days, calling by name many people who had been brought to God by his ministry, nor did he leave out his mistakes as he talked of other days; he knew and acknowledged his own limitations. The treasure was in an earthen vessel but its glory shined through.

In all the years of labor and service there walked by his side Julia Yost Cook, to whom he was married February 3, 1879, to which union twelve children were born, nine of whom, along with his wife, wait on this side to follow in his steps up the hill to God.

Thus lived and labored a great soul until God called him away. His last appointment was not made by an earthly Bishop but by the Bishop of his soul. He will never transfer any more, for his present appointment will last through eternity. No, he is not dead. The Angel of death came and loosed the chains which held him in this earthly prison house and that fine spirit which yearned, and prayed, and loved, has arrived in the presence of Him whom he served.

Most of his life was spent on country circuits; however, we are not to think lightly of this for no one is able to fully estimate the value of the Methodist circuit rider in the building of our American civilization. He was a prophet of the long road, keeping step with that vast company who have heard the call of God and have gone out seeking a city which hath foundations whose maker and builder is God. In his last will and testament is expressed the desire that his children might do as he did, put the Kingdom of God first in their lives.

Words can not tell the story as it really is, nor does his happiness depend upon what we say or think. His hope was in God. "If God be for us, who can be against us?" He found the pearl of great price and went and sold all that he had and bought it. Then he gave his life to the high business of being an ambassador for Christ.

The funeral service was held in Haywood Street Church, Asheville, July 15, 1932, conducted by Reverends T. A. Groce, Carlock Hawk, and the writer. The body was laid to rest in Green Hill Cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

W. A. ROLLINS.

REV. ANTHONY WAYNE JACOBS

Rev. Anthony Wayne Jacobs was born August 17th, 1852, in Dandridge, Tenn. Early in his youth the family moved to the beautiful valley of the Cullasaja in Macon County, N. C. Here Uncle Wayne, as he was affectionately known, grew to manhood; and here he returned to spend his declining years. Early in life he professed saving faith in Christ and united with the Salem M. E. Church, South. What contributions of the best in life have the Salems made to humanity! In this church he served efficiently as an official until he moved to Dillsboro, N. C., where he entered the mercantile business. In 1880 he was happily married to Miss Margaret Louisa Gray, who became a model wife for a preacher. She was a constant source of inspiration to him until failing health forced them to ask for and receive the superannuate relation.

Uncle Wayne was licensed to preach August 18th, 1888, by the Webster Quarterly Conference, when Dr. J. H. Weaver was the Presiding Elder. In October, of the same year, he was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference at Asheville, N. C. His first appointment was to the Highlands-Glenville Mission. After the division of the Holston and N. C. Conferences, his lot was cast with Western N. C. Conference, where he faithfully served the following appointments: 1890-92, Franklin Circuit; 1893-94, Hayesville; 1895, Webster-Cullowhee; 1896, North Haywood; 1897-99, Haywood; 1900-01, Ivy; 1902, Shoal Creek and Cherokee Mission; 1903, Whittier and Cherokee Mission; 1904, Bryson City; 1905, Yadkinville; 1906, Pilot Mountain; 1907, Spray; 1908, Stoneville and Mayodan. It was while here that his wife's failing health became such that they returned to Macon County, in April, and went to Warm Springs, Texas, later, where they remained for several months. His next appointment was to the Macon Circuit, in 1909. Here he became the pastor of the writer of this sketch—and a most sympathetic and helpful pastor he was to a young man seeking an education in preparation for the ministry. Due to the great suffering of his wife, and the fact that her comfort called for his constant attention, he was superannuated in 1910—the last year he was on the Macon Circuit.

The records show that his was a useful and fruitful ministry. During these twenty-two years in the ministry he built four churches and two parsonages at a total cost of $6,243, while he improved ten churches and eight parsonages at a total cost of $2,636. He baptized 187 infants and 267 adults; while he added to the membership of the churches he served 336 on profession of faith and 476 by certificate or otherwise, making in all 812—a remarkable record. Moreover, one of the last entries in the records as preserved by himself reads: "I started three preachers in the traveling ministry," while the last entry reveals: "Largest annual salary, $450.50; smallest, $90.11."

Brother Jacobs' superannuation did not by any means end his good works, for his interest in the Kingdom never abated. Some worthy project was ever being planned, prayed for and executed. His last will and testament provides that the whole of his Brotherhood benefit should go to the Children's Home, while Weaver College was given $1,000.00 in notes. The N. C. Christian Advocate list of subscribers in Macon County was lengthened on many occasions because of his effort. He preached in convict camps, organized and conducted Sunday schools in the out-of-the-way places, and even, when very feeble and physically unequal to the strain, attended the Ecumenical Methodist Conference in Atlanta last year, and our last annual session at Asheville.

Following several years of declining health, this aged and honored superannuate entered the mansions of rest January 20th, 1932. The funeral was held at Salem, his childhood church. The rites were conducted by his pastor, H. C. Freeman of the Franklin Circuit, assisted by Revs. L. B. Hayes, O. P. Ader, J. L. Teague and J. C. Umberger. His body was interred in the Salem church yard. Peace be to his ashes.

REV. DAVID S. RICHARDSON

Rev. David S. Richardson, son of D. C. Richardson and Mary Ragsdale Richardson, was born in Davie County, North Carolina, July 2, 1865. In August, 1880, when he was fifteen years old, he was born of the spirit and entered upon a long life of spiritual experience and Christian growth. Joining the church at the time of his conversion, he felt called at once to the work of the Christian ministry. Reared in the country, he attended at first the country schools of his day, then he studied to further prepare himself at Cross Roads Academy, and, later still, better prepared himself by taking a course of study in Oskaloosa Theological College in Iowa.

In 1887 he was happily married to Miss Sallie C. Powell, of Iredell County, who proved to be a true helpmeet. After having taught three years in the public schools but never having given up his determination to enter the ministry, he began his work as a Methodist preacher.

In 1889, in Asheville, N. C., he joined the Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church and served as pastor the following charges in that Conference: Gastonia, 1890-91; Huntersville, 1892; Clyde, 1893; Canton, 1894-

95; Statesville Mission, 1896; Yadkinville, 1897; Wilkes, 1898-99; Harmony, 1900-01; Trap Hill, 1902.

In 1903 he became a member of the Western North Carolina Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at its session held in High Point. In this Conference he rendered faithful and efficient service for more than twenty-eight years, serving in the following charges: Creston, 1904; North Catawba, 1905; Spruce Pine, 1906-08; McDowell, 1909-12; Stony Point, 1913; Davidson, 1914; Leicester, 1915; Macon, 1916-17; Broad River, 1918-21; Ansonville, 1922-24; North Monroe, 1925-26; Taylorsville, 1927-28; Morganton Circuit, 1929-31; and Gilkey, from the last session of our Conference until his death, January 29, 1932.

From the above, it will be seen that more than half of his ministry in the Western North Carolina Conference was spent within the bounds of the Marion District. Under his ministry, more than twelve hundred persons joined the church on profession of faith. Most of these were received in the Marion District.

Those who knew him best appreciated him most. He impressed people with the genuineness of his spiritual life. His consciousness of his experience in the new birth gave boldness to his testimony. His consciousness of God, of sin, and of the human need of salvation as provided in Jesus Christ, gave him a great passion for souls. His preaching was evangelical. People were convicted and converted in great numbers under his ministry. He accepted his call to preach as from God and prepared carefully to preach. When the time came for him to be at his appointment, he was there on time. Many times through storm and over rough roads he went when few expected a congregation. The need of the hour appealed to him more than the size of the crowd. It may well be said of our brother that he followed the Master not for the "loaves and fishes" but for "the bread which cometh down from heaven." That bread was life to him and he wanted to bear it from the hands of Jesus to the people whom God had gathered together before him.

For all people he had a genuine love and sympathy. In his home, perhaps, he showed it best, but he loved people wherever he found them. Into homes of sorrow and trouble he went as a true pastor. Many an hour he spent helping old people and poor people. Many a mile he traveled to bring the helpless to God's altar in the church. He leaves a record of which I believe Jesus will say, "Well done."

When he was appointed to Gilkey charge, he entered gladly and happily upon a work and a fellowship with the people which he said gave him great satisfaction in his appointment. He appeared strong and well and did his work so acceptably in the first few weeks that he won the confidence and love of the whole charge. Then there came a slight stroke of paralysis. His people and his fellow pastors in the Marion District stood ready to carry on his work till he could recover, as it seemed he would, but after a few weeks he became much worse and gradually failed in strength till on Friday night, January 29, he passed peacefully to be with the Christ whom he had followed so long.

Brother Richardson leaves to feel most keenly the loss, his faithful wife, two sons: A. M. Richardson of Erwin, Tenn., and A. J. Richardson of Charlotte, N. C., and three daughters: Mrs. Lillian Cabe and Mrs. Elsie Pendergrass of Franklin, N. C., and Miss Vivian Richardson of Rutherford College, N. C. It was fitting that his body should have been carried back to Morganton, where he spent the last three years of his fruitful ministry and laid to rest in the presence of so many of the people whom he had faithfully served as pastor. Twenty of his brethren in the ministry were present either to take part in the funeral or to offer a loving, though silent, tribute in memory of our brother and friend. We thank God for his life in this world and believe we shall meet him in heaven.

REV. WILLIAM REYNOLD WARE
(1859-1932)

"Through such souls alone
God, stooping, shows sufficient of His light
For us i' the dark to rise by.

—Browning.

"Caparisoned in gems unseen" and "garlanded with his good name," the immortal spirit of William Reynold Ware forsook its tenement of dust and marched with the shining armor into the presence of God early on the morning of January 9, 1932. Two months before, he had retired from the honored ranks of the itineracy, a victim of disease more rapidly destructive than he knew. Forty-seven years of faithful, fruitful ministry were behind him.

Conscious to the end, life's last spark kindled intercessory prayer for his beloved and for his friends by name. In prayer my father found the strength of invincible personal confidence. It was communion on the basis of unalloyed love.

He was born in Shelby, North Carolina, April 26, 1859. Godly parents gave his upbringing devoted care. Life around him was sweet in Christian graces. His people led in noble enterprises in their day. Never did my father forget the force of his father's character nor the beauty of his mother's love. Never did he cease to speak their worth.

When he felt called unto the ministry, he left the labor of the farm, to study and to graduate from Catawba College. Years later this institution conferred on him an honorary doctor's degree. After graduation, he spent three years in the School of Religion at Vanderbilt University, from which, in 1884, he graduated with honors in course. Few there were who had the advantage of both college and seminary training in that trying post-war period. At the Conference at Wilmington, in 1884, he was given his first appointment, Plymouth. From then on he served the following charges: Washington, 1887-1890; Reidsville, 1891-94; Monroe, Central, 1895-97; Shelby District, 1898-1901; Centenary, Winston-Salem, 1902-03; First, Salisbury, 1904; Central, Monroe, 1905-07; Main Street, Gastonia, 1908; Greensboro District, 1909-12; Salisbury District, 1913-15; Statesville District, 1916-17; North Wilkesboro, 1918-21; Central, Albemarle, 1922; First, Morganton, 1923-24; Forest City, 1925-26; Rutherfordton, 1927-29; Walkertown, 1930; Glenwood, Greensboro, 1931.

He was happily married August 27, 1886, to Miss Allie Driver Brown, a choice young woman of Greenville, N. C. Seven children were born into their home. The widow and Mrs. C. A. Kriechbaum, Wm. R., Jr., Henry M., Mrs. J. L. Rendleman, R. Dwight and E. Spencer, together with ten grandchildren, survive. Naomi Key, a daughter, died in infancy. Beautiful and radiant was the sweetness of the wife's and husband's affection.

After the funeral services from West Market Street Church, in Greensboro, directed by Revs. W. A. Newell, C. C. Weaver, H. G. Hardin and A. W. Plyler, the body was taken to Shelby for interment, and there another service was held under the leading of Bishop Edwin D. Mouzon and Revs. E. K. McLarty and A. L. Stanford.

"After life's fitful fever, he sleeps well."

At the time of his death, my father was president of the Conference Board of Trustees, vice-president of the Brotherhood, and a trustee of Rutherford College. In other years he held important Board and Committee responsibilities.

Dominating his character was a forthright, sincere Christian manhood, thoroughly consecrated to the calling of his Lord. Determined in his devotion to high principles, he fearlessly drew his sword to defend them, daring at times to stand alone, but always standing. Yet his heart was tender, and his was ever a forgiving spirit. No one could question the steadfastness of my father. He did not know what it was to calculate or compromise. Impartial in his judgments, he nevertheless grappled his friends to his heart with hoops of steel. He was a gentleman always and never shaken from a noble purpose. "He carried his adornments on his soul."

His Christian experience was born of an inner witness whose fidelity grew richer with the passing on of years. Sure of the foundation of his faith, his trumpet for the Lord never made uncertain sound. He was happiest when working as an evangel of God. I have seen his face alight with heavenly joy when some contrite sinner found a heavenly Father's pardoning grace. The souls of men and the church which served them was indeed the passion of his life.

His sermons were built from the substance of his soul. Courage at his side, he made the sharp truth ring like golden spurs. Yet in them there was a tender compassion for the forgotten and those in need. With Goldsmith's parson he was "In duty prompt at every call,

He watched and wept and prayed for all."

Diligent as a shepherd, the people loved him and sought him in their need. "He had a flair for livingness."

To me the most interesting study of my father was the reverent hunger of his soul, in later years for the larger God of modern understanding. With the mellow spirit and the crusading soldier, he combined the eager, inquiring mind, and grew in Christ-like excellence to the end. That end was consciously climactic; for counting three years in the unordained relation, he had a half century of ministerial service, effective almost all the while; and came to rejoice that his work would be carried on by one whom his own hand, by the gracious thoughtfulness of his beloved Bishop, had directly helped to ordain.

In the words of Cyrano, Rostand would let my father say

"There is one crown I bear away with me
And tonight when I enter before God
My salute shall sweep the stars away
From the blue threshold! One thing without stain,
Unspotted from the world, in spite of doom
Mine own!—and that is—that is—my white plume!"

When the immortal Lee learned that Stonewall Jackson had died at Chancellorsville, he turned abruptly from the messenger, fixed his eyes on the ground and said, "General Jackson, if tonight you stand in the company of Caesar and Napoleon, tell them we still make war." So as one who respects beyond measure the uncommon consecration of my father's life and the singleness of his holy purpose, I take in hand unworthily his unstained spiritual sword and wear unworthily his mantle unsoiled and looking on the field of battle, shout to my saintly father, even yet a soldier, somewhere, of the Living God, Father—"I and your beloved comrades still make war!"

My father was a friend of God.

HEROINES OF THE PARSONAGE WHO, DURING THIS CONFERENCE YEAR, HAVE DIED

Mrs. Adolphus T. Bell was born in Yorkshire, England, April 6, 1854. She was married to Rev. A. T. Bell, in Durham Cathedral (England), March 3, 1874.

An invalid for many years, she was patient in affliction; consecrated to her Lord; a faithful wife, mother, friend. She passed to her reward in peace from Greensboro, N. C., on July 6, 1932.

* * * *

Mrs. Clara (Martin) Goode, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Martin, of Shelby, and beloved wife of Rev. Watson O. Goode, came to the end of her pilgrimage on March 19, 1932, and her body was laid to rest in the Shelby cemetery.

She was an earnest Christian, an inspiration and help to her husband in his pastoral work and was loved by the people in the various charges which he served.

In affliction her faith was unruffled, for she knew Him in whom she placed her trust. As she came to the end she said: "How wonderful is this experience; the music is grander than any heard in church or cathedral, and I see the singers, many of whom hover so close to me."

* * * *

Mrs. T. G. Highfill, born in Bethlehem, Penn., September 12, 1906, was married to Rev. T. G. Highfill March 30, 1929, and died in Sylva, N. C., February 8, 1932.

She filled her sphere with music until called to the Choir Invisible.

* * * *

Mrs. Celia Clementina Holloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Graybeal, was born in Ashe County December 2, 1872. In 1909 she married to Rev. J. G. W. Holloway and died at Granite Falls on October 11, 1932.

She was a devout Christian, faithful to every task and constant in every relation to her family, to her church and to society.

* * * *

Mrs. Sarah Bailey Lee (October 29, 1841-December 29-1931), daughter of the late Braxton B. and Jane (Johnston) Bailey of Mocksville, was married October 3, 1872, to Rev. W. D. Lee, who died in 1880.

She possessed rare native intellect; was broadly cultured; was consecrated to the service of God; gave generously to the church and other worthy causes, and was a devout communicant of the Methodist Church from childhood.

She wrought well for full four score years and ten, suffered affliction patiently and then in peace went to the Mansion above.

"She hath done what she could."

Mrs. Lelia (Conley) Little, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Conley, was born in McDowell County March 6, 1859; married to Rev. C. G. Little May 17, 1881, and passed to her eternal reward January 21, 1932.

To her church and community she gave loyal and valued service;
To her home and friends she gave herself in Christian love.

Mrs. Flora (Pickens) Stover was a daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Pickens. She married to Rev. J. T. Stover October 18, 1881, and went to her heavenly home February 14, 1932.

She was born in a parsonage and dwelt in parsonages as she went with her husband to his many fields of labor. She was a model wife and mother and her whole life was dedicated to the task of serving the Lord, as she served her family and her church.

* * * *

Mrs. J. H. West, wife of Rev. J. H. West, after a lingering illness was received into the everlasting habitations from Brevard, N. C., on January 26, 1932.

It has been beautifully said of her:

"She was a typical mother, loving and self-sacrificing always, until her body refused to do her behests, and then she had to sit quietly and accept with appreciation, the loving service of those she had so faithfully served.

"Her children have already risen up and called her blessed. Her husband realized the strength and help of such a courageous companion. Her friends relied on the love and loyalty of one whom they could trust.

"What more would she have asked and what more could we ask, than the memory of such a life."

Mrs. W. H. Cooper, widow of the late Rev. W. H. Cooper, died at Whittier in this year (1932).

* * * *

Mrs. J. T. Lyon, widow of the late Rev. J. T. Lyon, died in Rockingham on August 26, 1932.

The Secretary was not furnished with material facts concerning the four last mentioned and after diligent effort failed to secure data, save that these, in faith triumphant, passed to their eternal reward.

CHARLES H. IRELAND

Charles Henry Ireland, son of Captain James Ireland and Henrietta Lou Pointer Ireland, was born at Lovingsston, Nelson County, Virginia, March 12, 1859. His education included efficient instruction under Henry L. Davies, author of well known text-books and noted educator.

In 1882 he became identified with the Odell Hardware Company in Greensboro.

While known as a busy man, giving strict attention to his private affairs, he was also noted for his public spirit shown in civic, moral, educational and religious interests. As a Christian citizen he was loyal to the principles of civic righteousness. Standing firm on the right side of a moral issue he made priceless contributions to the promotion of municipal reform, of temperance and other causes that make for the betterment of a community and a commonwealth.

Included in outstanding service for the public welfare is the service rendered in behalf of saving and of promoting Greensboro College. In the series of financial and fiery ordeals through which this time-honored institution of learning passed, including particularly the years 1903 and 1904, he threw himself wholeheartedly into the constructive programs for rescuing and equipping the college for enlarged usefulness. In 1903 he made a generous initial pledge and assisted in the campaign for raising the required amount of $25,000 to save the college from sale. In 1904 he assumed heavy responsibilities including a larger initial pledge for the rebuilding of the college from the ashes. From 1900 he served on the Executive Committee of the Official Board and from 1904 he also served as Secretary of the Official Board of the college.

Following the rebuilding of the college he continued to manifest deep interest in the institution by aiding in raising endowment and in enlarging the college plant and equipment. Throughout these years he was inspired with a sense of the sacredness and righteousness of the cause involved.

At an early age Mr. Ireland joined the Methodist Church, and was a member of Court Street Methodist Church, Lynchburg, Virginia. Soon after coming to Greensboro he united with West Market Street Church where his religious activities continued abundant. Of him it was said: "In his program of life, the interests of the church came first."

For about 50 years he was a member of the Board of Stewards of West Market Street Church, serving about 25 years as chairman. The Ireland Bible Class is a worthy monument to the popular and beneficial service rendered by him over a period of about 40 years.

His service rendered in connection with the church at large was also varied and efficient. For many years he was trustee of the Children's Home at Winston-Salem. He was a pioneer of the lay activity movement of the M. E. Church, South, and for many years lay leader of the Western North Carolina Conference. He was member of the Conference Board of Missions about 30 years, and he answered 41 roll calls of his annual Conference. In 1921 he attended the Methodist Ecumenical Conference in London.

He had the elements of leadership. Endowed with an impressive personality and having a pleasing spirit, he readily attracted favorable attention in private and in public. He was imbued with an enthusiasm adapted to inspire others to co-operate for the achievement of a common enterprise.

Having the courage of his convictions he spoke fearlessly in behalf of what he regarded to be right. After espousing such causes he would, without compromise, advocate the principles involved without regard to winning popularity.

Endowed with physical vigor, clear thought, decisive will and indefatigable energy, he was enabled during his long, busy life to make a great and varied contribution to the betterment of humankind which cannot be estimated.

During his last illness he stated that it was worth all that he was suffering to know the love of so many friends.

He repeatedly spoke of the scene at the lake of Galilee when Jesus asked Peter: "Lovest thou me?" Mr. Ireland stated that he never knew the love of Jesus as he had during his illness.

He also said that if he could be spared he had a message of deeper and stronger import than he had ever been able to give.

To one who tenderly ministered to his needs he gave assurance of his readiness to depart, saying: "It is only a step to Heaven!"

For several weeks he had been spending the time with some members of the family and others at his winter home in Melbourne, Florida. It was there, just after spring had arrived and while Easter was near, about 4 o'clock in the serene afternoon of Tuesday, March 22, 1932, that Charles H. Ireland gently fell asleep!
